In The Century's "Year of American Humor," the September number will contain several interesting contributions. "The Boyhood Home of Mark Twain" is the subject of an article with photographs, to which the editor has annexed Mark Twain's dry comments. The three pictures which won the prize in The Century's competition for humorous drawings will be published, and there will be four stories of distinctively humorous character—"Old Job's" Marital Experiment by Thomas Nelson Page with a picture by A. B. Frost; "The Proving of Lannigan" by Chester Bailey Fernald, author of "The Cat and the Chester," a story with an unusual situation; "Rusticators at the Cove," by George S. Wason, and an extravaganza of "pure fooling," by Gouverneur Morris, author of "Tom Beauling," entered "The King of Bad Bad," for which Mr. Frederic Door Steel has drawn a series of amusing sketches. In addition there will be the usual miscellany in the department "In Lighter Vein," including drawings by Kambleand Blaisdell.

Buggies, Carriages, Etc.

HERE, HERE, THE REAL THING. When you want a Buggy come to us and see the "Real thing."

DON'T BUY anything of the cheap John Peddlers who are traveling our County and misrepresenting their goods to you, asking you ten dollars more for a Buggy than you can buy at home for with a guarantee that will be of no use to you if any part of your Buggy should prove defective.

DON'T SEND AWAY and buy by looking at a picture from a party you have never seen and probably never will see, as a Buggy with cheap Stock makes as nice a picture as one with good.

BUY AT HOME, where you know or can soon find out the reputation of work and those you are buying from.

NEW AND SECOND-HAND BUGGIES on hand at all times. Repairing, painting, trimming, Etc., done promptly. We have one of Schreyer's Gold-Set Tire Setters. Bring your buggies and see the fire tightened in a few minutes without removing the wheels from the axles.

TROY FARM WAGON, the best made, gears and wheels made waterproof by saturating with boiled linseed oil. Give us a call.
