THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

$15 Reward.

The Sportsmen's League of Centre County will pay $15.00 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any violator of the game and fish laws of this Commonwealth.

Edmund Joseph has been quite ill for some time with catarrhal fever.

The Coleville band will play for the Memorial exercises in this place to-day.

W. Harrison Walker is to deliver the memorial address at Milesburg this morning.

There was a light frost yesterday morning, but its effects did not seem to be serious to vegetation.

Quarterly meeting and communion services will be held in the Methodist church on Sabbath.

Lincoln Musser had his annual farm implement parade on Saturday and it made more fuss than a fair sized circus.

The Walter L. Main shows will exhibit here on Wednesday, June 4th, and you can take our word for it that it will be worth seeing.

The Zion band has received handsome new uniforms and will wear them for the first public appearance to-day at Boalsburg. They are dark blue, with black braid trimming.

A squad of Co. B. N. G. P., will hold services to-day over comrades who are buried in the cemetery at Centre Hall and Pleasant Gap.

F. E. Nagney has purchased the lot on east High street between the homes of Dr. E. S. Dorworth and A. C. Mingle and expects to build a fine home on it for himself. It was the property of C. M. Bower.

The removal of deputy revenue collector John F. Harter from State College to his old home at Millheim will necessitate addressing all communications to him at the latter place. Dr. Harter is very seriously ill with stomach trouble.

DeLong Stewart, of Pine Glenn, was in town on Monday and completed the deal whereby he becomes purchaser of Frank Shugert's house on west Linn street. It is the old J. D. Shugert home. Mr. Stewart expects to bring his mother to this place to reside.

The annual reception at the Academy is to be held on Friday evening, June 6th. The students, former students and everyone at all interested in the school are invited and expected to be present and the effort is being made to make the event more enjoyable, if possible, than in previous years.

The Bellefonte society of the Epworth League has elected officers as follows: President, J. Kennedy Johnson; 1st vice president, Sidney Keefe; 2nd vice president, Ida Green; 3rd vice president, J. Victor Royer; 4th vice president, Lillie Smith; secretary, Ella Musser; treasurer, Ollie Steel.

The ball ground at Hecla park has been fixed up in good shape and that resort is to be made more popular than ever this season. The weekly band concerts will begin about June 1st. Several large picnics are to be held at Hecla during the summer, among them a reunion of the Reformed congregation of the West Susquehanna Classis.

The weather was ideal for the inter-company competitive drill at State College on Friday afternoon and quite a large crowd assembled to see the cadets execute the various evolutions that were required. Col. W. F. Keeder, Col. W. Fred Reynolds and Capt. Hugh S. Taylor were the judges of the drill and decided that D company had excelled, thereby winning the handsome silk trophy.

Miss Mary Kaue and John Brown were married at the parish house on Bishop street, on Tuesday evening, by the Rev. Father McArdle. Miss Gertrude Dolan, of Buffalo, acted as bridesmaid and Daniel Nolan, of this place, was the groomsmen. After the ceremony the wedding party went to the bride's home, on south Spring street, where a reception and collation was given them.

Rev. L. M. Colfelt, D. D., will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, the 8th of June at 7:30 p. m. He will preach the baccalaureate sermon at State College in the morning of that day, and at the request of his friends he has kindly consented to preach in Bellefonte in the evening. It is always a great pleasure to hear him and Bellefonte has ever shown its high appreciation of Dr. Colfelt and we bespeak for him a very large audience.

Mrs. Isaac Mitchell gave a dinner Tuesday evening at her home on north Thomas street for the Bellefonte chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It was in honor of Miss Susan Frazier, of Lancaster, the state regent of the society, who is visiting Mrs. Mitchell, and was more than a delightful social affair, for many of the preliminary plans were concluded for the coming state meeting which the chapter will entertain in October.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT THE BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL.—Next week will round out another year at the Bellefonte High school and the class of 1902 will be sent out, either to begin the real business of life or mark the completion of the preparatory work of a higher education.

The exercises of the week will commence with the baccalaureate sermon, to be delivered in St. John's Episcopal church Sunday evening, June 1st, at 7:30, by Rev. George Israel Brown.

Monday, June 2nd, at 8 p. m., the Junior oratorical contest will take place in Petriken hall.

