Democratic County Committee Meeting.

The Democratic County Committee will meet in the arbitration room in the court house, Bellefonte, Pa., on Monday afternoon, August the 25th, 1902, at 12:45 o'clock sharp. The purpose of the meeting is the selection of a candidate for a Coroner and to arrange for the coming campaign. We would urge that every member of the committee be present in person, or if this is not possible, see that a regularly constituted substitute will be there in his stead.

Attest: JOHN J. BOWER, Chairman. S. D. GETTIG, Secretary.

Mr. Schwab's Misfortunes.

The calamity which appears to have overcome Mr. CHARLES M. SCHWAB, president of the steel trust, will cause a feeling of regret among right-thinking people all over the country. As a rule the misfortunes of very rich men do not appeal strongly to the sympathies of the less fortunate. But the exemplary life of Mr. SCHWAB and the picturesque of his career, from poverty to more than affluence, as well as his munificent benevolences since, have fastened popular interest on him with singular tenacity and secured for him a place in public affection which is enduring.

Mr. SCHWAB'S career and its consequences, moreover, are valuable object lessons to the world. He exemplifies in a clearer light than any of his predecessors or colleagues in the strenuous activities of too rapid money making, the dangers which such pursuits necessarily involve. Burning the candle at both ends, he continued to overtax his vitalities after the admonitory signal had attracted the attention of all his friends. When the first symptoms of exhaustion revealed themselves, he disregarded them in his anxiety to add to satiety, and before he had reached the age of middle manhood he has fallen, a mental and physical wreck.

Few men are equipped for a stern battle with the vicissitudes of life as he was. With a physical system as complete as his mental organism was strong he might, under ordinary conditions, have achieved the distinction of fabulous riches without the least impairment of his faculties. But he wasn't satisfied with the easy stages by which CARNEGIE became almost a billionaire. He wanted to accomplish the same result in a decade which had required in his friend and patron the period of a generation. The consequence is that he is stricken in the flower of youth while his discoverer is calmly gliding down the toboggan of a serene and luxurious life.

The corruption that reeks in the machine government of Pennsylvania appears to have a counterpart in the machine manipulation of the schools of Centre county. Attention has been directed, on several occasions, to the methods the large book concerns employ to influence directors in their selection of text books. The work that has been done in several districts in this county recently gives color to the rumors that there is corruption and a political clique pulling together in the interests of certain corporations. It was openly charged that friends of Supt. C. L. GRAMLEY had offered money, not only for votes for him for county superintendent, but also to draw off certain opposition that was regarded as prejudicial to his interests. And now it appears that the same gang is taking more than a good citizen's interest in the purchase of books in districts outside of Bellefonte. If they are not inspired by the hope of a share of the profits, then our diagnosis is not correct, but to the ordinary mind it looks very much as if the machine that tried to buy Supt. GRAMLEY'S way into office, is now trying to force the way to the treasuries of the school districts of Centre county. By axiom 1 "things that equal the same thing equal each other," therefore it is but natural to conclude that our county superintendent of public instruction was expected to be used, else the machine would not have been so anxious to secure his election.

Schwab Breaks Down.

President of the Steel Trust Must Retire from Business. Physicians Advise Him to Seek Quiet Retreat in a Foreign Land—His Visitors are not Allowed to Talk to Him.

Pittsburg Aug. 18.—A Loretto, special to the Pittsburg Dispatch says: President Charles M. Schwab, of the United States Steel corporation, has accepted the advice of physicians, and decided to retire indefinitely from active business life. He will leave America to seek some quiet nook in a foreign climate, where not an echo of the strenuous life he has led can reach him. This information is authentic.

