

—Quite a number of guests were present at the marriage of Miss Ida Giest and Ed. Iseberg which took place yesterday at noon. The wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Giest, at Graysville, and was solemnized by the Rev. Isaac Krider, of Dunsmuir, an uncle of the bride. The groom is an employee of Ward's store at Baileyville and is a splendid fellow.

THIS WILL INTEREST SOME OF YOU.—The following notice that appeared in the society columns of the Pittsburgh Times on Friday will be of interest to many Bellefontiers who will remember Miss Jane Benner and her daughter "Katie" when they lived here several years ago.

Cards have been issued announcing the marriage some time ago of Katharine Hunter, daughter of Mrs. Jane Benner, of Bellefonte, Pa., and William Eugene Seibert, of this city. The bride comes from one of the oldest families in Centre county and is a great-granddaughter of the late Gen. Philip Benner, of Revolutionary fame. Mr. Seibert is the youngest son of Charles Seibert, of St. Louis, and is well known in business and social circles in Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Seibert will be "at home" after December 10th at 215 North Euclid avenue, East End.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Amanda Ward was a visitor to Altoona last week.

J. Will Kepler transacted business at the county capitol Wednesday.

Sidney Poorman and wife, and little Sammy Sundayed with friends here.

Mrs. Mollie Campbell, Profitit, of Colorado, is visiting Fairbrook relations and her old parental home.

Farmer John D. Driblitis is receiving congratulations over a bouncing boy. For the present its name is George Daniel.

William Grove and Joe A. Goss, of our town, have recently gotten positions in the Penna. R. R. shops at Altoona.

The venerable Samuel Markel, of Gatesburg, is now a resident of our town at the home of John I. Markel, on Main street.

We are sorry to note the serious illness of little Will Bubb who is so low with pneumonia and whooping cough, that his life is despaired of.

Mrs. Amelia Dreese, who has been visiting old friends all along the line for the last week, returned to her home in Adamsburg last Saturday.

Mrs. James McCormick, who has been visiting Millin and Centre county friends for the last three months, left for her home in Downs, Kan., last Friday.

Mrs. Harriet Stover, who has been in charge of P. F. Bottorff's household affairs for several weeks, returned to her home in the Mountain city on Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Brouse is slowly recovering from some serious ailment in her head that recently proved to be an abscess. It has caused the old lady many wakeful nights of late.

There was quite a smash up just on the out skirts of town Monday evening when David Miller and Lee Markle drove into each other. It was very dark and blinded by the lights of the town, one was entering and the other leaving, they came together with a head on collision. Both horses were going at a good rate, Miller was thrown out, and the buggies badly wrecked but fortunately no one was hurt seriously and we have good carriage menders in the town.

Boalsburg lodge 896 I. O. O. F. is again humping herself. Last Saturday three candidates were in waiting and were duly initiated with the old-time exactness for which their team is famous. After the regular routine of business was disposed of P. G.'s Ishler and Harrison, with their assistants, furnished luncheon and refreshments. While Prof. P. H. Meyer provided an orchestra that rendered beautiful selections of choice music. P. G. Ishler presided and many humorous speeches were made, so that the evening was a lively one until time for going home arrived.

Fred W. Weber, Boalsburg's hustling furniture dealer, is down at the national capitol this week sight-seeing and engineering a little business scheme through. If he succeeds in having his invention patented there is no reason why he will not be one of the bondholders of that quiet little burg and spend his declining years in ease and luxury. On Sunday he worshipped at the same church as President Roosevelt who cordially shook hands with the members of the congregation and them made a bee line for the White house.

HAPPILY MARRIED.—On Thursday evening the 5th Mr. Levi Segner and Miss Ida McWilliams drove up from Boalsburg and stopped at the Lutheran parsonage where they were speedily made welcome. Rev. Aikens on being made acquainted with their errand soon pronounced them man and wife and extended his congratulations. The happy couple shortly afterwards returned to Boalsburg where the usual marriage supper awaited them. The groom is the eldest son of Michael Segner and is a sober, industrious young man amply able to take care of the good wife he has been fortunate enough to get. Mrs. Segner is the only daughter of the late G. W. McWilliams and is an excellent young woman.

