THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The Bellefonte Lutherans will picnic at Hecla park to-day.

The Milesburg Methodists will picnic at Hecla Park on the 14th.

The business men's picnic on August 21st is the next big event to look forward to.

Not quite two months until the great Centre county fair will open. You should see the way the grounds look now.

Painter Rash Williams is limping around like a man a thousand years old. He has rheumatism.

Samuel Ostrander has been taken to the Polk, Venango county, institution for feeble minded children.

The Central Supply Co. put a handsome new delivery wagon on the road on Tuesday. It was built at Bullock's works in Milesburg.

The regular band concert was not given down town last evening because of the fancy dress party for the hospital benefit in the armory.

While at work at the Penna. match works, on Friday morning, Abe Armstrong got his right arm caught in the machinery and it was badly crushed.

Liverman George Beezer sold a mated team of black carriage horses and a fine brown rider to Chauncey F. York, of Warriors-mark, on Tuesday.

Dr. A. W. Hafer's peach trees are still blooming and bearing the most luscious fruit, a fact we discovered yesterday morning when we found some of this year's crop on our desk.

An effort is being made to have several running races at the business men's picnic on the 21st. A few horses have already been secured so that the committee is quite hopeful of success.

The extremely damp weather has made the mosquitoes very bad in Bellefonte. They are something so unusual in this section as to make visits of the sort we are having this summer really noteworthy.

The Centre county fair will open on Tuesday, September 30th. The time isn't far distant and will roll around very soon. If you have some friends whom you want to entertain during the fair now is the time to invite them.

The board holders of the Bellefonte Gas Co., at a meeting held on Saturday morning, appointed John M. Dale, Isaac Mitchell and Chas. M. McCurdy a committee to prepare and submit a plan for the future management of the company.

The Martha Orady farm, west of the Old Fort, has been sold to Mrs. James I. Lytle, of Lemont, for $6,000. Samuel Durst is its present tenant but the Lytles expect to move onto it in the spring. The farm contains 150 acres and has good buildings.

Former county treasurer D. C. Keller, of Centre Hall, had a valuable horse die for him several days ago, shortly after he had hauled it home. The animal took sick when in the vicinity of Spring Mills and Mr. Keller immediately had it loaded upon a wagon and hauled four miles to his home. It was too far gone, however, and died soon after arriving there.

Rev. T. W. Perks and his family have moved into their new home, the parsonage recently completed, adjoining the U. B. church on west High street. Superintendent George Grim, of the Nittany Iron furnace, has leased the house on Thomas street out of which Mr. Perks moved, and with his family is now in possession of it.

The mail wagons being used on the new free rural mail delivery routes encircling State College are very patriotic in appearance. The running gears are red, the body blue and the curtains white. The wagons are built like a dairy wagon, very compact and have pigeon holes for arranging the mails. They were secured through McCalmont & Co., of this place.

Judge Cyrus N. Gordon, of Clearfield, who had been abroad for several months, has returned very much improved in health. He took the voyage for the benefit of a constitution very much run down by a siege of carbuncles and erysipelas. While abroad he and Mrs. Gordon spent three weeks at Carlsbad. Judge Gordon was in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

An invitation has been extended to the undergraduate students of The Pennsylvania State College to attend the third international congress of students in Budapest, the capital city of Hungary, between September 24th and 30th. The last congress was held in Paris in 1900. The object is the discussion of important questions touching the life of the universities and the students thereof.

The board of managers of the Bellefonte hospital met in the office of Col. W. F. Reeder, on Tuesday evening, to frame rules and regulations and devise ways and means for the maintenance of the institution. There was a good attendance of the board and the several necessary committees were appointed to reduce the plans discussed to writing. It was also decided to secure a matron at once and just as soon as a competent woman can be engaged the hospital will be opened to the public.

WASHINGTON LONEBERGER.—Washington Loneberger, who was a boy in Bellefonte when this place boasted only a few hundred residents and probably the oldest man born in the town, passed away at his home on the top of Nittany mountain, above Pleasant Gap, on Monday morning at 10:30. Though 87 years and 9 months old he had been in a remarkable state of activity up to the day before his death, when he was taken ill. A physician was summoned, but his condition was not regarded with alarm, consequently his sudden death next morning was a great shock. It is not definitely known just what the case was, though it is believed to have been neuralgia of the heart.

