THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

The Bellefonte public schools will reopen for the fall term on Tuesday, Sept. 2nd.

The Alpha fire company of State College will buy a lot on which to erect a home for itself.

A horse owned by Samuel Hoshand dropped dead in front of Griest's store in Unionville on Monday.

Mrs. Robert F. Hunter is confined to bed at her home on Curtin street with rather a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Rev. Dr. Laurie will be home this week and services will be held as usual in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanserman, of Water street, are elated because of the arrival of a dear little girl at their home on Tuesday morning.

Charley Longacre is seriously ill with typhoid fever in Pittsburg. In fact he is so bad that his mother, Mrs. Isaac Longacre, went out on Tuesday.

Dr. Richard Thomas, of Baltimore, spoke in the Friends' meeting house in this place on Sunday evening on the history and mission of the Friends' church.

Mrs. Wilbur Fiske Reeder has sent out cards for a masked euchre at her home at the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets, Tuesday night, September 9th.

Augustus Immel held the ticket that won the fancy quilt at the Evangelical festival in Milesburg Saturday night. The receipts during the evening were $61.

The golden-rod dance, the last of the summer series, will be held in the armory on Friday evening, September 5th. Fiske's orchestra from Williamsport will furnish the music.

Maurice, a seventeen months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Whitehill, died at their home near Lemont of cholera infantum, on Monday evening at 6 o'clock. The remains were interred at the Branch cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Noll fell down the cellar steps at her home on Pine street on Saturday morning and while no bones were broken she was so badly shocked and bruised that she will be laid up for some time. Her escape from more serious injury was truly miraculous.

Morning and evening services will be held as usual on Sabbath in the Methodist Episcopal church. Dr. Shriver has gotten home from his vacation and in the evening will continue his series of short talks on topics of the day. His subject on Sunday evening will be "The Public Press."

E. R. Chambers Esq. was taken very ill at the business men's picnic last Thursday and was confined to bed several days. In fact he was so ill that he could not take part in the Beckwith trial, much to his disappointment since he had given the case very thorough preparation.

Mrs. Thomas Shope, of Milesburg, recently gathered a tomato in her garden that weighed two pounds and measured seventeen inches in circumference. These are the kind of prodigies that should be saved for the great Centre county fair. They will all be worth money there.

The down town band concert on Wednesday evening attracted an unusual audience. It was a beautiful evening and director Bryant's musicians lent an additional charm to it by playing a long and varied program with exceptional skill. Strangers who were in town attending court expressed great surprise that Bellefonte should have such a band.

Mrs. Nancy J. Moore has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Aurora Grace, and Mr. Alanson Caswell Otis. The wedding is to take place on Tuesday evening September 9th at seven o'clock in St. John's Reformed church, 40th and Spring Garden streets, West Philadelphia. Invited in the invitations are at home cards after October 15th "The Tracy" 36th and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

A most delightful incident in the serene, perfectly contented life that post master W. W. Montgomery leads occurred Monday evening when a number of his friends gathered at his home, on north Allegheny street, to impress upon him, in the pleasantest manner possible, that he had reached his seventieth year. It seems almost impossible that the active, courtly gentleman who serves us so efficiently as postmaster could have reached three score years and ten but he has and 'ere's hoping that he may live to celebrate many another anniversary.

Mike Hazel, one of the employees of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co., entertained the members of the firm and all the clerks, shoppers and draymen at his home along Spring Creek last Wednesday evening. Of course knowing Mike's fondness for music it was but natural that the most of the entertainment provided was of that nature but the big feature was the banquet served at eleven o'clock. The guests were an hour and a half at the table and most of them were heavy as hardware, it itself, by the time they had finished. They departed with many esoteric cogitations and amiable philosophical and physiological observations that were not platitudinously ponderous.

