

Mrs. ELLEN BLAIR SWEYER—Daughter of the late I. M. and Uretta Hall, of Milesburg, after a lingering illness of bright's disease, passed quietly and peacefully to her eternal rest, at her home in Howard, on the 30th ult, aged 67 years and 2 months.

The subject of this notice was twice married. On the 27th of Sept. 1860, she was united in marriage to Mr. Matthew Riddle Moore, who died July 20th, 1868. Of this union four sons were born, one of whom died in infancy. The others are William O., of Flinton; Oscar M., of Erie; and Geo. H., of Renovo.

She subsequently married Mr. Joseph Sweyer, of Howard, on the 27th of Oct. 1873, and he preceded her to the grave some 12 or 14 years. By this union two sons were born, J. Grant, of Howard, with whom she resided, and Frank M., of Erie. She is also survived by a number of brothers and sisters.

Of her it can truthfully be said she was a devoted wife and affectionate mother. Her first husband dying when her children were young and largely dependant upon her own effort to maintain them; with true womanly devotion she struggled heroically and kept them together and reared them under her own care and protection. In later years she was rewarded for her years of toil and energy in their behalf, by the filial devotion and care bestowed upon her in her declining years.

She was a true member of the M. E. church for many years, and was always found in her place, when able, in the hours of worship. Her remains were followed to their final resting place in the cemetery at Howard, by a large concourse of loving friends and neighbors on the 2nd inst., her pastor, Rev. Boggs, officiating.

A FRIEND.

Mrs. WILLIAM K. MARSHALL.—Mrs. Katharine H. Marshall, wife of William Marshall, died at her home in Allegheny last Thursday evening after a long illness of cancer of the stomach. Her relatives and friends here knew that she had been ailing for eight years but they had no idea her condition was precarious and the announcement of her death was a great surprise to them. Some months ago her physician decided that her only hope of life was in an operation and at the time she consented to undergo one, but on the day the operation was to have been performed she decided to have it postponed. Last week she again consented to an operation and on Wednesday made all the necessary preparations for it herself. That afternoon the surgeon attempted the operation but soon found that she was beyond human aid. She lived, however, until the next evening at 6 o'clock perfectly conscious that the end was near. Her body was brought here on Saturday morning and taken to the home of Mrs. Lucy A. Cox, on Logan street, whence the funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Shriner officiated assisted by Rev. Ambrose Schmidt and Rev. Dr. Laurie and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Mrs. Marshall was a daughter of the late William Haveracker, of Milesburg, where she was born 28 years ago last month. Her marriage to Will Marshall, of this place, took place, in Camden, N. J., about nine years ago and most of their married life has been spent in the western part of the State, where he has had good positions as telegraph operator. She is survived by her husband, three little children, Helen, George and Ruth, her mother Mrs. Martha Haveracker, of Fillmore, and two sisters, Mrs. Reuben Crust, of Fillmore, and Mrs. John F. Laurie, of Tyrone.

MARTIN McLAUGHLIN.—The death of Martin McLaughlin, which occurred at his home at Snow Shoe at half after eleven o'clock on Saturday morning, was an exceedingly sad one. He was only 27 years old and gave promise of such a useful citizenship that his passing seems most untimely. For thirteen years he had been the Pennsylvania railroad operator and agent at Snow Shoe, and so faithful and untiring his work that he had never asked a day off duty until the time came when the worst was realized and he was compelled to give up. That was a few months ago, when "Marty" became convinced that his lungs were affected and entered a Philadelphia hospital for treatment. He was advised there that his case was not hopeless and came home in good spirit, intending to spend a year in out of door life. It proved too late, however. The years of unceasing toil had planted seeds too deep to be uprooted and his life was the penalty his fidelity exacted.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McLaughlin and was born in Snow Shoe, May 29th, 1875. He had resided all of his life there and was deservedly popular, for a nicer, more kindly, straightforward young man we have never known. Surviving him are his parents and brothers John, of Du Bois; Michael, William, James, Patrick, Thomas, Joseph and Andrew, of Snow Shoe. Mass was celebrated for him in the Catholic church of which he was a devout member, on Tuesday morning, and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery there.

