According to the "Leader's" informant, the guilty officers, while commanding a detachment of the carbineers in the wild, fever-stricken county 200 miles north of Pietersburg, shot people recklessly. Lieutenant Hancock was the instigator of most of the outrages, but the anonymous captain is represented as shooting natives for sport. When the officers had spite against a man in the carbineers he would send him to scout on the right flank, and he rarely were traveling to Pietersburg to surrender, taking 20,000 pounds with them Lieutenant Hancock caused them to be intercepted and court martialed them, although they were not armed when captured. He ordered them to be shot, Sergeant Morrison was instructed to execute them, but he demurred and ultimately refused. Another company carried out the order. Afterward the Boers' baggage was rausacked, and the officers were disgusted upon finding that the 20,000 pounds was in Trans-

as March goes out will reach the Atlantic seaboard and disappear from the continent about April 2nd, fair and cooler weather having followed storm areas out of March from the northwest. Warmer weather, falling barometer and April squalls with lightening and thunder will touch most parts of the country, traveling eastward, from about the 5th to 9th, with chances that the moon's perigee on the 10th will prolong threatening conditions until after that date. Rising barometer with a dash of snow northward will end this period, bringing cold winds and fair weather progressively for two or three days. The reactionary storm days central on the 11th and 12th lead into the Mercury disturbance, which extends from the 12th to the 22nd, being central on the 17th. On and touching the 11th and 12th, temperature, barometer and winds will tend to precipitation and storminess, with a possible change to cooler and fair, preceding the Vulcan period central on the 16th. But it is, as a rule, safe to count on much continued cloudiness with rain and drizzle all through the Mercury period at this season of the year. The most general and pro-nounced storms during the Mercury period, or perhaps during April, will occur during the Vulcan storm period, central on the 16th and extending from the 15th to the 19th, the 19th being the date on which the disturbance will reach a final culmination. During this Vulcan period ordinary April showers will widen and thicken into general rain and thunder storms, with possibly some severe and dangerous storms to the southward, or wherever storms are preceded by very warm, sultry atmosphere and low barometer. At the culminating stage of these storms, snow and sleet will be very probable results along the northern side of the country, ending in a high barometer and northerly gales that will send very cool weather, if not frost to the South. member of the Bushveldt carbineers, ac- If results answering to the above should cording to which Lieutenant Hancock, one not appear at the Vulcan period, 15th to of the Australian officers recently put to death for murder in South Africa, was ly increased at the reactionary period and guilty of a number of wanton murders of full moon, say about the 24th and 25th. The storm chart shows that April goes out with a regular storm period in progress. About the 27th signs of this on coming period will show in the west, the warm wave will move eastward, winds will shift to the south and blow around wide areas of low barometer, cloudiness will ensue and storms of rain and thunder will pass eastward from about the 28th to 30th, the month ending with cloudiness and precipi-tation over central to eastern parts of the country, and fair and cooler weather following up the storm from the west and north.

A Desperado Killed.

But Not Before He Had Taken Three Lives-Also Wounded Many.

TUSCOMBIA, Ala., April 6.—Three mer are dead, three mortally wounded and four seriously wounded as the result of Sheriff Gassaway attempting to arrest Will Reynolds, a desperate negro. The dead: Hugh Jones, shot through head. Bob Wallace.

William Reynolds. Fatally wounded: Sheriff Charles Gassaway, shot through the arm and abdomen.

Will Gassaway, shot through abdomen P. A. Prout, shot through stomach. Seriously wounded -Payne, shot through chest.

Jim Finney, shot through right shoul-Robert Patterson, shot through leg.

Jesse Davis, shot through jaw. All the foregoing casualties, except the death of Reynolds himself, are the result of the deadly fire of Reynolds with a 45-calibre Winchester. The negro was in his turn riddled and thrown into a fire.

Sheriff Gassaway went to a negro settlement, "Khardtown," this morning to ar-rest Will Reynolds for obtaining goods un-der false pretense. The officer was met by the negro, who opened fire with his rifle, wounding the sheriff, and immediately firing upon the deputy, William Gassaway, who was some 300 yards away, mortally wounding him.

wounding him. As soon as possible every man in town who could procure a gun was in the neighborhood, but owing to the location none dared to venture within the open space. Dynamite was procured and the house in which the negro was barricaded, was fired upon but to no effect. At 1 o'clock Captain Simpson, of the Wheeler rifles, arrived with twelve guns and 1,000 cartridges, which were distributed among twelve picked men. This company was stationed around the house and riddled it but the negro had taken refuge in the cellar and returned the fire, killing Jones and wounding Finney. Coal oil was then procured and after four hours of hard work the houses adjoining that in which the negro was located was fired. About 8 o'clock the house in which the negro was located was fired by the Wheeler rifles who had arrived on the scene. The negro took refuge in a shed and opened fire, killing Wallace and wounding Davis, but the people and some militiamen riddled the negro and the crowd numbering 1,000, grabbed the body and threw it in the burning building. Wallace, who was killed, was closing in on the negro, who shot him through the body. His body fell in the burning debris, but was recovered. Davis, Wallace and Falk-
