Ship Subsidy Bill

It Passed the United States Senate Monday Afternoon. Measure Won by Eleven Votes. Six Republicans Voted Against the Bill and One Democrat. Voted for It. The Vote was Yeas 42, Nays 31.

WASHINGTON, March 17 .- After prolonged debate the Senate to-day passed the ship subsidy bill, the final vote on the measure being 42 to 31. Senators Allison and Dolliver, of Iowa, Spooner and Quarles, of Wisconsin, and Proctor and Dillingham, of Vermont, Republicans, voted against final passage of the bill and Senator Mo-Langin, of South Carolina, voted for it. Some amendments to the bill were adopted but they were all agreeable to those in charge of the measure, friends of the bill voting down all other amendments. the exception of an amendment offered by Mr. Frye, limiting the time of the operation of contracts made under the provisions of the bill to July 1st, 1902, and providing that the amount of the expenditure under the mail subsidy paragraph shall not at any time exceed $8,000,000, annually, none of the amendments agreed to materially affected the bill as it was reported from the commerce committee.

The voting upon amendments began at 3 o'clock and such a flood of them was offered that a final vote on the bill, as amended, was not reached until just before 6 o'clock. Amendments offered by Mr. Vest, of Missouri, providing for "Free ships and for the application of the provisions of the anti-trust law to the shipping industry? were rejected, as was the amendment prepared by Mr. Patterson, of Colorado, viding that no Chinese person should be a member of the crew of the subsidized vessel. Mr. Pettus, of Alabama, offered a resolution providing that the total expenditure under the bill should not exceed $9,000,-000 any one year. It was adopted in committee of the whole, but later in the Senate was rejected. The Senate agreed to an amendment, offered by Mr. Spooner, providing that Congress should have power to amend or was their privilege, that 420 local Congress. repeal the act, without impairing any contract made under its authority. Mr. Hauna of Ohio, offered, and the Senate adopted, three amendments applying directly to the acquisition by J. Pierpont Morgan and his associates of the Leyland line of British ships. They provide that no foreign-built 415 local Granges have declared for exnothing in the act shall be construed to Lieutenant-Governor Chauncey Black; 3 from holding or operating foreign ships in don; 1 for Elisha A. ## New Banknotes Prepared Beauty of Design and Convenience in Handling. Their Features.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Comptroller issued to-day the first delivery of new national bank notes, known as the series of 1902.

The notes will be issued only to banks organized since January 1, 1902, and those extending or re-extending their charters. These notes are a radical departure in design, and are considered a great improvement. The backs have an artistic Vignette in green. The faces bear portraits of President Harrison for the $5 note. President McKinley for the $10, Secretary McCulloch for the $20, Secretary Sherman for the $50 and Comptroller of the Currency John J. Knox for the $100. To facilitate assorting the charter num bers with a system of letters in broad-face type designating the geographical division in which the bank is located, has been devised as follows: Letter N, New England States; E, Eastern States; M, Middle States; S, Southern States; W, Western States, and P, Pacific States.

The Comptroller saves bank correspondence by announcing that it will be impossible to change designs for banks which have already had their notes prepared.

The Great Boston Strike is Over.

BOSTON, March 17 .- The great strike of last week, involving 20,000 union men, was completely wiped out to-day when practically every man went back to his work under conditions but slightly changed from those existing when the trouble To-night the only incident in the labor situation is the strike of seventy-five longshoremen at the Clyde line wharves. This is an independent strike brought about by arrange for it. Mr. Hill reported to-day two disgruntled workmen. When He Finally Boarded the Deutschland at New York He Slept Almost Continuously for Forty-Eight Hours. Except for the Time He Appeared for His Meals or to Take Short Walks on the Bridge.

CHERBOURG, France, March 17.-The arrangements made by Emperor William for the reception of Prince Henry, when the latter arrives at Cuxhaven, were communicated to the Frince after the Deutsch-land left Plymouth. Prince Henry expressed himself as greatly pleased therewith. He interprets the elaborate plans of Emperor William as an expression of his majesty's complete satisfaction at the success of the Prince's American trip. Prince Henry says he was so tired when he finally boarded the Deuteshland at New York that he slept almost continuously for forty-eight hours, except for the time he appeared for his meals or to take short walks on the bridge. He says he never worked so hard in his life' as when he was in the United States; that he never changed his uniform so many times a day or faced a succession of situations requiring such alertness and a certain initiative on his part They were situations which could not be met with merely formal behavior or the Mechanical execution of a routine program.