DIED IN KANSAS.—Notice has just been received here of the death of Mrs. Isiah Zimmerman, which occurred at her home in Nortonville, Kansas, on the 30th ult, after a long illness with Bright's disease. Deceased was Arabella Thomas, of this county, and was raised by John Mitchell's at Pine Grove. She was married there in 1871 and about seven years later moved west. Her husband, three daughters and one son survive.

Mrs. CATHARINE DOYLE REDDING.—Mrs. Catharine Doyle Redding, relict of James Redding, died at the home of her son Lawrence, in Snow Shoe, on Saturday morning at 2:30, after a short illness with paralysis of the bowels. She was born in county Kilkenny, Ireland, in 1830, and came to this country when she was twenty-four years old. Four years later she was married to James Redding; the ceremony having been performed in Bellefonte. They lived here until 1862, when they moved to Snow Shoe and that has been the family home ever since.

Mrs. Redding was a woman whose life was devoted to the care of her family, but not to the exclusion of charities or the needs of less fortunate ones about her. She was most consistent in her church life and requiem mass for the repose of her soul was celebrated in St. Mary's Catholic church at Snow Shoe on Monday morning, but interment was not made until afterward in order that her brother from Grand Rapids, Michigan, could be present. Another brother, Thomas, of Puncsutawney, also survives. The children are Margaret, of Snow Shoe; Henry, of St. Mary's; Lawrence, of Snow Shoe; James, of Clearfield, and Anne, of Snow Shoe.

Mrs. Ann Elias died while sitting in the dining room of the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Baker, in Phillipsburg, Sunday morning. She had just finished eating her breakfast when her heart gave out and she died before a physician could be summoned. She was 81 years old and is survived by six children.

Miss Barbara Krebs is improving from a serious illness. James C. Miller, of Altoona, visited J. W. Kepler on Sunday. J. F. Sausserman is home from Altoona for a week's rest. The venerable William Wright is visiting relatives in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Frank Bowersox is at the home of her youth in Snyder county for a two week's visit. H. I. Stahr and his Academy scholars enjoyed an outing and straw ride to Shingletown gap yesterday. John H. Bailey has laid by his agricultural overalls and put on his Sunday best for a week's outing along the Susquehanna.

Superintendent Gramley held the teachers examination as usual in the Academy. Fortunately most of the class had cobwebs brushed from their brain and the cog wheels of their cylinder thinker well oiled for the trial. On Monday the auditors examined the accounts of the school board, and found it was $750 in debt. The school board was organized with the following officers George W. Homan, president; J. C. Corl, treasurer and N. T. Krebs secretary.

Mrs. L. W. Osman, of Pine Hall, has started to Kansas for a prolonged visit at the home of her daughter Mrs. Asher Sankey. She is now in Pittsburg visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Fry, and will make several other stops en route to the Sunflower state. Jacob S. and James Reed journeyed to Washington last week to enjoy some of the sights and visit a few of the surrounding battlefields. Their objective point, however, was the Alexandria cemetery where their brother Samuel D., of company F, who was killed at the battle of the Wilderness, is interred. They were there for memorial services and were very much pleased with their trip.

Jennie Messimer, eldest daughter of Jacob Messimer died Friday morning of heart trouble induced by a long spell of fever. She was 17 years, 11 months and 10 days of age and was the pride of the family. She was a member of the M. E. Church and interment was made in the Pine Hall cemetery on Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. Services were conducted by the Rev. Edgar Heckman. On Tuesday evening a pleasant social event was celebrated at the home of Frank Fishburn just west of town. It was in honor of the fifteenth birthday of Miss Myrtle, the eldest daughter and was to her a complete surprise. She was decoyed from her home early in the day and upon her return found the lawn beautifully illuminated and the house filled with her young friends. She was presented with a handsome bible by the Rev. C. T. Aikens and Mrs. Fishburn served fine refreshments most abundantly. Memorial Day services in Ferguson township were unusually impressive and well attended this year and Mayor W. F. Fry, our most active correspondent from that section, sent us a glowing account of the proceedings but owing to the stress of news it could not be published.—Ed.

