THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The old Bellefonte club is to be reorganized.

J. W. Baisor has been appointed postmaster at Benore.

Twenty-one inches of snow fell in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

Grip had assistant postmaster William Chambers in his grip for a few days recently.

The newly elected constables were sworn into office by prothonotary Gardner on Monday.

A dancing room and good supper will be furnished sleighing parties stopping at the Brant house.

W. G. Weaver recently killed an otter that was five feet in length near Hyner, Clinton county.

The first robin of the season was heard chirping in the trees about Bellefonte on Sunday morning.

Will Longwell has come back to Bellefonte from Steelton and will be employed by Edward Eckenroth.

Mail carrier Robert Woodring's two children are ill with scarlet fever and their home on Penn street is quarantined.

Another little girl has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whittaker, on west High street, to keep Stella company.

The teachers local institute that was to have been held at Snow Shoe on Saturday had to be postponed on account of the high water.

Abednego Warren, of Philipsburg, and William Mollhatau, of Bellefonte, have both been placed on the pension list at $8 per month.

George Spicer, who had been in charge of the Bellefonte almshouse for some time, has resigned and the position being given to John Farley.

The offices of the commissioners and treasurer in the court house have been nicely repaired and repainted and present a very attractive appearance.

Steele Heverly, who has lived at Ax Mann all of the 68 years of his life, says that he has never seen such high water as Logan's branch carried on Friday.

Lightning struck the barns of Isaac Fraun and Furst Bros. in Nittany valley during the thunder storm last Friday night. Neither one was damaged.

Up to last Thursday night one hundred and thirty-five persons professed religion at the great revival that is going on in the Methodist church at Grampian.

The Bellefonte Academy basket ball team defeated the Co. B. players in the armory last Saturday night by the score of 17 to 15. There were about 400 spectators present.

The finest sign seen in Bellefonte is the new electrical one in front of Eckenroth's paper store. It certainly is a beauty and just one of the kind seen in the large cities.

James Whittaker, of this place, has been granted a pension of $8.00 per month. Mrs. Clara E. Idings, of Wingate, and Mrs. Nancy Sanky, of Philipsburg, have each been put on the list for a like amount.

Four good sales for you to attend next week will be those of J. Morris Furey on the 12th, I. N. Harvey on the 13th and William Decker and J. M. Ward on the 14th. More detailed accounts of them can be found in our "Sale Register."

Despite the terrible blizzard that visited this community on Wednesday the chicken and waffle supper given by the members of Mrs. J. E. Ward's Sabbath school class and their mothers netted the bond fund more than twenty-two dollars.

Oliver Hazel is the new messenger for the Adams express company in this place. He went to work just when everything was piled up in the office as a result of the flood blockades, so already has a fair idea what he will have to do about Christmas time.

Arthur Thomas, a son of Isaac Thomas, of Thomas street, was driving one of Toner's horses down Bishop street on Monday afternoon when the animal got away from him and there was a bad runaway. Thomas was thrown out and his scalp so badly cut that he had to be carried to Dr. Sebring's office where five stitches were put into the wound to close it up.

Cigar dealer Chas. Cruse brought the first and only mail that came into Bellefonte on Friday. He lives at Ax Mann and when the post-master of that place realized that there would be no trains to send it in on it was given to Charles and he toted it to Bellefonte, arriving here at his usual hour. Those who know him best will know when that was, but to those who don't we'll give the tip that he would be a "peech" as a district messenger boy.

J. D. Neahod has taken possession of the Irvin shop at Baileyville and will branch out in the wagon making and blacksmithing business. He has employed C. R. Brown, the expert blacksmith from Houserville, and guarantees the best kind of work at fair prices. Mr. Neahod is a man of his word and what he says may be relied upon, so we have no hesitation in recommending his shop as a satisfactory place to go for anything needed in that line.

THE OLD AND NEW COUNCILS.—Monday morning witnessed the annual councilmanic change in this place. The old body finished up its business and adjourned, sine die, then the hold-overs and new members, who had been sworn in by Justice Harshberger, met and organized by electing Col. W. Fred Reynolds president and H. B. Pontius, secretary. The election of Pontius was unanimous, but for clerk the vote was five for Pontius and four for Oscar Wezel. With this done adjournment was made until evening to give the new president time to make up his committees.