Born in Bellefonte in 1815 he resided in this place until he was 17 years old, when he moved, with his parents, to the farm on the mountain top that has afforded him a peaceful, contented domicile for three score years and ten. Mr. Loneberger was the oldest resident of that entire community. His life had been characterized by such simple modesty, steadfast integrity and christian fellowship that his neighbors and friends may well mourn the closing of such an honorable career. He lived in peace among them and was regarded with patriarchal esteem, for he failed in none of the duties of good citizenship and to the last lent his every effort to the success of Democracy.

Deceased was married twice. His first wife was Elizabeth Eisenbuth. Surviving their union are George, of Oak Hall; Augustus and Mrs. Mollie Miller, of Lincoln, Kansas; Pierce, of Willis, Kansas; John, of Oklahoma; Mrs. Ella Miller, of Johnstown; and Mrs. Alice Waite, of Pleasant Gap. His second marriage was to Miss Mary Flory, who also survives him with their two children Oscar, on the farm at home and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Bellefonte.

Interment was made at Centre Hall yesterday morning. Rev. Rarick, of the Lutheran church, of which he was a member officiated at the services, with Rev. B. A. Salter, of Pleasant Gap assisting.

L. B. McENTIRE.—One of the county's old citizens passed away in Williamsport last Saturday, when L. B. McEntire died. For years and years he conducted a general merchandise business and was postmaster at Fillmore, on the Buffalo-run road, and there he became known as a straight-forward man, conscientious in his dealings with his fellows and earnest in his devotion to the service of the Master.

He was born in Clarion county in 1824, but in early life located in Centre, near Houserville, later going to Fillmore where he remained twenty-four years, finally closing out his business and locating in this place. He conducted a store in Bush Addition until a year or so ago when failing health forced his retirement. Then the death of the wife who had shared the sorrows and pleasures of a long life with him brought a double measure of sadness and he began to fail. A few months ago he moved to Williamsport to make his home with his son Harry and there he died.

He was a veteran of the civil war; having been a member of Gregg post, G. A. R. and a delegation from that body consisting of W. H. Musser, Charles Glenn, Charles Eckenroth, S. B. Miller, Amos Garbrick and David Love acted as pall bearers at the funeral on Monday. The body was brought here on a noon train and after services had been held in the Methodist church it was taken to Houserville for burial.

Surviving him are his children J. C., Edward, Harry H. and Ella, of Williamsport; Dr. O. W., of Howard, and Mrs. A. B. Cowher, of Bellefonte.

ROBERT G. DAVIES KILLED.—Robert G. Davies, who will be remembered as having been a resident of Bellefonte a number of years ago, also an instructor in chemistry at The Pennsylvania State College in 1887, met with an accidental death near Hitchcock, Virginia, recently.

When here he was manager of the Union Mining and Roofing company. Three years ago he went to Norfolk, Va., and engaged in business. About one year ago he became manager of the Fountain Creek Granite company, of Hitchcock, Va., whose works are near that town. On July 25th he was instantly killed while in the act of taking a flat car down the incline, the brakes failing to work. He either slipped or was thrown from the car and was crushed over the heart. His death was instantaneous, but his body was not mangled.

The deceased was aged 38 years and was a native of Slatington, Lehigh county. Two years ago he was united in marriage with a Miss Minor, of Norfolk, who survives him. He also leaves one brother, Charles P. Davies, of Philadelphia. The deceased has many friends in Bellefonte who will regret the sudden and tragic ending of his life.

GEORGE D. KLINE.—Heart disease was the cause of the unexpected death of George D. Kline, which occurred at Oak Hall early Monday morning. Deceased was a native of Snyder county; having been born there about seventy years ago. For fifty-one years he had been a resident of this county; most of his life having been spent in the vicinity of his late home. And there he was generally regarded as a good and useful citizen, a zealous christian and an active member of the Boalsburg Lutheran church.

