Aemocratic Matchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 25 1902.

COBRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub lished unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

$15 Reward.

The Sportmen's League of Centre County will pay $15.00 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any violator of the game and fish laws of this Commouwealth. This reward is standing and will be paid in addition to the fees allowed informers under the law. The League is determined to break up illegal fishing and hunting in Centre County.

-A few boys have ventured out with straw hats on.

-W. A. Brungart has been appointed postmaster at Wolf's Store.

-John O. Rosser is the new foreman of No. 8 ax works at Mill Hall.

---- The Millheim and Rebersburg small pox cases are about recovered.

-"A Wise Woman" will be seen at Garman's on Monday night, April 28th. -An infant of James Morrison, of Borough street, is ill with typhoid fever. -Amos Garbrick, of Coleville, has been granted a pension of $10 per month. -The annual Coleville band concert is to be held in Petriken hall on Tuesday evening. May 6th. - Lyon & Co. have a new advertisement in this issue that is on a decidedly seasonable topic. Read it.

-C. H. Stover will close out his bicycle business at Aaronsburg and go to Oak Grove next Tuesday.

-The school directors of the county will meet here on Tuesday, May 6th, to elect a successor to Supt. C. L. Gramley. -The interior of Jacob Gross' tailor ing establishment on High street has been greatly beautified by new paper and paint. -The Reformed congregation at Pine Hall presented their pastor, Rev. A. A. Black, with a fine set of double harness recently.

-The Pennsylvania State College base ball team was beaten at Georgetown, Gettysburg and Franklin and Marshall on its recent trip.

-Miss Florence Hoffman, formerly of this place, but later of McKeesport, was for by friends. Tom came to Bellefonte married to Miles L. Shenefelt, at Wilmer- and grew to manhood in the Wagner home, ding, on the 16th inst.

-There is a rumor afloat among Na- tion, because of the sterling qualities that tional Guardsmen that it is to be the every day presented themselves in some Twelfth and not the Fifth or the Fourteenth new phase. And their love was not unreregiment that is to be disbanded.

-Recall the pleasures the Coleville deepest respect to the last and mourned band gave you all last summer when you them as benefactors indeed. He had always enjoyed the best of health until last August, when he suffered an attack of typhoid fever. Soon after his recovery from -Mrs. Jacob Shuey, the venerable that disease cancer of the liver developed and nothing could be done to save him. He continued at his business, directing his store until Feb. 18th when he took the bed -Thomas Walizer, of Mackeyville, place, also survive.

Mrs. Hutchison's parents.

marked his path through life.

where he was regarded with paternal affecservices having been held at the home of THOMAS HUTCHISON .- An illness of -Fleming Holliday, an old and very well known citizen of Bellwood, Blair scarcely two weeks with pneumonia tercounty, died at his home there Tuesday minated in the death of Thomas Hutchison in the hospital at Kane shortly before evening; having been born in Logan valley. April 26th, 1823. He was second in line eight o'clock on Tuesday morning. Though it had been known that he was being kept of descent from the founder of Hollidaysalive on oxygen treatment for several days burg and when quite a young man he helped to lay out the town of Denver, Col. His previous and there was but the slightest Civil war record was brilliant and at its hope of his recovery the case was so sad that his friends here hung to that hope and prayed that he might be spared. in Philadelphia, the Dakotas and Michigan, finally locating at Bellwood, where he died. He was a son of Dr. J. F. and Mrs. Of his surviving children one son is super-Margaret Hutchison and was born in Harrisburg November 28th, 1863. His intendent of the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania R. R. and another is general grandfather, after whom he was named, was one of the pioneer settlers of Potters freight manager of the Wabash. Bank, one of the principle trading points