Dr. Golden never leaves the Schwab home and the exact nature of his patient's illness cannot be learned through him. Mr. Schwab is not confined to his bed but spends much of his time on the wide veranda, which affords fresh air and a sweeping view of the mountain slope. He is always with his wife or his parents. The strange part of Mr. Schwab's illness is that he is always within view of those who called at his house; yet he will not allow any person to approach him. Heretofore visitors to the Schwab home were greeted with a hearty welcome, and a vigorous handshake. Now the visitor is met at the entrance and told that Mr. Schwab cannot be seen. Intimate family receive the same message, and none has yet been able to converse with President Schwab since he came back to his home.

The correspondent then said: "The people of this town who still call him 'Charlie' because of their early and intimate acquaintance with him, are discussing his prospective departure. They know he is a sick man, and are relieved that he will spend possibly a year in an effort to regain his health." "The presence of sisters belonging to the Order of Mercy in his home day and night since Thursday was another indication of illness. The nuns were not visitors, but it is generally known that they are nursing the man who has so often befriended them and their institution."

"The knowledge of the people of Loretto is that Mr. Schwab is going away somewhere. His destination will be kept a secret, and he will do nothing but seek health until his nerves have been restored to their normal condition, and his mind fully relieved of the great strain resulting from so many business cares. Mr. Schwab was after learning that his health was very bad and that he intended to devote a year's time to recuperation, that I passed into the grounds leading to the palatial home on the mountaintop. Mrs. Schwab said that her husband would not see any person, and that he had not been receiving visitors for several days. Mr. Schwab sat on a couch within hearing of our voices. A paper was before his eyes. He exhibited no interest, and made no attempt to move. Business associates, it is said have met with a similar reception during the past two days. Mr. Schwab has been directed by his doctors to rid his mind of all business cares, and he is obeying the orders religiously."

"Inquiry among the people of the town who have conversed with the Schwabs fully corroborated the stories that he intends to retire from active business life. His friends, however, deny that if he leaves the United States Steel corporation it will be at the dictation of any person other than himself."

Patrick Sharp, a Striker, Shot and Killed by Deputy.

Shooting Caused Considerable Excitement at Nesquehoning, Carbon County, Where It Occurred, but Order Was Soon Restored, Without Any Other Trouble.

NESQUEHONING, Pa., Aug. 18.—In a clash between striking mine workers and deputies here tonight, Patrick Sharp, a striker, of Landsford, was shot and killed almost instantly by a deputy. The shooting caused considerable excitement for a time, but order was soon restored without any other persons being injured and the town is now quiet. A deputy named Harry McElmoyle was arrested, charged with the killing of Sharp, and was taken to the county jail at Mauch Chunk.

The shooting occurred shortly after 6 o'clock. Five deputies were on their way to shaft No. 1 of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, just outside of the town. In the center of the town they were met by a number of the strikers, who began persuading them not to go to the colliery. The officers did not stop but kept on their way and tried to prevent any trouble. The strikers, it is said, then began to abuse the men and followed them nearly up to the colliery. There are conflicting stories as to what actually brought on the clash, but just before the deputies entered the place a shot was heard and Sharp dropped to the ground. The bullet entered his body close to his heart and he died almost instantly. Witnesses say that the shooting was done by McElmoyle and he stood only six or seven feet from Sharp when he fired his revolver. Only one shot was fired.

The deputies immediately withdrew to the colliery and a large crowd gathered about the place. When it was learned that Sharp was dead, there was the greatest indignation among the strikers and other townspeople, and for a time it looked as though serious trouble would follow. Cooler heads among the mine workers, however, prevailed upon the crowd to disperse, using the argument that if there is any bloodshed the men would be surely be sent here from Shenandoah. The crowd dispersed and the town soon calmed down to its normal state.

Witnesses to the shooting went to the office of W. R. Watson, the justice of the peace, and made information against Harry McElmoyle, charging him with the shooting of Sharp. The justice placed the warrant in the hands of constable Dockert, who found McElmoyle at shaft No. 1 and accompanied by a guard of other officers took his prisoner to the county jail at Mauch Chunk.

