

THE WILLIAMS REUNION.—The executive committee of the Williams reunion met July 19th and decided to hold their third anniversary in Miles' Grove, near Martha, Centre Co., Pa., on Saturday, Aug. 16th.

Last year over three hundred of the clan were present, but the interest already manifested for this occasion augurs well for a greater gathering of the grand old family and their friends.

No formal invitation will be issued to those residing in the county and this announcement is to be understood and accepted as a general invitation to all members of the Williams clan and their friends to meet in this friendly association.

The reunion will be on the basket picnic plan, but those of the "tribe" who come from distant places will be entertained. Such persons may communicate with the corresponding secretary and arrangements will be made for their entertainment. The following persons comprise the executive and sub-committees:

Executive Committee—President, A. C. Williams; vice president, Mesch Williams; secretary, S. T. Williams; corresponding secretary, Ida R. Williams; poet, J. R. Williams; historian, Rev. E. L. Williams.

Correspondence—Miss Ida R. Williams, Martha.

Reception and Entertainment—Mrs. Mesch Williams, G. G. Fink, W. H. Williams, J. R. Williams.

Transportation—J. Q. Miles, W. A. Hartsock, James Eberts.

Music—Prof. H. H. Miles, Orlando Williams, J. R. Williams, Mrs. Lizzie Eberts, Misses Mattie Williams, June Robison, Maggie Miles, Lola Williams, Stella Williams, Edith Williams.

Preparation of Groceries—J. Q. Miles, Wilson Stever, Geo. W. Williams, Joseph Williams, Jas. B. Williams, Ralph Hartsock, Geo. R. Williams, John P. Williams, Arthur Harpster.

Emblem—Judson Williams.

Nittany Items.

John Holmes Jr. and family, of Walker, visited his uncle at this place last Sunday.

Miss Eliza Williams, of Howard, and Graham Ferguson, of Bellefonte, visited Nittany last Sunday.

Mrs. S. H. Bannison concluded to try horseback riding and came across the ridge last Saturday to call upon her friend Mrs. Holmes.

Last Saturday evening proved a stormy one and yet the Evangelical church gathered crumbs to the amount of $22 at their festival held here.

Al McKibben, an employee of the McCormick harvester people, was through here last week starting machinery and has proven himself master of his work.

Rev. Stover, the Lutheran minister located at Snydertown, was being looked after by his members in this locality and seems to be giving good satisfaction as a minister.

Miss Annie Stephenson, the lady who had her hand crushed at the laundry in Lock Haven, spent a few days with her grand-ma, Mrs. Annie Eddy, at Lamar. Every one pities Miss Stephenson in the loss of her hand.

John Mayes, of Lamar, who has been employed at lumbering up the river for years, was seriously hurt last week by a lever which he was using in prying timber and by some means slipped and caught him on the side of the face and bruised him in a frightful manner.

Linden Hall.

Wm. Korster spent Sunday at Coburn.

Mrs. Henry Ziegler visited her son Wm. at Oak Hall, on Friday.

J. A. Long, of Centre Hall, visited his aged mother at this place a week or so ago.

Mrs. Frank Swabb, of Pine Grove Mills, visited friends here on Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Ziegler is visiting friends at Bellefonte and Mill Hall, this week.

H. C. Gettig and family, of East McKeesport, Pa., are spending a few weeks with parents and friends in this section.

Prof. C. E. Hower, principal of the schools of Mahanoy City, spent a few weeks recently among his former students in this vicinity. Prof. Hower was formerly principal of the Boalsburg schools and has many warm friends here, who always appreciate his visits.

The picnic at Shingletown Gap, last Saturday, was well attended by the young people of the valley. The welcome address was made by D. K. Mothersbaugh, principal of the Branch schools, and was a grand effort, full of wit and humor, which is characteristic of that erudite gentleman.

Mr. Steele, of Glenn Iron, superintendent of the Linden Hall Lumber company, was in town on Thursday looking up the company's interests. In the thirteen years that this company has been operating in this section, it has done a great deal for our town, and we should like to keep them with us for thirteen years longer, but the prospects are that they will move their saw mill next spring.

Howard.

If it keeps on raining it will be wet all this month.

Mr. Fred Leathers is spending this week on business at Emporium.

Thomas Mann and Elmer Ertle arrived home on Monday from the woods.

Mrs. Robert Neff and two sons, of Tyrone, are visiting at the home of W. H. Neff.

That if rumors are true there will be a few more weddings in and about Howard soon.

Mr. E. Holt is spending his vacation this week at Howard with his many friends.

Miss Mand Confer departed, Thursday, for Renovo where she expects to spend the summer.

Huckleberries are still coming in by the bushel. The price has advanced to 50c. per quart.

The Old Fellows' social gathering on last Thursday was a grand success. Everybody present reports having had a good time.

There are a lot of girls in Howard who had better be at home helping their mother instead of spending all their time in gadding the streets.

Two hundred water melons arrived in town on Saturday morning, being the first of the season, and by ten o'clock that evening there was not a melon to be had any where. The water-melon man had better send some more to Howard.

Lemont.

