SAVES A WOMAN'S LIFE.—To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by Green's Pharmacy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

David Reasner's Death.

The venerable David Reasner, a well known farmer in Centre county, died at the home of his son William, on north Thomas street, in this place, on Wednesday evening, July 2nd. Just six days previous he had come down from his home in Benner township to visit his son and the same evening suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never recovered.

Deceased was born at Farmers Mills, Centre county, April 30th, 1824, making his age at time of death 78 years, 2 months and 3 days. He was a son of George Reasner, who emigrated to this country from Germany. During his life he followed lumbering and farming but of late he has been living a retired life with one of his sons in Benner township.

In 1849 he was married to Miss Mary E. Senate, of Boggs township, who survives him with the following children: Samuel and Edward, of Benner township; John N., of Tarentum, Pa.; William J., of Bellefonte; Mrs. Elizabeth Markle, Mrs. Bertha Marquette and Mrs. Myrtle Hoover, of Reading; Mrs. Carrie St. Clair, of Carlisle, Pa.; Mrs. Jesse Cox, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Katherine Senate, of Runville.

Deceased was a kindly christian gentleman and an earnest member of the United Brethren church of Bellefonte.

The funeral took place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of Wm. Reasner, on north Thomas street. Rev. T. W. Perks, of the United Brethren church, took charge of the services, assisted by Rev. W. P. Shriner D. D., of the Methodist church. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Erastus Robb.

After weeks of intense suffering with cancer of the stomach Erastus Robb, a respected citizen of this place, passed away at his home in Beaver run on Monday morning, June 30th. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he was a member, by his pastor, Rev. Dr. Shriner, and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

Mr. Robb was born in Stone valley May 5th, 1846, and was a son of William and Catharine Robb. When quite young he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Nenne-maker, of Madisonburg, this county, and for years they have been residents of this place. On October 20th, 1864, he enlisted in Co. F, 51st regiment P. V. and served until mustered out at the close of the war in 1865. He was a member of the G. A. R. and his fellow comrades of Gregg post attended his funeral in a body and had charge of the burial. He was an industrious employee of the Bellefonte Glass company and the entire corps of men connected with that industry were present at his funeral.

He is survived by his wife, who most assiduously and devotedly nursed him during his last illness, and nine children; Arthur, of Braddock; Harry, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. Carrie Graham, Viola, Adaline, Frederick, Fearon and Joseph, of this place. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Charlotte Billet, of Birmingham, and three brothers, George, of Coleville; Daniel, of Illinois, and John, of Ohio.

Charles Wesley Ruble.

Charles Wesley Ruble, a popular student at State College and one of the most reliable athletes died on Saturday morning June 28th at the home of his mother at State College after a short illness of diabetes. He had not been well for several months but had been so unusually strong and healthy all his life that he was not in the least alarmed when his physician announced the necessity of extreme care. Just a few weeks previous to his death he took a severe cold while watching a ball game and from that he steadily grew worse. He was a member of the class of 1903 and was a great favorite with the students and instructors. He was a quiet, diligent boy and was one of the leading players of the base, foot and basket ball teams of the institution. He was twenty-two years of age and was the youngest son of Mrs. Linda W. Ruble, who with his two brothers John, of this place, and Joseph, of Pittsburg, sincerely mourn his early death.

On Tuesday his body was taken to Centre Hall, his former home, and interment was made in the cemetery there. His father, James Ruble, preceded him to the grave about twelve years ago.

An Old Penn Township Resident Passes Away.

The death of John Moyer, which occurred at his home in Penn township on Tuesday morning, July 1st, was the result of old age more than any specific ailment. He was one of the oldest residents of his locality and a man held in the highest esteem by his neighbors. He was as staunch and true in his Democracy as he was in his business dealings with men and his integrity was never a thing to be questioned. He had filled many township offices with intelligence and was a zealous member of the Reformed church.

Deceased was of German descent and his ancestors were among the early settlers of the county. He was born in Anville township, Lebanon county, Sept. 14th, 1814, which would make him in his 88th year. When he was 14 years of age his parents moved to Centre county where he has ever since resided. In his younger days he was a school teacher but later engaged in farming at which he was quite successful. On June 16th, 1853, he was married to Miss Eleanor Smith, of Penn township, who survives him with one son, Jacob S., of Penn Hall.

The funeral took place Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from the Salem Reformed church near Penn Hall. Interment in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Rev. John D. Stewart.

Rev. John D. Stewart, one of the oldest and most widely known citizens of Tyrone died at his home there on Thursday, June 29th, after a five weeks illness caused by cancer. He was a son of William C. and Jane Dunlap Stewart and was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 23rd, 1824. He graduated at St. Mary's college in Maryland in 1839 and settled at Tyrone Forges in 1842 as clerk and book-keeper. In 1850, when the town of Tyrone was first located he became a resident and has been prominently identified with it ever since. He was an enthusiastic member of the Methodist Episcopal church and for more than fifty years had been a local preacher in the denomination. In recent years he had been greatly interested in the Missionary Christian Alliance and gave generously of his abundance to the cause.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Shell, to whom he was married in 1846 and six of their fourteen children: Mr. J. R. Mooney, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. W. F. Meminger, Chicago, Ill.; John A., Jessie S., Charles B. and Harry L. Stewart, all of Tyrone.

