

Looks Like a Revival of the Times of the Inquisition.

How American Pirates and Filipinos are Treated by those in Authority in our New Possessions—the Water Cure.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 13.—Max Klein, who served nearly four years in Company D, Ninth Infantry, in the Philippines, arrived at his home here yesterday.

"When I left Manila, on March 16th," he said today, "the reported death of torture of private Edward Richter had aroused and excited American soldiers throughout the islands and was the main topic of talk among them."

"I believe the story of Richter's death as published originally is absolutely true. The enlisted men were wild at the report. Lieut. Sinclair has the reputation there of being unnecessarily harsh."

"I have seen with my own eyes dozens of American soldiers in the Ninth Infantry punished in the same way. Men are bound and gagged, and gallons of ice water are dropped on their foreheads. The horrible water cure, often used on the Filipinos, is given to members of the Ninth."

Large quantities of water, sometimes salt water, is poured down the throats of the men, and when their stomachs are distended painfully a man stands on their stomachs and forces the water out. The pain is terrible, but those who have suffered both punishments say that the dropping of ice water on the forehead is the more unendurable."

Those Peace Proposals.

Latest Guesses of the Work Done by British and Boer.

THE HAGUE, April 14.—From those close in touch with the Boer leaders here, it appears that the latest secret dispatches from South Africa outline the peace proposals now under discussion at Pretoria. They closely follow the summary given, on Saturday last, by the Evening News of Edinburgh, with the following details:

The Boers to accept a British lord commissioner with a Boer executive, both to be resident of Pretoria.

The country to be divided into districts, with British district officers and by Boer committee, chosen, by polling, by the burghers. The veto right to be reserved to the British government. The majority of the British officers must be conversant with the Dutch language.

Johannesburg to be retroceded to the British with complete British civil organization.

A war indemnity of at least £10,000,000 to be distributed by mixed committees.

Disarmament to occur when the first batch of Boer prisoners is sent back to South Africa.

No war tax to be levied.

Both languages to be recognized in the schools and courts and in official documents.

The expense of the garrisons in South Africa to be borne by Great Britain.

The present Boer leaders to be retained in office so far as possible.

Hublersburg.

Maud Kessinger spent Sunday with friends at Beech Creek.

Miss Grace Miller, of Lock Haven, spent last week in town.

Miss Verna Allison, of Nittany, spent Sunday as the guest of Pearl Hoy.

Miss John A. Hoyer, of Danbury, is visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Carner.

Berk, the photographer, is making quite an improvement on his rented property to be occupied by the Rathmel family.

James Rathmel and family, of Germantown, came to our town last Thursday and expect to make this their home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoy returned home, Monday, from a visit to friends at Mt. Carmel. Their visit was short on account of the prevalence of small pox in the town.

The select school of Prof. Black, graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, opened Monday, with an attendance of twenty-five, which number should be increased as quite a few scholars are missing a good thing by not taking advantage of the opportunity.

Nittany Items.

Wilson Armerman has secured employment with Harry Zimmerman, at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Dora Emrick has gone to Johnstown to stay. Her husband expects to follow as soon as he can arrange to leave.

Bill Mitterling came down, as if from the clouds, and on his recovery from the sudden shock, broke forth "Any cows for sale?"

A select school was opened at Hublersburg April 14, and Harry Yearick, Allen and Harry Yarnell are attending from this locality.

Prof. S. W. Butler, who has been teaching at Moshannon and just closed a successful term, has been visiting his many acquaintances in this locality, also looking after the widows and orphans.

The trout fishermen were off to the streams last Tuesday before day break. Billy Snavely returned with sixty-five. The Centre Democrat correspondent came the back way and would not let us see his basket.

D. W. Glossner, D. D., of L. O. O. F. and Prof. F. M. Fletcher, both of Eagleville, were guests of A. A. Pletcher on Saturday and Sunday. The officers of the lodge were installed at Hublersburg on Saturday night.

Among the many families that have moved into our community is that of Mr. John Holmes, whom we heartily welcome. He is a man of good judgment and full of push in improving his farm properly, also an excellent neighbor.

Nittany can now boast of having one of the most cheery store rooms in the county. Hiram Long is the occupant having opened April 14th. Ellis Rogers deserves much credit for erecting such a cozy structure for the benefit of the citizens of this valley.

Joseph Hayes, of Mackeyville, is one of the oldest hucksters on the road. He gets here every Thursday to meet his many customers; although in the seventies he never fails to call on his appointed day. By economy he has saved enough to build one of the handsomest residences in Mackeyville.

L. F. Jamison, of Spring Mills, has been killing two birds with one stone through here by looking after insurance and also intimating that he would like to be county auditor. John J. Arney also has been saying "How'dy," and remarking, "I am a candidate for county treasurer," to our people.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Lewis Thomas is critically ill with pulmonary trouble.

Chas. H. Martz transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday.

Luke Hay, of Somerset, inspected his fertile acres here on Monday.

Will Kline started to Somerset last week in quest of higher wages.

H. H. Goss is confined to his house suffering with nervous trouble.

Our husting carriage maker is housed up with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Rebecca Robinson is seriously ill at her State College home with cancer.

Alfred Musser and family, of Clearfield, are visiting friends here and at Spring Mills.

Harry Koch, while trimming fruit trees, cut his left hand with an axe and is now carrying it in a sling.

Postmaster James Lytle, of Lemont, with his family and Mrs. Levi Krebs, spent Sunday at D. H. Weaver's.