Sheriff J. H. Gombert, of (Carbon) county, is at Mauch Chunk. It is reported here that he may ask that a detachment of the troops now stationed at Shenandoah be sent into the Panther Creek valley.

Volcano Destroys an Island's Population.

Supposed 150 Japanese Have Lost Their Lives.

YOKOHAMA Aug. 18.—The little island of Torishima was overwhelmed by a volcanic eruption between Aug. 13th and 15th and all the inhabitants, numbering 150 persons, were undoubtedly killed. The island is covered with volcanic debris, and all the houses on it have disappeared.

The eruption is still proceeding and is accompanied by submarine eruptions in the vicinity, which make it dangerous for vessels to approach the island.

Torishima is one of a chain of islands extending between the Bonin islands and Hondo, the biggest island of Japan.

Boers Visit King.

They Returned to London Last Evening, Accompanied by Earl Roberts and Lord Kitchener.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The Boer generals, Botha, DeWet and Delarey, who reached here yesterday from South Africa, left London at half past 9 o'clock this morning for Coves, Isle of Wight, to see King Edward, on board the royal yacht, Victoria and Albert.

The hour of the generals' departure from London was kept secret, consequently the streets were deserted when the three generals, accompanied by their secretaries, but by none of the ladies of their party, started for Coves.

Upon arriving at Southampton, the Boer generals were welcomed on board the commander-in-chief's yacht, Wildfire, by Earl Roberts and General Lord Kitchener. They immediately visited King Edward on board the Victoria and Albert, and were then taken for a trip around the fleet in the Wildfire. They returned to London Saturday evening, accompanied by Earl Roberts and General Lord Kitchener, who took leave of the Boers at Waterloo station.

In an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, General Botha's secretary described the visit to his majesty. He said that when the Boer generals boarded the royal yacht, King Edward came forward and, after they had been introduced, shook hands with each of them. The Boers were highly pleased with their reception. After a brief and informal talk of a non-political character with King Edward, they were introduced to Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria.

The reception by his majesty lasted a quarter of an hour. The king spoke of the gallant and brave manner in which the generals had fought through the long and arduous campaign, and of the consideration and kindness with which the generals had treated British wounded. His majesty expressed his warm wishes for their future. It was at the king's suggestion that the Boers took the trip around the fleet on board the Wildfire.

Bloomsburg's Centennial.

Bloomsburg, Columbia county, Pa., was founded in 1802, and her citizens are making great preparations for a grand celebration to close the hundredth year since the plotting of the town. The exercise will begin on Wednesday evening, 27th, with a union meeting in the M. E. church, conducted by the clergy, and music by a choir of 100 voices. On the 28th there will be an historical meeting in the morning, a civic parade of secret societies, floats, automobiles, bands, etc., in the afternoon, and hand concerts and fire works in the evening. On the 29th is Fireman's day, with contests in the morning, and a great parade in the afternoon. There will be base ball games, balloon ascensions, a palace of illusions, an exhibition of wireless telegraphy, an historical museum, beautiful decorations, and many other attractions. Excursion rates have been arranged for all railroads leading to Bloomsburg, and it will be one of the grandest demonstrations ever witnessed in this portion of the state.

Going To Europe.

Charles M. Schwab Tells the Reporters a Few Things.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Charles M. Schwab, the president of the United States Steel corporation, arrived here this evening. He was accompanied by his brother, Joseph Schwab, and his private secretary. He stepped briskly from the car and as he did so he said to a number of newspaper men present:

"Now, gentlemen, I am going to tell you three things, and I don't want you to ask me any further questions. In the first place, I don't look like a sick man. In the second place, I feel the necessity of a rest, and I am going to take one. In the third place, I am not going to resign, and have no intention of retiring from the presidency of the United States Steel corporation." "Are you going to Europe?" was asked Mr. Schwab.

"Yes," he replied, "but don't ask me any more questions; that's all I have to say."

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

—Mrs. John M. Dale entertained a party at bridge whist at her home on Linn street Tuesday evening.

