

Lemont.

David Dale is home for his summer vacation. Frost is still in line as there was a light one in these parts on Monday morning.

Mrs. Oscar Osman has returned to our town after an extended visit at her former home.

Jane Graham, of Winburn, is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Houtz.

Mrs. Della Fishel and Mrs. Mattie and Mrs. Carrie Houtz were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. G. W. Williams, on Saturday.

John R. Williams, wife and daughter, of Lemont; Mrs. Julia Dinges and William Young, of Boalsburg; and William L. Steele, and wife of Bellefonte, were called to Leek Haven, to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Lyde Carvan.

Christian and Lloyd Houtz took the notion one day last week that they were tired of enjoying single blessedness and that they wished to try married life.

The funeral of Roy Thomas, the little boy who was drowned at the bridge near Dale's woolen mills, was very largely attended by the people of this community, which showed how deeply they sympathize with the bereaved parents.

Mrs. LYDE CARVAN.—Aged 63 years, died at her home in Lock Haven on Wednesday, of last week; having been ill for several months with dropsy.

Mrs. SARAH WILLIAMS.—Aged 63 years, died at her home in Lock Haven, on Wednesday, of last week; having been ill for several months with dropsy.

Mrs. MARY BRUNSE, of Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Harriet Steele, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Margaret Johnston, of Easton; Mrs. Julia Dinges, of Boalsburg; and Ismael Young, of Boalsburg.

Yarnell.

Raymond Butler is now at home nursing a cut leg. David Walker, of Coalport, was the guest of his brother A. G. Walker last week.

Miss Maggie Thomas, who has been seriously ill for over a month, is improving. Cranley, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, who has been sick for some time is improving.

Children's service will be celebrated at the U. B. church, on the evening of June 15th. Farmers are all busy re-planting corn, as much of it rotted and some was taken by the crows.

D. W. Byer, lost a valuable cow last week, it being the third in a week. The two were killed by the cars. Miss Mary Walker, while engaged in her household affairs, was called to help her aunt, Mrs. George Walker, kill a black snake, which measured 6 feet, 2 inches in length and 8 inches in circumference.

It was the largest snake heard of in the locality and was the third snake killed in the Walker yard that day. Howard.

Miss Mattie Thomas, of Tyrone, visited in Howard on Sunday. Mr. Barrett has his new house which is going to be a fine home about finished.

The masons are at work building the foundation for John Wagner's new brick house. Mr. Claude Moore and wife returned to Howard from their wedding tour on Monday.

John Heverly, of Johnsonburg, returned home ill, but at this writing is able to be around. Miss Mary Holter, of Williamsport, visited her many friends and sister, Mrs. James Kane, of Howard, last week.

The Howard ball team and the Beech Creek team will play at Howard next Saturday, June 14th. Joseph Longue, who has been attending school at Philadelphia the past two years, arrived home on Monday evening.

Children's service was held in the United Evangelical church on Sunday evening June 8th. All pieces were recited well and the church was filled to its utmost capacity.

Mr. Abe Weber moved one of his houses, on Main street, occupied by Mr. Elmer Schenck, to a lot which he purchased from James Butler and expects to move the other in a short time.

The marriage bells were rung for Miss Grace McKean and Mr. Harry Long, of Howard, Wednesday evening. We wish the young couple a long life of wedded bliss. May their joys be as deep as the ocean and their trials as light as its foam.

Nittany Items.

J. R. Pheasant, of Howard, visited his relative, Will Garbrick, last week. Mrs. Davy Tanyer, of Howard, visited her sister, Mrs. Mowery, at Clintondale last week.

George Siler, of Madisonburg, was the guest of his brother-in-law, Howard Zerby, during the week. H. G. Rogers is erecting a new house, which when completed will make a very pleasant home.

Wm. Garbrick, an aged and respected citizen, is so seriously ill with lung trouble that there is no hope of his recovery. Will Knecht and family, of Parvin, and W. E. Schaeffer and son Charles, of Millburn, enjoyed Sunday at the home of B. F. Schaeffer.

Will Beck is improving one of his farm buildings with a new roof and an extended porch, which will greatly add to the convenience of his tenants. The cornerstone of the new Evangelical church at Clintondale will be laid with appropriate ceremonies on Sunday at 2 p. m.

The church is to replace the one destroyed by fire. Glen Meyers, of Lamar, and Miss Jennie Tweed, of this place, were married in Altoona last week. They are both well-to-do young people and we wish them success in their new venture.