Leodora May Breon, aged 17 years and 8 months, a daughter of the late Valentine and Sara Breon, died at the home of her brother-in-law H. H. Leitzel, at Millheim, on the 1st, after a lingering illness of consumption. Funeral services were held on Sunday and interment was made in George's valley cemetery.

The Mill Hall and Zion bands were both in town the evening before the Fourth and gave a number of concerts. They were brought by the Undine Fire Co. to advertise the picnic at Hecla next day and proved quite a pleasant attraction. The Zion boys were resident in handsome new uniforms that were quite in keeping with their fine music. The uniforms are of dark blue flannel, heavily embroidered with gilt braid and fit beautifully. They are of military cut, with a small silver tye at each side of the standing coat collar. They were made by Faibles.

The twelve year old son of Charles Campbell, of Ulysses, Tioga county, who was supposed to be lost in the woods six weeks ago, has been found in a gypsy camp near the woods for days and on Sunday of last week hundreds of men and boys spent the day in the woods looking for the lost boy. On Friday the boy was found in a gypsy camp near Port Allegheny, McKean county.

J. Fred Herman, of Lemont, and Miss Ella Miller, daughter of the late Joseph Miller, of this place, were married at the Evangelical parsonage in Centre Hall, on the 3rd inst by the Rev. J. F. Shultz. The groom is in the employ of the Standard Scale Co. and they will make their home in the Miller property in Bush's Addition.

Last Friday morning a two story frame house, located about two miles from Milesburg in Boggs township, took fire and was totally destroyed. It was owned by Thomas Quick Jr., who had recently moved to Johnstown, leaving the house vacant, consequently the origin of the fire is a mystery. The loss is covered by insurance.

J. Wallace Reeder, who was bitten by some strange insect and laid up for several days as a result of the poisonous nature of the bite, is able to be about again.

The Moshannon bank of Philipsburg has been made a depository of state funds and $25,000 placed therein.

Summer Tours to the North.

Two Tours to Canada via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the summer of 1902 the Pennsylvania railroad company has arranged to run two personally-conducted tours to Canada and Northern New York. These tours will leave July 19th and August 13th, including Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Rapids of the St. Lawrence, Quebec, The Saguenay, Montreal, Au Sable Chasm, Lakes Champlain and George, and Saratoga, occupying fifteen days; round-trip rate, $125.

Each tour will be in charge of one of the company's tourist agents, assisted by an experienced lady as chaperon, whose especial charge will be unscrupulous ladies.

The rate covers railway and boat fare for the entire round trip, parlor-car seats, meals en route, hotel entertainment, transfer charges, and carriage hire.

For detailed itinerary, tickets, or any additional information, apply to ticket agents, or address Geo. W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent, Broad street station, Philadelphia.

Pennsylvania Railroad Reduced Rates to Minneapolis, Account National Education Association's Annual Meeting.

On account of the National Education Association's annual meeting, at Minneapolis, Minn., July 7th to 11th, the Pennsylvania railroad company will sell excursion tickets from all stations on its lines July 4th to 6th, good to return not earlier than July 8th, and not later than July 14th, at rate of single fare for the round trip, plus $2.00. These tickets will be good for return passage only when executed by joint agent at Minneapolis and payment of 25 cents made for this service.

By depositing ticket with joint agent not earlier than July 8th nor later than July 14th, and payment of 50 cents at time of deposit, an extension of return limit may be obtained to leave Minneapolis not later than Sept. 1st.

For specific rates and conditions, apply to ticket agents.

A TIMELY WORD.—The weaker the system, the more enervating the heat and the greater the danger of prostration. This is a truism—a proposition needing no argument. A word in favor of the systemic effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla is timely—it is a fact that this peculiar medicine strengthens and tones all the organs and functions and builds up the whole system. You will do well to take Hood's during the heated period.

Two August Tours to the Pacific Coast at Greatly Reduced Rates via Pennsylvania Railroad.

On account of the low rates authorized by the transcontinental lines to the Pacific Coast during the summer, the Pennsylvania railroad company will run two high grade personally conducted tours to the Pacific Coast by special trains of the highest grade Pullman equipment. Both tours will leave New York August 2nd, visiting Chicago, Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Del Monte (Monterey), Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, San Jose and Portland on the going trip.

Returning, Tour No. 1 will run northward from Portland and eastward through the magnificent Canadian Rockies by leisurely daylight trips with stops at Glacier, Banff Hot Springs, and other points, reaching New York and the East via St. Paul and Chicago on August 31.

Tour No. 2 will run eastbound from Portland over the Northern Pacific railway to Cinnabar, where the special train will be sidetracked while the passengers make the usual six day trip of the Yellowstone National Park. From the Park the route homeward will be via St. Paul and Chicago, arriving in New York September 4.

Rates from New York, Philadelphia, Washington, or any point on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburg, including Pullman berth, and all meals on the tour except during the five days spent in San Francisco, when Pullman accommodations and meals are not provided:— For Tour No. 1, $200. Two persons occupying one berth, $180 each. For Tour No. 2, $150, including all expenses through Yellowstone Park. Two persons occupying one berth, $230 each.

A preliminary announcement outlining the various details is now in course of preparation, and will be furnished as soon as ready upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent, Pennsylvania railroad, Broad street station, Philadelphia.
