

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. B. F. Bottorf is laid up with the grip.

Wm. McClellan is quite ill at his Erbtown home with a complication of diseases.

Tuesday Mrs. C. B. McCormick and Mrs. P. M. Corl visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Heberling, of Main street.

Mr. Stahr, of the High school, with Homer Decker and J. B. Piper, spent Saturday and Sunday in Alexandria.

Ross Grove, who has been farming for Isaac Marz at McAlevy's Fort, moved into the mill house on Water street Wednesday.

Rev. C. T. Aikens and wife and J. G. Heberling and wife were in attendance at the Lutheran conference held at Pleasant Gap this week.

The venerable Wm. Brown, of Milroy accompanied by his wife, are visiting their son A. M. Brown. The old couple are cheery and active as most folks are at 40.

The Thompson heirs have erected a massive monument over Moses Thompson's grave in the Branch cemetery. The base of the monument weighs twelve tons and the top three.

Oscar B. Krebs and wife spent Sunday with Cline Fortney and family at Tusseyville. They report Mrs. Fortney slowly recovering from an incomplete fracture of the left leg, but is still obliged to use crutches.

James D. Tanyer, who is fast surpassing his father's record as a nimrod, detached himself from the hunting crew he was with and came down from the mountain with two fine deer and a gobbler.

Miss Margaret Watt and Miss Elizabeth Gummo, two of Tyrone's accomplished women, are being entertained at A. M. Brown's this week. As the sausage making season is on it is likely they will stay and take a hand in stirring potboilers.

Joseph H. Hoy and wife are home from a ten day's stay in Cumberland, Md., where they were visiting his brother Robert, who is the agent for the Adams express company at that place. They had a delightful time but are quite satisfied to stay in old Centre.

There will be a supper in the I. O. O. F. hall on Thanksgiving evening under the auspices of the women of the Lutheran church. The supper will consist of oysters, salads, ice cream, cake, etc., and is for the benefit of a new organ for the Sabbath school room.

Charley Smith says that there is a vacant stall in his stable in which he will gladly shelter those poor dumb animals that are kept tied to hitching posts these cold nights 'til daybreak. This occurrence is quite common on Saturday nights and for the present no names will be mentioned.

Harry Bailey had quite an experience with the bear which he finally killed. He had shot five loads into the body when crazed with pain it turned and made for him with its mouth open. He was only eight feet from it and had only one load left. It fortunately hit the bear square in the mouth, breaking its neck.

The Modocs returned home Saturday with three fine deer and one bear. D. W. Myers shot two of the deer and the other one was brought down by H. M. Krebs and Harry Bailey captured the bear. The Hubler-Corl crowd, who are encamped near Beaver, have secured two deer. The Riley gang have two shot three and the "Fleet foot" have two hung up. The two parties mentioned last have been hunting on the Tussey mountain.

On Thursday evening, the 14th, Earl Poust, accompanied by Miss Matilda Rudy, both of Pennsylvania Furnace, drove up to the parsonage and soon were married by the Rev. C. T. Aikens. The happy couple then returned to the home of the bride where the usual wedding supper was served.

The groom is a son of Ellis Poust, of Tyrone, and is a well to do young man and we hope their married life will be a happy and prosperous one.

This week the Excelsior club is camped in Sholls gap enjoying J. W. Kepler's hospitality. They have had beautiful weather and the game preserve is in splendid order so that if they do not bring in some big game it will surely be the fault of marksmanship. The party is made up of Messrs Todd and Houck, of Phillipsburg, Register A. G. Archey, Edmund Blanchard and Geo. R. Meek, of Bellefonte, and the host J. W. Kepler. Aaron C. Kepler, of Lancaster, expects to join them in camp the latter part of the week.

Nitty Items.

Ambrose Sloteman made a flying visit here Saturday.

Henry Fisher sports a serviceable trotter and any one wishing a deal should call on him.

The squeal of the porker is heard on every side as the majority of the people are anxious to get in ahead of the hog cholera.

Game warden W. Kessinger has been looking after the interests of the Rod and Gun club, as usual seem to be on the decline.

Miss May Winkelman, one of Nittany's handsome young ladies, was taken seriously ill on Sunday but we all hope for her speedy recovery.

George Gates, the present occupant of the abandoned toll house, bought the same at the public sale, which was conducted by the officials last week for $81.

Miss Helen Beck was down at Williamsport Saturday seeing the foot ball game and visiting her sister Miss Grace, who is in the Williamsport hospital learning to be a trained nurse.

Supervisor Joe Emerick is busily engaged in repairing the roads for winter travel. Crushed stone is being applied, loose stone cleaned off and the chuck holes fixed up in a scientific manner.

Rev. W. K. Diehl, who has resigned the pastorate of the Lutheran church to accept a call at Middleburg in Snyder county, will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday at Middertown at 10:40 a. m.

Mamie Lose, of Snydertown, died Monday morning after a year's suffering with a complication of diseases. She was only about fourteen years of age and endured her sufferings most patiently. She was modest in her demeanor and her remains were laid to rest in St. Paul's cemetery.

Henry Dutton and a friend, of Williamsport, hunted around here last Saturday but without any success. Charles Hoffman, of Philadelphia; and Elmer Snavelly, who were out on Friday and Saturday, had better luck as they killed fifteen pheasants and two partridges, but they are both excellent wing shots.

Green's Pharmacy.

IT'S HERE.
We keep studying the needs of people. That's why we so seldom lack the item you want. The loss of a sale is a trifle, but the customer is disappointed. Several disappointments and he may not come again. The loss of a customer is a serious loss to any store. Not merely a loss of profit, but a loss of prestige.
We try to make our store useful and helpful. We want it to be known as a place where everything that a druggist ought to sell may be found, and where little accommodations are given—and not grudgingly. When we don't quite please you, tell us—it will help us to make our store better.
