

Everhart, of Company C, was killed. The fall of Capt. Everhart made the seventh officer of Company C killed on the field of battle during its term of service. It seems almost like a fatality to be an officer of this company, for its record in that respect is without example in the history of the Pennsylvania volunteers.

Lee, with the remnants of his army, was now in full retreat. The Army of the Potomac was close upon his heels, and at Sutherland's Station, on the Southside Railroad, the One Hundred and Forty-eighth did splendid work on the skirmish line. By a skillful and finely executed flank movement, which permitted an enfilading fire with the repeating rifles, nearly an entire brigade was compelled to throw down its arms and surrender. For this regiment was highly complimented by the general commanding the division in a special order. The results were seven hundred prisoners, two pieces of artillery, and two flags. It participated in the final action at Farmville on the 7th of April, and was present at the surrender at Appomattox on the 9th.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

George W. Erhard and Miss Katie Raymond, both of near Bellefonte, were married at St. John's Reformed parsonage in this place on Tuesday morning, Feb. 15th, by the Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt.

Mrs. Corney Bland, formerly a resident of this place, died at her home at Centre Hall yesterday morning at 5 o'clock. Her death was due to heart failure. She is survived by her husband and one son. Her body will be brought here for burial.

Paul Sheffer and his family—and Paul will pardon us for putting the accent on the family, have moved from their apartments in the Exchange to the house on Spring street formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kelly.

On Sunday afternoon as a little daughter and son of Adam Kelly, the postmaster at Fillmore, were playing about their home the little girl kicked at the boy and he caught her foot. In consequence she fell on her right arm, breaking it just at the elbow. Dr. Coons, the physician, fearing that it was the cap of the elbow brought her to a surgeon here on Monday for consultation.

"DR." ROBERTS HEARS FROM THE PRESIDENT.—Two weeks ago the WATCHMAN announced that "Dr." Albert Roberts had sent a package of his famous pneumonia and diphtheria cure to President Roosevelt to be used on his son Teddy Jr. who was critically ill with pneumonia. "Dr." sent it in all kindness and concern for the health of the President's boy and, naturally, feels very much pleased that the President has so regarded it. The following letter from the White House will explain itself:

WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, February 15th, 1892.

My Dear Sir: The President requests me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th inst., with enclosure, and to thank you for the interest you have shown in the illness of his son. Very truly yours

Geo. B. CORTELYOU, Sec. to the President. MR. ALBERT ROBERTS, Bellefonte, Pa.

FIFTH'S NEW COLONEL.—Lieutenant Colonel Rufus C. Elder, of Lewistown, was elected colonel of the Fifth Regiment, N. G. P., on Monday, at Altoona, to succeed Col. Theodore Burchfield, whose commission had expired. Col. Burchfield and Mr. Elder were the only nominees but before the balloting began the former withdrew and the election of the latter was unanimous. Major John S. Bair, of Huntingdon, was chosen lieutenant colonel to succeed Elder and Capt. Sam. H. Hughes, of Indiana, was raised to a major's rank. Elder will make several changes in the regiment and doubtless cause the removal of regimental headquarters to Lewistown. The regiment also loses its standing on the right of line of the Second brigade, held by reason of Colonel Burchfield's seniority of commission, he having been the senior colonel of the brigade since the death of Colonel Hawkins, of the Tenth Regiment.

A YOUNG BUT HAPPY COUPLE.—Miss Sue Meek, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempster L. Meek, of Waddles, and Earl Creighton Way, eldest son of Benner Way, were married in Youngstown, Ohio, on Monday morning, Feb. 10th. Their attachment for each other had dated from childhood and was known by the families of both—but on account of their youth, the bride isn't eighteen and the groom not twenty, their engagement had never been made public and the announcement of their marriage was a great surprise.

Then the way in which it was brought about was nothing more or less than an elopement. The groom, who by the way, is a splendid young fellow, was home on a leave of absence from his work in the Westinghouse shops at Wilmerding. Sunday afternoon he asked permission to take his fiancée to a meeting at Fillmore but instead of stopping there they came on here and went west on the night train to Youngstown. There they were married by the Rev. James Calvin and are now comfortably located in apartments at Wilmerding. The marriage, though much of a surprise as it was, promises to be a most auspicious one, for the bride is a bright, pretty girl with a happy disposition and practical experience and Mr. Way is not only industrious and ambitious, but is estimable and popular.

THEY ARE COMING.—The Indians, real Seneca Indians, five of them, are coming to Bellefonte on Washington's birthday, the 22nd of February, to sing in the court house in the evening, under the direction of Rev. R. Crittenden, for the benefit of two chapels now in construction in places greatly needing them.

Admission 25 cts. Children under 12 years, 15 cts. Tickets at Parrish's.

Through the State.

LEWISTOWN, Pa., Feb. 18.—The Democrats had a walkover at the general elections here to-day. Practically all of the small officers were elected. Calvin Orr, Democrat, was elected auditor; Robert W. Patton and Frank J. Zerbe, Republicans, justice of the peace, and Hiram D. Yeaman, Democrat, high constable.