THE BUSINESS MEN'S PICNIC.—The picnic of the business men of Centre and Clinton counties attracted about six thousand people to Hecla park last Thursday. It was a beautiful day, there was admirable amusement, the crowd was good natured and the Central R. R. Co. handled the transportation part of it far more satisfactorily than in former years so that it can be said, in justice to all and perfect truthfulness, that the event was a success.

There were about 2500 tickets sold out of Bellefonte, and 1300 from Mill Hill. These, with the passengers picked up at intermediate points and those driving swelled the crowd to nearly 6,000. A better ordered or more jovial lot of people we have never seen assembled on a picnic ground. The entertainment provided was sufficient to amuse everybody and was as wholesome in its character as it was possible.

In the afternoon a running race took place on the new track for a purse of $50 which resulted as follows: 1st prize $20, won by "Danny Martin" owned by Wm. Kessinger, of Mill Hill; 2nd prize $15, by "Queen Bee" owned by George Sunday, of Bellefonte; 3rd prize $10, by "Joe" owned by Abe Baum, of Bellefonte; 4th prize $5, by "Maggie M" owned by George Valentine, of Bellefonte. Time 44, 44, 46 seconds.

Between the heats of the running race there was a base ball game between Renovo and Lock Haven, which resulted as follows: Lock Haven 17, Renovo 9.

There was dancing all day on the pavilion, excellent music having been furnished by the Lock Haven orchestra. The Mill Hill, Zion and Pleasant Gap bands contributed much to the pleasure of the picnicers.

In the evening there was a cake walk and fire works to entertain those who cared to linger at the park for the late trains. Bun Walker, of Bellefonte, won the first prize in the walk, second prize to Guy McEntire and Strohlm Lose, third prize to Joe Barns and Linn Graham.

Altogether the picnic was a credit to the management and well calculated to revive the flagging interest in these annual gatherings of the people of Clinton and Centre counties.

The railroad returns show that contrary to the usual order there was a much larger turnout from Centre than from Clinton county. In fact nearly every country store in this county was closed and there was a good attendance from all the villages.

LABOR DAY RACES.—Monday afternoon, September 1st, which will be a legal holiday because of its being Labor day in Pennsylvania, will develop some rare sport at the Centre county fair grounds in Bellefonte.

For some time there has been good natured talk among a number of owners of fast steppers in this place and, as you well know, talk won't settle such things among horsemen so they are going to let their favorites speak for themselves on the track. There will be two harness races and one running event. In the latter there will likely be half a dozen or more starters and sport equal to that at the business men's picnic last Thursday is more than assured.

In the first harness race three horses will start: Geo. Beezer's "Point McCoy," Lew Bullock's "Josephine" and W. V. Larimer's "Jack Porter."

In the second there will be four starters: Walter Whipple's "Fred W.," Bruce Gardner's "George," George Sunday's "Queen Bee" and Clyde Blackford's "Topsy." It is worthy of special note that the horse that Mr. Sunday has entered for a harness race is the same one that took second money in the running race last Thursday.

An admission of 25cts will be charged.

A TRACTION ENGINE GOES THROUGH A BRIDGE.—On Thursday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock as engineer H. N. Kerns and his men were moving William Baumgardner's threshing machine from Jacob Shuey's barn to James Raymond's, in College township, they were compelled to try to cross a township bridge that spans Spring Creek at a place called the old Ames property. When the engine started across the bridge they found that it was giving way and before the engine could get to a place of safety, the engine went down into the creek, falling over on its side, but it was held up so that it did not crush Mr. Kerns.

Fortunately the engine lodged in such a way as not to pull the threshing machine over on top of it, for if such had been the case the men would very probably have been crushed to death under it.

The engine suffered no serious damage, except to the smoke stack, which was battered up. Bilger's derrick had to be secured from Pleasant Gap and it was late Friday evening before the machine was set right on the road again. It will cost the township a new bridge.