—The regular weekly band concert will be given in front of the Bush house to-morrow evening.

—An effort is being made by the promoters of the Centre county fair to have both gubernatorial candidates in this State appear there. Pattison and Pennypacker are each to have a day, if they will come.

—Wm. Runkle, who left here about three years ago for the Philippines and was connected with the hospital service since, started on his homeward voyage on the 10th of August. He will likely reach San Francisco by the last of the month where he will be mustered out. He is the oldest son of Jacob L. Runkle, of this place.

—A prize fight was pulled off in Snow Shoe Monday night between two prominent railroaders whose differences of opinion could find no more satisfactory manner of settlement than in a ring. With a few of their friends they went down along the tracks and went at each other according to Queensbury rules. The fight lasted but three rounds, for the little fellow sent the big one down once in the second and then S. Knisely, up so completely in the third round that when he regained his senses he scooped for the hotel as fast as his legs would carry him.

THE RED MEN ORGANIZE.—The camp of Red Men gotten together several weeks ago in this place formally organized on Monday evening, when Charles R. Willets and H. Burket, of Harrisburg, installed the officers of Neshauc camp, No. 71, Improved Order of Red Men of Bellefonte.

The camp owes its existence to officer Harry Miller, whose efforts in organizing it were so successful that sixty-four good names were secured as signers to the application for a charter.

The officers installed were as follows: Prophet, Harry I. Miller; sachem, Jacob S. Knisely; senior sagamore, Wm. Beezer; junior sagamore, J. W. Rightmour; chief of records, Harry Walker; assistant chief of records, Chas. Haze; keeper of wampum, Wm. Rider; guards, Frank Sausserman and Seneca Walker; trustees, Bruce Garman, of Bellefonte; Charles Reese, of Snow Shoe; Isaac Shawver, of Centre Hall.

There will be a meeting of the camp this Friday, evening at 8 o'clock in the Eagle building.

—"The Bishop," Irv Gleason's pacing horse that was distanced in the free-for-all at the fair here two years ago, won third money in the 2:08 pace at Brighton Beach on Wednesday last week.

—The ladies aid society of the United Brethren church will hold a festival Saturday evening, Aug. 23rd, on the lawn at Gerberich's mill. In case of inclement weather the lecture room of the new parsonage, corner Thomas and High St., will be used for the purpose. Everybody invited.

—John Madill, who has been identified with the mining interests in the vicinity of Snow Shoe for a great many years, has removed to Ebensburg, where he will become superintendent of mines for Barker Bros. at Nanty-Glo, one of the new fields of the Cambria district. He was also postmaster at Clarence and tendered his resignation of that office; David Chambers having been appointed his successor.

—Look Haven amateurs will sing their opera "Pirates of Penzance" in Bellefonte on Monday evening, Sept. 15th. They have been rehearsing it for a long time and as it will be sung as a hospital benefit ought to attract a large audience. It will be interesting also because of the fact that Bellefonte amateurs have already sung the Pirates and this will afford a good opportunity of comparing the local talent of the towns.

—William Bilger, of Pleasant Gap, has taken the contract to replace the iron bridge over Spring creek at the nail works for the supervisors of Spring township. It was washed from the abutments by the flood last March and carried about a thousand yards down stream, where it has been stranded ever since. The same bridge was washed away several years ago and taken back to its place by W. B. Maitland.

—The double quartet of anthracite miners that were in town several weeks ago singing was in Pittsburg Saturday and sang between innings during the Pittsburg-Philadelphia ball game. When the singers passed the hat around the stand they were deluged with coin. They raised about $250 during the afternoon. Money was thrown at them from all directions, mostly half dollars and quarters, until they had several hats full.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archy, during the past week:

Albert Dean and Leah Colyer, both of Hecla Park.

Daniel J. Beck, of Loveville, and Sarah B. Heberling, of Penna Furnace.

Edgar L. Morrison and Mabel A. Kunes, both of Blanchard.