Tuesday, June 3rd, at 8:30 p. m., the alumni reception and dance will be held in the armory. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music and Harrison will cater for the event.

On Thursday, June 5th, at 2 p. m., the graduating exercises will be held in Petriken hall. The same evening at 8 o'clock the commencement address will be delivered by Rev. Morris E. Swartz, of Shippensburg, who was a member of the class of '85.

Miss Helen Crisman won the first honors and Miss Kathryn S. Musser second honors in the graduating class.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT THE BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL.—Next week will round out another year at the Bellefonte High school and the class of 1902 will be sent out, either to begin the real business of life or mark the completion of the preparatory work of a higher education.

The passenger train that arrives at this place at 4:10 every evening from Lewisburg, run down a herd of fine cattle near Dale's summit, Monday evening; the result being that seven of them are dead and one badly hurt.

The cattle were owned by Willard Dale and they were grazing along the track. Being behind a pile of ties the engineer did not notice them until it was too late. Then, as is necessary in such cases, he put on full steam and plowed through them at high speed. Passengers who were on the train say that they did not even notice a jolt, but eight head of cattle were left dying by the roadside.

They were valuable cattle too, and Mr. Dale claims that they were all registered and worth $500. He was allowed $190 by the railroad company. Among the killed were four milch cows and three young cattle.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Mrs. James Gilliland, of Oak Hill, had a narrow escape from what might have proven a fatal accident recently. While driving across a bridge near her home the horse became unruly and began to buck until the buggy, horse and all went tumbling over the side of the bridge, which is about eight feet high at that point.

Mrs. Gilliland had her three little children in the buggy with her and became almost frantic for their safety. Catching them up she pitched the one child out onto the bridge, but the other two fell into the creek. Immediately she noticed that there was a danger of their drowning and then by jumping herself she was able to rescue them.

Their escape was miraculous, under the circumstances. The only injury they received was a slight scratch on one of the children. The horse was slightly injured and the buggy broken to pieces.

SUMMER PLANS FOR THE Y. M. C. A.—The popularity of the Young Men's Christian Association under the management of the general secretary Frank H. Gamel is constantly growing and many improvements are being added for the benefit of the young men of Bellefonte who congregate there in large numbers. Everything is in spick-span order and as neat and clean as can be. The reading rooms are provided with comfortable chairs and all the latest and best literature.

On the second floor are two rooms fitted up in excellent shape for amateur photography. All the conveniences are close at hand and the dark room is one of the best in town. The young men are talking of forming a camera club.

The athletic features of the Y. M. C. A., are not forgotten either for in the rear, where the old gymnasium stood, they have erected a hand ball court and basket ball court. They also have a fencing club organized which has twenty members. They are also agitating the forming of a camping out club for the summer months.

Mill Hall will celebrate the centennial of the founding of the town in 1906.

Ground will be broken in a few days for the new hospital building at Lock Haven.

Twenty patients are being treated in the Lock Haven hospital, notwithstanding it has capacity for only fifteen.

This evening Hon. A. O. Furst will deliver his lecture on the "Passion Play" at Mt. Bethel Reformed church in Nittany valley.

Mallory & Taylor are putting out beautiful photos for $1.09 the Doz. It is their regular $4 work. Reduction only lasts until June 29th.

After sixteen years in the employ of the Adams express company in Phillipsburg George C Sandford has resigned to accept a place in the office of Platt-Barber & Co.

The Walter L. Main shows to exhibit here on Wednesday will be really worth coming to see. There are only two larger circuses on the road than the Main shows.

Samuel Myers, of Lock Haven, who has made two trips to the Klondike, has started on another gold hunting expedition. This time the new Thunder mountain district in Idaho is his hoped for Eldorado.

Baley Kennedy, an engineer running between Bellefonte and Lewisburg, has been given an engine on the Buffalo flyer. He takes the place of engineer Schreiner, who was killed in the recent wreck near Jersey Shore.

The Beech Creek railroad recently hauled 1839 cars over its single track line within eight hours. This beat the road's previous high record of 1714. Of these 931 loaded and 8 empties went eastward and 837 empties and 63 loaded went westward.

Wm. Doak, of Bellefonte, who is deaf and partly blind, informs the people of Bellefonte and Lemont that he will call on them with a full line of samples of combination dippers, egg poachers, etc. Be ready for him and give him your order when he calls.