AN ESTIMABLE YOUNG WOMAN.—Mrs. M. M. Hunter, who was formerly Miss Laura Tipton, of Howard, a daughter of Rebecca J. and the late Absolom Tipton, died at her home in Elmira, N. Y. last Sunday, and her body was brought to Howard last Tuesday for burial. Very impressive services were held in the M. E. church of that place conducted by the Rev. Boggs, pastor of the M. E. church, assisted by the Rev. Bair, of the Evangelical church.

Mrs. Hunter spent her early life near Howard and became a resident of that place in 1885, when the family retired from their country home. She was converted and became a member of the M. E. church during the pastorate of the Rev. George E. King and always lived a consistent life and was an active and energetic laborer in God's work.

In 1890 she was married to Mitchell M. Hunter and was a faithful and devoted wife and mother. But the dread destroyer came in the form of consumption and despite all efforts of medical science she began to weaken and wear away until almost five years of patient suffering had passed ere the final call came, and she fell asleep in the arms of Jesus.

She leaves a husband and two children: Harold, a boy of 8, and Frances, a girl of 6 years. Besides her mother, Mrs. R. J. Tipton, and two sisters, Mrs. J. T. Ryan, of Buffalo, N. Y. and Mrs. E. C. McEntire, of Williamsport, and two brothers, J. Howard, of Tyrone, and George W., of Howard.

MRS. NEWTON STEELE.—While sitting on a chair on the porch of her home near Ax Mann on Friday evening Mrs. Newton Steele suddenly fell forward and before those who were near her could realize what had happened she was dead. Though she had not been in good health for some time she seemed actually better that evening and was sitting out on the porch conversing with her husband and his father, the venerable Perry Steele.

Deceased was a daughter of David Immel and was born at Ax Mann 49 years ago. She was a consistent christian woman, an exemplary wife and a useful character in that community. Surviving are her husband and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Lottie Morse, Phillipsburg, Montana; Mrs. Nancy White, Milesburg; Mrs. A. B. Steele, Bellefonte, and Zach, Tyrone.

Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap, on Monday morning, after services had been conducted by Rev. B. A. Salter, of the Methodist church.

Jasper I. Wolf, aged 58, a son of the late Thomas Wolf, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Weaver, in Bellwood, on the 29th ult. Heart disease was the cause. He was formerly a resident of Wolf's Store, this county, and leaves to survive him his aged mother, his brother Newton, of Garrison, Iowa, and sisters Mrs. W. J. Musser, of Orangeville, Ill. and Mrs. Weaver.

At the age of 83 Jacob McCool died at his home in Gregg township on Sunday, Rev. Rauch, assisted by Dr. Wolf, Revs. Koontz and Evans, conducted funeral services on Wednesday.

Mrs. G. W. Mappedoram, widow of the former proprietor of the Potter house in Phillipsburg, will conduct that hotel in her own name hereafter.

Quarantine of the Lock Haven hospital has been raised. No symptoms of small-pox have developed among any of the inmates. Lizzie Reed, the patient in the pest house, is about recovered.

While away on his latest trip A. J. Cook, division superintendent for the Berwind-White Coal Co. sold 2,400 acres of land in Jefferson county to the Goodyears, of New York, for $400,000.

Thomas Walker Jr., of Yarnell, was working near a tree when it was struck by lightning last Friday. The bolt stunned him and splinters flew so thick and fast that he was badly out and bruised by some of them.

Post-master Andrew Bolger has recently received official notice from the Post Office Department in Washington to the effect that the much talked of free delivery will be established in Phillipsburg on December 1st. There will be three carriers, one substitute and twenty-two street letter boxes.

The Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. moved the first car-load of goods into the new warehouse at the corner of High and Railroad streets on Tuesday evening. Though the building is not near completion the firm is so crowded for room that it had to go into the new building in its unfinished condition.

Charles Foster, of State College, who runs between New York and Pittsburg as a United States mail agent, was in the wreck of the fast mail at Pack-Saddle, near Bolivar, Wednesday of last week. The engine and two mail cars were wrecked beyond repair, the engineer and fireman were killed, and one of the other clerks in Charles' car was killed. As for himself he says: "I have no idea how I escaped being killed, but I did. It was miraculous and utterly beyond comprehension." The train had smashed all previous time records between Altoona and Pittsburg and was lowering its own record at the time the engine left the track. It had just covered fifty-three miles in forty-seven minutes twisting down the curves on the western side of the Alleghenies.