BETHLEHEM, Feb. 18.—Fifteen hundred votes were cast in the local election to-day with the result that the Republicans swept the town. Republican candidates for town council and school directors were elected in each of the four wards, assuring the Republicans control of those bodies. George L. Baum, the veteran Republican justice of the peace, is re-elected in the borough by a large majority, as is Charles Fenstermacher for high constable.

WILLIAMSPORT, February 16.—At midnight the indications are that John F. Leellen, Democrat, is elected mayor, over James N. Kline, Republican, by from 50 to 100 majority.

Snow Shoe.

How would you like to be the ice man now? A case of diphtheria has developed in town recently.

An illustrated lecture will be held in the Presbyterian church on Friday night.

The singers of Snow Shoe are improving their vocal organs under the instructions of J. D. Brown.

Mr. W. E. Brown, of Milesburg, is now dealing out the sugar, coffee, etc. at Buddinger's store.

A festival will be held in Buddinger's hall on Saturday night for the benefit of the M. E. church. All are invited to attend.

The Junior League of this place gave an entertaining service on Sunday night, which did great credit to that organization.

Hablesburg.

E. L. Markle is spending a few days under the parental roof.

Miss Margaret Welsh, of Lamar, spent Sunday at the home of Samuel Hoy.

Harry Harvey, of Ligonier, spent a few days at the guest of Miss Minnie Lee.

Talitha Hoy is spending a few days at the home of her brother Henry at Beech Creek.

Eugene Root and sister Alice, of Bellwood, spent Sunday at the home of B. W. Rumberger.

Charles Myers, an employe of the P. R. R. Co., at Pittsburg, is circulating among friends in our midst.

Miss Maud Kessinger accompanied Albert Williams to his home at Beech Creek and spent Sunday.

Election passed off very quietly, the number of voters being almost within the limits of town.

Mrs. Julia Brown was to Eggleville to see her sister who was taken sick while visiting friends at that place.

Henry Swartz, wife and daughter, of Philipsburg, visited at the home of Adam Swartz, recently.

The High school scholars realized twenty-five dollars proceeds from the oyster supper held in the Grange hall last Saturday night.

A party of young people from Hecla were entertained at the home of John Weaver Monday evening. Also a large party of old and young people from our town were entertained at the home of Wm. Shafer, at Nittany, Thursday evening.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Annie Miller is laid up with quinsy and a bad cold.

Mrs. Charles Rudy returned to her home in Millin, Saturday.

The usual old guard was on duty at Fort Schuyler near Baileyville, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Benjamin Corl is seriously ill at her home at Pine Hall with cancer of the bowels.

The venerable George Kline, post-master at Oak Hall, is quite ill with heart trouble and dropsy.

Samuel E. Goss and wife, of Bellefonte, spent several days in town the beginning of the week.

Rev. C. T. Aikens began a meeting at Pine Hall on Wednesday evening to continue the balance of the week.

Mrs. C. T. Aikens and her son, Claud, returned home Friday from a six week's visit with York county friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gibson has gone to Washington, Pa., to the home of her son William, whose wife is quite ill.

John K. From has withdrawn his sale announcements and will fill the acres of J. C. Patton's farm at Centre Line.

The entire Democratic ticket won out on Tuesday with the usual majorities and in consequence the country is safe.

Rev. A. A. Black assisted by the Rev. Kechner, of Centre Hall conducted a very successful meeting at Pine Hall last week.

J. H. Wieland and wife and Scott Wieland and his sister, Freda, visited at the home of Squire J. H. Miller in the Glades on Sunday.

M. P. Corl and wife got on the Monday morning train at State College and started on a ten days visit to Butler county relatives.

Post-office inspector Harter, of Washington, was in town recently passing judgment on the accounts of Post-master Hess which were all O. K.

Quite a number of old veterans from this section attended the reunion of the 148th Regt. in Bellefonte on Wednesday and Thursday.

Herbert Miller and wife and Mrs. G. W. Ward, of Bellefonte, enjoyed the good sleighing on Sunday and partook of grand-mother Fry's hospitality.

John G. Miller, of York, has laid his Blackstone aside for a few days to spend a pleasant visit with his Ferguson township friends.

Last Tuesday morning P. S. Ishler and William Baumgardner took the early train for North Carolina where they expect to invest in timber land.

George Baker and wife, who have been visiting Centre county relatives for the last five months, left for their home in Downs, Kan., on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Jas. B. Erb, formerly of our town but now a lumber and oil king of West Virginia, has been here on a business trip in the interest of some oil options in this State.

Miss Ida Keller, daughter of Squire Keller, who has been visiting her brother, Milton, in Pittsburg and who while there has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is improving slowly.

Frank Fry, D. G. Meek's right hand helper, is laid up on account of injuries sustained while hauling baled hay. He was driving out of the shed when he was squeezed beneath the tie.

The poverty social at the home of Thomas Gramley, last Friday evening, was a most successful affair. Many unique dresses and out fits were on exhibition and lavish refreshments were served by Mrs. Gramley and her daughters.

