A Last Word to Voters.

The duty of the hour is clearly and earnestly set forth in the address of the Democratic state committee, which appears in another column. There never has been a campaign, in this or any other state, in which baffled and desperate political ringsters used more disreputable methods to gain their ends.

But this cowardly movement of the frightened enemy was promptly met and defeated. The way is open for a successful union of reform forces and from all parts of the state the same story comes. The people are aroused as they have not been in many years, and they are going to come out next Tuesday and vote down the Quay combine and also save the supreme court from the disgraceful presence of a man who has shown himself utterly unfit to sit in that high tribunal.

Chairman Cresany urges hard work all along the line and if this suggestion is complied with there is every reason to believe that Yerkes and Coray will be elected. The contest in Philadelphia will be close and that means a splendid chance for fusion to win in the state.

Mission of True Democracy.

For a full quarter of a century, the Democratic party in Pennsylvania has been battling with the vicious and corrupt forces that have at times so deeply disgraced the majority party that the conscience of Republican voters has rebelled.

So in the present campaign for the rescue of the state treasury from the control of the ring and the protection of the court of last resort from demoralizing machine contamination, the Democratic citizenship of the commonwealth must be looked to for six-sevenths of the voters necessary to secure the success of the fusion movement.

That the rank and file of the party will be fully equal to the occasion there can be no manner of doubt. They recognize the supreme fact that in such a contest mere partisanship must be secondary; that the first duty is to the state.

A King on His Travels. Young King Alfonso, of Spain, is about to pay a number of visits outside his realm. His tutor while abroad will be General Weyler, well known on this side of the Atlantic.

That success can be won is clear enough, if patriotic men fully realize their opportunity and their duty. There are 500,000 Democrats in Pennsylvania today and they have never had a better chance to express their convictions. A vote for Yerkes and Coray means the condemnation of the worst ring that ever cursed any state; an effective protest against every form of political and official debasement.

Judge Yerkes' election to the supreme bench is demanded by every consideration for the public interests. Justice Potter has made a record that is a disgrace to the whole state.

The fight against Coray's nomination by the Democrats proved a disastrous boomerang for the frightened ring. And now they are worse demoralized than ever.

An Inspiring Spectacle.

Partisanship has a deep and lasting hold upon men who live under Republican government. Close association in political work is necessary to successful effort. Parties there must be and always will be. American citizens who believe in Democratic principles have always been distinguished for their fidelity and earnestness.

This is the situation in Pennsylvania today. Animated by a supreme desire to promote the best interests of the people, regardless of partisan advantage, the representatives of the party have opened the way for a union of all the elements opposed to the vicious forces which have so long and so corruptly ruled the state.

A vote for Yerkes means the upholding of the highest standard of judicial ability and integrity; the protection of the court of last resort from the contamination of evil influences. Every citizen is vitally interested in the maintenance of the purity of the tribunals of justice.

Let the reform ticket be supported at the polls by every man who believes in honest government and the greatest victory for political righteousness ever known will be won on November 5. It is an inspiring spectacle to see hundreds of thousands of patriotic men earnestly joining hands in a good cause, forgetting for the time being all partisanship.

The People Want to Know.

It is a significant fact, as noted by Democratic journals of the state, that in the present campaign the people seem to be doing their own thinking. For many years they have observed the suggestive earnestness of the Quay combine when a state treasurer is to be elected.

A mere summary of receipts and expenditures is not what is wanted. It is the between-times doings that the taxpayers are after. For instance, at one period recently, the treasury had on hand $3,000,000 in cash. Think of the possibilities of self enrichment herein embodied.

The treasury, indeed, has been the citadel of the ring for a generation and more. Such an inquisitive and fearless investigator as Mr. Coray might find out many queer things and the people seem to be determined to give this intrepid foe of the machine a chance to "root" at will; to turn on the light and show up the whole business.

ness. This spirit of curiosity will be turned to good account at the polls next week. There is no partisan issue at stake. It is a plain question of open and honest management of the public finances against the odious and costly method of the long entrenched ring.

Fusion has won splendid victories in various parts of the state. Let it now be carried out on a large scale and the taxpayers will never regret it.

Bring out the vote in every county and in every election district and the defeat of the Quay combine is as sure as the rising of the sun next Tuesday.

Now is the time to lift the lid and show what has been going on in the state treasury during the past 40 years. Vote for Coray.
