

The Second Week of Court.

The second, or civil week, of court began Monday morning with a fair attendance though few cases of importance were on the list and when the continuances applied for were granted very little was left for the court to dispose of.

The work was taken up in the following order:

J. L. Kreamer vs. William Vonada, William Close and William Fees. It was an action of ejectment brought by Mr. Kreamer against defendants to recover a certain tract of land which they now claim by reason of a Treasurer's deed dated some time in 1894. The plaintiff testified that he has held the land since 1880 and that it was owned before that time back as far as 1819 by a Mr. Riess; he also held receipts for taxes which were paid by him from 1880 to the present date, which were assessed against this tract of land.

Mary S. Thomas vs. Thomas Butler and Burdine Butler; feigned issue; general issue. Continued on account of the illness of attorney for plaintiff.

W. R. Shope vs. America Lyman, J. L. Croft and John Q. Miles, assumpsit; non assumpsit. Continued.

J. L. Bathurst vs. Harry R. Curtin, Orlando Bryan and Henry Shultz. Ejectment; plea, non guilty. Continued.

Jacob N. Royer vs. C. P. Long. Trespass; plea, non guilty. Continued on account of illness of a material witness for plaintiff.

Philip B. Iddings and Hannah M. Iddings vs. Spring township. Trespass, plea, non guilty. Continued.

The Borough of Philipsburg vs. William Way and U. S. Grant Way, owners or reputed owners, and Joseph Way occupant. Scire facias sur mechanis lien; plea, non assumpsit, nihil debet, etc. Continued.

An application was made for the continuance of the case of Geo. T. Brew, surviving administrator, et. al. vs. Geo. W. Jackson, deceased, vs. Daniel H. Hastings, J. Henry Cochran and H. C. McCormick, who survive Geo. W. Jackson, deceased, trading as Jackson, Hastings & Company, on account of the illness of Mr. McCormick, one of the defendants as well as one of the counsel in the case. Assumpsit; plea, non assumpsit.

W. C. Farner, D. J. Tresler and Wm. Boal, trustees for the Centre Hall congregation of the Evangelical association vs. Joseph Alters, J. S. Dauberman, J. S. Krumrine and J. F. Smith, trustees of the United Evangelical church of Centre Hall, summoned in ejectment, plea non guilty. This case is from Centre Hall, and grows out of the schism in the Evangelical church of North America about 1890 or 1891, and this suit is brought to recover the church property and parsonage at Centre Hall. When the case was called on Tuesday morning and before the jury was sworn, plaintiffs moved the court to amend the record by striking out the name of William Boal and substituting therefor the name of S. M. Swartz, whereupon the defendants pleaded surprise and the case was continued at the costs of the plaintiffs.

John W. Beckwith vs. The National Insurance company, summoned in assumpsit, plea non assumpsit. This case is from Taylor Twp. On the night of June 4th, 1900, the house, barn and outbuildings of the plaintiff on his farm northeast of Hannah were totally destroyed by fire, and on Oct. 3rd, 1899, the defendant company had insured the house for eleven hundred dollars and this suit was brought to recover the insurance money. At the time the policy of insurance was taken out the house was occupied by a son of the plaintiff, who moved away some time during the fall of 1899, from which time till the fire it was occupied by John Lloyd. The insurance company defended by alleging that the occupancy by Mr. Lloyd was not such an occupancy as provided by the policy of insurance, and further that said policy provided that the company should only be liable for three-fourths of the actual value of the house at the time it was destroyed by fire and that the actual value of the house was agreed upon to be ten hundred and seventy-five dollars between the plaintiff and defendant's adjuster as per paper signed by the parties sometime after the fire, while the plaintiff claimed and produced evidence that this was the amount he was to receive for the loss of the house. The legal import of this paper was argued to the court and after this the case was submitted to the jury by the court without argument by counsel. Verdict on Wednesday morning in favor of the plaintiff for $1184.00.

Minerva Bell Snyder vs. The Pennsylvania R. R. Co., summoned in trespass, plea not guilty. This case is from Tyrone and is brought to recover damages by reason of the death of David W. Snyder, the plaintiff's husband, on October 21st, 1900, in wreck of fast freight some distance west of Howard, this county. Mr. Snyder was a locomotive fireman in the employ of the defendant company in making runs between Tyrone and Look Haven, and on the morning of the accident started out for Look Haven and while on the return trip about ten minutes of two o'clock, while the train was running at a high rate of speed, run into some cattle west of Howard, derailing the engine, the engine toppling over and wrecking a number of cars, when plaintiff's husband was instantly killed and the engineer so badly hurt that he died sometime that night. The action was afterward brought to recover damages from defendant company on the ground that the cars were not perfectly equipped with air appliances, thus preventing the quick stopping of the train in accordance with an Act of Congress, passed in 1898. At the close of plaintiff's case counsel moved the court for a compulsory non suit which was granted after argument.