HARRISBURG.—Mrs. E. L. Bergstrosser is visiting friends at Phillipsburg. Miss Grace McClintock visited friends in town part of last week. Emory Deitrich visited friends at Spring Mills Saturday and Sunday. The Reformed people realized $25 from their social Saturday evening. John Love and wife and son of Altoona is paying a visit at the home of his mother. Clyde Swartz, of Mackeyville, spent Sunday at the home of his grand-father, E. J. Markle. Mr. and Mrs. George Kessinger attended the funeral of a nephew at Zion on Wednesday. The Auditors met in town Monday to transact the business connected with the township affairs. Will Maize, the marble man of Howard, erected a fine monument to the memory of Jacob Dunkle recently. John Hoy raised the barn on his farm on Wednesday. There was a scarcity of hands on account of it being show day. L. H. McAulay, who has been employed by the Commercial telephone company in Maryland, is home on a visit to his wife and children. The Odd Fellows memorial services were well attended. The Zion band discoursed some music for the occasion. After the service they played several pieces of the Reformed social.

Lemont.

Benjamin Brisbin is on the sick list again, or rather has not been in good health since last winter. Samuel Lucas, of Flemington, was a pleasant caller at the home of John Lucas on Decoration day.

Rev. C. W. Wasson, of Williamsport, is spending a few days with his mother, as she has been quite ill of late. Cornelius Dale is having galvanized steel roof put on his two houses, which makes them look quite trim. This last week we had a little rain, then snow, then a frost or freeze, and at this writing the thermometer stands at 87°.

Mrs. Alice Williams has gone for a two weeks visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maud Longwell, of Philadelphia. John Lucas* has been quite ill for some time and kept growing worse and worse until on Saturday the illness led to an attack of paralysis. Daniel Houser had thirteen more sheep killed by dogs, and S. C. Bathgate had one hurt, so that it died in a few days. It seems that the dogs should be hunted up and killed. Dr. J. Y. Dale is having the foundation dug out and is getting the material together to put up new house for A. J. Hassinger, in place of the one destroyed by fire some time ago.

F. Woods Bathgate, an accounting clerk for the Penna. R. R. Co., at the Altoona shops, spent Decoration day at his old home and making friendly calls among his many friends. While on their way to Lemont on Saturday morning the horse driven by Samuel Hazel and Daniel Keller, became unmanageable and began kicking. First kicking the buggy top to pieces then the cross-bar of the shafts. From that it ran through the fence but at last they succeeded in getting it under control and, what is better, both escaped without a scratch. At Burlington, Kan., the other day the janitor of the court house, had the sheriff arrested for walking across the grass in the court house yard. The sheriff was fined $8.

Children's Wash Suits and Extra Trousers.

THE NEW TWO-BUTTON DOUBLE-BREADED SACK. A more popular style this season than ever for summer and outing wear. Made by hand; permanent shape; exclusive fabrics.

FOR the Double-Breasted Sack Suit [Coat and Trousers] the principal fabrics used are fancy flannels, genuine homespuns, wool crases, striped serge, blue, black or Oxford homespuns, serge or unfinished worsted. Many of the fancy cloths are confined patterns shown by us exclusively. These suits are made up for us. The taste with which all the findings are matched and selected, the perfect harmony between the suiting, the linings, buttons and trimmings, make every garment an artistic creation and shows what care and thought we expend on even the smallest details of workmanship. Beyond all this are the practical advantages of the clothes—their fit and durability. The permanent shape worked into every garment as it is tailored and the encouraging thought that at last you can sell your customer a thin suit that does not hang upon him like a rag; but instead earn his gratitude by making it possible for him to be at once cool and well dressed during the hot weather. Call and see them.