Mrs. Ellen Garbrick and daughter Kate are making a visit at Bellefonte, Zion and Salona.

Berry Ray, of Kipple, was home attending the funeral of his father, the late James Ray.

J. F. Herman was in town looking up old acquaintances after a short sojourn in Bellefonte.

Arthur Wasson lost a valuable cow the other day, caused by eating too much young clover.

Miss Gertie Ducey, of Pittsburg, has been circulating among her many friends in these parts, the last few weeks.

Mrs. Jacob Weber, of Boalsburg, is still further beautifying the home of Elmer Evey, by putting on a fresh coat of paint.

The patrons of this post office will have to go to Jno. Mitchell's hardware for their mail now as he is the new post master with D. B. Getz assistant.

Mrs. Margaret Shuey, wife of Emanuel Shuey, died at her home Sunday night the 13th inst., aged 71 years and three months. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss her husband and son Harvey.

William Shuey has been home visiting at the home of Clayton Ethers, of Oak Hall, and Jno. M. Coble, of this place, also calling on other friends as it has been a good many years since he went from these parts.

Clayton Ethers has his mill closed for repairs this week, putting in a new forchay and a larger water wheel in place of one of the two that has been in use for a good many years. When the work is completed he will be better prepared to supply the wants of his many customers and will have a pleasant word and smile for all.

Pine Grove Mention.

Miss Nannie Thomas, of Latrobe, is visiting her sister Maggie Gates.

Mr. M. J. Keller and family, of Allegheny, are here for a month's outing.

Robert Gibson and family, of Pittsburg, are enjoying Aunt Polly Mitchell's hospitality.

M. A. Dreiblebis, of Carlisle, is spending a week among relatives. His wife is with him.

Ezra Tressler, of Rock Spring, spent Sunday with his old time friend Frank Swabb.

Mr. and Mrs. David Reed returned yesterday morning from a delightful trip to Atlantic City.

Boss thresher Detro is having a blow stack attached to his machine which is now in excellent running order.

The M. E. congregation held a festival in the new I. O. O. F. hall last Saturday evening which enriched them $35.

Samuel Kaup and family are rústicating with friends at Renovo where Samuel has his business eye on a good paying job.

Wm. A. Shuey conductor on the Pennsylvania R. R. and a resident of Pittsburg spent last week among Centre county friends.

The sociable at Frank Fishburne's, just west of town, last Thursday evening was a great success. More than $20 were cleared.

Mrs. M. J. Pickering, of Philadelphia, and her three lovely daughters are enjoying their annual visit at their uncle Will Bailey's just west of town.

Merchant Will Foster, of State College, with Mrs. Foster and their family, camped over at Whipple's several days last week and enjoyed the outing very much.

The base ball game last Saturday afternoon at the Bailey field between our boys and the Baileyville nine was much like the handle of a jug. The score was 26 to 4 in favor of the Pine Grove boys.

Squire and Milton Keller and their families spent Tuesday with their friends in Stone valley. The drive over Tussey mountain at this season of the year is beautiful and was appreciated accordingly.

Miss May Candy, of Philadelphia, is visiting her cousins, the Everharts, on the Branch. Her father was a victim of the Johnstown flood and Mrs. Candy and her daughter have resided in Philadelphia since that event.

Three United States mail collection boxes have been ordered for the following points: One is to be placed at Shingletown, where the post office has been discontinued, one at Centre Furnace mill and one at the Honserville post office which has been discontinued.

James McCool is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a nice little boy on the 18th at his Water street home. It is not likely that the boy will be able to about for Patison this fall but he will be all right in politics when he gets old enough to vote.

Rev. John C. McCracken, of Johnstown, preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening and his congregation were very much pleased with his discourse. Though young in years he has developed into an able preacher and on Sunday evening his sermon was a continuous chain of plain and logical truths expressed in a very instructive and entertaining manner.

About eighty guests enjoyed the delightful party given at the Bowersox home on Saturday evening. The affair was in honor of Frank Bowersox, who is home from Philadelphia and Albert, who recently graduated from the Lock Haven Normal. Miss Katy Bowersox was the caterer of the occasion and splendid refreshments were served with a liberal hand.

A State College party passed through town Wednesday en route for the Hostler, where they will pitch their tents for several days' angling. Laird Holmes is acting in the capacity of chief cook and bottle washer. Prof. Surface, entomologist, was not anticipating so much sport from the finny tribe as he was from the bugs and beetles of the community and if the Hessian fly knows what is good for it, it will keep under cover while he is near.

Buggies, Carriages, Etc.

HERE, HERE, THE REAL THING.

When you want a Buggy come to us and see the "Real thing."

DON'T BUY of the cheap John Peddlers who are traveling our County and misrepresenting their goods to you asking ten dollars more for a Buggy than you can buy at home for with a guarantee that will be of no use to you if any part of your Buggy should prove defective.

DON'T SEND AWAY and buy by looking at a picture, from a party you have never seen and probably never will see, as a Buggy with cheap Stock makes as nice a picture as one with good.

BUY AT HOME, where you know or can soon find out the reputation of work and those you are buying from.
