

Pine Grove Mention.

Mercury was three points below zero on Tuesday morning.

Robert Gardner, of Pittsburg, was a recent visitor at his mother's home in the Glades.

Rev. D. E. Hepler will preach in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Ward is down at Lemont helping some of the fashionables get their spring outfits in shape.

Miss Ella Livingston, teacher of the primary school at State College, was a visitor here on Saturday and Sunday.

A. S. Walker lost a valuable cow last Monday and Abram Markle, of State College, is also minus the best cow of his herd.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss, matron of the Chester Springs school, is spending a month's vacation at the home of her son-in-law J. Will Kepler.

Mrs. Edward Detwiler, of Reedsville and her mother Mrs. E. M. McClellan, of Tusseyville, are visiting the home of merchant H. W. Franz.

One of the worst snow storms of the winter raged here all day Sunday. The drifts interfered seriously with traveling and most of the drivers took to the fields.

Will Swab has anchored with H. H. Goss for the winter and will take an active part in putting Mrs. Goss' large stock in order for a public sale. He knows how too.

Last week when we mentioned that Mrs. Bertie Rudy had returned to her home in Millinburg we were mistaken. She is in Altoona visiting, and will return here to finish her visit before going home.

D. G. Meek is arranging to build a barn on his Banker Hill plantation in the early spring. W. B. Ward has drawn up the plans and made out the bill of lumber but it is not known who the builder will be.

Mrs. James I. Thompson, of Lemont, entered the Presbyterian hospital in Philadelphia on Monday for an operation for a tumorous growth in her side. Mrs. Thompson had been in the city for some days but did not go into the hospital until Monday when Mr. Thompson went down to be with her.

After April 1st O. M. Sheets, of Bellefonte will till the broad acres of the Dr. Bates farm at the Junction. Of course we expect to see him raise big crops and blooded stock for he is a practical man as well as an experienced manager. He will also be a valuable acquisition to the Democratic ranks of west Ferguson township and we bid both him and his excellent wife a hearty welcome.

Mrs. E. S. Smiley, who is visiting the home of her childhood, reports that she lived all summer in a tent up in the Adirondacks miles away from any road except a trail. When they went into the mountain Mr. Smiley was so seriously ill that it was supposed he was in a dying condition. The outdoor life completely cured him and he is now well and strong and able to resume his work as chemist for a large firm in Scranton. He is a State College boy.

Among those from a distance who were at Fairbrook on Sunday, attending the funeral of the lamented Mrs. P. W. Burkett, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meek their son William, Fletcher E. Meek, George McC. Meek, all of Altoona and Mrs. Mary McCollough, of Petersburg. Mrs. Burkett was buried by the side of her parents in the church yard at Meeks and though the day was most inclement a large concourse of friends and neighbors were present.

At a special meeting of the school board at the Glades school house on Monday evening, J. T. McCormick and J. B. Piper tendered their resignations. The former to take effect at the close of the school year thus enabling him to close up his accounts as treasurer. Mr. Piper is going to move to Alexandria and J. C. Corl was elected president to succeed him. Two school houses were disposed of, one at Baileyville and one at Penna Furnace. R. G. Goheen bought the one and A. M. Brown the other.

Mrs. Kate Gates Erb, of Brocton, N. Y., and Mrs. Kate Erb Montgomery, of Dunkirk, N. Y., who have been welcome visitors here the past week returned to their homes on Saturday. Mrs. Erb frequently visits her mother here, but it is Mrs. Montgomery's first visit since twenty-four years ago when she resided with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Erb in Erbtown. She was very much pleased with the progress and improvement made in the village in that time. They are both the picture of health and attribute their good looks to grape juice and tea the staple products of their community.

Blair Ritter had a thrilling ride on Tuesday, when half a mile out of town one of the hold back straps broke and the horse was frightened in an instant. It jumped the fence breaking both front wheels of the buggy, tearing apart the harness and leaving the buggy a complete wreck. Stewart Bailey, also, was the victim of a runaway. He was hauling wood when the load upon throwing him off and entangling him in the lines. The tongue, cross-bars and doubletree were broken but the horses were caught after running a mile without being any the worse of their sprint.

