Mother Appeals to the President.

Mrs. Richter Begs for Full Investigation of Soldier's Death.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 9.—Mrs. Ellen C. Richter, mother of Edward Richter, the Syracuse soldier whose death in the Philippines was reported to be the result of torture inflicted as punishment by Lieutenant Sinclair, his superior officer, has appealed directly to the President for a just investigation. To-day she sent the following dispatch:

"I appeal to you to see that the whole truth regarding the death of Edward C. Richter, Company I, Twentieth-eight Infantry, at Samarines, Philippine Islands, on February 9th, 1902, be made known by a thorough and public investigation."

"I appeal to you to see that the facts in the case are not pigeonholed and suppressed or the officer shielded who is charged with the cruel and inhuman treatment of my son. He was my only boy."

"In the name of the thousands of mothers of other soldiers serving in the Philippines, I beg of you to see that whoever was responsible for the boy's death is brought to justice."

Mayor Jay B. Kline to-day signed a resolution adopted by the Common Council, calling upon the authorities at Washington to take the utmost measures to secure a thorough investigation of the Richter matter. The full report of the evidence before the court-martial which acquitted Sinclair was mailed from the Philippines on March 23rd, and should reach Washington in a few weeks.

Locomotive Falls Through a Trestle.

Three Men Mortally Injured in a Peculiar Accident at McKeesport—Other Train Men Hurt.

McKEESPORT, April 8.—Three men were mortally injured and a half dozen badly hurt in a peculiar railroad accident that occurred to-day.

An engine and three cars went through a trestle on the Monongahela railroad in the lower end of the yards. The engine was crushed to pieces and great volumes of steam and wreckage buried James Grey, engineer; John Stephens, fireman, and George Lemon, flagman.

The injured men were not removed from under the wreck for more than half an hour. The engine had to be raised with jacks, when the three monotonous men were taken out. Frank Mooney, a brakeman, jumped along with four other men as the trestle began to fall. Mooney was badly lacerated about the head and body. The others escaped with slight injuries.

No other passengers were on the train at the time.

Penny Said to Be After Other Roads.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The Record-Herald to-morrow will say: Upon the authority of a large stockholder in the Plant system it is stated that the Pennsylvania interests will soon acquire possession of the allied Plant and the Atlantic coast line systems. In this fact, it is alleged, is to be found the reason for the purchase by the Atlantic coast line of the Plant system which has surprised the railway world. Should the Pennsylvania secure the two systems they will add a total of 3,970 miles of line, bringing the total to 20,000 miles under one control.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

—Rev. B. R. N. Sheeder, of Mechanicsburg, has accepted the call to the Lutheran church at Millheim and other points on that charge.

—At the Millheim horse sale yesterday all of the animals put up were sold. The high average of $174.66 per horse was reached.

—Fred R. Jackson has been confined to his rooms at the Bush house for the past two weeks suffering with quinsy and pleurisy.

—The sales-rooms of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. has been handsomely refitted and now are about the finest in appearance of any in Belleville.

—D. F. Luse, the Centre Hall hydrant manufacturer, has been filling some large orders for the Berwind-White Coal Co. and the Cambria Iron Co.

—Miss Mary C. Keller, daughter of former county treasurer D. C. Keller, of Centre Hall, was married to L. H. Dalby on the 8th. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home.

—Lyman Bieker, of Zion, lost a pocket book containing $23 last fall. It was returned to him a few days ago by Harry Gentzel, of Bush's Addition, who had found it. Gentzel was rewarded with $5.00.

—The closing exercises of the Lamar township, Clinton county, High school were held in the M. E. church at Salona, on Saturday evening, and eighteen young ladies and gentlemen who had finished the course were graduated. The Germania orchestra of Lock Haven furnished the music.

—Hermau Transue, who had survived sixteen months with a broken spinal column, died at the home of his parents, in Porter township, Clinton county, last Thursday night. He was 25 years old and suffered the injury that totally paralyzed him while working in the woods near Parvian in December, 1900. A falling tree broke his spine.