COUNCIL MEETING.—At the meeting of council Monday evening the following business was transacted:

The ordinance pertaining to the laying out of Willowbank street, from Reynolds' mill to the borough line, was adopted, without objection on the part of either councilman or citizen. The street conforms to the old lines. The ordinance laying out Water street, however, met objection on the part of a number of property owners along that thoroughfare who were present to notify council that they would expect to recover damages for any encroachments upon their property. It was adopted without regard to the amendment passed at the last meeting opening the street to a uniform width of 40 ft. north of High. The ordinance calls for 40 ft., 35 ft. and 30 ft. After its adoption council ordered the clerk to wipe the record of the amendment from the minutes. On the motion to open the street to the three different widths the ayes and nays were called, members Reynolds and Kirk voting nay. They favored a uniform width of 40 ft.

The report of the Water committee fixing a rate for meter tax, setting times for collecting the same and authorizing the superintendent of the water works to be the collector was then taken up for discussion and passed finally. Mr. Cunningham voted nay on the measure. There was nothing of importance in the reports of other committees. A balance of $282.32 was shown to be in the treasury on August 4th and after the following bills were approved council adjourned.

A PITCH FORK THROUGH HIS JAW.—It will be remembered that last winter the home of David Long, near Jacksonville, was destroyed by fire and that the family came so near burning up that they were rescued from an upper window in their night clothes. As they had no insurance they lost everything they owned.

Recently Mr. Long met with an accident that seems as though an unkind fate is pursuing him. He was helping haul in grain and while riding to the field in the empty ladders the board in the bottom of the wagon broke, letting him fall through. One of the wheels passed over his chest and, in addition, the prong of a fork penetrated his chin, coming out at the side of the jaw.

A GALA NIGHT AT THE GAP.—To-morrow night, August 9th, the third annual fantastic jubilee will be held at Pleasant Gap and in addition to the ludicrous parade other features of entertainment have been provided. Senator Heinle and Capt. Hugh S. Taylor will speak, the Coleville band will be there to give a concert, there will be athletic sports, fireworks and a balloon ascension.

These annual fantastic affairs at the Gap are always amusing and Bellefonters, especially, would enjoy the drive out to witness the one-to-morrow night. The band will serve refreshments during the evening.

A HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—Ben Gable, of Milton, met with a horrible accident at the Jenkin's Iron and Tool Co's. works, at Howard, Wednesday morning. While at work at the rolls a piece of 5-8 wire, red hot, shot clear through the calf of his left leg; making an agonizing wound. In his frantic efforts to remove it he burned all the flesh off the palms of both hands. Finally, a fellow workman, Ed. Cain, removed the wire with a pair of tongs.

Two physicians were called at once and Or Kurtz was sent to the Lock Haven hospital with the injured man. It is feared his leg will have to be amputated.

CHILD DROWNED AT BEECH CREEK.—Floyd Swartz, the 6-year-old son of Marion Swartz, of Beech Creek, fell into the stream near his home in that place on Saturday afternoon and as no one saw the accident the child was drowned.

When he was missed some time later and it was remembered that he had been seen last playing along the banks of the stream dragging was resorted to at once and his body was found about three hundred yards further down the stream.

All efforts at resuscitation failed to bring back the vital spark.

A WISE TEAM.—J. R. Pheasant, who lives about three-quarters of a mile east of Mt. Eagle, has a team of horses that have become so familiar with the sound of the farm dinner bell that they can distinguish it from that of any of the neighbors. Immediately when the Pheasant bell begins to ring, if the team is being worked in any of the fields within hearing distance, both horses will throw up their heads, neigh and attempt to turn toward the house.

STRUCK THE LARD CAN.—During the storm that passed down Nittany valley last Friday afternoon lightning played a very strange freak at the home of Benjamin Fisher. It struck the house, the current following the rods to the ground, but then it flew into the cellar and struck a lard can, which was melted flat, with all its contents.