-

-Hiram Durst, a well known and inof the county in the early days. When fluential citizen of Gregg township, died Tom was quite young the family located here and he attended the public schools, very suddenly at his home in Spring Mills, having been graduated with honors from last Friday evening, as a result of over exertion in the field that day. He was 59 youd recognition. the High school with the class of '85. Soon after he entered the employ of the Adams years old and a retired farmer. His widow express company where he remained until and two daughters, Mrs. Alfred Musser, of and did everything possible to relieve the a high civil service examination put him Clearfield, and Anna, at home, survive. Mr. Durst was a pleasant useful man, and | ly a little while after the accident. into the railroad mail service. He had a run between Williamsport and Erie at the an earnest member of the Reformed church, NEARLY ANOTHER CASE AT STATE COLtime of his death and was on duty in his one who will be missed in many ways. Incar when he became so ill that he was takterment was made at Spring Mills on Monen from the train at Kane and placed in day.

the hospital, to which place his wife, mother, sister and brother hurried at ouce to see Millheim Oct. 18th, 1832, fell over dead at back yard of her home when her cloththat everything possible was done for him. Bellwood on Tuesday. For twenty years ing suddenly took fire. The flames danced His wife, who was Miss Nettie Staples, of he had been a stationary engineer in the over her with lightning rapidity and Kane, survives with their three children : Margaret, Daniel and James. His mother, Mrs. Margaret Hutchison, one sister, Miss Fannie, and his brother Harry, all of this Though their residence was in Williamsport, where Tom was an earnest member he fell over and expired. He was a veteran of the Civil war, prominent in the G. A. R. of the Pine St. Methodist church and president of the Epworth League, interment widow and six children. was made at Kane, yesterday afternoon,

-Nathan Hosterman, aged 23 years 1 months and 25 days, died at the home of with him that Tom Dorris secured the his father, T. W. Hosterman, of Coburn, on Sunday evening, consumption being the cause. He had suffered with it a long time. His widow and two small children to America by his parents when quite survive. Services were held at Coburn by small. They settled at Howardville, when Rev. J. S. Shortess, on Wednesday, and

> -The remains of Mrs. Harvey Benner, who died in Atlantic City on December 9th, 1898, and which have been in a receiving vault there ever since, was brought to Bellefonte on Tuesday and interred in the Benner lot in the Union cemetery. Mr. Benner and H. C. Baney came with the body from Atlautic City.

ONE WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH, AN-OTHER NARROWLY ESCAPES .- A frightful given in Petriken hall on Tuesday evening, accident occurred near School House Crossing, in Boggs township, about 2 o'clock last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Hannah Johnson, bent and infirm with her eighty years, Elizabeth Faxon, reader. was in her garden burning brush when the fire leapt onto her skirts. In an instant she was enveloped in a mass of flames. In conclusion he entered various enterprises a panic of excitement and alarm she ran soreaming for a distance of about one hundred yards, when she sank down onto a bench. Edward Meyers was passing on the road at the time and as soon as he heard the cries for help, noticing the woman's awful predicament, grabbed his horse blanket from his wagon and ran to her aid. He succeeded in getting it wrapped about her in such a way as to smother out the flames.

but not before she was burned almost be Dr. Sebring was called from this place intensity of her suffering, but she lived on-

LEGE.

Mrs. Scott Bailey, of State College, came near meeting as horrible a fate on Tuesday evening as was that that befell aged Mrs. -Absolom Osman, who was born at Johnson. She was making soap in the They ran to her assistance and succeeded in tearing the burning clothing from her badly burned in the act. Mrs. Bailey was scorehed about the arms and neck, and the -Catharine, the little ten month old result would certainly have been fatal had

> HIS LIFE CRUSHED OUT BY A FALLING SAFE.-A shocking accident occurred in Elder was crushed so badly that he died with ropes and pulleys and a chain. Mr. Elder, and another man, was below blocking it and it had almost reached the top when a link in the chain broke, leaving the heavy safe roll back down the steps. It veered to the right, pinning Mr. Elder against the wall, crushing his breast and breaking his collar bone and then rolled on to the bottom, where it buried itself in the floor. The injured man was picked up at once and everything possible done for > him, but he lived only a little over an hour Horace Greely Elder was born in Half Moon township, June 14th, 1856. He was a son of a farmer and spent his early life in the country. At the age of 17 he began teaching school and continued at that until -The Coleville hand concert will be May 6th. In addition to the numbers by taker, Derstine, Kirk and Knisely were the band Mr. Sanders, the State College barytone, will be the soloist and Miss evening.