—L. C. Bullock's big sale at Milesburg next Thursday will attract hundreds of livermen, horsemen and others to that place to bid on the great list of wagons and carriages to be offered. These annual sales of Bullock's are becoming more widely known every year and have come to be an event that few people want to miss. You'll be there next Thursday, if you are after a bargain.

—Mrs. Catharine Hamilton has been granted a pension of $8 per month.

—You read all about the purchase of the Valentine furnace property by the Nittany Iron Co. in the WATCHMAN last week.

—The Centre county Medical Society banqueted at the Bush house last Friday night. The tables were beautifully laid and the menu one of the splendid kind for which that hostelry has become famous.

—Mrs. Chas. M. Schwab, wife of the president of the United States Steel corporation, has just sent Miss Clara Valentine a check for $100, as a present to Petriken hall. Mrs. Schwab is interested in church and temperance work and with her husband recently built a magnificent Catholic church at Loreta. Her gift to Petriken hall is a kindness that the ladies who have it in charge will ever bear in mind.

—E. L. Todd, who lives near Hannah Furnace, brought suit against F. L. Peck for cruelty to animals. The two women were driving home from Musser's public sale on March 25th when Todd, who was driving two mules in a wagon, pushed up uncomfortably close to the rig of F. L. Peck who was immediately in front of the mule team, and at different times Peck struck the mules over the head to prevent them from pushing the tongue of the wagon to which they were attached into his buggy. Todd brought suit against Peck for cruelty to animals and interfering with his peaceful occupation of the road. The case was heard last week, but Justice Taylor withheld his decision. He has now rendered a verdict, however, to the effect that the prosecution was unfounded, and so the bottom drops out of the case. The trouble occurred in the woods near the Gypsy school house just east of Tyrone.

DAVIDSON—SWANZEY.—Miss Mary Davidson, of Abilene, Kan., who is well known here where she has visited her grandmother Mrs. Mary Weaver Davidson and other relatives several times and who is the only daughter of the late J. S. Davidson, was married on Wednesday last week to E. E. Swanzey, of Minneapolis, Kan. The Abilene Reflector of April 2nd, contained the following notice of the wedding:

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Davidson, this morning occurred the wedding of Miss Mary Davidson and E. Everett Swanzey, of Minneapolis, Kan. Dr. G. F. Weida, of Manhattan, performed the ceremony, using the beautiful and impressive ring service of the Episcopal church.

The bride looked lovely in white Parisian muslin over white silk, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, approaching the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. F. B. Glimpse. She was preceded by Miss Jimmie Tull, who carried the ring in a nest of white blossoms.

The bride was born and has grown to womanhood in this county and is one of the city's fairest daughters. The groom has for many years been a Kansan and is a man of high character. He has for some time been in business in Minneapolis but will now travel for a clothing firm, making Abilene his home. The happy couple left over the Rock Island for Chicago and Newell and Des Moines, Iowa.

No cards were issued, only relatives and immediate friends being present.

MRS. BONBRIGHT'S CONCERT.—The organ and piano recital in the Presbyterian church, last Thursday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Bonbright, was a decided success in every particular, and was greatly enjoyed by everyone present, and by this entertainment Mrs. Bonbright has shown herself to be not only an accomplished musician, but an excellent organizer and director, as well. The music rendered was of the highest order, and the chorus singing of thirty voices, composed of some of our finest vocalists, was far beyond the ordinary and was evidently the result of long and patient practice and careful training.

"Destroyed is Babylon" from Spohr's, "Last Judgment" and the Hallelujah chorus by Handel deserve special mention, filling the large auditorium with the rich strains of music from the old masters.

The organ solos, by Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes and Mrs. Bonbright, were fine, very fine, bringing out the varied qualities and sweet and full tones of the grand organ. Both of these ladies excel as performers on that instrument.