Phillipsburg papers are concerned lest the fire brick works in that place go into the gigantic trust being formed by the Harbison-Walker company. The Phillipsburg works have run steadily for years and the people over there prefer the present order of things to the uncertainties of trust operation.

Rev. John H. Mark, the new pastor in charge of the Jacksonville and Buffalo run Presbyterian churches, announces Sunday services as follows: At Jacksonville, preaching at 11 a. m., Sunday school at 10 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m., At Buffalo Run, preaching at 7:30 p. m., Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

Until further notice, beginning Saturday, May 31st, 1902, the Bellefonte Central railroad company will run a passenger car on Saturday of each week between Scotia and Red Bank, leaving Bellefonte 6:30 a. m. and 4:15 p. m.; returning leave Red Bank and Scotia 7:45 a. m. and 5 p. m. Fare one way 50 cents; round trip 75 cents.

The declamatory contest for the Heylman prize at the High school was held Monday afternoon and proved highly entertaining to those who gathered there to hear the young men declaim. Henry C. Quigley Esq., and N. B. Spangler Esq., were the judges. They awarded the $10 gold piece to Walter Rankin, whose subject was "The Fireman's Prayer" and made complimentary mention of Chas. Donachy, for his rendition of the "Supposed Speech of James Otis."

The John Robinson circus tent was burned at Ridgway last Thursday evening, the fire having taken place just after the Queen of Sheba entrance and while the large audience were settling themselves for an evening's entertainment. A violent wind storm blew the canvas against a gaso-line light and in an instant the great canopy was ablaze. The spectators rushed out while the showmen fought to save their paraphernalia. No one was hurt, but there were a number of bad scares.

St. John's Catholic church in this place was crowded on Sunday evening; it being the occasion of the special service of "Crowning the Virgin Mary Queen of the May." It is a beautiful custom in the Catholic church and a most impressive service for children. All in pure white and bedecked with flowers it was a beautiful sight to see them assemble in most profound reverence before the Blessed Virgin. Helen Hull was the crown-bearer, Helen Cunningham and Marie Montgomery, the ribbon girls. Scott Graham bore the cross and Joseph O'Leary the banner.

For the first time in their history a circus train will pass over the B. N. & L. and the L. and T. tracks between this place and Lewisburg on next Thursday morning. The Walter L. Main shows, that will exhibit here next Wednesday, will show in Sunbury next day and will travel to that place via the above lines. Circus trains have never been run over them because of their cars being too long for the curves, but the new superintendent, C. A. Preston, of the Northern Central, under which division these lines operate, says he "will haul the train or know the reason why." Early birds in Penns-Valley will, therefore, see a long yellow circus train speeding past them for the first time since they have had a railroad.

MRS. BERNARD LAUTH.—Mrs. Elizabeth Wilhelm Lauth, widow of Bernard Lauth, the well-known inventor and iron manufacturer, died at her home in Howard on Tuesday morning, shortly after midnight. She had not been well for several months and her death was due to a general breakdown. Funeral services were held at Howard on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, in the Catholic church which her husband built. Rev. Father Saas, of Lock Haven, conducted the mass and interment was made in the family burying ground near-by.

Mrs. Lauth was a native of Reischnoy, province of Alsace, and she was eighty-one years of age. Her marriage took place in Pittsburg in 1840 and with the exception of four years abroad her life has been spent in this State since then. In 1870 Mr. Lauth became owner of the Howard Iron works and his wife retained her home and interests there after his death in 1894. She was a most charitable and generous woman and her life was exceedingly useful.

She is survived by five daughters and two sons. Mrs. Elizabeth Greath, of Reading; Mrs. William Comerford, of Pittsburg; Mrs. William Wilhelm, of Buffalo; Mrs. Cameron Burnside, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Louise Comerford, who resided with her mother, John, of Mexico, and Bernard, of Pittsburg.

MRS. REBECCA Y. LEWIS.—Mrs. Rebecca Y. Lewis died at her home on Logan street, last Friday evening, after two years of suffering with gangrene. Though her illness had extended over that long period she bore up cheerfully and it was only two weeks before her death that she was no longer able to be about and had to remain in bed.