-Judge Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield, has been in a dangerous condition for several days, as a result of a carbuncle on his pavements nor lights and should be opened n eck. It was very painful from the first, but was getting along nicely when he ventured out and took cold, the result being eration of council. It was referred to the that his life was in danger for several davs.

News Purely Personal.

-Mrs. Frank P. Blair is in Pittsburg visiting her son Fred -Frank Frain, of McCalmont & Co., spent Sun day at his home at Abdera.

-H. H. Harshberger Esq. was in Philipsburg on business Monday night.

-Former prothonotary W. F. Smith was town Tuesday night on busines -Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews have to Philadelphia for an extended stay.

League Conference in Altoona on Tuesday -John McMurray, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of Henry Taylor, on east Bishop street. -Miss Martha McEntire, of Thomas street, is n Baltimore. Md., for a short visit with friends. -John Bauer, of Pattor, spent Sunday with his amily here and decided to remain at home until the strike is over.

-John P. Harris Jr. has moved to Salona, where he has become manager of the Bellefonte Lime Co's, operations.

-Samuel Taylor, for years manager of China Hall, but now located in Pittsburg, spent Sunday with his parents in Bellefonte.

-Charles Bell, Sup't. of masonry and brick aying in the. Huntingdon reformatory, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Lukenbach, with their children, were over Sunday guests at the Builock home on north Allegheny street. -Mrs. William T. Laurie has returned from quite an extended visit with her daughter Mrs. Bolton Eldredge at Cape May. -Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mitchell, with their son

Malcolm, spent Sunday at Pennsylvania Furnace, with Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Lyon. -Cap't. W. A. Simpson, of Lock Haven, and

John Roderick Esq., of New York, were in Belle fonte on business on Monday and Tuesday. -W. L. Daggett, of the Bush house, has return ed from a trip to Patton to see how his other establishment, the Palmer house, is getting along -Mrs. M. F. Hazel and her little son returned from Altoona, on Wednesday afternoon. They were visiting at her home in that city for a few days.

-Wesley Biddle, of Waddle's, was in town of Friday getting squared up in a business way beopening of the spring season on the

-Mrs. Annie N. Beaver, of State College, was in town over Sunday visiting Mrs. Harry Gehret, of East Howard street, and Mrs. William Bell, of Thomas street.

-Charles Runkle, youngest son of Jacob Runkle, has joined his brothers in Youngstown, Objo where he has secured a position with th Empire steel company.

-Jacob Shafer, of Zion, was in town on Mon day and went home feeling that whatever the WATCHMAN may say about the fellows who are in arrears it wont be shooting at him.

COUNCIL IN SESSION .- President Revnolds and members Potter, Gherrity, Whitpresent at the meeting of council Monday

On behalf of the residents of west Beaver street A. A. Dale Esq. appeared and called the attention of council to that thoroughfare. They say that it is too narrow, has no up to north Spring street, all of which, if true, is a matter certainly worth the consid-Street committee

John Blanchard Esq. appeared to represent the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. as protesting against the erection of the foot bridge over Spring Creek, at the round house. He said that it abutted on the railroad property, besides being highly dangerous to life. as well as to property in times of high water. Upon motion of Mr. Knisely council decided to go ahead and rebuild.

The request of F. H. Clemson to have the borough water service extended to his property at the Valentine iron works was granted. Bills to the amount of $265.68 were -Dr. W. P. Shriner attended an Epworth ordered paid and council adjourned.