EXCURSION TO WILLIAMSPORT.—On Monday, September 1st, the Central R. R. of Pa. will run a special excursion train to Williamsport and return leaving Bellefonte at 7:00 a. m. and returning leave Williamsport at 7:30 p. m. account of the reunion of the Knights of the Golden Eagle. The rate will be a single fare for the round trip and tickets good to return on or before Saturday, September 6th.

The Central R. R. of Pa. will also sell one way rate tickets to Williamsport and return September 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th good to return on or before September 6th on account of the Locomotive county fair.

Pay for your WATCHMAN now and it won't cost you as much as if you leave it run along a few months more.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lingle entertained on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. James B. Lane, of Philadelphia.

Christian Buck, a Union township farmer, has just harvested 190 bushels of oats from three acres of land.

The colored church people of Lock Haven, Jersey Shore and Bellefonte united for a picnic at Hecla on Wednesday.

Spalding's foot ball guide for 1902, which is now for sale on the news stands, contains the picture of the State College team of last season.

You are losing money if you are permitting your subscription to fall back to a date when you will have to pay $1.50 per year for the WATCHMAN.

The O. U. A. M. of Milesburg will hold a reunion and festival all day on Saturday. George S. Sides, state councillor, and Walter Graham, state secretary, will visit the lodge on that occasion and make addresses.

The contract has just been awarded to Sobad Bros. for extensive improvements in the heating, sanitation and lavatory equipment of the Bush house. All of the present systems in the big hotel are to be torn out and installed according to more modern methods. In the future the hotel will have its own steam heat plant. The town service will no longer be used and every room will be heated by steam. The lavatories will be enlarged and to add to the many great conveniences already afforded guests of the Bush house private baths will be put in a number of the first floor suites.

Lyon & Co. are receiving new goods daily.

George Nevin Brandon, of Carlisle, so well known in Bellefonte, his former home, has accepted the chair of music on the faculty of Centre College, Kentucky. We are glad that he has secured such a position, not alone because of the dignity or pecuniary advantage in it, but because it indicates that George's health has become such as to give hope that he is going to survive what seemed to be a fatal malady.

Mrs. Frank Montgomery delightfully entertained a number of her friends at a euchre party on Wednesday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. James B. Lane, of Philadelphia. Those present were Miss Ella Ryan, of Limerick, Ireland, Mrs. Mollie Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Orvis, Mr. and Mrs. Daggert, Mrs. Nichols, Miss Ella McClain, Miss Emma Montgomery and John D. Meyer.

A gypsy whose winter home is in Washington, D. C., is lying at the point of death in the Bellefonte hospital as a result of having been kicked by a horse on Saturday. He was in the act of blanketing the animal when it kicked him just above the right ear, crushing his skull in such a manner that a portion of his brains oozed out. Drs. Hayes and Sebring operated on him, it being necessary to remove a portion of the skull as well as some of the brains. He was completely paralyzed up to the time of the operation, but since then has recovered the use of his members, though very little hope of his recovery is entertained. He has a wife and four children. They had just joined the large gypsy camp near Milesburg a few hours before the accident occurred.

THE CENTRE COUNTIANS IN BLAIR COUNTY.—Saturday being an ideal day for such a gathering there were about seven hundred people at the re-union of ex-Centre countians who now reside in Blair county, at Glasgow's park, near Bellwood and Tyrone cut a large swath in the affair. The weather was ideal and the pleasure of renewing acquaintances occupied much of the early part of the day. After dinner a business meeting was held and the following officers were chosen to serve during the ensuing year; President, Dr. A. R. Markel; first vice president, A. Bucher; second vice president, S. J. Musser; treasurer, Samuel Felty; secretary, J. W. Smith.

Addresses were made from the platform, the first speaker being Professor I. C. M. Ellenberger. He was followed by T. J. Gates and Rev. W. C. Dunlap. There was good vocal music, a selection by F. E. Meek being a special number of the program, corporal Canan was also on hand with his budget of comic songs. The Tyrone Symphony orchestra provided instrumental music to the delight of the picnicers. Samuel Davis, who is aged 86 years, was the oldest person present. He carried a cane which was made in Germany one hundred and fifty years ago. There were present quite a number of persons from State College, Pine Grove Mills, Boalsburg, Oak Hall, Centre Hall, Spring Mills, Millheim, Bellefonte and Milesburg.