Very little business was transacted by the old body before its adjournment. C. T. Gerberich, the president, who is retired after nine years of faithful service in council, made a farewell speech to the remaining members. Bills were approved and ordered paid as follows: Logan Fire Co., janitor's service, $ 8.00; Street pay roll, 44.22; Police pay roll, 50.00; Water pay roll, 106.75; R. B. Taylor, coal for W. W., 141.59; Geo. L. Potter, insurance on W. W., 20.00; Treasurer fireman's relief fund, 255.06; Sinking fund, 2000.00; $2,625.56; Chas. F. Cook read the following report:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Bal. in hands of treasurer, March 4th, 1901, $1,847.63; Rec'd from County Treasurer, $ 570.00; Rec'd from Ray, Col. 1893, 75.00; Taylor, col. 1897, 600.00; etc.

During the morning treasurer Cook read the following report: Bal. in hands of treasurer, March 4th, 1901, $1,847.63; Rec'd from County Treasurer, $ 570.00; Rec'd from Ray, Col. 1893, 75.00; Taylor, col. 1897, 600.00; etc.

Borough orders paid, $1,130.52; Water, $ 808.73; Interest paid on bonds, $325.00; Loans, 352.87; orders, 400.00; State tax, 254.60; Loan paid to G. L. Potter, 900.00; Treasurer's salary, 300.00; Postage and stationery, 5.00; $2,706.73

Bal. in hands of Treas. Mar. 3rd, 1902, $1,386.60; SINKING FUND ACCOUNT; Bal. in hands of Treas. Mar. 4th, 1901, 68.72; Interest received, 7.50; Bal. in hands of Treas. Mar. 3rd, 1902, $901.22

This practically finished the work of the old body and it adjourned. During the recess that followed Squire H. H. Harshberger swore in the three new councilmen, George Mallory, Dr. M. A. Kirk, William Derstine, and borough auditor Isaac Underwood, borough treasurer George R. Meek, overseer R. S. Brouse and high constable Benj. Williams into their respective offices.

Nothing more was done at the organization meeting of the new body in the morning than to elect the officers as above. Col. Reynolds, on assuming the president's chair, had a few words of thanks for the honor that had been bestowed upon him and assured the body that he would give every duty his most careful attention.

The evening session was called to order at 7:30, but owing to the non-arrival of several members it was after 8 before they got down to business. Considerable interest was manifested in the meeting because the various borough officers were to be chosen and it could not be found out just what council would do in the selection of them.

President Reynolds first announced his committees as follows, the first member named being chairman: Finance—Potter, Knisely and Gherrity. Street—Derstine, Cunningham and Potter. Fire and Police—Knisely, Whittaker and Mallory. Water—Gherrity, Whittaker and Kirk. Nuisance—Cunningham, Derstine and Kirk. Market—Potter, Knisely and Mallory. Village Improvement—Whittaker, Potter and Kirk.

The committees retired to caucus on appointments for the several departments and after their return they were made as follows: The Street committee had no recommendation to make, but presented all five applicants for the office of street commissioner to council. They were James Gallagher, Joel Johnson, Thomas Shaughnessy, Robert Miller, and John Carney. Shaughnessy was re-elected on the first ballot. Reynolds, Derstine, Potter, Knisely and Whittaker voted for him. Gherrity voted for Carney, Mallory for Johnson and Cunningham and Kirk for Miller.

The Water committee recommended Sup't. Sam Rine and his election was made by acclamation. The Fire and Police committees recommended Miller and Mullen and they were accepted by council without discussion. The question of who should be solicitor was taken up next and it was some time before anyone could be placed in nomination. Finally Mr. Derstine named E. K. Chambers, then Mr. Cunningham named D. F. Fortney and Mr. Knisely named Clement Dale. On the first ballot Derstine, Gherrity and Reynolds voted for Chambers; Cunningham, Whittaker, Mallory and Kirk voted for Fortney and Potter and Knisely voted for Dale. On the second ballot all voted for Fortney but Potter, who continued to vote for Dale.