Harry Billet, of Lamar, who has been up the river lumbering, stepped upon a log last week, while peeling bark, and fell, injuring his spine very seriously. He has the sympathy of the community for he is an honest, industrious young man.

While returning home from the festival at Clintondale last Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Henry narrowly escaped death. The horse they were driving frightened at a bicycle, ran away and threw both occupants out of the wheels and had the horse not tripped and fallen at that moment probably both would have been killed.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. W. D. Port is visiting her son Rev. W. C. Dunlop near Williamsport. Mrs. S. E. Young, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday at her parental home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gates are rejoicing over their first born, a daughter. Farmer John Breen on the Branch has a new boarder at his home who will never get a vote.

A beautiful new iron fence with white trimmings now encloses J. B. Ard's front yard on Main street. J. C. Buckwalter and wife are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little boy at their home in Lancaster.

On Thursday a delightful dinner was given at the home of Miss Bella Lytle and her sister, near State College, which was a veritable feast.

Miss Phoebe Miller, one of the best known ladies about State College, is suffering from a partial paralytic stroke which affected her eye and side of her face.

Mrs. Thomas VanTries, of Bellefonte, spent several days at her old home at Grayville the latter part of the week and tarried for a few hours on Monday with her friend Mrs. Gibson.

While driving a four horse team Charley Shirk, of Boalsburg, fell from the wagon and though he managed to hold onto the lines and stop the horses he is now going around on crutches on account of a broken leg.

Apply before the 16th to W. E. Woods or O. G. Martz if you wish to join their night school. Terms will be reasonable and all the common branches including French, Latin, writing and elocution will be taught.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Gibson and their little daughter, Elizabeth, are enjoying Aunt Polly Mitchell's hospitality. Mrs. Gibson and the baby will remain several weeks while Will makes a trip through the south in the interests of the Osborne Co., of Red Oaks, Ia., the lithographing establishment he is connected with.

Mr. Charles Milton Dale will not soon forget his 35th birthday. He had not thought of it at all but his mother evidently had it in her mind. She was one of the many people who had business in Bellefonte on circus day and while there purchased a hunting case gold watch which was carefully laid by the breakfast plate of her only son on the morning of June 4th.

Daniel Howe, of Williamsport, and Abe Baum, of Bellefonte, registered at the Ste. Elmo on Monday. They were in quest of a mated team for the Park hotel at Williamsport and found just what they were after in J. B. Heberling's barn. Mr. Howe is to be congratulated for his newly purchased team was the finest in the valley, gentle and kind, good steppers with much style and perfectly matched.

The ninth annual reunion of the William Thompson family and relatives was celebrated on the 27th inst., at the pleasant home of Mrs. George Horlacker in Montoursville. The occasion is always looked forward to with much anticipation and this year was no exception. The cordiality and good cheer which prevailed will long be remembered by those present.

Those who were present were George Horlacker and wife, Major H. S. Thompson and wife of East Waterford; Dr. J. Frank Thompson, of Liverpool; Rev. H. A. Thompson, D. D., L. L. D., Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Linnie Thompson and grandson Russell, of Mount Union; Mrs. L. P. Lewis, West Chester; Mrs. W. A. Everett, Bloomsburg; R. C. Thompson, Stormstown and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Foresman, Renovo. The occasion was one of happiness and mirth until late in the afternoon when it was saddened by a telegram announcing the death of Rev. H. A. Thompson's son-in-law at his home in Dayton.

Burglars are working our quiet little town for all there is in it. Only a short time ago, it will be remembered, they robbed the post-office and attempted to get into Weaver's store. On the night of the 5th J. B. Ard and Co.'s roller mill, operated by Reuben Tressler, was the scene of their operations. They gained an entrance through the door and though two explosions were heard during the night they aroused no one's suspicions.

When Mr. Tressler went to work in the morning he found the door open and the office badly wrecked. The safe had been blown into fragments and pieces of it were imbedded in the walls and ceilings. The robbers secured $40 in cash. Mr. Tressler's life insurance policy, and bonds to the amount of $700 making in all about $1,500. J. B. Heberling's furniture establishment, just across the street was entered the same night. His book case and desk was ransacked and his safe, which was not locked, was also gone through but nothing, which they could make use of, was found. The fact of the safe being unlocked, probably, saved it from being ruined.

In making their entrance the robbers over-turned a pair of mixed paint which was the only damage done. The day previous to the robbery three strange men were seen strolling along the mountain road and as soon as possible after the deed became known a searching force turned out swearing vengeance on the villain who had destroyed the peace and quiet of the town but so far no clue has been found.