New clothing, new hats, new caps at Lyon & Co's.

EDWARD J. SHROM.—There were many in Bellefonte who were genuinely sorrowful when it was announced here that Edward J. Shrom had died at the Lyd house, in Phillipsburg, last Friday morning. He was a native of Bellefonte and while he spent most of his time working in other parts of the county here were his nearest and dearest ties and here the place he called "home." He had been in Phillipsburg only a few days; having gone to that place from Atlantic City, and was just starting a painting job for Custer and Norris when he was stricken with cholera morbus. This, with other complications, was more than his frail constitution could stand and he passed away, after being ill only three days.

Deceased was a son of the late Jacob and Mary Shrom and was born in this place 45 years ago. He is survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Charles Watson, of Osceola; Mrs. Frank Gilbert, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. David Auchmuty, of Albany, N. Y.; Mrs. Will Cowdick, of Niagara Falls; Mrs. Samuel Skean, of Pottstown; Mrs. Martin Hayes, of Rossiter; Mrs. G. D. Ingram, of Bellefonte, John, in the Navy; and David.

His body was brought to this place and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. G. D. Ingram, where services were conducted by Rev. T. W. Perks on Sunday afternoon. "Dip," as he was most familiarly known, was a pioneer Logan, also a member of the Red Men of Phillipsburg and of the local Painter's Union, all of which orders, together with the Undine Engine Co. turned out with a band to pay the last tribute to their friend and fellow worker. The floral offerings were beautiful and his funeral spoke volumes of what was in the hearts of the army of men who marched behind the hearse that bore his remains to their last resting place in the Union cemetery.

MAJ. WM. H. MILLER.—One of the old residents of Boalsburg, Major William Harrison Miller, passed away at his home in that place on Sunday night after a lingering illness of old age. He was well known in the upper part of the county where he was highly esteemed and respected. In 1878 he was candidate for the office of associate judge and only failed to get the nomination by two votes.

He was a native of Westmoreland county, where he was born 89 years ago but when quite young came to this county to work as a carpenter. Many of the better houses and farms in Spruce and Penns valleys are monuments of his work and honesty. The last years of his active life were spent farming and stock raising on the McFarlane farm. Mr. McFarlane and he were great friends, for he was a man of sterling qualities both of head and heart. He was a good neighbor, a most loving father and a just, progressive citizen. He was a member of the Reformed church and a straight out and out Democrat.

He is survived by his second wife and three of his six children, John on the old homestead, Mrs. Andy Lytle, of State College, and Nora at home. His pastor, Rev. A. A. Black, conducted funeral services on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

CHARLES PRATT.—Charles Pratt, of Unionville, died very suddenly in the Pennsylvania hospital in Philadelphia on Saturday. Only two days before he was stricken with a very bad case of typhoid fever and though everything possible was done for him his life could not be saved.

Deceased was a son of Riley Pratt, of Unionville; having been born in that place 34 years, 11 months and 2 days ago. He was in the employ of a Philadelphia firm of wholesalers as a traveling salesman. Surviving him are his father and mother and the following brothers and sisters: Frank and Mrs. Elizabeth Black, of Harrisburg; David, of Houtzdale; Seth, James and Gertrude at home.

The body was brought to Unionville on Monday and funeral services were conducted there on Tuesday afternoon, by the Rev. G. H. Mark, of the Presbyterian church, after which interment was made.

DEATH OF MRS. SHRINER'S FATHER.—Mrs. W. P. Shriver had a telegram announcing the death of her father, Emanuel Cox, at his home in Manchester, Md., on Saturday evening, and on Monday at noon Dr. and Mrs. Shriver started for Maryland to attend the funeral, which took place on Wednesday morning. Dr. Shriver was in Emporium on his vacation when the news was received here and did not know of the message until on his way to church on Sabbath morning. He had promised to preach for his old congregation there that morning and did so before leaving for home.