The caucus held at Centre school house on last Saturday was unusually well attended which shows the healthy political sentiment existing in the township. There is an ardent desire to select only competent men to administer the affairs of the township and the following ticket was selected. East precinct, judge of the election, J. L. Murphy; inspector, George Lutz; registration assessor, W. H. Fry; West precinct, judge of the election, Simon Ward; inspector, J. C. Sunday; registration assessor, D. Powley; constable, J. R. Smith; supervisors, N. E. Hess, J. F. Meyers, one year schoolmen J. W. Krumrine, N. T. Krebs; three year schoolmen, George W. Homan, Jacob Harpster; poor overseer, Geo. F. Miller; auditor, Henry McWilliams, township clerk, A. J. Tate.

The Old Fellows festival held in their new hall closed Monday evening. It was a decided success both socially and financially. More than $300 was realized, J. W. Kepler acted as spokesman for the entire festival and he filled the position to perfection. It was known by the active members that there existed an undercurrent of disfavor from a moral sentiment but, with all that, the hall was crowded nightly. About forty couple took part in the masquerade ball on Saturday evening. Miss Anna Roush was awarded the gold watch which she and Miss Annie Markle contested for. Miss Roush secured $36.66 winning by the small margin of 92 cents as Miss Roush secured $35.74. The committee decided to reward Miss Markle with a watch of the same style and make. Daniel Irvin held the lucky card that drew the rocking chair. Miss Ella Confer guessed the right number and secured the beautiful rug. Miss Lizzie Ward held the ticket which entitled her to the big cake containing the prize. It was presented by Miss Inez Krebs. Musser Krebs drew the elaborately decorated cake which contained the emblems of the order and the number of the lodge. It was baked and presented by Mrs. William H. Goss. The Pine Grove orchestra and guitar and mandolin club was present to furnish the necessary music. The orchestra is made up of George Reed, 1st violin; W. B. Ward, 2nd violin; Walter Woods, 3rd violin; Fred Gearhart, organ. The club consists of Mary Ward, mandolin, and Bert and Simon Ward guitars. J. H. Ward was present and with W. P. Ard's big graphophone was a whole show in himself.

The string band and mandolin club will give an entertainment in the new hall in the near future, for which we bespeak a big audience.

Last Sunday when leaving the church at Lemont for home Will Thompson's horses became unmanageable and in some way overturned the carriage throwing the occupants out on the solitly frozen ground. Fortunately the horses had gentle dispositions and were easily held until the carriage was righted and the occupants picked up. No one was injured except slightly bruised and scratched.

The measles are quite prevalent here, but apparently in a mild form.

Commercial agents report business on the road—down this valley from fair to middling.

Mrs. H. C. Robison since her return from the city, does not seem to improve very rapidly.

The nominees on both tickets are gentlemen of character and ability, and will poll their party strength. But this locality being a Democratic Gibraltar, the result of the election is easily foreshadowed.

The Republican nominations were for auditor, R. U. Bitner; school directors, W. M. Allison (re-nominated) supervisors, J. B. Ream and H. Ush; constable, John Albright, present official serving unexpired term of Reuben Kline deceased.

The Democratic caucus on Saturday last was very largely attended and the contest among the several candidates quite exciting. The following ticket was nominated. For supervisors, John Breon (re-nominated) and W. W. Neese; school directors, H. H. Rachan and John Hagan (re-nominated); auditor, J. W. Shook; constable, H. E. Shreckengast; overseer of poor, C. J. Finkle; town clerk, H. Frankenberg.

Last week the foot log bridge over Penns creek, a short distance below the postoffice, was swept away by the heavy ice and high water. The wreck lodged against the railroad bridge below town. During the day the logs were secured and returned and will again be thrown across the creek as soon as the weather will permit. The loss of this old crossing is a great inconvenience.

Our venerable friend John Grove who had a stroke of paralysis some time since, is able to be about again, and is occasionally driven to his farm to the village to see his old neighbors. Mr. Grove has hosts of friends here, who are always glad to meet him. He is a very fluent and able speaker, very agreeable and entertaining, quite skillful in a debate and when engaged in a political discussion, his exposition of true Democracy is most sound. We hope for his speedy recovery.

E. C. Ripka and W. B. Musser were home on Sunday.

The stove mill is shut down for want of a sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ripka, of Linden Hall, were visiting at W. B. Musser's on Monday.