> THE GIRLS RAN INTO A BALL OF SNAKES .- The Lock Haven Express tells the first snake story of the season as follows :

"Yesterday afternoon the Misses Mabel and Ruth Sweely, Lena Walizer and Gertie Heltman, of Mackeyville, went out to the woods in search of trailing arbutus. They had gone but a short distance into the forest when they saw a sight that none of them will forget. In the mountain path before them was a wriggling, writhing, hissing mass of rattlesnakes. The snakes were all in a pile and although the mass of reptiles kept in constant motion none of the snakes made any effort to free themselves or to get away. The young ladies during the brief period they watched the struggling mass saw that two of the snakes were of the gray species. A sickening odor pervaded the atmosphere and the ladies hurried away from the spot without any further thought of the beautiful flowers they had gone to the forest to obtain."

-The annual debate for the alumni prizes took place at the Academy last Friday afternoon and proved a decidedly meritorious contest. The young men took the subject "Resolved that as a matter of public policy it is not expedient to educate colored children separately from the whites." It was one that afforded opportunity for considerable research and resourcefulness in debate and it was discussed from every side Pratt Hoy and Cromer had the affirmative and Munson, Free and Caldwell were on the negative. Being allowed seven minutes for the first speech and five for the second each of the young men took the limit in presenting arguments of most forcible kind. The judges awarded first prize to Edward Free, of DuBois, and second to Randolph Hoy, of Bellefonte ; with honorable mention to Pratt, of Inionville. On the merits of the negative side won. -The stable on a property formerly owned by Alfred Johnstonbaugh, near Shiloh, was totally destroyed by fire one night last week and it was not discovered until next day. It is supposed it was set afire by a tramp, as a stranger was seen in the vicinity of it the evening before. -----Bids for the erection of the new Lock Haven hospital were opened on Monday evening, but none of them came within the limit set by the committee in charge and all were rejected. They are talking now about reducing the size of the building and adding to it as future necessity may require.

WAS WELL KNOWN HERE .- On March 17th Thomas Dorris passed away at his home in Cumberland, Maryland. The mere mention of the name will be sufficient to recall to the memory of many of our older residents the bright, alert boy who grew up in the family of the late D. M. Wagner, of this place. In those days Mr. Wagner was the leading merchant and business man of Bellefonte and it was training that brought him the success that Born in Dublin, Ireland, he was brought interment was made at Woodward. both parents died shortly afterwards, leaving the children to be separated and cared quited; for the orphan boy held them in

R. R. shops there and went to his work as she screamed for help. There was no usual on the fatal morning. After the one in the house at the time, but fornoon meal he was talking to the foreman tunately for her Supt. Patterson and a of the shops when he remarked that he felt gentleman named Donovan were passing strange; then, without any further warning, and were attracted by the call for help. and Golden Eagles and is survived by his body, though Mr. Patterson's hands were .

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Hunter, of not help arrived just when it did. Buffalo Run, died Tuesday morning of spine disease. It has always been delicate and is the third child that Mr. and Mrs. Hunter have lost in the last three years. Funeral services were held yesterday morning by Rev. Hepler, of Lemont, and interment was made in Meyers burying ground.

Tyrone on Wednesday when Horace G.

shortly afterwards. He was helping to move a 1400 lb. safe to the second floor of the First national bank building in that place. It was being drawn up the stairs are hesitating about buying a ticket to the concert on Tuesday night, May 6th.

mother of C. C. Shuey, of this place, has been quite ill with pneumonia, during the past few days, at her home near Lemont.

narrowly escaped being killed by a bursting grind stone in the Mill Hall ax works on Tuesday. His escape was miraculous.

---- "A Wise Woman" ought not to be such a rare thing that you need pay 50cts to see one, yet the one who will show at Garman's next Monday night will be worth it.

-Arthur Killen, instructor of mathematics at the Bellefonte Academy, has been compelled to give up his work there and return to his home at Dunkirk, N. Y. Ill health has been the cause.

-The State College Preps and the Bellefonte Academy base ball teams will play on the glass works meadow on Saturday afternoon. The game will be called at 2:30. Admission 25 cents.