Mr. Cox was seventy-six years of age and had been in a precarious condition since March on account of paralysis. He is survived by his wife and four children, Mrs. Lewis Reiter, of Punxsutawney; Misses Eliza and Emma E., at home, and Mrs. Shriver, of this place.

Miss May Etta Woerner, aged 58 years, 5 months and 3 days, died at her home near Bald Eagle on last Thursday. She was a daughter of the late Henry Woerner and was a consistent, useful Christian woman. For years she had been identified with the Methodist church at Bald Eagle and Rev. E. S. Latshaw conducted her funeral services there on Saturday. Surviving her are her sisters, Mrs. Joseph Woerner and Mrs. W. T. Copenaver, of Bald Eagle and her brother Theodore, of Houtzdale.

Frank Johnson, a well known colored character died at his home in this place on Monday morning. He was a veteran of the Civil war. Burial was made Tuesday afternoon.

News Purely Personal.

Rash Irvin, of the McCallum & Co. store force, is away on a visit to Washington, D. C.

The Misses Snook returned from a visit to friends in Phillipsburg on Wednesday evening.

Dr. Geo. L. Hays, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday with his sister, Miss Blanche Hays, in this place.

Mrs. John Anderson Jr. with her little daughter Adaline, departed for a visit with relatives at St. Mary's on Friday.

Paul Forsythe having accepted a position as a teacher in the schools at Halifax, Pa., left for that place on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meese and Mrs. J. Will Conley, with her daughter Nellie, returned from Atlantic City on Saturday.

Misses Emma Krider, Louise Garman, Mary Runkle and Charlotte Yeager are at "The Willows" for a week's outing.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shugert returned from a two week's stay at Cape May on Saturday evening.

Fred Chambers returned home from quite an extended stay with his grand parents at Kennett Square, Chester Co., on Saturday.

H. L. Hutchinson, the P. R. R. passenger agent at this place, is taking a well earned vacation. It includes a trip over the lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lilledahl, of Altoona, spent Sunday with Mrs. Barlett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barlett, on north Thomas street.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Boal, of Washington, D. C., have been spending several days with Mrs. Boal's aunt, Mrs. Longwell, on Spring street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rankin, of Harrisburg, who had been visiting friends in this place for several days, departed for their home on Monday afternoon.

The Hon. and Mrs. Benjamin M. Nead, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jenkins, on High street, over Sunday. They departed on Monday.

Miss Bertha Laurie, Miss Adaline F. Harris and Miss Ellen D. Valentine have returned from a six weeks stay at Middletown, Cape May and other Jersey coast resorts.

Alex Morrison, as the Logan delegate and Thomas Howley representing the Undines, departed for the district firemen's convention at Punxsutawney on Monday.

Mrs. H. S. Cooper, of Yorkers, N. Y., with her little daughter Emaline, were arrivals in town Saturday evening and will spend several weeks with the Misses Benner, on High street.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Fryberger, of Phillipsburg, spent the fore part of the week with the former's grandmother, Mrs. Louisa Brachbill, on Spring street. They departed on Wednesday.

Mrs. Hanna Hamilton, who is now in her 85th year, is away visiting friends in Altoona and Tyrone. The old lady is traveling alone and is abundantly able to take care of herself.

Mrs. Maggie Meek, who had been head of the Keichline household on Bishop street during the ten weeks absence of Mrs. Keichline and her two daughters, departed for her home in Altoona on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Irvin Speer, with her three children, on their way from Shoemakersville to Mrs. Speer's mother's home near Chicago, spent Sunday in town as the guest of her father-in-law, county treasurer W. T. Speer.