Wm. H. Hunsinger, of Atlantic City, and Caroline E. Witmer, of Fillmore.

George P. Miller and Jennie R. Noll, both of Pleasant Gap.

RECENT WEDDINGS.—Weddings in the aftermath of summer are so unusual that they are sure to attract attention and when they are celebrated in the presence of one hundred and fifty guests they are noteworthy. Such was the marriage of Miss Caroline Witmer and William H. Hunsinger, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Witmer, of Buffalo Run, on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. Edwin L. Eslinger, of the Half Moon M. E. church, pronounced the ceremony just at twelve o'clock. The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Jennie Witmer. Another sister, Miss Annie Witmer, and Miss Mary Hicklen, of this place, were the attractive little flower girls. Mr. Thomas Tressler, of Wilmerding, was best man. A fine wedding breakfast was served and the young couple left on the afternoon train for Eagle's Mere where they will spend their honeymoon. From there they will go to Atlantic City where the groom is engaged in business and where they will make their home.

THE WILLIAMS REUNION.—The weather was fine, there was an abundance of everything, good to eat and a large and happy crowd at the third annual reunion of the Williams tribe, which was held in the grove on former county treasurer John Q. Miles' place near Martha Furnace, on Saturday. If there had been any doubt in any one's mind as to whether enough importance attached to the event to warrant the stopping of all but one of the passenger trains on the Valley at the grove that day it must have been promptly dispelled when the size of the crowd was seen. There must have been a thousand Williams; and their sisters and their cousins and their aunts, there that day.

People began arriving at the grove early in the day and the hours until noon were spent in greetings. Then came dinner and small family parties could be seen scattered all through the grove enjoying a meal in the woods.

The Forest City band, of Scotia, furnished music for the occasion, besides this an excellent choir selected from the tribe, furnished vocal music.

Two ball games were played in the afternoon. The first game was played by the junior team of Port Matilda and the Martha team. And the second game by the Scotia and Port Matilda teams. Addresses were made in the afternoon, by Revs. Downing, of Pitcairn; Honok, of Milesburg, and editor T. H. Harter, of Bellefonte.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: A. C. Williams, president; Mesh Williams, corresponding secretary; A. Y. Williams, treasurer, E. I. Williams, historian; and W. S. Williams, poet. This organization is growing each year not only in number but in interest.

WHAT THE BLUE JACKET IS DOING.

The owners of the Blue Jacket zinc mines at Granby, Mo., most of whom reside in Bellefonte, appear to have a proposition on hand that promises a far greater return and a more permanent investment than many of the other mining schemes that have been exploited in this section.

They started with very little capital and a worn out plant, but an immense amount of determination and a good mineral lease. The result has been the satisfactory development of the property, the payment of all its debts, a complete reorganization of its management and a certainty that it will be profitable. It is already paying large dividends on its capitalization and has a treasury surplus, so that the Blue-Jacket can truthfully be listed among the good things.

F. H. Thomas, Supt. of the B. C. R. R., and Robt. F. Hunter are directing the work from this end of the line and a Joplin, Mo., mining journal has published the following paragraph concerning their progress.

The Blue-Jacket Mining and Milling company are developing one of the biggest zinc prospects in the Granby district. Several hundred feet of pay stuff has already been opened up and a prospect drill is kept at work on new ground all the time while two steam drills pound away on the stuff already in sight. At present their annual seldom falls below 30 tons and when the ground has been thoroughly opened up, as they intend to have it soon, they can easily increase their output to 50 tons per week.

THE FALL OPENING OF THE ACADEMY.—The Bellefonte academy will open its fall session on Wednesday, September 10th, with the largest and strongest corps of teachers in its history.

The faculty will be composed as follows: Rev. J. P. Hughes, A. M., Emeritus Principal, Princeton University, mathematics and book-keeping.

