Books, Magazines, Etc.

Henry Loomis Nelson, whose long residence in Washington as a newspaper correspondent and as a student of affairs enables him to speak with authority, will contribute to the May Century a paper entitled "The Capital of Our Democracy," dealing with social life in Washington. Mr. Nel son describes the various kinds of society in the capital and the effect they have upon the family of the newly arrived Congressman. Contrasts are drawn between Washington and other cities and the White House receptions, the hotel life and other features come in for attention. The article will be fully illustrated with numerous types by Charlotte Harding, the young Philadelphia artist whose work has recently atttracted so nuch attention.

California Illustrated.

The Chicago 400, an illustrated journal of travel and topics, issued by the Chicago & Northwestern railway, is one of the finest illustrated publications ever printed. The tinted half-tones rival those of the finest magazines, and the letterpress of the whole edition is perfect, pictorially and descriptively mirroring California's won-derful scenery.