The piano solos by Mrs. Bonbright, showed her artistic touch and were a delightful part of the evening's entertainment. Her playing, with the left hand only, was novel for with one hand she was able to produce most pleasing music.

Mr. George Ford rendered four choice and taking bass solos. Mr. Ford is too well known to need any praise from our pen.

Of course, every one was on the "qui vive" to hear Miss Gehman, the celebrated contralto singer from Philadelphia, and although much was expected from her no one was disappointed. The delight of the audience was manifest by the frequent applause, and it is conceded by everyone who heard her that she is the finest solo singer who has ever appeared before a Belleville audience. The depth, richness and range of her voice evinced not only a natural but a highly educated and accomplished artist. She has made for herself an enviable record in Belleville. She is also a violinist of rare merit and favored the audience with two beautiful selections on that instrument.

Taken all together it was one of the most delightful and cultured musical functions ever presented to our people, and too much praise cannot be given Mrs. Bonbright for the rich treat afforded those who were there.

—You won't get angry and think you are being cheated when you come in to settle your subscription, will you? Just remember that if you are paying in advance it will cost you $1.00 a year and if not it will cost you $1.50. Of course there is no good reason why you should pay $1.50 for something that you can get for $1.00. Likewise there is no good reason why you should complain or ask us to make an exception of you when you elect to take it on the $1.50 plan and we hold you to your contract.

—At the meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery on the 8th Gen. James A. Beaver was named as a candidate for lay commissioner to the General Assembly, but declined to run. John A. Caran, of Altoona, and C. E. Murray, of Philipsburg, were chosen. Dr. Laurie made a plea for more money for the Buffalo Run mission.

Philipsburg.

The new home of Mr. Hollingsworth, on North Second street, is nearing completion. Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Tompkinson will depart for their new home in Williamsport this week.

The streets about town probably never were in a more deplorable condition than at this time.

Mrs. John Hoffman and little daughter Martha are visiting relatives in Huntingdon at present.

Misses Laura and Sara Crissman returned Tuesday, from the exposition at Charleston, S. C.

Miss Lizzie Dunsmore, of Glen Richey, spent Sunday very pleasantly with her friend Miss Elizabeth Fryberger.

Trouble with the miners at Acme slope last Friday caused a suspension of work at that colliery. However, it was again working on Saturday.

The great influx of railroad cars in this region during the past week has made work in the mines better than it has been for the past six months.

Pine Grove Mentions.

The streams were up to high water mark Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Jacobs is ill with a serious bilious attack.

Mrs. Thomas Hunter is laid up with pleurisy and has been quite ill.

J. B. Heberling is in Williamsport purchasing a new supply of furniture.

G. W. Hoy is slowly recovering from pulmonary troubles that confined him to bed for weeks.

The venerable B. F. Brown, is quite ill with a complication of diseases incident to old age.

Will Stewart was obliged to lay aside the yard stick on Tuesday on account of an attack of lumbago.

Dr. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening the 20th.

Scott Bricker, of Boalsburg, who was quite ill for a month is better. There are hopes of his recovery now.

Mr. Charles Smith has taken Horace Greeley's advice and gone west to grow up with the country.

A. M. Brown returned from Buffalo last week with a car load of fine horses. They are perfect beauties.

Elder D. B. Louder is attending Presbytery at Everett as a representative of the Pine Grove Presbyterian church.

A big boy came to the home of Walter Weaver yesterday morning and the usual congratulations are being received.

After an enjoyable visit with her Centre county relatives Mrs. Gustie King returned to her home in Altoona on Monday.

Peter Isler is going to Pocohontas, West Va., next week where he has purchased a large tract of timber land from which he expects to cut two million feet of lumber this coming season.

Simon Kline, who for many years has been employed at the experiment station at State College, moved to Carlisle on Tuesday where he will superintend a large creamery. His son will take his place at State College.

On Wednesday of last week W. H. Knarr, of State College, who has been connected with the dairy there for some years, moved to Greensburg. There he will superintend the Coulter farms and a large dairy belonging to the estate.