J. H. Wetzel was unanimously chosen borough solicitor. Council then decided to notify Mrs. A. M. Mott that her intention to build a livery stable for James Toner on Water street is contrary to borough ordinance. A paper was read before council as follows by Mr. Gherrity:

WHEREAS, The present condition of the borough water works is such that, in time of flood, the pumps are necessarily prevented from working; and

WHEREAS, It has been proven that, by changing the position of the present machinery, and with a new water wheel and pump, also a railroad siding to the works, and present annual expenses may be reduced almost one-quarter, therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed who shall have power to reconstruct the borough water works and pumping station according to the general plans submitted to the council during the last year; provided, however, the cost of such reconstruction and improvement together shall not exceed six thousand ($6,000) dollars.

Upon motion of Mr. Knisely it was adopted and the president appointed the following committee to take it up: Messrs. Gherrity, Whittaker, Kirk, Knisely and Derstine.

Then bills as follows were ordered paid and council adjourned: American Fire Engine Co., $17.40; J. S. Knisely, blacksmithing, 25; Irons for lock-up, 1.35; Bellefonte Gas Co., 37.00; E. E. Hill, Co. light for streets, 370.40; H. H. Harshberger, admin'g oaths, 1.25; E. E. Hill, Co. light for public building, 12.00; " " light for water works, 1.70; $471.50

The Hawthorne musical club will be the next attraction in the Star course. It will appear in the court house this evening. Go and hear something fine.

The last communion service of this conference year will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Sabbath. It is also missionary day in the Sabbath school as owing to the inclement weather the regular collection was not lifted last Sunday.

Mrs. W. F. Reeder gave a fancy work party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Joseph E. Borches, of Knoxville, Tenn. About thirty-five guests were present and Mrs. Mollie L. Valentine won the prize in the advertising picture contest.

Word from Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, who are now cruising in southern waters for the benefit of the former's health, is to the effect that he is very much improved. After touching at Havana, Cuba, they sailed on to Nassau, one of the Bahamas. The Colonel's trouble is of a nervous nature and he writes that the sea is very quieting and restful. We hope it may continue so.

Dr. Ellis I. Kirk, brother of Dr. M. A. Kirk and who was a resident of this place nineteen or twenty years ago, died recently in Burr Oak, Iowa, of Bright's disease. His home was in Toledo, O., but he had not been well for some months, and had gone to Burr Oak for an extended stay with his brother, Dr. Thomas Kirk, with the hope that a change would be beneficial. He is survived by his second wife, two sons, James, of Boston, Ellis, of Reading, and four small children.

W. R. Shope, the local lumber jobber, was one of the losers by the recent flood, though he did not suffer as much as would have been the case had his men not worked until late Thursday evening loading two cars of paper wood. The wood would certainly have been carried away by the water, for several piles of new ties he had beside it are scattered along the stream somewhere. We have heard that parties are dragging his ties off the banks and endeavoring to conceal them. People who would take such an advantage of one who has suffered such a misfortune have very little feeling or honor. It is worse than stealing and the fellow who grabs a penny out of the blind beggar's hat is no worse than the one who endeavors to conceal property that another has lost in the flood.

THE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION MEETS.—The Bellefonte Ministerial Association met Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the following members present: Revs. Dr. Holloway, W. H. Brown, T. J. Askew, Geo. I. Brown, A. M. Schmidt, R. C. Crittenden and Sec. Gamel. A sermon on "Justification, its Conditions and Results" was read by Rev. W. H. Brown.

A paper, "Scriptural Doctrine in Christian Experience," was read by Rev. Mr. Crittenden. After a general discussion on these subjects the association adjourned to meet March 17th, 2 p. m.

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The Hawthorne musical club, a concert comedy company of Boston, will give a novel entertainment in the court house this evening. This is the eighth and last of the entertainments of the Star course and the club was secured as one of the best attractions of the series. It is an up-to-date musical organization which introduces some first class comedy with a program of the best and most popular instrumental and vocal music. The instruments used by the soloists are the best on the market and the club has secured many decided successes this season. Admission 35cts., reserved seats 15cts. extra.