Dr. Edward Harris, of Butler, is visiting his parents in this place until the Batteries get over their fear of him for having attended a case of small-pox that developed in that city. Incidentally he has the hay fever very bad and is quite up to laying off for a while.

Mrs. J. M. Williams and her sisters, Miss Kathryn Reese, of Port Matilda, and Miss Ola M., of Rossiter, have departed for a two weeks stay in Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Cape May and Wilmington. At the latter place they will visit their uncle, Supt. G. W. Twitmore.

Sheriff and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart had quite a house party at their home on the hill last week. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brungart and Mr. and Mrs. John Walters, of Scottsdale, who had been in the county for several weeks visiting friends.

Wilbur F. Harris, who abandoned journalism in Bellefonte just at the time he was beginning to reap the fruits of the energy and force he threw into the Republican, to enter the wholesale notion business in Harrisburg, spent Sunday with his parents in this place. He came up to look after some of the local agencies of his house and see his friends here, as well.

Mrs. John M. Keichline, her son Dr. John Keichline and Misses Daise and Anna Keichline arrived from Battle Creek, Michigan, on Friday; the ladies having spent ten weeks at the sanatorium in that place, while visiting Dr. John Keichline, who was about completing his course preparatory to starting to his new field of work as a medical missionary in Egypt.

Former county commissioner Geo. L. Goodhart has been in town attending court this week and putting in most of his spare time talking politics. Mr. Goodhart is not one of the county officials who has gone out of office suffering with political despondency, but is as much interested in the coming campaign as if he were a candidate himself. Would there were more like him.

Joseph Markle, looking sleek and hearty as it is possible for man to be, is down from State College this week doing duty as a traveler's juror. We didn't know that was his business in town until we began to talk murder trial to him, when he shut up like a clam and would have nothing to say, all of which goes to show that Mr. Markle was trying to do the right thing in keeping himself uninvolved.

Geo. H. Hille, of DuBois, spent Sunday at his old home in Pleasant Gap, and Republican that he has been for the past ten years he makes no secret of his tip to Hibner, the Democratic nominee for Congress. Mr. Hille is in a position to know whereof he talks and he says the deal by which Dresser was nominated was so disreputable that no self-respecting man can endorse it.

Besides, Mr. Hibner is a very popular business man in DuBois, one of the clean, highly respected kind and will carry that Republican stronghold by an enormous majority.

The libel suit which J. H. Reifsnyder brought against the Millheim Journal brought many people from that vicinity to town this week, among them being Drs. S. C. Musser, of Aaronsburg, and G. S. Frank, of Millheim. The two medical men were to be called to give expert testimony on the small-pox case out of which the supposed libel grew, but the grand jury settled that all for them by ignoring the bill and finding that there was no libel. Dr. Frank was the author of the article that no one, after being acquainted with him, would believe that he would do any one an intentional injustice.

Mr. Irving Bacheller, author of "Eben Holdon," "Dri and I" and a number of other novels that have had sales running up into the hundreds of thousands, spent a few days in town last week as the guest of J. W. Gephart Esq., president of the Bellefonte and Nittany furnaces. Mr. Bacheller is interested in the former property and Gephart entertained a party of gentlemen at the Nittany country club in his honor. They were Ellis L. Orvis, Chas. M. McCurdy, Dr. H. M. Hiller, F. H. Clemons, L. T. Munson, Wallace Gephart and John C. Miller. On Saturday they made a visit to the mines at Scotia and while there partook of one of Mrs. Reiter's famous dinners. That evening the distinguished visitor departed for New York carrying with him recollections of a very delightful trip.

Charles Flack left for Tyrone yesterday afternoon, where he will be employed in the foundry.

Mrs. A. L. Altendorfer and her children, of Penn street, are visiting friends in Jersey Shore.

Harry Gerberich is off on a business trip to Renovo, Emporium and other West Branch towns.

Miss Grace Markle, of Huhlersburg, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Seibert, on east Bishop street.

