Daniel Martz is making a western tour with headquarters in Chicago.

Miss Lucetta Ward is spending the week at the home of G. W. Keichline. Andrew Jackson Tate is quite proud of a fine son who arrived last Sunday morning. Hunting and butchering stories are paramount at loafing places these evenings. Miss Emma Clemson, of Gatesburg, is enjoying Rev. and Mrs. Aikens hospitality this

James Musser, who has been seeking his fortune in the West, is home for the Martin Eyer and Samuel Bressler two of our oldest men are quite ill with diseases incident to old age.

The marriage of Miss Sue Campbell and Rev. Mr. Adair, of Indiana county will take place in December.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey and Mrs. Glenn Bailey, of Altoona are visiting at the Bailey home just west of town.

Ex-Judge Riley shot and killed a monstrous bear last Saturday near Bear Meadows. It was of the dog species and measured seven feet when laid on the ground. Mrs. Lydia Sunday was among the friends who attended the funeral of Mrs. Reed at Port Matilda on Wednesday. Mrs. Sunday was a cousin of Mrs. Reed's. James Poorman and wife were visitors among friends here and Centre Line last week. They tarried long enough to go home in the rain that was so badly needed. Miss Jennie Bumgardner a trained nurse from Pleasant Gap, was here taking care of Mrs. Fred Bottorf, the beginning of the week. Mrs. Bottorf was critically ill from the first. Frank H. Wieland has been commissioned to go to New York to purchase the fire apparatus and 500 feet of hose which Theodore Boal, of Denver, Col., recently presented to the fire department of Boalsburg. On Monday Jonathan Hess, of Williamsport, Michael Hess, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Lydia Stover, of Altoona were summoned here on account of the serious illness of their sister Mrs. P. F. Bottorf. Many will be glad to hear that Miss Sadie Fry, of Boalskurg, who was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Philadelphia several weeks ago for an operation, endured the operation very well and is recovering nicely. Frank Crawford, genial and jolly as ever, was in town Tuesday supplying our merchants with a line of hardware. He did not pass by H. M. Krebs, the hustling carriage maker, who already has more orders than he can fill. The Miller Bros. have the contract for sawing the lumber for Frank Bowersox's new barn. Howard Barr is to build the barn, which is to be a plank one, next spring on the site of the one that was destroyed by fire. Mr. Bowersox thinks that he will have sufficient lumber of his own to fill the Scott Bricker who has been confined to his room for several weeks with grip and quinsy is able to be about again looking much the worse for the siege. It is expected, though, that he will improve rapidly when his comcreating him postmaster of our quiet sister town.

Last Friday morning as Mrs. John Strouse was entering the barn to milk a gust of wind blew the door violently against her. A large nail had been driven into the inner part of the door and it penetrated Mrs. Strouse's right ear, inflicting such a painful wound that her family were quite uneasy about her for several days. Butchering season and big dinners are on. One we had the honor of enjoying recently was at the home of Jacob W. Sunday where full and plenty constantly abound. The big gobbler was just right and the table was fairly crowded with good things. Indeed George Bell, who had come down from Tyrone for a good square meal, ate so much that | 46-47-3t he was with difficulty removed from the table.

Rev. Aikens preached a forcible Thanksgiving sermon on Sunday evening. His theme was the origin and manifold causes for Thanksgiving. After services the Ladies

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL FOR DECEMBER-There is no lack of the Christmas spirit in the December number of The Ladies' Home Journal, Among the stories that go to fill this largest number of the magazine ever issued are: "The Baby Be hind the Curtain," by Elizabeth McCracken; "Christmas Eve on Lonesome," by John Fox Jr., the Kentucky author; "How the First Letter was Written," by Rudvard Kipling, and the first part of an amusing story of western ways called "The Russells in Chicago." "The People Who Help Santa Claus" are told about ; the Rev. David M. Steele relates some pathetic stories of the New York poor, and Elliott Flower delightfully describes "The Linfields's Christmas Dinner." The second room of the "Bradley House," the library, is shown in detail. Mr. Bok's editorial is headed "Personal," and that it is. The regular departments are most ably presented by their respective editors, and the holiday cover is the work of Thomas Mitchell Peirce. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year : ten cents a copy.

THIS WEEK WE HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY ABOUT

UNDERWEAR UMBRELLAS

not forgetting to put in a word about our

LONG LONDON OVERCOATS

MEN'S BLACK SUITS.

Underwear.—Half the people are wearing underwear that does not properly fit. Some don't realize it, others think it cant be helped. For years we have been using our own experience to secure underwear made in proper proportion, to fit comfortably, and this winter present to our customers an Unusually Fine Assortment in comfortable weights and fit.

Umbrellas. - Our Christmas stock has arrived and is handsome. We know of no more suitable present than a fine Umbrella for Father, Husband, Son, Lover, or Friend. Call and make your selection early, before the best styles are gone. We will keep all goods purchased now until time for delivery and see that they reach their destination promptly just before Christmas.

Neck wear.—We have something new and unusually attractive to show our many friends in Neck wear. After having devoted extra time and attention to this branch of our business we place upon our counters the latest styles in shape, coloring, etc., at prices which will enable all who are in need of Neck wear to be exactly suited.

Of course all the things men need are here. Suspenders, Mufflers, Dress Suit Cases and Trunks.

Overcoats.-We have been told frequently that the Long London Overcoats which we have had trouble in keeping in all sizes on account of the numbers we have sold are the most stylish seen in Bellefonte. The satisfaction the Coats have given in all cases has been most gratifying to us.

Men's Black Suits.—Black Suits are being more and more worn. Nothing is more serviceable. We are prepared to surprise you in our Black Suits, in fact in many of our Suits we are giving you un-