THE PASSION PLAY.—There will be a great treat at St. John's Catholic church on Wednesday the 12th when the wonderful Passion Play, as presented in the little Bavarian village of Oberammergau, will be presented in moving pictures. This is an event that people have traveled around the world to see and represents a work of lifetime's devotion on the part of the population of that town. Here it will be presented in all its features, as true to life as photographs can make it and you will only need to go to St. John's Catholic church to see it.

In addition, there will be scenes of incidents during the life of Joan d'Arc, all of which will combine to make a very pleasing and instructive entertainment.

A MASONIC TEMPLE FOR BELLEFONTE.—The Masons of Bellefonte on Tuesday night took steps that will soon put them in possession of a home of their own and if plans already talked of are carried out they will have as fine a little temple for Constant Commandery, the Blue Lodge and the Chapter in Bellefonte as can be found in many cities where the organizations are far stronger.

At present they occupy the entire top floor of the Reynolds bank building which was arranged especially for them, but there has been such a decided immigration of pilgrims eastward lately that a large and more handsome home seemed easily possible.

The property that has passed into the control of the Masons is the old Humes home on north Allegheny street in part of which the First National bank began business in 1860. It is a fine old pressed brick house with marble trimmings and was built at a cost of about $12,000. The Masons paid $6,000 for it and expect to spend as much more in improvements.

Though nothing is definite the plans talked of now comprehend the addition of a third story to the building. This will be used for meeting rooms. The second floor will be fitted up for banqueting and club rooms, the intention being to make the social feature of the organizations more prominent and attractive than they have been. The first floor will be fitted up for offices.

THE CREAMERY AT CENTRE HALL BURNED.—The plant of the Howard Creamery Co. at Centre Hall caught fire about 10 o'clock Tuesday night and was totally destroyed. The fire originated in the eastern end of the building and it was so far advanced before its discovery that there was little chance to save the plant.

As to the cause. That is a mystery. There was no one in the building at the time and there was not even fire under the boilers, as it had been drawn so that they could be repaired. The company carried $2,500 insurance on the property, but that will hardly cover the loss, as it was the best of the many Howard plants in the county, besides having a lot of machinery belonging to the old Spring Mills plant in storage.

ASBURY RHODES HURT.—Asbury Rhodes, of Tyrone, who was in the large force of men repairing track near Bellefonte on Monday morning, became wedged between a car and a tank rope that was being used to pull it with and was so badly squeezed that he was taken to his home in Tyrone on a morning train.

He was hurt inwardly, but the exact nature of it could not be discovered in the short examination possible to the company's physician here.

HENRY DERR YERGER.—At half past two o'clock Saturday morning a long period of suffering was ended for Henry D. Yerger and he passed peacefully into the great beyond. He had been ill for nearly five years with locomotor ataxia.

Deceased had been a well known and generally respected resident of this place since 1868 and up until the time of his last illness had been active as a contractor in stone and brick work. He was born at Trappes, Montgomery county, Sept. 27th, 1833. In 1862 he was married to Miss Lydia Pink, of Bucks county, who survives him with their five children: H. C., of Patton; A. O., of Howard; Elmer, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Emma Rimart, of Howard, and Mary, of Bellefonte.

He was a good citizen, progressive and useful and was one of the charter members of the Logan Hose Co. having been, at the time of his death, the oldest member of that famous organization. Funeral services will be conducted in the Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in the Union cemetery.

DEATH OF MARY POTTER CRANE.—Mrs. Mary Potter Crane, wife of Simeon H. Crane, died on Thursday morning, February 27th, at her home in Chicago, Ill., after an illness extending over several months. Mrs. Crane was born in Penn's Valley, Centre county, fifty-six years ago and was a sister of the late Capt. W. W. and Dr. Geo. L. Potter, of Bellefonte. She was married in Madison, Ind., to Simeon H. Crane and since 1865 has resided in Chicago. Mrs. Crane was an active, practical worker in charities, being president of the Chicago Protective Agency for Women and Children. She was also president of the Illinois Commandery, Dames of the Royal Legion, a member of the Ladies Friendly Aid Society, a director of the Half-Orphan Asylum, a member of the Chicago Woman's Club and the Chicago chapter Daughters of the American Revolution.

The funeral occurred from her late home in Chicago on Friday, February 18th, and the burial was at Madison, Ind. Mr. Crane and their only child, Marie Potter Crane, survive her.