Mrs. Will Corl is slowly improving from valvular heart trouble with which she has been laid up for some weeks.

J. Carl Struble, one of Walker township's big farmers and Jacksonian Democrats, passed through here on Wednesday.

Mrs. Matilda Rumberger is slowly recovering from the effects of a fall on the pavement by which her shoulders were injured.

Aaron P. Zerby, who is anxious to handle Centre county's cash for the next three years, was here last week looking after his chances.

M. M. Smith, who is the right hand man at McQuiston's extensive carriage shops in Bellefonte, spent Sunday at his parental home here.

C. B. McCormick is making his annual pilgrimage over the township registering the dogs which are not nearly as numerous as heretofore.

Squire Michael Hess, looking as though city life agreed with him, spent the greater part of last week inspecting his many acres in Harris, College and this township.

Miss Mary Ward received a fine new piano yesterday morning and henceforth will be able to instruct her pupils who so desire at her own home.

Last week John G. Strayer bought out Jacob Kridler's entire stock and farming implements and hereafter will be a full fledged farmer and stock raiser at Gatesburg.

Messrs. Davis and Brown are now located at the old Hess smith shop where they pursue making horse shoes a specialty. They are energetic young men and are deserving of patronage.

The new barn that is now being built on the farm of Frank Bowersox is well on the way for the roof and siding. Howard Barr and Joe Meyers are the builders and hustlers they are, too.

H. I. Stahr returned home Monday morning from visiting his parents at Reading. He had about thirty scholars enrolled the first day of the spring term of school at the Pine Grove Academy.

Our new landlord, Reed R. Randolph, is sparing neither time nor means to make the St. Elmo a popular resort. His wife is an adept in the ordinary department and has the happy faculty of being able to make you feel at home at her festive board.

Rev. Heckman filled all of his appointments on last Sunday. He preached here at 2:30 in the afternoon and he had a large and appreciative audience. He proved to be an orator of much ability and his pastorate opens with very auspicious promises.

W. F. Strouse, who is in charge of the drafting department of the B. and O. railroad at Baltimore and his brother, Tom, of the same place, visited their parents at Pine Hall on Tuesday night. They were called home by the death of their only sister, Mrs. Glenn.

Hon. J. T. McCormick and his wife were in town last Friday on business and pleasure bent. They made some extensive purchases from our new furniture establishment and from all indications their new home at State College will not only be handsome but artistic.

Our peaceful little village was thrown into a state of excitement on Wednesday morning when it was discovered that the post office had been broken into during the night by burglars. Fortunately postmaster Hess had taken most of the money home with him so that the thieves secured only a small amount of change and a few stamps. A number of letters containing checks had been opened but they were not removed from the office. They entered through a window on the street and from there visited D. H. Weaver's store which is in the old Sample corner. There, while boating through the back door with an augur, they evidently became frightened and departed without their tools, which had been taken from the carriage works of H. M. Krebs. There is no clue to the robbers.

Mail route inspector, W. W. Sawyer, of Vermont, spent several days last week viewing three new routes for free rural delivery on which he reported favorably. State College is to be the distributing office. One route will be along the Branch to Shingleton and from there to intersect with the Penna. Furnace route at White Hall and return to State College. Route No. 2 will be west to Scotia, thence by Circleville to State College. No. 3 will be by the way of Houserville to Rock Forge and thence by the way of the big hollow to the place of beginning. The proposed route will serve about 1,500 people and will be put in operation in 60 days or so. Frank Weaver, L. H. Osman, W. F. Thompson, Arthur Eavy and John Hartsock have been examined for route agent. If Uncle Sam approves of Mr. Sawyer's report, the Shingleton and Houserville post offices will be abandoned.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

"No part of the United States is less generally known than the Southwest, and none is better worth knowing" is the way in which Ray Stannard Baker introduces his first paper on "The Southwest," which is underlined for the forth coming May Century, being the first of a group of four papers for which Maxfield Parrish has been sent to Arizona and New Mexico to make illustrations. Two of these are to appear in color as a double frontpiece of the May number, representing the contiguity of "the desert and the town." A full-page picture of a view in the Grand Canon of the Colorado is one of the most striking of Mr. Parrish's pictures.

Spring Mills.

Ambrose Gentzel is erecting an imposing barn on his property on the avenue.

W. P. Alexander, chief miller in Allison's mill, has been stocking Penns creek, above the dam with trout.

Dr. D. M. Wolf commenced a session of high school for advanced scholars in our Academy building on Monday last. His class will evidently be quite a large one.

Edwin Ruhl the village landlord is quite ill and has been confined to his room for the past week or ten days. His brother Will is attending to the hotel business during his indisposition.

J. I. Condo has just introduced some new and improved machinery into his carpet factory, and owing to an unusual increase of orders has been obliged to increase his force of employees. Mr. Condo is doing quite a large business.

It is reported that the new bridge over Sinking Creek, to replace the one swept away by the recent flood, will be built and finished for travel by the 20th proximo—perhaps. The bridge is to be ten feet longer and eight feet higher than the old one.

Garden-making some of our folks are talking about—well it will only talk as long as the cold and stormy weather continues. Half the month is gone, and still too cold and blustery for even the frogs to venture out of their muddy beds to give us their usual nightly serenade—just say nothing about planting garden truck.

Ten Times Over Subscribed.

LONDON, April 16.—There was a tremendous rush to subscribe to the loan of £2,000,000 to-day. At the Bank of England it was estimated this evening that the loan had been ten times over-subscribed. The lists will probably close to-morrow.