Elmer W. Moore, receiver of the Iron City Fire Insurance Co. vs. J. H. Relfsnyder was tried yesterday. It was a suit on the part of the receiver to recover premiums due defendant company by defendants. The court took the case from the jury and ordered a verdict of $475 in favor of plaintiff. The costs will run the amount up to more than $500. This is only one of a number of cases this company will have in our courts. Several years ago the WATCHMAN published a full account of how a number of people of the county had been caught by this flimsy concern and now they are beginning to pay dearly for the effort to get cheap insurance handled by irresponsible agents. Other cases of said company against Jesse B. Piper, J. B. Ard and Jacob Keller, all of Pine Grove, were settled yesterday afternoon. What the terms of settlement were is not known.

Late yesterday afternoon the case of G. J. Confer vs. the Penna R. R. Co. was called and will probably occupy the rest of the week. Mr. Confer is suing to recover for injuries received by being struck by a train while crossing the railroad tracks at Howard.

All jurors not called on the above case were discharged yesterday afternoon.

WILL NOT RENOUNCE HIS ALLEGIANCE.—A. Y. Casanova Esq., the Cuban planter, who had made his home in Philipsburg for many years and became so thoroughly American, is to return to that place soon. While owning large properties in Cuba and being sincerely interested in the welfare of the island, the time has come when he must decide between allegiance to the stars and stripes or the flag of the new Republic and he has chosen the former. Consequently he has resigned his position as collector of the customs at the port of Isabela de Sagua and will return to Philipsburg with his wife and son, both of whom are American born.

Mr. Casanova is a nephew of Hon. J. N. Casanova, well known in the political circles of this district, and went to Cuba to lend intelligent aid to the United States authorities in their efforts to change the governmental chaos of the island into order.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Tallheim celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding at their home in Julian on Tuesday. For nearly fifteen years Rev. Tallheim has been in the United Brethren ministry and he is still actively engaged in the work of the Master. Such an occasion as Tuesday's served to gather about the couple hosts of their friends whose well wishes and hearty felicitations will be cherished by Rev. and Mrs. Tallheim throughout their remaining days.

Linn Bottorf, of Scotia, was admitted to the Altoona hospital on Friday suffering with a fractured arm. He is 21 years of age and is employed in a lumber yard where he had his left arm caught under some falling lumber and broken.

It is rumored that the Coaldale Mining Co., of Philadelphia, are about closing a deal which will give them possession of Acme slope colliery located about 3 miles north of town. Mr. C. J. Wittenberg is the present owner of this operation.

C. D. Shope has been appointed superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Co. office in town. Mr. Shope comes to us from Altoona, and is highly recommended. Mr. and Mrs. Shope will occupy one of Bothrock's properties on Second street.

Christ Houtz has gone to Mill Hall to fire an engine.

William Mayes, of Howard, was a pleasant caller in our town the other day.

Mrs. Margaret Corl, of Linden Hall, had quite a severe attack of heart trouble and it came near proving fatal.

Thos. Glenn, a son of Wm. Glenn, of Shiloh, took unto himself a wife the other day, in the person of Miss Grace Sellers, of Waddle.

Rev. D. E. Hepler has not stopped, but gone further in the line of beautifying his home by having Frederick Weber and son, of Boalsburg, hang some beautiful paper for him.

We notice that the life of Dr. Talmage is on the market, as Grace Barnhart, of Oak Hall, has been looking up the persons who wish to know more about the great minister whose sermons we all liked to read.

The Penna. R. R. Co., has brought a new iron bridge to this place to be put in at Dale's Mills, where the railroad crosses Spring creek. The old wooden one has begun to show signs of decay, and it would not be long until it would become unsafe.

Supervisors Lytle and Struble are having the mason work done for a thirty-six foot bridge along the side of the iron one on the road leading from this place to the Branch. The reason for building this bridge is to carry the extra water during the spring floods, the road being low and almost as soon as the water begins to rise it is under water. The improvement is a much needed one.

Possibly we owe W. S. Ward an apology for accusing him of transacting business on Sunday. We should have said Saturday but we know we have not damaged Mr. Ward's reputation for no one would accuse a straight-laced, old seceder like Mr. Ward of committing such a crime as that.