MRS. KLINE.—Mrs. E. Elizabeth Kline, wife of George Kline postmaster at Oak Hall, died suddenly Tuesday evening of neuralgia of the heart. After eating her supper she was sitting talking to her family and remarked that she felt cold. Some one went to get her a shawl but before it was wrapped about her she was dead. She was seventy-three years of age and had been a consistent member of the Lutheran church from girlhood. She is survived by her husband and nine children. Miss Anna, at home, Mrs. Will Bohm, Mrs. Andy Weibly, George and Cal, of State College; James, of Tyrone, and John and Cornelius, of Oak Hall. She is also survived by two brothers, Henry and John Hontz. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Boalsburg.

A very enjoyable reception was given Tuesday evening at the home of Andrew Glenn on the Branch to welcome George Glenn and his bride home from their wedding trip to Washington. They were met at the station by a number of friends who escorted them home, where a delicious feast awaited them and a very pleasant evening was spent. The young people will go to housekeeping at Lemont where they will be at home to their friends after Jan. 1st.

Philipsburg.

The institute at Bellefonte has caused a great exodus of teachers from the town and immediate vicinity.

Oleo—is bad stuff to pan off as the real thing as several of our gentlemen in town can certify.

The congestion in the coal trade has caused quite a number of mines to work very slack in this vicinity.

Yeager and Davis have taken charge of their newly acquired shoe establishment at the Schoonover stand.

Rev. Dr. Murray, of Wilmington, Del., officiated in the M. E. pulpit Sunday morning and Monday evening.

Miss Mary Flagal has resigned her position as teacher in the public school and has accepted a more lucrative position at Irwin, Pa.

The mythical electric railway is again being talked of, but the people know that talk is cheap and never built anything, so it is not taken seriously.

Mr. Russell, of Ashland, visited his son, Rev. C. D. Russell, of Pine street, over Sunday, returning to his home Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Waring have returned from their wedding tour, and will for the present reside with Mrs. Securman on Pine street.

The new water company, pipe line has certainly worked havoc with our streets. Probably the streets were never in more dangerous condition than they are now.

Geo. Parker, the new proprietor of the flower store on Front street, has greatly improved the place and we predict great success for Mr. Parker in his new business.

Habersburg.

J. A. Miller, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with his father.

L. N. McAnlay spent Sunday at home with his wife and children.

J. D. Miller is suffering with boils to the number of twenty-six.

John Crook, of Runville, spent Sunday at the home of George McAnlay.

Ethel Miller and Maggie Hoy are visiting friends in Centre Hall this week.

Mrs. Ira Shoensfelt was the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Hoy, part of last week.

Mrs. A. G. Kramer and son, Boyd, spent Sunday with friends in Flemington.

Wm. Whitman, of Cross Forks, recently spent a few days under the parental roof.

A number of our young folks attended a dance given at the home of Elmer McClintock at Lamar last Friday night.

The services conducted by Evangelist Delmont closed Tuesday evening after a four weeks meeting with no conversions.

Miss Sophia McEwen accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Jas. Carner, went to Indianapolis where the former is to undergo an operation.

What might have been a bad accident occurred on Thursday as Irvin Yarnell was on his way to the station with a load of lumber. He was driving four horses and they became unmanageable and ran into the fence in front of the Bergstresser residence but by careful handling they escaped hurting one another.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week:

Lee Singer and Ida E. Williams, both of Boalsburg.

Thaddeus M. Myers and Minnie May Corellious, both of Philipsburg.

Charley Olson and Mary Huston, both of Snow Shoe.

W. J. Hunter, of Beech Creek, and Edith Young, of Romola.

John L. Wolf and Carrie I. Stover, both of Livonia.

Hiram D. Blowers, of Rush township, and Mamie Nelson, of Winburne.

Ella W. Wigham, of Tyrone, and Charlotte S. McGonigal, of Taylor Twp.

Alfred F. Bitner and Frances S. Bitner, both of Blanchard.

J. M. Adair, of Indiana, Pa., and Sue E. Campbell, of Penna. Furnace.

Herbert R. Decker, of Piteairn, Pa., and Ida McCauley, of Habersburg.

Andrew J. Knepp and Mary C. Gift, both of Mingoville.

Isaac C. Peters and Nettie Dean, both of Mingoville.