She was born at Springfield, Huntingdon county, June 5th, 1823, and was the widow of John Lewis, who died shortly after the civil war. Surviving her are her brother Perry Steele Sr., of Axe Mann; and sister, Mrs. Joseph Twitfire, of Spring street.

She was the oldest member of the Bellefonte Methodist church and services were held there Monday morning, her pastor, Rev. Dr. Shriver, having officiated.

Death entered the home of Daniel and Elizabeth Boop, at Wingate, on Tuesday, and carried away their promising son Harry E., who was just 25 years, 1 month and 6 days old. His death resulted from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. His young wife, who was Miss Mary Tree, of Johnsbury, and whom he married there last January, survives him, with his parents, six sisters and a brother. Interment was made in the new Union cemetery near Unionville.

George D. Davis, a well-known resident of Phillipsburg, died about midnight Tuesday. He has suffered with general debility for about four months, but it was not until a week ago that he was prostrated. He was 65 years old and located in Phillipsburg in 1854 when lumbering was the principal industry of that region. His widow, one daughter and three sons survive him.

Willis H. B. Eisenhuth, who was a son of Jacob and Matilda Eisenhuth, of Millheim, died at Carrington, North Dakota, 11th, 1861, and is survived by his widow, his father and mother and four sisters.

Mrs. G. P. Shaffer, who died of heart failure very suddenly in Lock Haven on Tuesday, was a native of Rebersburg. She was born there 63 years ago, but spent most of her life in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Sara Walk, aged 79 years, died at the home of her son Michael, near Retort, on last Thursday. She was buried at Mt. Pleasant, near Hannah Furnace, on Tuesday.

James G. Kuhus, who had reached the ripe old age of seventy years, died at his home in Union township recently. He was a veteran of the civil war.

A camping party left yesterday afternoon for Laird Curtin's camp at Sand Hill, along the Bald Eagle. They took spring coats and everything else to make themselves comfortable, and as we failed to see any dynamite loaded up among their accoutrements we concluded that they intend to fish legitimately, but a little bit of it wouldn't have been a bad thing for cold mornings in camp—and they are likely to have a few. In the party were Chas. M. McCurdy, Jno. M. Dale, Harry Keller, John M. Shugert and John Curtin. They expect to be gone until Saturday.

Mrs. Marcy Breeze and Miss E. M. Thomas are going to close their home on east Curtin street and establish one in Downingtown, where the former's son, Andrew, has a good position. Mrs. Emily C. Merriman has leased the house they now occupy and will move into it from Robert Valentine's house on Allegheny and Curtin streets where she now has her home, upon her return from a three months' visit out of town.

Ad. Fauble, the buyer for the large Fauble clothing establishment, is just home from a hurried trip to New York, that was necessitated by the extraordinary sales of their stock during the past few weeks.

Henry Kessinger, a farmer near Eagleville, has been trying plowing with steam this spring. He has had two plows hitched to a traction engine, so says the Lock Haven Democrat, and makes it go quite successfully.

News Parly Personal.

—Gottlieb Haag was a Lock Haven visitor on Tuesday.

—James Lane Allen, the novelist, was a visitor to Bellefonte Tuesday.

—Mrs. Benj. Gutzell is in Lewistown visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cole.

—Miles Osmer, who is working at Jersey Shore, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

—John Meese, the Allegheny street merchant, spent Monday in Williamsport on business.

—Mrs. C. F. Harrison and Miss Beck, of Bishop street, are visiting friends in Williamsport.

—Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lyon, of Penna Furnace, are visiting the Mitchells on north Thomas street.

—Mrs. H. W. Smith, of west High street, with her little son Russell, are in Pittsburg visiting relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelleher, of Thomas street, spent Sunday at Mrs. Kelleher's former home in Lock Haven.

—Joe McMahon, who has been working at the Tyrone foundry for several months, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

—Guy Achenbach, of Lock Haven, grown almost to manhood, spent Sunday with the Misses Snook, on south Allegheny street.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fenlon, of the Rush house, left on Tuesday for a two weeks' visit in Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker, with two of their children, were in Johnstown on Monday, on their way to visit relatives in Somerset county.

—Geo. T. Bush, W. I. Fleming, W. Harrison Walker and J. S. McCargar were Bellefonte Masons in attendance at the conclave in Scranton this week.

—Mr. Samuel Garner and his daughter Miss Mildred, of State College, have just returned from a visit to another of Mr. Garner's daughters, Mrs. Samuel Sankey, in Philpsburg.