J. R. Hughes, A. M., Princeton University, Latin, Greek and elocution.

Miss Helen E. Overton, Preceptress, superintendent of primary department, aided by two competent assistants.

Miss Isabella S. Hill, Ph. B., Wesleyan University, English, rhetoric and literature.

Miss Kate Stewart Davis, University of Freiburg, Sorbonne and College de France, French and German.

E. H. Myers, B. S., Penna. State College, higher mathematics and science.

Howard E. Sands, A. B., Union College, mathematics, English and history.

Low rate tickets for students provided by all railroad companies. School schedule arranged to suit the railroad schedules.

Correspondence schools excellent for those unable to attend schools, but daily contact with teachers and scholars is the only real and thorough system of education. Terms low.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION AT HOWARD.

—For ten years the Christian Endeavor workers of Centre Co. have been steadily carried onward under the banner of the county union. The convention at Howard, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, Aug. 27th and 28th, will undoubtedly be the most enthusiastic mass meeting ever held by the Union. One of the principal features of the meeting will be a lecture on Wednesday evening by Rev. Luther DeYoe, of Harrisburg. Dr. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, will preach the convention sermon. Besides those other prominent Christian Endeavor workers from our own and other counties will be present. The worker's conferences will be of special interest to the delegates.

The Junior rally on Thursday afternoon will far excel any of former years.

The quiet hour service will be in charge of secretary Frank Gamel, of Bellefonte.

Let all Christian Endeavorers and pastors in the county make a special effort to be present.

—Miss Sallie Waite, a sister of Darius Waite, and who is well known here in the upper part of the county where she has taught for several years previous to going to Massachusetts, has been elected matron of the Lebanon Valley college. The school does not open for several weeks but Miss Waite is going down to Annville Monday to look over the field and get her forces in working order for the term. Miss Waite was prepared for her work at The Pennsylvania State College and recently spent a year in the Moody school in Northfield, Mass. For the past two years she has been engaged in the mission work in Brooklyn and Mass. and it would be hard to find a more competent person for the position she has accepted. She is intelligent, industrious, very tactful and gracious.

—Pat McCaffrey Esq., the man who has made the poor department of Look Haven a municipal administration that for economy, efficiency and exactness is probably not surpassed by that of any other city or town in the State, was in Bellefonte last Thursday and Friday. His business here was to establish the residence of Lizzie Reed, the girl who was stricken with small-pox and nursed back to health in this city several weeks ago. He succeeded in locating her in Spring township, which district will now be called upon to reimburse Look Haven for the expenditures made by that city in her case. They amount to nearly $200.

—The reunion of the native Centre countians resident in Blair county, of whom there are hundreds, will be held in Whomberg's grove, a short distance west of Bellwood, on Saturday, Aug. 23rd.

—All school children in Look Haven must be vaccinated before they will be admitted to the school in that place in the fall.

Supt. Brower, of the Nittany country club, is very proud of several autograph copies of James Lane Allen's stories which were presented to him by the novelist, himself, during a recent visit to the club. Mr. Allen expects to spend several weeks there in the fall.

—According to the Daily News of Wednesday evening brother John C. Miller has discovered that besides "adding a new lustre to patent leather shoes and making the hair curly" the new remedy, "Kar-Sic," is also efficacious in relieving the distress of an overworked brain. Of course the water committee of council will take exception to the statement that the editor of the News has any brain to get tired.

Pine Grove Mention.

Will Grove, of Altoona, is here for a few days off duty.

Mrs. Sadie Heberling is visiting friends in Altoona and Bellwood.

Grandmother Condo, of Millheim, is visiting Fairbrook relatives.

Miss Mary Weaver, of Altoona, visited her aunt Mrs. D. G. Meek recently.

Charles Smith and wife are visiting Hon. Leonard Rhone, of Centre Hall.

Miss Mary Wright, of Stormtown, is visiting old friends in and out of town.

Rev. and Mrs. Schmidt, of Bellefonte, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Aikens this week.