While conversing with members of his suite, Prince Henry has alluded to many things in connection with his trip. He has mentioned nothing more frequently than that no single unpleasant incident occurred in the United States. Ideas, scenes were crowded upon him too rapidly for proper appreciation at the moment perhaps, but as Prince Henry himself said: "We have accumulated material to think about for months to come." When one of his party asked him what had impressed him most, the Prince replied that the great, orderly and cheerful crowds had been his most continuous topics of interest and would probably always be one of his vivid impressions. he saw crowds out of The Prince said doors and indoors, faces of men and women, with here and there a powerful, a beautiful, or a spiritual face. He said his regret, if he dared to say he had any, was that he could not know some of those people bet-

Methuen Saw Them.

Identified the Boer's Advance When Three Miles Away.

LONDON, March 18 .- Describing the disaster to General Methnen, the Pretoria correspondent of the Standard repeats the details already given in Lord Kitchener's despatches and adds that General Methuen identified the Boer advance when it was three miles distant.

The correspondent praises the gallantry of the Boers, who, he says, charged heedless of the hot fire into their lines, and contrasts the cool steadiness of the British infantry supporting the guns, when the muzzles of the Boer guns were upon them. After placing the convoys in the kraal in charge of Major Paris, continues the correspondent, General Methuen galloped back to the guns on the right. He enconraged his men by voice and gesture and became a conspicuous target for the Boer marksmen, who concentrated their fire on him as he rode from point to point.

When commandant Colliers unmasked a couple of fifteen-pounders and began shelling the kraal, that position became hopeless and it would have been, under the circumstances, nothing short of madness to look for any favorable issue, The only means of preventing unavailing loss of life was surrender.

Granger Rhone's Canvass. Saus He Had a Right to Get Sentiment Concerning

Leonard Rhone, for years Worthy Master of the Pennsylvania State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, in a statement issued from Harrisburg Friday night, resents the as sertion of present Worthy Master Hill and secretary of the executive committee Oster that he had no right as a member of the executive committee to canvass the local Granges to obtain their sentiment on the gubernatorial caudidates. He says it was merely the following out of a custom observed in the past and adds:

"In response to these inquiries nearly 500 of the State have voluntarily replied in bewas their privilege, that 420 local Granges have declared for former Lieutenant-Governor L. A. Watres; 13 for Lieutenant Governor J. P. S. Gobin; 4 for Attorney-General J. P. Elkin; 2 for J. C. Sibley and 1 for T. M. Mahon.

Defeat.

WASHINGTON, March 19 .- It is stated here to-night that as a result of the conferference in Philadelphia yesterday between Governor Stone, Attorney General Elkin and Insurance Commissioner Durham, and the latter consultation here last night between Mr. Durham and Senator Penrose. Senator Quay has been asked to come home from Florida at once and he will arrive here within a few days.

It is claimed that both the Penrose and the Elkin people are alarmed at the situation; the first because of the increasing opposition to the nomination of the Attorney General and the latter because of the announcement in so many counties that the delegates to the state convention will not be instructed on the gubernatorial question, but will be "friends of Quay." Pennsylvanians look upon this as meanng that Senator Quay intends to thus control a majority of the state convention, and then, should Mr. Elkin be found too heavy a load for the party to carry this year, the "mailed hand" will be laid on him and he will be set aside. It is also reported that the leaders of both factions in Pittsburg have notified Governor Stone that there can be no harmony there with Mr. Elkin as the nominee

No State Agricultural Exhibit.

Hill, of Meadville, master of the State Grange, was recently chosen to which the committee decided to cover the money back into the state treasury.

Fusion in Nebraska.

Tacit Agreement Between Democrats and Populist

LINCOLN, Neb., March 19.-The state Populists met here to-night to agree upon the time and place for the state conventions, but decided to delegate power to their respective chairmen. The question of fusion was discussed in executive session and, although no binding action was taken, there was a tacit agreement that the two parties will fuse on a state ticket.