The occupants of the house were not hurt at all.

News Purely Personal.

Miss Margie Knowles and Oscar Redford, who had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dale for several weeks, departed for their homes in Richmond, Va., Wednesday evening.

John Workman, the Hecla park restauranter, was in town on business on Wednesday. He says the season has been a little backward at that resort, but expects a big crowd on the 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Spear, with their little boy, are here for a short visit with the former's father, county treasurer W. T. Spear. Will is now assistant manager of Horne's big store in Pittsburg.

Randolph Breeze, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., arrived in town Saturday for a short stay with his mother. He came east to make some investigations in the Altoona rail-road shops. He left on Monday.

Mrs. George W. Jackson, who has been visiting at the Burnside home on Curtin street for the past ten days, will return to her home in Oakland, Md., to-day. Her son Maurice is going home with her for his vacation.

David Tanyer, of Howard, was in town on Saturday and the WATCHMAN office was one of the places at which he called. Mr. Tanyer doesn't come often, but when he does it counts, for his subscription is always paid in advance.

Frank K. Lukenbach, cashier of the First National bank in Phillipsburg, came over to his old home here, on Saturday evening, to accompany Mrs. Lukenbach and their little daughter home next day. They had spent a week or more with friends here.

F. D. Lee, who farms the Israel Kauffman place below town, was in on Saturday and sent the label on his paper ahead another year. We neglected to ask him about his hay crop this season, but if it shared the fate of much of the rest in Nittany valley, there will be a few car loads less of prime timothy to ship from this place next spring.

Among the Bellefonters who are away enjoying their vacation at the fashionable resorts along the coast and elsewhere are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shney and their two daughters Anna and Sarah, at Bobcaygeon, Canada, Miss Caroline Harper at Asbury Park for a stay of six weeks, Mrs. E. P. Irvin and Mrs. William Laurie at Cape May and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mrs. Isaac Mitchell and her two sisters, Miss E. M. Thomas and Miss Mary Thomas and their niece Miss Bertha Shaffer, left Monday for a trip to Lake George and the Adirondacks. Dr. Shaffer and his family will join the party at Philadelphia and accompany them.

THE CONVENTION TIME CHANGED.—At the meeting of the executive committee, of the Centre County Christian Endeavor Union, held in the Presbyterian church at Unionville, Aug. 2nd, it was found necessary to change the time of the convention from Sept. 3rd and 4th to August 27th and 28th.

The chairman of the committee of arrangements reported that the people of Howard would entertain all delegates free.

Two banners will be given at the convention. One, to the society having present the largest delegation, the other to the society having present the largest delegation; provided they have previously reported their membership to the corresponding secretary.

NANNIE FISHER, Secretary.

AUGUST MEETING, POMONA GRANGE.—The August meeting of Centre Co. Pomona Grange No. 13, will be held in the hall of Washington Grange, one mile east of State College, on Friday, August 22nd, at 10 a. m.

We hope the Patrons will take notice and all come. This will be the last meeting before the annual picnic at Grange Park and an interesting program will be carried out.

GEORGE DALE, Master.
D. M. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

SCHLEY MIGHT BE HERE.—The committee on speakers for the business men's picnic at Hecla park, on August the 21st, are making an effort to secure the presence of Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, the hero of Santiago.

While the Admiral declined the committee's first invitation to be the orator of the day a concerted effort on the part of influential people is being made to induce him to reconsider.

James Walls, aged about fifty years, succeeded in ending his life on Wednesday of last week. He lived near Phillipsburg and had been demented for some time, his mania being to commit suicide. On Wednesday morning he succeeded in escaping from those who kept watch over him and got down to the railroad track near Hawk Run. There he concealed himself along the bank until the train from Munson approached. Then he threw himself in front of the locomotive and was instantly killed. He is survived by a widow and three children.

The Logans cleared $123.76 at their recent picnic at Hunter's park, which amount, considering the condition of the weather, is very satisfactory.

MARRIED.—At the home of G. C. Lvkens, Bonore, Pa., on August 5th, 1902, Robert M. Roan, of Fillmore, and Laura Harpster, of Bonore, by Rev. D. Kapp.