James B. Shipton, a fifteen-year-old boy who made his home with his uncle Dr. L. C. Harman in Philipsburg, became ill while on his way home from school Thursday evening and was carried to the Doctor's office. He lingered awhile and died. His death was caused by a rupture of a blood vessel in the brain.

The venerable Patrick Gorman died at his home in Snow Shoe on Tuesday from the effects of old age. He was a generally respected resident of that community and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery yesterday morning.

Tobias Fahr died from the infirmities of old age at his home at Julian and is survived by his second wife and a number of children. Deceased was 85 years old and for years had been connected with the United Brethren church.

The Hawthorne musical club tonight in the court house, is going to be a first-class show. Marion Wilson and the Marshall sisters were not able to get here last Friday night on account of the flood, so the entertainment to-night is the last one of the Star course.

Mrs. John G. Kurtz, formerly of this place but now of Washington, D. C., has announced the marriage of her daughter, Caroline, and Mr. Wirt Webb, of Alabama. The marriage took place Wednesday February, the 26th, in Milton, where the Kurtz family made their home for many years, and Mr. and Mrs. Webb will reside in Washington, where Mr. Webb holds a position. The bride has visited here many times and her father, the late John G. Kurtz, who died in Washington several years ago, edited the Central Press here in the early sixties.

John C. Miller spent the fore part of the week in Huntingdon. Harry Showers, of Williamsport, spent Sunday at the home of his parents on east Bishop street.

Mrs. Sydney Barlett, of Altoona, is visiting at the home of her husband's parents on north Thomas street. Mrs. Simon Harper, of Centre Hall, is visiting relatives in Bellefonte and will be here for several weeks.

Mrs. M. F. Blanchard and Miss Sara B. Hagerman were in Philipsburg on Friday to attend the funeral of the late James C. Williams.

Maurice Otto, who is superintendent of masonry on the new West Branch railroad, was home to spend Sunday with his parents in this place.

Jake DeHaas, the even tempered proprietor of the Syracuse house at Howard, was in town on Tuesday and declared that he is still hunting for his red rooster.

W. C. Kreamer, of Milesburg, was in town on Tuesday to take a little look around at the flood's work and seemed very willing to grant that it was a "bad job."

Geo. A. Clark, of Shepardsville, W. Va., was at home on Friday having come up to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, of Buffalo Run.

S. Cameron Burnside was in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, on his way back to Philadelphia from Pittsburgh to which place he had accompanied Mrs. Burnside.

Samuel Noll, of Pleasant Gap, was among the many strangers in town on Monday looking at the ruined streets and desolation left in the wake of the great flood here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Larimer, of Jersey Shore, were in town for a few days during the fore part of the week. Lee came up to tell of his first experience with a river flood.

J. C. Rowan, of Buffalo Run, was in Bellefonte on Monday looking at the devastation made by the flood, and contributed a little "grease" to help clean up the WATCHMAN'S presses.

Mr. P. B. Crider and his grand daughter, Miss Mary Crider, who were flood-stayed in Lock Haven on their way north from the Charleston exposition, arrived home Sunday afternoon.

John Todd Jr., the Philipsburg coal operator, was in town on Tuesday. He is of the opinion that unless facilities are soon had for getting more cars to the banks in that region all the good business will be lost.

Geo. T. Brew, of Oakland, Md. was an arrival in town on Wednesday and his many friends in this place are wondering how he managed to tear himself away from the new daughter that came to bless their home only a few days ago. He returned next day.

Hon. John S. Rilling, of Erie, ex-state chairman of the Democratic state committee, was a distinguished visitor to Bellefonte on Tuesday. Though his advent caused all the local politicians to prick up their ears his visit was on business of a purely private nature.

John Woods, the Spring township resident who seems to have a little mind idea away somewhere down about Nigh bank, was in town on Tuesday and made a deposit at this office that helped considerably in making good for what the waters had done of a few days before.

Dave Wilson, of Howard, was in town on Tuesday looking sleek and well kept as ever. Though he has retired from the Howard Creamery Co. he expects to continue as a resident of Howard and will do as Micawber did, wait for something to turn up.