—Lawrence McMullen, of Hecla park, was in town on business on Saturday. Though kept quite busy superintending their large farm at that place he finds time to get to town occasionally.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gainfort left for Tyrone on Wednesday and expect to be away a week. Their visit was timed somewhat by the funeral of Mrs. James McGovern, which they desired to attend.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings departed for Philadelphia, on Wednesday morning, where they will spend several weeks visiting Mr. Jennings' sister, Mrs. Conroy, who moved to that city about a year ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sampel, of Pleasant Gap, are off on a ten days' visit to their children in other parts of the State. They left on Friday morning and after a week's stay with their son in Pittsburg they will return to Tyrone for a short visit to their daughter.

—D. F. Luce, the Centre Hall inventor, was in Johnstown on Monday. He has interested some capitalists in that place in a patent hydrant and was there on business pertaining to it. After leaving Johnstown he went to Latrobe for a visit with relatives there.

—Francis J. Rhoads, who went to Missouri some months ago to become resident manager of the Blue Jacket zinc mines and later resigned his position to travel in the West, arrived home on Tuesday morning, benefited in every way by his rub up against the world.

—Rev. Geo. I. Brown, rector, and Mr. W. W. Montgomery and Col. W. Fred Reynolds, vestrymen of St. John's Episcopal church, went to York, on Tuesday, for the annual diocesan convention of their church. Yesterday they visited the battlefield at Gettysburg.

—Rbt. F. Hunter and J. C. Meyer Esq., expect to go to Granby, Mo., on a visit to the Blue-Jacket mining company's operation, in which they are interested. The mines have lately gotten onto a paying basis and the local investors are very much pleased with the prospects.

—Mr. J. A. Fortney and his daughter Miss Beulah drove down from their home at Boalsburg on Wednesday. Miss Fortney is contesting for a set of dishes to be given away by the Boalsburg firm company at a festival this evening. She called on a number of friends here.

—Frank Morgan, of State College, draughtsman and general superintendent of buildings for the Murray Lumber company of Phillipsburg, is spending a few weeks in that place, accompanied by his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are guests of the latter's brother, Corliss Faulkner.

—L. A. Schaffer left for Philadelphia, Monday noon, and will probably make that city his future home. He went down to take charge of the Westerveld Mining Development Company's offices in the North American building and to discuss the work the engagement will be permanent.

—Fred Decker, of Lemont, was in town bright and early last Saturday morning and started the day by doing one of the best turns possible for man to do. He set himself right with the printer and went his way rejoicing. Would that there were more like this well known College township farmer.

—Geo. W. Weaver, of Romola, one of the most prominent farmers of Curtin township, was in town on Saturday; having brought two of his sons with him and met a third one here. While Mr. Weaver's mission was one purely of business he is such an enthusiastic Democrat that it is not strange that a little of his time here was devoted to talking politics.

—Joseph Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, was a Saturday visitor to Bellefonte. Mr. Leathers is one of the very Bald Eagle farmers who suffered greatly by the spring floods. One field of wheat, of twenty-three acres, that he put out last fall was so badly washed that he won't get as much off of it as was drilled into the ground, yet it looked very promising before the floods came.

—Auditor John H. Beck, of Nittany, was in town Tuesday looking after a little business of a purely personal nature. He was among the men who were greatly pleased that both Col. Fortney and Mr. Gettig had decided to withdraw from a contest for county chairmanship, thereby very materially contributing to the unity of the party on the eve of an important campaign.

—O. T. Switzer, of Phillipsburg, and Wm. J. Robinson, of Philadelphia, representing Benj. C. Warnick & Co. who had been in town a few days looking up the interests of the British American Dredging Co. left for Huntingdon on Wednesday morning. While here they met quite a number of people who have investigated Mr. Switzer's proposition very carefully and are so well satisfied that it is a good thing that they are going in.

—Mrs. J. K. Barnhart, her daughter Martha and son Philip, who have been visiting for the past three weeks at Mrs. B's home in Paxatawney, will return home to-morrow. During their absence J. K. B. has been taking his meals at W. W. Ball's, on Thomas street, and spending the Sundays with his sisters down on the farm, one of the prettiest spots of Centre county. His neighbors think they have a good one on him and it is no secret for the door was wide open all day.

