Ross-IRWIN.-In the presence of a large number of invited guests Miss Gertrude Irwin and Mr. Elmer Elsworth Ross were united in marriage, the ceremony having been celebrated at the palatial country home of the Irwins, at Jacksonville, on Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30. Rev. T. J. Scott, of the Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergymau.

Owing to recent deaths in the groom's family it was not made as much of an event as the prominence of the parties would suggest, but the day was so ideal and the home was so rich in the decorations of gorgeous fall flowers and colorings that it proved a beautiful wedding indeed.

Miss Sue Irwin, a sister of the bride, was her maid and Mr. Ross Lowder, a nephew of the groom, was his best man. The bride is a daughter of the late Wm. Irwin and is a highly accomplished young woman. Her husband is a son of the late Maj. Irvin Ross and is a junior partner in the mercantile, grain and coal business of J. I. Ross & Son at Lemont.

After an informal little reception and a breakfast the young couple departed for Niagara and points in Canada. Upon their return they will occupy the Ross home at Lemont, which is being remodeled for them.

-Miss Bessie Mae Noll and Mr. Chas. F. Sheffer, of Muncy, were married at the home of the bride in Millheim, last Thursday morning, at 6 o'clock. Only members of the family were present and Rev. T. M. Haven, of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The wedding, though quite unostentatious, was very effective and the bride looked charming in her gown of white mull and lace, with a bouquet of bride's roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lumbert J. Noll. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and the young couple departed for a tour to eastern cities, after which they will reside in Muncy, where the groom is a partner in the West Branch Creamery Co.

WAS LIPTON'S GUEST-Bellefonters will remember, with more than ordinary interest, the recent exciting international yacht races between the Columbia and Shamrock II, because a former resident of our town is a cousin and was entertained by the gallant Irish Knight, Sir Thomas Lipton. We refer to James Lipton Esq., of Downs, Kansas, who was once Prothon otary of Centre county.

He is a cousin of Sir Thomas and when the latter arrived in this country he sent for James, inviting him to be his guest aboard the Erin during the championship races.

FLUNG THEIR FLAG TO THE BREEZE .-Yesterday the Union party opened headquarters in the Arcade in this place and flung to the breeze a 12x18 flag bearing the inscription :

"For Supreme Court Justice," Harmon Yerkes; for State Treasurer, E. A. Coray. Honest government by honest officials."

Only two dozen of the frisky tribe and three fat gobblers were brought in by our nimrods on the first day of the season. A. M. Brown is down in West Virginia looking after his extensive lumber interests. He expects to bring home a car load of choice cattle.

Communion services will be held in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Preparatory services will be held Saturday morning at eleven o'clock.

C. E. Snook, who recently purchased the William Gates property at Rock Springs, has vacated his home at the Junction and is now snugly located with his little family in more comfortable quarters.

back. C. N. Kryder is making preparations to go to Pocohontus county, West Va., where he will be engaged for the next year in operating a large saw mill. He is a tip top fellow and is going into the lumbering business to make it pay.

Charley Martz is arranging for a trip to Mt. Carmel, the home of his youth. From there he will go to Gettysburg to be present at the reunion of the 21st Pa. Cavalry, of which he was a member. The reunion takes place on the 25th.

Mr. Houtz was stooping for some reason when some one on the the cross loft let a pitch fork drop down. almost went through his body entering near the spine and penetrating one lung. He is in a precarious condition, but his attending physician has hopes of his recovery.

John Wiland, probably better known to his old associates here as Jack, died at his home in Blandsburg, Pa., September 30th, at a ripe old age. He was well known in this section in the fifties and he enlisted in Co. D, of the famous 49th Regt. Later he was transferred to Co. C. He was a good citizen and a brave soldier as Charley Smith, of our town, will testify. While the regiment was fording the Rappahannock river young Smith went under but Jack's long arms brought him to the surface and landed him safe on shore.
