

Cupid is supposed to be hovering about a well known Glade home. The date for the wedding has not been fixed.

The Riley hunting party, so far, is ahead. They have three fine deer hung up at their cabin. Poorman, Riley and Barr were the lucky shots.

Any one wishing game can have their order supplied by leaving it with the "Fleet Foot" crew. They came in the other evening with three dozen of cotton tails for distribution.

Last week Newton E. Hess purchased the Smith farm better known as the Leech farm, just east of Shingletown. It is one of the fine farms of that section and contains 195 acres of cleared land and fifty acres of timber.

Mrs. Thomas Bartley, of Lamar, was buried in the Reformed cemetery Tuesday afternoon. The deceased was aged twenty-nine years and ten days and leaves to mourn her loss a husband and three young daughters.

On last Thursday evening all was joy and merriment at D. H. Weaver's mansion home on the corner. It was the occasion of a reception for Elmer E. Ross and his bride. The fatted gobbler had been killed and many other good things prepared. The guests were limited to the near relatives but nevertheless they had fun enough to go around a big crowd.

Mrs. Ralph M. Illingworth is arranging to join her husband at his mission field in Arizona. She is undertaking quite a task for the journey requires five days and nights of continuous traveling and with her three little children she will have her hands full. She is thoroughly capable, though, of accomplishing what she undertakes to do and her many friends here prophesy for her a pleasant and comfortable journey.

On last Saturday mail route inspector R. M. Newhard, who represents Delaware county in the lower house, passed over our free mail route and found everything satisfactory. He did object, however, to some half a dozen wooden boxes which he condemned and gave notice to the parties that unless they were replaced inside of thirty days with waterproof lock boxes the service will be withdrawn. A new collection box will be put up at the corner of the Main and White Hall roads, making four collection boxes along the route. The inspector paid carrier McWilliams a high compliment on the efficient manner in which he handled the mail, along route No. 1. Thus far there has not been a complaint or an objection made to the service on the route.

Habersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swartz spent Sunday at the home of E. J. Markle.

Mrs. Sarah Miller spent a few days with her daughter Mrs. Henry Hoy, of Blanchard.

Mrs. Ira McKibben, of Mackeyville, visited her son Ernest during Saturday and Sunday.

Royd Carner left, Monday morning, on a deer hunt, accompanying a party of men from McElhattan.

The Ladies Aid Society of Jacksonville was entertained at the hospitable home of Rev. Crow one day last week.

Miss Sophia McEwen, who went as a delegate to the Missionary convention at Centre Hall, brought back a very good account of the meeting.

A party of fifteen of our young people were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. John Weaver about a mile from town Saturday night.

The High school scholars, aided by their able instructor Prof. Musser, have organized a literary society which promises to be a very good move and furnish entertainment for the long winter evenings.

An unusual sight was seen by one of our ladies on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Carner, while out for a stroll, saw a fawn just a few rods away from the ridge road and about half a mile from town. Several of our sports were after it Monday but failed to bring it back.

Nittany Items.

Miss Ponina Shields is visiting her niece, Mrs. Border.

Miss Hannah Beck, who is employed in Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her father C. S. Beck.

Miss Sadie Emerick has been employed by Mrs. W. E. Shafer as seamstress, several days during the week.

Mrs. J. (Dove) Zerby, of Loganton, has spent a week pleasantly with her sister, Mrs. Joe Emerick, at the hotel.

Mrs. Sunday and her brother William Gates, of Penna Furnace, spent a week with their family in this locality.

Mrs. John Watson, who suffered a paralytic stroke recently, has been removed to the Lock Haven hospital.

Johnny Snively came home last week with a 17 lb. wild turkey. This is the second turkey killed by him this season.

Luther service was held in Lutheran church at Snyderdowntown last Sunday, by Rev. W. K. Diehl and Sup't. J. H. Beck.

Miss Jennie Emerick, the milliner of Snyderdowntown, has been very successful in pleasing her many customers with winter head gear.

The M. E. church at Lamar will hold an oyster supper in the hall on the evening of Nov. 16th. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

Billy Garbrick was all smiles last Sunday and has been humming these words the greater part of the week, "Only One Girl in This World for Me."

J. B. Harris spent last week in Philadelphia. His son Blaine passed an examination as an applicant to attend the mechanical art school of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mary Martin, of Snyderdowntown, has been absent for several days attending a wedding at Spring Mills. Who the contracting parties were we were unable to learn.

Harry Baker is the happiest "duck" on the land. New barn and house remodeled in "Queen Ann" style cause him to feel elevated to a Rothschild or Vanderbilt.

Doc Winkelman, employed at Oak Grove, Lycoming county, spent last Sunday with his family.

B. G. Crawford is constantly employed at his chop mill, to supply the demands of the farmers for feed for their stock.

There is a rumor afloat that Nittany's old business stand will be reopened. A new building is to be erected by the Roger Bros. and to be occupied by Hiram Long, as merchant.

The I. O. O. F. located at Hubersburg will hold a banquet in their hall on the evening of Nov. 28th. A good time is promised and abundant preparation to satisfy the inner man.

Doc Yarnell, the section boss, deserves credit for the manner of arranging this division. The crew have done a great amount of work and can truly say: "We earn our bread by the sweat of the brow."

Mrs. Thomas Bartley, of Lamar, was buried at Hubersburg last Tuesday. The deceased had been an invalid for several years. Her suffering was great and death came as a relief. Three children and husband mourn her loss. Mrs. Bartley had a pleasant countenance, a kind and loving disposition, and never willfully offended any one. Funeral services were held at Hubersburg, and conducted by Rev. Foss. Quite a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

Phillipsburg.

The new water company has turned the water in town.

Wilson Flegal left, Wednesday, for Pottstown and other points in the eastern part of the State.

This week all the different churches will participate in a union service held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Sunday last was the day for baptizing children in the M. E. church. Quite a large number took advantage of the invitation.

Brice McCloskey, train dispatcher on the R. W. & O. R. E. at Owego, N. Y., spent several days with his sister, Mrs. J. R. Vandanker, of this place.

The entertainment held in the Methodist church Friday evening for the benefit of the Sunday school was largely attended and much enjoyed by all present.

James Laws, of Ninth street, who was accidentally shot by Enoch Haywood while hunting in the woods on Thursday last is doing nicely, the shot inflicting no serious injury.

The mythical electric railroad is again stirring itself and, peradventure, it may yet take life and be built, however, the public are heartily sick of it, and nothing except the cars flying by their door will assure them of its stability.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week:

Green's Pharmacy.

IT'S HERE.

We keep studying the needs of people. That's why we so seldom lack the item you want. The loss of a sale is a trifle, but the customer is disappointed. Several disappointments and he may not come again. The loss of a customer is a serious loss to any store. Not merely a loss of profit, but a loss of prestige.
We try to make our store useful and helpful. We want it to be known as a place where everything that a druggist ought to sell may be found, and where little accommodations are given—and not grudgingly. When we don't quite please you, tell us—it will help us to make our store better.
