-- While driving a load of pipe from Allison's plumbing establishment to the Nittany furnace, Wednesday morning, Tom Caldwell, one of Allison's men, was seized with a fainting spell and fell from the high wagon seat. Fortunately Edward Fleming, who was with him, noticed him falling and caught him before he fell far enough to injure himself. It has since developed that he was affected by a slight stroke.

-A. A. Pletcher, the well known Nittany valley teacher, has decided to spend the summer months working up the book business for the Christopher Sower Co., of Philadelphia. They publish the Brooks series of mathematical works, Brumbaugh's readers and other well established text books for school use. Mr. Pletcher's long experience in the school room admirably equips him for the undertaking and fortified with the good works he has to offer, we would not be surprised to hear of his making heavy inroads upon the trade of the American Book concern and Giun & Co., which seem to have a monopoly of the business in Centre county.

SEVEN ARRESTED FOR ILLEGAL FISH-NG.—Detective Joe Rightnour made quite a haul of illegal fishermen last week and now seven men have a more comprehensive understanding of the law that protects our streams from the ravages of the net fishers.

Nathan Dale, John Strunk, Oliver Strunk, S. S. Strunk and Wilford Ebert, all of Pleasant Gap, were arrested on Friday, for scooping in the Bald Eagle. They were taken before Justice Keichline, but settled the case with the detective without having being July 4th no paper will be issued from a hearing. The men claimed that they had been informed by legal authority that they could lawfully use nets in the Bald Eagle and leniency in their case would have been all right, but where the county detective gets his authority for settling cases himself is not made public.

Joseph Thal and William Kline were also arrested for using a throw net in Spring creek, and they state that they were fined $15.00 each.

Upon inquiring at the office of Justice Keichline it was learned that hearings had not been held in either case and that both had been settled by the detective himself. -Don't forget the appearance of the According to the latter's statement the and Kline $15 each.

The case of Mr. Dale, the Strunks and Eberts hinges on a case that was brought grocers of that place. the week before by John Strunk against Reuben Houser. The former had Houser arrested for threats and uttering oaths and he was bound over for court. Then to get even, when Houser discovered that his prosecutor was going fishing, he followed him up and informed the detective with the result that the whole party was scooped in. Detective Rightnour offered to withdraw the suit against the illegal fishermen if they would pay the costs in the Houser-Strunk case and withdraw the suit against Thomas, of this place, became totally para- Houser. After talking it over they figured that it would be cheaper for them to do that than to be fined the $50 penalty for illegal fishing and prevailed upon Strunk to go before the justice and withdraw his Mrs. Katharine Hewell, and operated by suit, which he did.

> MANY STORES WILL CLOSE EARLY .-Beginning Tuesday, July 1st, thirty-four of the stores and other business places of only $3,000 insurance. Bellefonte will close and lock their doors at 6 o'clock p. m. each evening, except Saturdays and the pay days of Standard Scale works, the Pennsylvania Match Co., the American Lime and Stone Co. and the Bellefonte and Nittany Furnaces.

The early closing rule will be observed strictly during the months of July and August, and will include nearly every business house in Bellefonte, except the grocery stores and meat shops, which will remain open during their usual hours.

The early closing rule is not new in Bellefonte. It has been observed with marked satisfaction to all concerned for several years, consequently this announcment will not be a surprise to anyone and is merely published for the convenience of those who might unwittingly make a trip to a store after six p. m. and be disappointed to find it closed. The merc have joined in this movement are to be commended for their effort to give their clerical force as much relief as possible during the heated period of summer and we feel assured that they will be more than repaid in the diligent, re-invigorated service rendered them by their employees.

The pay days referred to above are on the 3rd, 10th, 12th, 18th, and 25th and last hood of St. Andrew to represent the society days of the month. Remember that on these and Saturdays the stores will be open until their usual closing hours, but -At the Gentzel horse sale at Mill- on all other days they will close promptly

> MANY CENTRE COUNTIANS AMONG THEM .-- The commencement exercises at the Central State Normal school at Lock Haven took place on Wednesday and among the large class of graduates were thirteen young ladies and gentlemen whose homes are in Centre county.

> This is the least of it for after the diplomas had been awarded Dr. Fleckinger, the principal, announced that one of the two principal prizes given by the Normal had been awarded to Miss Daisy I. Barnes, of Bellefonte, whom the judges had decided had won the oratorical contest, one of the most coveted honors of the class. Miss Barnes is a graduate of the Bellefoute High school and is a daughter of Mrs. Lydia

The Centre county members of the class are : Daisy I. Barnes, Bellefonte; Elizabeth Barr, Snow Shoe; Alfred E. Bowersox. Rock Spring: Ber tha Omega Duck, Spring Mills; Sallie C. The marriage took piace at the parsonage at the Intersection and later in the evening an informal reception was given the young people at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Frieze. The bride and groom will go to housekeeping in Pittsburg, where the groom has been employed.

-Earl Landis met with quite a severe accident Monday evening, the result of which is a badly shattered right hand. The boy is a son of Ai Landis, of Penn street, and is only 8 years old. He picked up a torpedo or some kind of a cartridge in front of Irvin's stationery store and, child-like, went to pounding it with a stone. There was an explosion that shattered his hand so hadly that Dr. Seibert was compelled to put fourteen stitches in it in order to bind the fragments together again. The physician states, however, if no unforseen troubles arise the child will not lose the free use of his fingers.