George English, of Pittsburg, is spending a few days with his Uncle Morris Furey, in the country east of town.

Edward L. Hay returned, Wednesday, from a week's stay in New York, where he was on business for the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co.

John Anderson Sr. returned from a visit to Kane, Atlantic City and other points, on Wednesday, very much improved in health.

D. J. Gates, of Half Moon, and Isaac Harpster, of Gatesburg, two of the best Democrats in the county, have been in attendance at court this week.

Quin Mills, son of Wm. Mills, of this place, is home on a visit of a few days to his parents after an absence of six years. He is located at Washington, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Borden, their two children and Mrs. Borden's sister, Mrs. H. E. Ayres, left, yesterday morning, for a ten days visit at their old home in Bridgeton, N. J.

Misses Ursula and Sara Bayard departed for North Bend on Tuesday, where they will spend a few days with their brother George, who has charge of a drug store at that place.

Mrs. Joseph Franz, of Harrisburg, and her little daughter Elizabeth, arrived in town yesterday to spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Jenkins and the friends of her girlhood.

Among the twenty-two excursionists who left for Atlantic City yesterday via the Pennsylvania railroad were Mr. and Mrs. Katz, Mrs. Joseph Twitmore, Miss Jennie Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Smith.

Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, of Pleasantville, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Walker, on Linn street, departed on Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Walker, who will spend several weeks at her former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Thomas, of Master St., Philadelphia, were guests at the home of their cousin, Mrs. E. R. Chambers, over Sunday. They had been spending the summer at Bedford Springs and came here on their way home.

David Kindred, of Rush township, has been in town this week serving his country as a juror. Mr. Kindred is a school director over in Rush and refused to be elected at the last election, when a strong combination was made against him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Malin and their son Ogden returned from a visit of several weeks with Chester county friends on Saturday. Mr. Malin looked much better for the visit, but his appearance is still far from what his friends here would like to see it.

John E. Homer, of Phillipsburg, has been in town during the week doing duty as a juror. Mr. Homer is one of the well-known merchants of that place and is prominent in Democratic circles in that end of the county. He was a candidate for nomination for treasurer three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richard are home from a two weeks stay in Atlantic City, where they were visiting Mr. Aull, Mrs. Richard's father. They were accompanied by their son, Mrs. Richard, of Hoboken, a sister, of the late F. C. Dhome and who is the only surviving relative of the family in America.

Clarence Tate, head of Archie Allison's force of plumbers with a smile on his face that was broad enough to bridge the Atlantic, departed for Punxsutawney on Monday. He went to attend the district firemen's convention and we hope every moment of his stay was as pleasant as his leaving expression anticipated.

Charley Kremer dropped in on Monday evening to help pay for a little of the gas that was burning, but he would not tarry long enough to tell us anything about his work out at the Standard scale works. Of course that speaks for itself, but it is usually done so far away from home that we don't have an opportunity of seeing it.

F. E. Wieland, of Linden Hall, was in town last Thursday on his way to the business men's picnic and when we accused him of not treating Mrs. W. fair by leaving her at home he said that he had coaxed her to come along, but that having been in one such a crowd was enough for her and she preferred remaining peacefully at home.

Geo. F. Hoy, the Huhlersburg hay grain and produce broker, was in town on Saturday looking after some business affairs. He said that while the hay shipment next week, would probably not be very heavy he expected some other community to make up for that falling off. And so it very probably will. Business usually evens up the year round.

Mrs. Frank Warfield is going to entertain a party of ladies at Hecla park this evening with a chicken and waffle supper in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Belle Elliott, of Tennessee.

Rev. Sheeler was thrown to the ground and dragged quite a distance in Millheim, on Tuesday, by his horse starting while he was in the act of getting into his buggy. He was not hurt.

While in the farm yard milking last Thursday a stampeed occurred among the cattle and Mrs. Nicodemus Lose, of Fiedler, was knocked over and tramped. One of her arms was fractured and she was otherwise painfully injured.
