OFFERS EXCEPTIONAL ADVANTAGES.

TUITION IS FREE IN ALL COURSES.

TAKING EFFECT IN SEPT. 1900, the General Courses have been extensively modified, so as to furnish a much more varied range of electives, after the Freshman year, than heretofore, including Bistory; the English, French, German, Spanish, Latin and Greek Languages and Literatures; Psychology; Ethics, Pedagogies, and Political Science. These courses are especially adapted to the wants of those who seek either the most thorough training for the Profession of Teaching, or a general College Education.

The courses in Chemistry, Civil, Electrical, Mechanical and Mining Engineering are among the very best in the United States. Graduates have no difficulty in securing and holding positions.

YOUNG WOMEN are admitted to all courses on the same terms as Young Men.

Street Trees.

The following advice is given to several correspondents of the Philadelphia Ledger who desire to know which are the best species of trees for street planting. The answer is not an easy one, because very much depends on the object to be obtain-

Morgan Will be Promoted. Gunner Turned Down by Admiral Sampson Passes

WASHINGTON, May 5-Gunner Charles Morgan, U. S. N., has been given a reexamination for promotion to the rank of chief gunner, and has passed. By order of the Secretary of the Navy, he will be promoted accordingly. Morgan worked as a diver on the wreck of the Maine, and is the man whose application for examination for a commission in the navy was turned down by Rear Admiral Sampson, on the ground that enlisted men did not possess the proper social qualifications for such positions.

New York Sensation

Paul Leicester Ford, the Novelist, Murdered by His Brother Malcolm Who Committed Suicide. Brothers Not on Good Terms.

Paul Leicester Ford, the novelist, was shot and killed Thursday by his brother, Malcolm Webster Ford, writer and athlete, who immediately sent a bullet into his own breast, dying instantly. The shooting oc-curred at 10:20 a.m., in the handsome new mansion which Paul Leicester had built at 57 East Seventy-seventh street, New York, and had occupied for about a year.

At the time of the shooting there were in the house besides the two brothers, Mrs. Paul Leicester Ford, Miss Elizabeth R. Hall, the novelist's secretary, and the servants. The novelist was sitting at his desk in one corner of his library. Miss Hall was at her desk in another corner of the room. Mrs. Paul Leicester Ford was in her own room on an upper floor.

Malcolm Ford called as he had often done and went to his brother at his desk. Words were exchanged about money in a tone so low that Miss Hall could not hear distinctly what was said. Suddenly there was a revolver shot and Miss Hall, jumping up, darted from the room. Meanwhile Malcolm Ford had called her. She turned towards him, he placed his revolver to his heart, fired and fell, dying instantly. When Miss Hall turned to look at Paul he was still standing at his desk, but rapidly losing strength. She helped him to a sofa and then ran next door for Mr. Ford's physician. On arrival of the physician, the dying man, still conscious, was carried up to his room. He spoke to his wife. A few moments later, about twenty minutes after he was shot, Mr.

Ford died. The father of Mrs. Paul Leicester Ford, Edward H. Kidder, of Brooklyn, was the first person to arrive after the physician. Mr. Kidder refused to make any statement in regard to the shooting except a brief memorandum which was given to the police. Students Painted Animals. Horse Owner's Son is Now Thrashing them Detail.

Students at Westminister College, New Wilmington, near New Castle, Pa., stole a horse belonging to Rev. Dr. J. O. Campbell on Saturday night, and painted the animal's body green and its legs and hoofs vermilion. Two lambs and a calf were taken from a farmer, painted in the same colors, and hitched to the door of a member of the faculty. The horse is dying as a result of the painting. Dr. Campbell's son Burr has already whipped a dozen or more students of the college, and declares that he is going to thrash every young man in attendance at the institution.