John Carver, who lives a few miles above town decided that the WATCHMAN would need lots of money to get straightened up after the wreck of Friday and dropped in next day to help along a little. If his paper should have maddy streaks for a few weeks he saw enough while here to understand why it is.

Martin McLaughlin, the ex-railroad agent at Snow Shoe who is off work for some time on account of what was feared would be a very serious illness, is home from the Medico-Chirurgical hospital in Philadelphia, where he spent several weeks for treatment. His condition is such that he hopes to be restored to his former robust health by a period of rest.

James A. Keller, of Centre Hall, and S. H. Bailey, of Boalsburg, were two well known gentlemen who had to spend Wednesday night and most of yesterday in town as a result of the snow blockades. They came down to attend the regular meeting of the Granger's Insurance company, but didn't seem very much discomfited by having to tarry a little longer here.

Mrs. J. M. Laurie, Mrs. Nancy Orshon, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Miss Blanche Hayes and Mrs. Lou Van T. Harris were delegates to the foreign missionary meeting in Lewistown. They started in the midst of the worst blizzard we have had this winter and whether they got there or not is another chapter, for the trains are uncertain quantities these days of floods and deep snows.

Tom S. DeLong, ex-school teacher, lumberman and politician, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday making some purchases and judging from the size of the telescope he carried home with him and the way he had to tug to carry it at all, we imagine he must have taken a fair sized stroke back to Romola. Mr. DeLong is engaged on a big lumber operation up at Emporium, but has been visiting his family at Romola for several weeks.

Former Governor and Mrs. Hastings were among the delayed passengers at Tyrone last Saturday and on the evening of the latter day the governor could wait no longer, but chartered a special train to bring him down to Bellefonte.

He invited all the others there who were flood staid to ride with him and a great many people were able to get to their homes in Bald Eagle valley who would have had to remain at Tyrone until the next day.

The venerable David Kauffman, of Lamar, Clinton county, who is visiting his cousin Benjamin Kauffman, below town, was in Bellefonte yesterday taking a little look around in places he very rarely visits. He is a farmer in the lower end of Nittany valley and though way past the age at which most men retire is still very active at his work. He was interested in the lake which has so suddenly covered 62 acres of Benj. Kauffman's farm. It is evidently the overflow of some subterranean lake.

BARLETT—LILLIEDAHL.—A pleasant though quiet little wedding was celebrated last Thursday evening at the U. B. parsonage on Thomas street, when Miss Grace S. Barlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Barlett, and Carl A. Lilliedahl were united in marriage by the Rev. Thomas Perks.

The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock and directly after the young people were driven to the home of the bride's parents on north Thomas street where a delicious wedding supper was served. During the evening an informal reception was given them by their young friends and they were the recipients of many good wishes and the heartiest congratulations.

The bride, who has been well trained in household affairs by an excellent mother, is a capable and pleasant young girl, deserving of happiness and prosperity. Her husband, Mr. Lilliedahl, is a native of Williamsport. He worked in the machine shops here last summer but is now employed in the shops at Altoona, where they will go to housekeeping.

SQUIRE REIFSNYDER MARRIED.—Squire J. H. Reifsnnyder, the well known Millheim resident, was married at Rebersburg on Wednesday of last week; the ceremony being a strictly private one. The happy bride was Mrs. Woodling, widow of Philip Woodling, Dec'd. of Rebersburg. Rev. Herman performed the ceremony that made man and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Reifsnnyder spent part of their honeymoon in this place, where they received the congratulations of many friends. Yesterday afternoon they went to Lock Haven.

SEGENER-MAYES.—On Wednesday, 26th, Miss Sophronia Segner and Jared D. Mayes, of Lemont, were married at the home of the bride's father, Michael Segner, at Boalsburg, by the Rev. G. W. Lescher. The ceremony was performed at 6 o'clock and was witnessed by a number of guests. The bride's sister, Miss Ella Segner, was maid of honor and W. S. Evey, of Lemont, was best man. An elaborate wedding supper was served and the young people will make their home at Lemont, where the groom is associated with his father, J. B. Mayes, in the marble business.

Wilbur Henney, Frank Ross and Harry Harper, three Centre Hall boys, left for Pittsburg on Tuesday evening to find employment in the Smoky city.
