

the tables were most handsomely decorated with carvations; the hotel was brilliantly illuminated and presented a very beautiful and animated appearance. For those who enjoy the pleasures of younger life the opera house was open, where dancing, cards etc., were indulged in to the hearts content and where refreshments were also served. The opera house was tastefully decorated with evergreen and golden yellow bunting—the green and the gold. Here was assembled one of the most beautiful and gayest of throngs—a beautiful scene, even to one whose years put him beyond bounds of participation.

But this was only the flowers of the occasion. The plant and the heart of it was at the home where this honorable and honored couple were receiving the congratulations of hundreds of friends, and surrounded by a family of grown up children living to honor, and make happy in age, their parents. This was the enjoyable place for those whose years, rheumatism or religion forbade the pleasures at the opera house.

Present, the rarest and richest, were presented by friends far and near—presents the value of which to these people, as tokens of high regard, cannot be reckoned, nor their beauty described.

J. H. Lipton was born in Milesburg, Pa., Nov. 13th, 1827, where he grew to manhood.

Lucy Davidson was born in Bellefonte, Pa., July 13th, 1833, where she was raised and educated.

J. H. Lipton and Lucy Davidson were married at Milesburg, Pa., Feb. 12th, 1852, where they lived until 1875, when they moved to Abilene, Kansas, and to Osborn in '78 where they built the McGuire hotel which he afterwards traded for the Lipton house. Later he sold this property and bought the Howell house in Downs which has become known under his management, as the best hotel in Kansas, west of Atchison.

Growing old gracefully, well preserved in body and mind, with thoughts of a successful life, the Times will leave them with kind regards and best wishes, hoping they may live to enjoy, even yet, many happy returns of their wedding anniversary.

A special train from Osborn brought a coach load of guests.

Nice For Lovers.

"If I am not too presumptuous," said the young clerk, "I will ask you to look at our new typewriter especially adapted for writing love letters."

"Oh," exclaimed the blushing maid, "is there any difference?"

"Yes, indeed! Among the punctuation points there is a little star for marking kisses."—Philadelphia Record.

Literary Subjects.

"Whom did you discuss at your literary club this afternoon, dear?" asked the husband in the evening.

"Let me see," murmured his wife. "Oh, yes, I remember now! Why, we discussed that woman who recently moved into the house across the street from us and Longfellow."—Ohio State Journal.

A Financial View.

Eustacia—I knew that man was a physician by the way in which he shook hands—his tender, delicate, considerate touch.

Edgar—Yes, of course; that's his five dollar touch.—Detroit Free Press.

A Mean Man.

"He is the most inconsiderate man I understand."

How?

"He refuses to give his wife any grounds on which to get a divorce with alimony."—Chicago Post.

Sweeping.

"I was just telling my daughter," said Mrs. Nexdore, "that it's a shame of her to play the piano on Sunday." "Huh!" exclaimed Mrs. Pepprey. "Why Sunday especially?"

Pine Grove Mention.

Our town is having a water famine.

M. M. Smith has gone to Altoona for better wages.

The venerable William Garner is quite ill with the grip.

The sale of the Walker estate on last Saturday was well attended.

Lawrence Eckley, an employe in a Pittsburgh rolling mill, is home.

J. A. Wason, of Tyrone, was in town recently placing monuments in the city of the dead.

William Beck has rented the Johnston farm at Marengo and will take possession April 1st.

Mr. Oscar Rishel, one of Harris township's successful farmers, transacted business in town recently.

A life saving crew was organized last Friday night in order to land some of the town dads safe home over the flood.

A congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church next Monday. A treasurer and two trustees are to be elected.

J. C. Neidigh, a brakeman on the middle division of the P. R. E., is home nursing an injury inflicted by the bumpers, which has laid him up for some time.

Rev. C. T. Aikens was called to Troxelville on Monday to adjust a little church trouble there. Mrs. Aikens visited friends in Bellefonte during his absence.