Dr. Kitter and wife passed through town Saturday en route to Manor Hill to visit grand-pa Gibbons's home. They returned to Boalsburg on Sunday evening very much pleased with the excellent sleighing and the mountain drive.

Scott Bricker, the Boalsburg Wagonmaker and chairman of the Republican committee is laid up with muscular rheumatism. Mrs. Bricker is able to handle the yard stick very successfully but she is not much at getting out the vote.

Squire Michael Hess, happy as usual, came up from Bellefonte last Friday evening to attend the pie social at A. S. Walker's. He is charged with being the saw-dust pie that Gordon Harper passed judgment on. The social was a success and the organ fund is richer by $12.

A crowd of jolly Odd Fellows enjoyed the excellent sleighing on Saturday evening. They came to visit the new lodge hall of 276 and expressed themselves as being very much pleased with their reception and entertainment. The party consisted of P. S. Ishler, D. W. Meyers, John Gingrich, Charles Corl, O. W. Stover, E. H. Williams, R. B. Harr son, William Stover, William Martz all of 84, E. W. Smith of No. 717 and S. B. Frank and John R. Archey of 845.

Elmer Bottorf, a flagman on the railroad at Johnstown, was killed instantly last Friday by a train which was being backed down on the track on which he was standing. He was born at Erbtown about 33 years ago and is survived by his wife, three children and many relatives. His body was brought to Pennsylvania Furnace on Monday morning and interment was made in the M. E. church yard there at 10 o'clock. He was a member of the Reformed church and his pastor as well as many of his neighbors accompanied his body to its last resting place.

THE ODD FELLOWS FEAST.—State College lodge number 1032 I. O. O. F., enjoyed its tenth annual banquet last Thursday evening. The feast was possibly the most elaborate of the season and one hundred and eighty covers were laid. The menu consisted of turkey, oysters, celery, salads, relishes, ice cream, cake and coffee. Those who were fortunate enough to be present were highly gratified and the committee in charge were Messrs Rudy, Morgan, Houser, Lytle and Sheasley. On account of the lateness of the hour speeches were not indulged in but the evening will long be remembered by those present. The order has a membership of 82 and is in the best financial condition.

During a recent visit at the hospitable home of H. M. Snyder we saw photographs of the church and manse in Morenci, Arizona, of which Rev. Ralph W. Hingworth is pastor. The church was recently erected at a cost of $4,000 and was dedicated free of debt. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity and has a large attendance at public worship. The church is entirely self supporting and the town has a population of 4000. The parsonage is one of the finest dwellings in the town and is supplied with steam heat, electric light, modern bathrooms and all conveniences. The aid society of the church tendered Rev. Hingworth and his wife a most delightful reception and their pastorate in their far away charge has opened most auspiciously.

A PRETTY WEDDING.—A very pretty wedding, as well as a pleasant social event, was celebrated on Wednesday at the home of Adam Hosterman, in Boalsburg, when his daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to Matthew Goheen. The reception room was elaborately decorated in greens and fern and the ceremony was performed promptly at 12 o'clock by the bride's pastor, Rev. A. A. Black. Miss Priscilla Wilson was maid of honor and John Kimpfort was best man. A number of guests were present and a delicious wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Goheen departed on the afternoon train for a wedding journey to Philadelphia and Washington. The bride is eminently fitted to take charge of her own home as she has been her father's housekeeper for some years and is a most popular young lady. The groom is a son of William Goheen and is a progressive well to do young man. They will go to farming on the Goheen farm in the spring.

NOW HE'S JUDGE MURPHY.—Our ex-bachelor friend James C. Murphy, has finally become a benedict. Last week he returned home to set up his pins for election judge and he was elected on Tuesday. Now it has developed that while he was away he was united in marriage by the Rev. D. Y. Brouse to Miss Eleanor Shultz, of Evers Grove, Columbia county, to whose charms he succumbed more than a year ago while visiting in Columbia county. James was about forty years in getting there and we would whisper to his better half this admonition, never to argue a question with her "lord of the manor." It is said that he is always "wound up" and that no woman ever yet has had the satisfaction of a last word. With it all though, he is most popular and he has many friends to wish him great happiness in his matrimonial venture. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will go to housekeeping in the groom's cozy home on Water street in the early spring.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week:

Norman E. Fye, of Moshannon, and Annie C. Fye, of Gleasonville.

Matthew W. Goheen and Mary S. Hosterman, both of Boalsburg.

H. C. Kessinger, of Blanchard, and Besie Sarvy, of Moshannon.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

Mr. Marconi has written for the March Century a prefatory note authenticating an article on his work to appear in that number from the pen of P. T. McGrath, editor of the Evening Herald, St. John's, Newfoundland, prepared from frequent interviews with Mr. Marconi during the inventor's three week's stay in that city. The same number will contain the first full account by Dr. Albert P. Mathews, of the Chicago University, of his recently announced discoveries in "The Nature of Nerve Force." The Century announces that it will publish during the present year a number of other curious and important articles in the field of popular science.