—Capt. W. A. Simpson, of Lock Haven, ran up to town Sunday evening "in search of a nice quiet retreat from the whirl of the trolleys, the rattle of heavy drays and trucks and the constant jostling and crowding of the streets of Lock Haven."

This is the song he was giving out on one of the Diamond shortly after his arrival but just then the band order in the park began that divine "Largo" of Handel's, as the third number on the regular Sunday evening concert program, and the Capt got wide enough awake to roll a cigarette.

—Mrs. John L. Kurtz is enjoying an extended stay at Atlantic City.

—Mrs. Louisa Bush, Mrs. H. C. Valentine and Edgar T. Burnside attended the funeral of Mrs. Lauth at Howard yesterday morning.

—Mrs. Josephine Cruse, of east Linn street, departed for Baltimore, on Monday morning, to make a two weeks' visit with relatives in that city.

—Col. D. S. Dunham, who has been spending several years with his daughter, Mrs. Grace Dutton, in California, is expected back to Centre county some time next month.

—William Boalish Esq., of New York city, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. J. L. Seiber, of North Allegheny street. Mr. Boalish is a civil engineer and has just returned from South America.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Feorn Mann, of Lewistown, attended the funeral of late Robert Mann in Mill Hall on Friday and Mrs. Mann stopped here on her way home for a short visit with friends.

—Dr. Edward Harris, who had been visiting his parents in this place for a few days, left for Butler yesterday morning. He has decided to locate at that place instead of Oak Grove, as originally intended.

—John Taylor, who is one of foreman Michael Hayes' right hand men in the Buffalo-run quarries of the American Co. was in town on Tuesday evening and made a pleasant call at the Watchman office.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hunt and their baby daughter, came down from Renovo yesterday afternoon to spend Memorial day with Mrs. Hunt's father, ex-Sheriff Woodring and other members of the family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Royer, were in Bellefonte between trains on Tuesday morning. They stopped over to see Mrs. Royer's sister, Mrs. Frank Galbraith, of Bishop street, while en route from Millheim to their new home in Coats, Va.

—W. C. Bell, of Pleasant Gap, who is doing his share in the wonderful work of expanding J. H. Lingle's foundry and machine shops in that place, took a few hours out of the pattern room on Monday to look after a little business down town.

—A distinguished visitor in town this week is E. G. Atchinson, of Niagara Falls, president of the Inter National Graphite Co., and one of J. P. Morgan's "captains of industry." Mr. and Mrs. Atchinson are here visiting their two sons, who are at the Acad-my. They are stopping at the Bush house.

—Mrs. Margaret Alexander, who has been the guest of friends here for the past few weeks, left Tuesday noon for Pittsburg. From there she expected to go on west on Wednesday evening to Freeport, Ill., for a week's visit at her brother's, before going south to Hobart, Okl., for an extended stay with her sister Mrs. Daniel McBride.

—Former Governor and Mrs. D. H. Hastings went down to Williamsport Sunday morning on account of the serious condition of Hon. H. C. McCormick, and were there at the time of his death on Monday. Mrs. Hastings came home Tuesday but went back to Williamsport Wednesday. Other Bellefonters who attended the funeral were Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Mrs. W. F. Reeder, John P. Harris, Col. and Mrs. James P. Coburn, William P. Humes and J. W. Gephart.

NOTICE.—The Philadelphia & Reading having withdrawn connecting trains between Williamsport and Philadelphia and New York, until further notice our through passenger service in connection with the Philadelphia & Reading Ry., is suspended. This applies to through service in connection with train leaving Bellefonte at 6:40 p. m. and arriving at Philadelphia at 9:40 a. m. J. W. GEPHART.

NOTICE.—On Wednesday, June 4th, the Bellefonte Central railroad company will run a special train from Red Bank and Scotia to Bellefonte on account of the Walter L. Main circus, leaving Red Bank and Scotia at 7:45 a. m., returning leave Bellefonte at 4:15 p. m. after the afternoon performance. Fare for round trip 75 cents.

The Bellefonte Academy base ball team will meet the strong Hecla athletic club at Hecla park, Saturday afternoon, and an exciting game is anticipated. It will be called at 3:30, so as to give an opportunity for people of this place to go down on the afternoon train and return in the evening.