-Petty thieving prevails in the lower end of Nittany valley and farmers in the vicinity of Mackevville are loading up their guns to catch the fellows who are breaking into their granaries, and hen houses and carrying off stores.

-Little Emma Toner, who had plactically become a waif on the streets of Bellefonte, was taken to the Cherry Tree home. in New Jersey, on Monday, by ensign Mo-Entire of the Salvation Army. There she will be cared for and brought up under wholesome christian influence.

-Miss Elizabeth Collins, who has been oritically ill for several weeks, is now so low that her family have no hopes at all of her life being prolonged. Her brother Peter Collins, of St. Davids, Philadelphia, has been here for the past week and her nephew, T. A. Shoemaker, has been at home most of the week.

-The great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros. shows, combined, are headed this way but are not routed into Bellefonte at this time. The spectacular feature of the shows this year is a bicyclist who loops the loop on his wheel. That is, he rides with such terrific speed that he is able to completely circle the inner side of a large wheel, or loop.

---- The Bellefonte Academy base ball team went down to Lock Haven, on Saturday, and opened the season on the Normal school grounds. The game was decidedly exciting, it having taken eleven innings to decide. The Democrat of Lock Haven says the boys played in a clean-cut manner that would have done credit to professionals. the Normalites.

from which he never arose. He was a member of the Christ Reformed Episcopal church and was ready and wiling to die ; never uttering a word of complaint in all his long illness and when the end drew nigh his sole regret was that he could not remain to care for his children until they had reached their majority. He was an officer of the local conclave of Heptasophs and had served in the city burg on Friday and was buried on Sunday. council.

Surviving him are his widow and six of their eleven children.

HENRY HOFFMAN. - A well known resi dent of this place passed away on Monday morning when the venerable Henry Hoffman died at his residence on Logan street. He had been ill only a week with acute trouble while visiting his sou Harper in Williamsport. Deceased was born in Wurtemburg, Germany, March 3rd, 1830, but early in life emigrated to America. About forty years ago he located in Bellefonte to follow his trade as a cabinet maker. He was an industrious, honest citizen who hore the respect of every one in the community. In 862 he was married to Miss Maria Schreyer, who survives him with the following named children : Will, of Plainfield, N. J.; Harper and Benjamin, of Williamsport;

Edward, of Kane; Allen, of Bellefonte, and Frank, of Pittsburg. His brothers Frederick and Lewis are living in Washington and Philadelphia, respectively. Mr. Hoffman was a member of the Presbyterian church and Dr. Laurie officiated at his funeral yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the house.

-Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Copenhaver, who died at the home of W. H. Woomer, her son-in-law, in Tyrone, on Sunday alternoon, was a native of Howard, where she was born September 13th, 1821. Her maiden name was Elizabeth A. Smith and in 1846 she married John A. Copenhaver. Some years later they moved to Bellefonte, finally settling on the Copenhaver homestead on the Philipsburg pike in Taylor township. There her husband died April 10th, 1892, and soon after the home was broken up. Surviving her are her two sons and one daughter : Win. T., of Taylor township; Geo. W., of Beulah, Clearfield county; and Mrs. Woomer, of Tyrone. In-The score resuled in 11 to 10 in favor of terment was made at Bald Eagle on Tues- pany it will prove a very high class enterday afternoon.

his marriage to Miss Clara E. -Mrs. Stewart, aged 30, died at her of Unionville. They lived afterwards at home in Patton on Sunday and the remains Half Moon, Stormstown, Curwensville, were taken to Philipsburg on Tuesday, for interment in the cemetery there. She left a husband and three small children.

-Mary Gregg, daughter of Mr. and constant dread of a railroad accident that Mrs. Jas. Gregg, of east Beaver street, died might prove fatal to the husband and fath-Monday morning of diphtheria and was er. Finally he gave up his run to become buried that afternoon. She was 12 years manager of the Burley Heater Co. and the old. Several of the Gregg children had the very first day in his new business brought disease, but hers was the only fatality, as his death. the others are improving.

