

Pine Grove Mention.

Dr. Edward Ward, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his mother here.

Miss Mary Dreese, of Adamsburg, is a visitor at H. H. Goss home on Main street.

George McManus and sister Bessie, of Neff's Mills, registered at the St. Elmo Saturday.

Miss Ella and Ruth Bottorf, of Lemont, spent Tuesday at their uncle Fred Bottorf's on Main street.

Last Friday the venerable William Tanyer started on his annual pilgrimage to Johnstown and Winber.

Prof. H. C. Houtz, of Selingsgrove College, is spending his annual vacation at Adam Felts on the Branch.

Misses Nannie and Sadie Glenn, of Rock Springs, were visitors at the Bailey home near town on Tuesday.

Mrs. Jane Mitchell and her clever daughter Olive, of Bellefonte, are visiting Mrs. A. P. Mitchell on Main street.

One hundred and fifty invitations are out for a lawn social at W. C. Meyers Branch home next Tuesday evening.

Dr. Frank W. Bailey has closed his dental offices in West Milton for a week while he visits his friends in this section.

Mr. John Stroll and Miss Elsie Green, of Moorsville, Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Reed Randolph, their old neighbors.

Mrs. Emanuel Musser, of State College, and her daughter Mrs. Roger Bowman, of Philadelphia, spent Tuesday at the home of Howard Goss.

Rev. W. C. Dunlap, of Montoursville, is visiting the friends of his childhood here while his wife is making an extended visit at her parental home at Centre Line.

P. S. Ishler, who is engaged in an extensive lumber operation in Pocahontas county, Va., is home for a few days vacation with his interesting little family at Boolsburg.

Mrs. Birdie Musser Rudy, formerly of Pine Grove, but for some years a resident of Millburg, has gone to State College to take charge of Frank Crosthwaite's home.

Ex-shepherd J. P. Condo, pleasant and genial as ever, is supplying our merchants just now with their winter stock of foot wear from the shoe house of Spang and Buck, of Baltimore.

The Lutheran congregation of Pleasant Gap, Boolsburg and Shiloh has tendered a call to Rev. J. I. Stonescypher, who has preached trial sermons at all of the above places.

Reuben Glenn, of Sparrows Point, Md., is visiting his mother and children at State College and Pine Hall. He is looking as though hard work and Maryland agreed with him.

Miss Ella Livingston left last week for an extended visit in New York, Philadelphia and Atlantic City before entering upon her work as teacher of the third grade school at State College.

Mrs. Bessie Miller, of Stoystown, is spending the week with relatives here. She will be remembered as Bessie Walker, one of Ferguson townships most popular school teachers, and came down to attend the Wolf reunion.

Ross Gregory, of Moorsville, and his wife are visiting at the home of J. G. Bailey's at Fairbrook. Mr. Gregory has been laid up with erysipelas and a badly mangled hand for many weeks and his friends are glad to know of his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, of Alexandria, spent Sunday with their old friends here. It is several years since they departed from the town and there have been rapid strides in the introduction of the latest improvements in that time.

The population of Ferguson township is steadily increasing. Among the recent newcomers is a baby boy at George Glenn's, a little boy at Olie Johnson, a girl who is number 5 at Will Johnson's and a baby daughter at the home of Frank Thomas.

Rev. John M. Adair and his wife spent a part of last week at the latter's old home in the Glades. On Sunday the Rev., in his usual eloquent and able manner, preached in the Graysville church. Mrs. Adair nee Sue Campbell was given quite an ovation by her old neighbors and their stay was very pleasant.

Mrs. Henry Meyer's Sunday school class will serve a chicken and waffle supper on Saturday evening, Aug. 23rd, on the lawn surrounding the home of Mrs. Amanda Walker. The menu will include cake and ice cream and as the proceeds are for the repairs now being made on the Reformed church it is hoped that a big crowd will be present.

Ella Gardner Gates, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gates, of Altoona, died Wednesday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Gardner in the Glades. She was three months old and in order that she might be well during the month of August her mother had brought her to the old home several weeks ago. She was an only child and her parents are sadly afflicted by her death. Interment will be made this afternoon in the Graysville burying ground.

THE BAILEYVILLE PICNIC.—The weather man smiled propitiously on Saturday and the picnic at Baileyville was far more of a success than its most sanguine promoters expected. About three thousand were present and the beautiful grove fairly thronged with people. The picnic was under the auspices of Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. and great credit is due the organization for the splendid manner in which it conducted the festivities. To Ed. Isenberg, E. P. Geist and J. Howard Musser is due much of the glory of the day for it was owing to their efforts and for thought that the arrangements were so nearly perfect.

In addition to the reunion of many old friends, the social intercourse and beautiful dinner the entertainment of the day consisted of fine music by the Baileyville band, three ball games and several exciting races on the half mile track. Andrew Tressler's grey made the best time on the speed way with Sam Everhart's coming in second.

The first game of ball was between the Baileyville and Gatesburg teams with the latter winning by a score of 3 to 2. The second game was between Pine Grove and State College. It was won by State with a score of 11 to 12. The last game of the day was between the Stormstown and Baileyville teams with a score of 23 to 29 in favor of the latter. It was intended to extend the picnic into the evening but as there was not even a bag of peanuts to sell after supper there was nothing left to do but close up shop and go home. The camp cleared $300 at the picnic.