On last Thursday evening Linnie and Bell Lytle were almost asphyxiated with stove gas and it was only by the timely arrival of the hired man that their lives were saved. Dr. Dale was called and the usual restoratives were resorted to.

Cyrus Brumgart, one of Walker township's bondholders, successful farmers and loyal Democrats, is being joyfully entertained at the home of G. W. Homan. Mrs. Brumgart is with him enjoying a visit at the home of her childhood and though both are well advanced in years they are active and happy, having had no time to grow decrepit.

On Sunday Clyde Stern had a bad runaway. He was driving a newly purchased horse which was frightened by a big dog jumping over the fence at him. The buggy was overturned and completely wrecked. A new set of harness was badly damaged but Mr. Stern escaped with only a few bruises.

Andy Jackson Lytle has his political eye on the county commissionership. Of course he will run on the Republican track and as he is a hustler from away back the other aspirants will have to race if they would get ahead of him. Just at present he is busy with his twenty brood sows and porkers which he expects to furnish him with campaign change.

On last Saturday evening the following officers were installed for the ensuing term in Pennsylvan lodge 286, I. O. O. F., by past grand W. H. Goss: N. G., J. H. Bailey; V. G., F. W. Graham; assistant secretary, J. Will Kepler; conductor, J. B. Heberling; warden, William H. Fry; chaplain, A. J. Tate; R. S., N. G. John W. Furey; L. S., N. G. H. Walker; E. S., V. G. Warren S. Ward; L. S. to V. G., John Bressler; R. S., Harry McCracken; L. S. L. B. Miller; J. G. E. Harper; O. G., Dr. R. M. Krebs.

Spring Mills.

All our merchants report a very fair business during March.

Mrs. Simon Small, of Altoona, is here visiting relatives and friends, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Burrell.

John Horner, of Johnstown, formerly of our village, was here for a few days last week visiting friends and attending to private business.

The washout occasioned by the recent flood, in front of the residence occupied by David Burrell, has been filled up. It required twenty loads of stone and gravel to repair the damage.

The new foot bridge over Penns Creek is about completed, excepting the necessary steps to reach the foot way. Unfortunately the bridge is rather narrow, otherwise it is a very substantial structure.

Wm. Ruhl, proprietor of the livery and exchange stables here, is doing an excellent business, and has been forced to increase his stock of horses and vehicles. He has just added two fast animals, a road wagon and buggy.

Wilbur, son of Michael Shires, the popular and active insurance agent of our village, is now located in Chicago and engaged with the N. P. E. R. Co. Mr. Shires is a young man of considerable ability and highly intelligent.

A week or ten days ago merchant C. F. Corman bought a car load of wire fencing, plain and barbed, at a sacrifice. The consignee being overstocked cut it out at any price. Mr. C. bought the lot, and has sold about half the invoice already, and at his remarkable low figures, the balance will not remain long on his hands.

Miss Lizzie Stover left last week for Philadelphia to purchase her usual spring and summer stock of millinery goods. Miss Stover always displays an exquisite taste in her selections. The grand opening days will be on the 11th and 12th inst. when her business and reception rooms will be thronged as they always are on these occasions, by eager purchasers and anxious sight seers.

Hiram Durst having sold his farm near Farmers Mills, containing 100 acres, and 58 acres of woodland, to Wm. Barages, of Chicago, for $6,500, contemplated locating in Iowa. But last week he purchased 22 acres of land located a short distance up the pike, from Mrs. Jennie Van Valzah for $70 per acre, and of course will now remain here. Mr. Durst is too sound a Democrat to lose.

—On account of the Convention of Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held at Los Angeles, Cal. May 1st to 8th, the Pennsylvania railroad company will sell special excursion tickets from all stations on its line, to Los Angeles and return, at reduced rates.

Tickets will be sold from April 19th to 26th, inclusive, and will be good to return until June 26th when properly validated.

Specific rates, routes, and conditions of tickets apply to ticket agents.
