The memorial services held in the United Evangelical church on Sunday were well attended and all were benefited. The minister took for the basis of his discourse Judges, 11Ch., 30 and 31 verses. It is a pleasure to notice how well the old soldiers are treated by the people of this generation, and well they should be for they were not afraid to stand ready to die for the old flag and for what it represents.

The Spring Mills cemetery has been put in a very beautiful condition for Memorial day. a very beautiful condition for Memorial day. All the weeds have been removed and quite a number of tomb stones, which had been Twp., for $310. frosted out of place, were reset and the graves sodded. Mr. Charles Miller has just erected a very handsome monument over the grave of Mrs. Miller, who died in January last. H. B. Miller has also placed tomb stones at the head and foot of the sod, under which lies sleeping his little daughter Erma, an infant whose age had scarcely reached a single summer. Very massive granite head and foot stones have also been placed at the grave of David Ruhl. The cemetery now presents a very beautiful appearance.