Three brothers and one sister are also liv--Aa infant of Mr. and Mrs. Harry ing : Calvin K. Elder, of Bellwood ; Ed-Kreamer died at their home in Aaronsward C. Elder, of Greensburg ; Matthew A. Elder, of Philipsburg ; and Mrs. Fannie E. Gray, of State College.

-After hiccoughing almost incessantly since April 12th Lewis R. Hill, aged 56, died at Muncy on Saturday night.

-The New! York Central contemplates erecting a new station at Mill Hall. The present structure is to be moved further eastward along the track and used as a appendicitis ; having first noticed the freight station. The new building is to be as to render the entire place useless. modern in every particular and quite in. proportion to the amount of business done for the road at that point.

> -Charles Ruhl, of Mill Hall, caught 59 trout in Fishing creek last Friday. Among the lot was one 181 inches long, two 18 and several from 14 to 17 inches in length. Of the entire number only six were less than 8 inches in length. Charles doesn't seem to understand that there is a law against catching more than fifty in one day. $1,000, fully covered with insurance.

-John C. Brooks, a brother of station agent William J. Brooks, at Curtin's Works, had his leg amputated at the knee in the Cottage hospital in Philipsburg last week. He was a brakeman on the N. Y C. and while near Morrisdale mines last Thursday a break chain broke, throwing him from a car to the tracks, where his leg bazardous business, as there were only 9 lbs. was badly crushed at the knee. The train ran nine miles before he was missed. Then an engine went back in search of him. finding him helpless along the track. Brooks is 25 years old and unmarried.

-Miss Lamour, who will appear in "A Wise Womau," at Garman's next Monday night, is out of one of Daly's companies and Frederic Murphy was in Julia Mar- of the famous Squaw.corn for 10cts and you talented people and a farce comedy that ing to him.

ran 238 nights in London there ought to be plenty of amusement at Garman's, when they appear there next Monday night. "A Wise Woman" has been a very successful the finest kind of meal and is a hardy comedy and if presented by a capable com- grower.

tainment.

own for an hour or so Wednesday morning buy ing shingles for the new barn he is erecting on his farm. It will take thirty-seven thousand.

Philipsburg, Bellwood and finally located -Manager John T. Harris, of the Bell telephone interests in Altoona, spent Tuesday night at his in Tyrone which he made his headquarters home here, having come down to say good-bye to after being made a postal clerk in 1891. that nephew and niece of his before they started During all those years the family lived in > -The Bellefonte legal contingent attending the sessions of the Supreme court sitting in Philadelphia this week is made up of Hon. A. O. Furst, C. M. Bower Esq., Ellis L. Orvis Esq. and W E Grav Eso.

-Walter Crosthwaite, of Brooklyn, is in town this week visiting friends and seeing his baby daughter Roxy, who makes her home with her His widow and six children survive. uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mallory, on east Bishop street.

-H. F. Spotts, of Fleming, was a Bellefont visitor last Friday, but tarried only a little while as he had to hurry home to continue some work he left standing while he came to town to look after a little business.

-Temp Cruse, whose energies were somewha ANOTHER HOWARD CREAMERY PLANT restricted in his little grocery store on Howard BURNED .- Early Sunday morning another street, went to Pittsburg yesterday to find a of the Howard Creamery Co's. plants was broader field of action. He is the soul of integrity and amiability and we wish him the luck of Schawb destroyed by fire. This time it was the original station at Howard that fell a vicand Gates.

-Mrs. Howard Brubaker, of Woodstock, Ill. tim to the flames and though it was not who was here on account of the death of her only totally consumed the destruction was such sister Miss Millie Wagner, returned to her home on Tuesday morning. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bell, who are going to Chicago The fire was discovered by a man named Stoner, who gave the alarm at once. The

-Mrs. W. H. Galway, with her children Stanley local fire company responded promptly, but and Louise, left for their home in Radford, Va. the flames had gained such headway that on Wednesday afternoon. They had spent the little could be saved. Everything was winter with Mrs. Galway's parents in this place. burned but the boiler and engine and the Wilbur F. Harris accompanied them as far as section in which the cooler was located. Washington.