Will Bottorff, of Lenont, interviewed our merchants last week. He is representing the Biddle hardware Co., of Philadelphia and is making the trade go.

Captain J. M. Kepler returned home Saturday from his annual three months' stay at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, and a trying time he had getting from Tyrone to his home on account of the high water.

A very delightful social was held at the home of Amos Koch recently. The house, which is the old J. F. Krebs home, is well fitted for large entertainments and every one had a good time. M. E. Heberling won the prize for having answered 13 of the 20 questions and the organ fund is $17 richer.

At David Otto's public sale bidding was quite lively. Corn sold for 49 cents per single bushel and Mr. Otto realized what he expected. On Tuesday Mr. Otto shipped his household goods by rail to Clearfield county, where he will operate a large house near Marron. We would commend Mr. Otto, his excellent wife and family to the good people of Marron.

Mrs. D. G. Meek is recovering from a ten days' illness.

After an all winter's visit with Centre county relatives, J. E. Musser has returned to Orangeville, Ill., to engage in farming.

We are sorry to announce the serious illness of Col. Jas. T. Stewart. He is in such a critical condition with pneumonia that a consultation of physicians was held Wednesday.

S. M. Bell, the hustling hardware man, was here last week delivering his ninety-third stove this season. He proposes making it one hundred before the season is over.

The Jr. O. A. M. held its annual banquet at the St. Elmo on last Thursday evening. Covers were laid for sixty-five and Prof. J. H. Ward royally entertained the guests with his big phonograph.

On Sunday there will be an election of deacons and trustees in the Lutheran church. Wm. M. Keller and J. I. Reed are the candidates for the deacons, while D. L. Miller and Jacob Reish are the candidates for trustees.

F. H. Thomas, Supt. of the Bellefonte Central R. R., has purchased the Pennington property west of town, to utilize it as a water station on the new extension on which work will commence as soon as the weather permits.

The thunder storm on Friday night was rather surprising for the time of the year and for a time it looked as though the whole country would be washed away. A number of fences were destroyed and all next day roads were well nigh impassible.

Rev. J. M. Campbell, of Carbon county ably filled the pulpit in the Grassyville Presbyterian church on Sunday. Owing to the deluge only a small congregation was present but Mr. Campbell was much appreciated. He is a candidate for the charge and we are thinking they had better freeze onto him.

The flood on Friday and Saturday was the worst within the recollection of our oldest citizens. Fields and roads were washed out, bridges and fences were swept away and cellars and stables were filled with water. On the Robinson farm the cattle had to be dragged out of the water in the stable by their horns and the straw stack floated around in the torrent like so much paper. The town was entirely cut off from the outside world for several days and trains were not gotten through to Tadpole on the Tyrone and Lewisburg road until Thursday. At Graysville part of the big dam gave way submerging the town and Isaac Woomer's mill was so badly damaged that it will be out of business for some time.

Snow Shoe.

The institute, owing to the recent rain, was not held as was expected on last Friday and Saturday.

Snow has fallen to the depth of 18 inches and the wind is piling it up in the roads at a terrible rate at the present writing.

The several cases of diphtheria reported in town are all nearly well and no lives have been lost which we consider fortunate.

Entire railroad traffic was suspended on Saturday and Monday forenoon, owing to the damage done on the Bald Eagle branch by the recent deluge.

Mr. J. Linden, of Fort Collins, Col., spent Sunday in town with his brother Dr. J. W. Neff. Mr. Neff has not been in Pennsylvania for about ten years but looks very much as though crossing the Rockies agrees with him.

Prof. C. L. Gramley was in Snow Shoe and Burnside township last week visiting schools and owing to the high water having cut off railroad communication was compelled to be driven over the mountain to Bellefonte on Saturday.

We notice the name of Mr. E. A. Hump-ton, of this place, among the announcements for commissioner. Mr. Hump-ton is a man worthy the office and all Democrats will do well to consider his ability before pledging themselves to others.