Emanuel Wetzel and M. M. Bower, two of Haines township's citizens, were business callers here on Tuesday.

Irvin Kern, William Wert and C. C. Kerstetter left for Patton on Tuesday, where they have secured employment.

The Democrats of Penn township nominated the following for township officers: Judge of election, A. W. Ulrick; inspector, Jacob Kerstetter; justice of the peace, C. A. Wenver; constable, J. H. Maize; supervisors, W. W. Vonada and H. M. Swartz; overseer of the poor, Jerry Rishel; school directors, Emanuel Kerstetter and E. C. Zerby; auditor, W. F. Smith; clerk, Adam Bartges.

Services were held in the Presbyterian church several evenings last week.

Messrs. Irve Wensel, J. S. Hoy, and J. W. Beck are on the sick list in our neighborhood. Mr. Beck is improving rapidly. Mr. Hoy is showing steady improvement, and Mr. Wensel is "holding his own" fairly well.

A social was held in the United Evangelical church last Saturday evening. A large and liberal crowd was present and the success was unusually good. The excellent ice cream and cake constituted the principal attraction, while some home-made candy—made by members of the church—added greatly to the success of the evening. Many thanks to the young ladies of the church.

The Democrats of Marion township met in the school house at Jacksonville on Saturday, Jan. 25th, for the purpose of nominating men for the various township offices. Mr. J. W. Orr, the chairman, conducted the meeting with promptness and deliberation. All was done in an orderly and systematic manner. Everybody seemed to have the welfare of the public at heart. Good men were nominated for all the offices, and with such a ticket, success surely is theirs. The ticket is as follows: Judge of the election, C. M. Fox; inspector, Wm. McDowell; school directors, Z. W. Hoy, A. J. Pifer; overseer of poor, C. E. Yearick; supervisors, John L. Shaffer, Thomas Beightel; constable, J. S. Condo; justice of peace, G. M. Harters; auditor, J. W. Orr; township clerk, J. S. Condo.

Penn Hall.

The sledding is poor.

Miss Sallie Albright is seriously ill with erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duck are receiving the congratulations of their friends.

The Penn Hall school has been closed for a few days on account of the prevalence of measles.

Andrew Sheasley is going into the shingle business and will move into the Smith home at Beech.

The Democratic caucus was held in the Penn Hall school house on Saturday and there was a good turnout. In the evening the Republicans held their caucus at the same place.

E. M. Huyett transacted business in Bellefonte last Saturday.

W. A. Henney is all smiles over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

Squire Dauberman transacted business in Bellefonte on last Monday.

F. A. Foreman transacted business at the county seat last Saturday.

W. Gross Mingle, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

John Van Pelt, who has been visiting his grand-parents at this place, left last Friday afternoon for Hastings.

D. Earl Fleming, who has been teaching school above Bellefonte, came home last week afflicted with fever.

The Union revival meeting which has been in progress for the last three weeks, closed on Saturday evening.

Miss Annie Lohr, who has been visiting her sister in Bellefonte for the last three weeks, returned home last week.

A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of John P. Breon on last Monday evening for their son George. Quite a few guests were present and all enjoyed themselves highly.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church of Port Matilda, take this means of thanking their friends for their promptness, liberality and attendance, which made the birthday social held at Stormstown, Pa., Jan. 21th a success.

THE TIME HAS COME TO CLEAR THIS STORE OF WINTER GOODS.

We must dispose of every dollar's worth of Winter weight goods at once. Close them out quickly. It takes stringent measures; means disastrous prices; but the only alternative is to keep the goods and we cannot afford to do that.

If you are a judge of clothing values; if you know good clothing; if you are a cloth expert; you will realize when you see these goods and the prices what a sacrifice we are making. At any rate you know what you have paid for clothes before; now than we ask you to come and see for yourself what a little money will do here.

EVERYTHING MUST GO WITHIN THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS.

This special sale of winter wearables is interesting and timely. You can afford the best clothing made in America at this great sacrifice sale.

Do not hesitate; do not delay. The best things are always first to go. The stock is now complete; your size is here; the style or kind of suit or coat you want is waiting for you. A very little money stands between you and the very thing you would like to wear.