-Wallace Reeder and Ward Fleming were both The building was owned by Reber & home from Haverford the fore part of the week Poulsen and had been formerly used as a The former is captain of his college track team planing mill. They also owned the boiler and on the Saturday before his arrival home won and engine. Their insurance was $800. two gold medals in the hurdle events at a field The Howard Creamery Co's. loss was about meet at Princeton.

-Dr. J. W. Coolidge, one of Scranton's eminent and most prosperous physicians, with Mrs. Cool-idge and their two children, Grace and Carl, were The origin of the fire is a mystery. Though there was fire under the boiler at in town over Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. A. the time it is not supposed to have caught Schæffer and other members of the McGinley from there. People about Howard think family. They returned to their home in Scran the place was robbed and then fired, but if ton yesterday afternoon

-Mr. George Keichline, of Penna Furnace, such was the case the robbers could not was in town on Tuesday, the first time since las have been very well rewarded for such fall. He is one of the few of the older generation of farmers who are still sticking to it up in Ferguson. It is not because he has too, however, for of butter and one case of eggs in the place. he could retire nicely, but merely because he The robbery theory is strengthened by the has been working so long that he wouldn't know fact that after the fire was out the steeples how to put in the time were he to quit.

> -Mr. and Mrs. William Bickel, of Mill Hall, spent Sunday with Mr. Bickel's aunt Mrs. John Carper, at Linden Hall. The old lady has reached her eighty-third year and is a remarkably well preserved person. Mr. Bickel is a very success. ful farmer and is quite as well known in Centre as he is in Clinton county. Mrs. Bickle is also a member of a very well known family. She was a McKibben before her marriage.

-Charley Harris, of Wellsville, Ohio, arrived in town on Friday and spent Sunday with his moth-er, Mrs. Rachel Harris in this place. He is in the master mechanic's office of road and promises to become as successful as his rother Joe who is already filling the responsible -Jack Snyder, of Lock Haven, met with an accident near Milesburg on Tuesday that resulted in a fracture of his leg below the knee. A colt kicked him.

-H. C. Kulp and A. K. McManigle, of Milroy, have combined to lumber in the Seven mountains. They expect to put in three mills at once.

ew nights ago, and stole the wool off his sheep's backs.

-An addition of 175x157 feet to the silk mill in Lock Haven is to be built at once. The contract was let on Mouday.

-The Coleville band concert comes next. Are you going?

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red	891/ @ 90
" -No. 2	85@88
Corn -Yellow	67@67%
" Mixed	65@661%
Oats	511/2
Flour-Winter, Per Br'l	2.75@3.09
" -Penna. Roller	3.40@3.60
" Favorite Brands	4.15@4.25
Rye Flour Per Br'l	3.25@3.30
	10.00@16.00
" " Mixed " 1	10.00@13.00
Straw	7.50@15.50

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, following are the quotations up to six k, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

0
)
D
0 3
)
0
0 Ō
5

Bellefonte Produce Markets

	Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.
Potato	es per bushel
Onions
Eggs, ]	per dozen
Lard, I	per pound y Shoulders
Countr	y Shoulders
	Sides
	Hams
Tallow	, per pound
Butter	, per pound
Sale and a set	and the exclusion of a state of the second sta holding the lock in the cooler were found to be drawn.

lowe's support last season. With two such can get some by either calling on or writ-It is the real Indian corn, is extremely

It makes especially tender and sweet of motive power of the B. & O. Charley returned SQUAW CORN.-Rev. R. Crittenden has hit upon a new plan for raising funds for his Keating chapel. He is selling 30 grains large in the kernel, white as snow and covers a large, light cob. It is said to make green corn. Try some of it in your garden. on Tuesday.