-Dr. John Harter, of Millheim, was in town Friday evening on his way home from Renovo, to which place he had been for several days on husiness as deputy revenue collector for this district. Very few of his many acquaintances here recognized him, for the serious illness he had undergone for the past three months cut his weight down from 200 to 125 lbs. and he was only a shadow of his former robust day afternoon, when the Flemington boys self. He is on the mend now, however, and it is to be hoped that the improvement will be both rapid and permanent. As an evidence of the doctor's wonderful nerve finish. Mr. Roaming, of Flemington, gave and his desire to take proper care of his government engagements an incident that occurred last week is illustrative. He had made an appointment to sell stamps at Renovo on Thursday. The day previous and Ward V. ON TO ERIE. - About the most enthusiastic junket that has ever been taken by Centre county Democrats was the trip to Erie made this week by forty-five of the unterrified who journeyed to the Lake city as boomers for Col. Jno. A. Woodward's candidacy for Governor. Though they failed to land Centre's "favorite son" all had a good time and returned yesterday morning so full of enthusiasm that it would be folly to think that it will not hold out until the ides of November. The Pullman coach "Clifton Forge," bearing great streamers on which were printed "For Governor Col. John A. Woodward" of Centre," carried the delegation to and from Erie and furnished comfortable lodging for them while in that city. They were royally entertained, got in for their share of all the fun and now feel thoroughly grateful to "Capt." Frank P. Blair who planned and carried out the trip so successfully for them.

While few in number the Woodward boomers made themselves felt on all sides and there never was a minute that the Centre county aspirant didn't receive the same courteous and considerate attention as any of the others. He had fewer workers, but they were better and so persistent that the Wood ward boom was of a highly respectable character. As an illustration of how every thing was turned to the glory of the Centre countian an explanation of the telegraphic reports that a Woodward club of 400 strong had arrived in Erie Tuesday morning will serve:

At Lock Haven the car carrying the Centre county delegation was attached to a special train of nine Pullmans having Broad street conservatory of music. aboard the large Philadelphia contingent. When the train arrived at Erie the Centre county car was the only one bearing banners and the Woodward badges the only ones in evidence, consequently the impression got abroad that it was a Woodward train. Our boomers were not slow to take advantage of the situation and promptly fell in behind the band that had been called to escort the Philadel phians to their headquarters. The band started off at once and there was nothing left for the Ryan and Donnelly crowd to do but fall in behind the Woodward badges so that the Erie people were naturally impressed with the size of the movement for the Howard statesman and the Philadelphians were paraded all over the town as a tail to the Woodward kite.

Among the contingent were Wm. F. Smith and Pierce Musser, Millheim; John and Wm. Smith, Spring Mills; Ellis Shaffer, Madisonburg; D. J. Meyer, S. W. Smith, John Dauberman, and Leonard Rhone, Centre Hall; Hon. R. M. Foster, M. S. Mc-Dowell, Dr. J. E. Robison, Prof. L. E. Reber, State College; W. H. Noll, and Jas. Corl, Pleasant Gap; Senator W. C. Heinle, Hon. James Schofield, W. Miles Walker, M. I. Gardner, John Noll, Jerry Donovan, Capt. Hugh S. Taylor, C. Y. Wagner, J. Kennedy Johnson, P. Gray Meek, Col. J. Sechler, F. E. Naginey, John J. Bower, C. M. Muffly.

THE CLOSING OF THE PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS.—The closing exercises of the schools under the supervision of St. John's Catholic church in this place were held on Tuesday and a large audience gathered to witness the various interesting exercises. Shoe Intersection, and Frederick E. Frieze, The schools do an exceptional work, as was of Milesburg, were married Wednesday at evidenced by the careful manner in which the hundred or more scholars carried out the program.

There were motion songs, recitations, dialogues, instrumental and vocal selections, all so well rendered as to reflect great credit both upon the little performers and the sisters of the Immaculate Heart under whose loving training they have made such marked progress.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the awarding of the prizes made possible by Gen. Hastings' gift of $50 to the schools just before his departure for Europe. They were given as follows, for general excellence throughout the year :

First class-Anthony Brown... Agnes Shaughnessy. Third Benedict Beezer Fourth Andrew McCafferty... Sixth Arthur Brown. Seventh Anna Graham Basil Mott .. Miss Marie Walsh a gold medal for proficiency in music.

BITTEN BY A COPPERHEAD SNAKE .-George Musser, who lives in the vicinity of Yarnell, is suffering from the effects of a copper-head snake bite. He was loading wood near his home a few days ago when the reptile struck at him, sinking its fangs deep enough into his finger to poison him badly. A physician was called as soon as possible to attend to the wound, which has been causing him great pain for several days.

WAITE'S STORE AT LOCK HAVEN BURG-ARIZED.—The bicycle emporium owned by John Waite, in Lock Haven, was broken into last Friday night. > FOR HORSE BREEDERS. -One of the most exceptional opportunities that has been offered lovers of fine horses in this section for many years is to be found in M. B. Gar man's decision to put his newly acquired trotting stallion "Governor Boyd" in the stud during the coming season.

> "Governor Boyd" was bought at Lexington, Ky., recently by Mr. Garman and springs from a family of fast trotters. He is a handsome bay horse, 151 hands high and weighs 1050 lbs. As a three year old he has a mark of 2:29} and was expected to be among the leaders in much faster time this season until it was decided to give our owners here the advantage of such noble breeding, rather than campaign him.

Those interested will find a complete description of the horse in the advertising columns of this issue and it might be added that the price that has been fixed for service is exceptionally low for a horse of this character.