Jonathan Hess, of Williamsport, spent several days among old friends here this week.

Cyrus Gearhart and his family spent Sunday at his old parental home at Rock Forge.

Corporal W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, was here Tuesday working insurance and pension claims.

H. Y. Stitzer and wife, of Bellefonte, were visitors at the Hess home on Main street, last week.

William Steel, wife and two daughters of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the William Brouse home, on Main street.

Rev. W. C. Dunlap, of Montoursville, very ably filled the pulpit in the Lutheran church last Sunday morning.

Rev. Isaac Heckman, of Tyrone, and Rev. Edgar Heckman, of State College, were entertained at dinner Sunday, at D. G. Meek's.

Dr. J. Baker Krebs with his wife and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Northumberland, are making their annual visit to friends here.

Mr. Edward Weaver, quite a manly little fellow, came down from Altoona on his bike this week to spend a few days among his old associates.

Ernest Hess and Edward Hunter, two of the railroad fraternity men with six others accompanied the remains of Clyde Coxey, to Boalsburg, on Friday.

The venerable William Brouse is recovering from the effects of a kick on his right leg, which his gray stepper recently gave him while unwhittching.

As a little remembrance that Wednesday was his 64th birthday anniversary Mrs. D. L. Miller presented her husband with a handsome gold watch and chain.

Mrs. Esther McCullo and her two bright little children, from Burgettstown, are spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heskiah Ewing, at State College.

Miss Rebecca Brouse and her brother Foster, of Port Royal, are visiting friends here. They are the oldest children of Rev. D. Y. Brouse and are bright and intelligent.

Mrs. D. G. Meek, Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Aikens and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, left for Ocean Grove on the excursion yesterday. Mr. Meek will join the party on Monday.

Miss Sadie Dannelly, of State College, is spending a week's vacation at her home here, and while doing so is entertaining Miss Myrtle Lucas, of Tyrone, who has been associated with her for two years in telephone work, but whom she had never the pleasure of meeting.

John D. Dannelly, of Wadsworth, Ohio, joined his family here on Tuesday to enjoy his annual vacation. Mrs. McCormick, of Hubersburg, and her children are also guests at the Dannelly home on Main street and in consequence it's like a family reunion there.

Catharine, daughter and youngest child of J. M. and Lizzie G. Goheen, died at the family home in Tyrone, at 4:30 o'clock Monday morning of whooping cough from which she had been a sufferer for ten days. The little one was aged 2 years, 5 months and 16 days. Her parents and four sisters survive.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. James I. Thompson started on an overland trip to Bedford Springs via Hollidaysburg. Mr. Thompson was obliged to go on business and Mrs. Thompson accompanied him for pleasure and both of them derived more of that from the outing than they would, of at the sea shore.

Miss Gusie Schlatmer, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting at the home of Dr. Woods. She came east to bring her little niece, Horace Musser's daughter, to her grandparents in Bellefonte, where she is to make her home. The little one's mother died some time ago and the grandparents were very anxious to have the child with them.

Sunday was quarterly meeting in the M. E. church here and for the orator of the occasion Rev. Edgar Heckman introduced his father, Rev. Isaac Heckman. Twenty five years ago Rev. Heckman preached here once, but to most of his congregation he was an entire stranger. His sermon was an excellent one and greatly enjoyed by his hearers.

HEBERLING-BECK.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday at noon at the Heberling home at Fairbrook, when Miss Sadie Heberling was united in marriage to Daniel Beck, of Centre Line. Rev. C. T. Aikens pronounced the ceremony in the presence of eighty guests. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Annie Heberling, the bride's sister, as maid of honor, and Mr. Harry Ebbs, as best man. A delicious wedding breakfast was served and the young people left on the afternoon train for Atlantic City. Upon their return they will be given a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Beck, with whom, for the present, they will reside. Mrs. Beck is a daughter of J. H. Heberling and the young people are both popular throughout this part of the county.
