Democratic County Convention.

A reconvened meeting of the Democratic County Convention of June 3rd, 1902, will be held in the court house, at Bellefonte, on Wednesday, October 1st, 1902, at 11.30 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Coroner, and any other business that may come before the convention. All delegates elected at the Democratic primaries on May 31st, 1902, are requested to be present either in person or by proxy. By order of

ELLIS L. ORVIS, Chairman Democratic County Convention of '02

JOHN J. BOWER, Chairman Democratic County Committee.

The Democratic Spell-Binders.

On Monday next the Democratic candidates will begin their tour of the State, the initial meeting being fixed for McConnellsburg, Fulton county, whence they will cover the Cumberland and Juniata valleys and reach this county in time to attend the Granger's picnic at Centre Hall on Wednesday at noon. On the evening of the same day they will be in Huntingdon, and end the week in Altoona. It is a strenuous itinerary and will tax both the physical and mental resources of the gentlemen participating. But it will bring the candidates and the spell-binders face to face with a vast number of voters and ought to be productive of much good.

Governor PATTISON has always been a favorite in Centre county and his coming visit will be more than usually auspicious. His associates on the ticket, Hon. GEO. W. GUTHRIE and JAMES NOLAN Esq., are equally deserving with himself and conspicuous for the same virtues which have made him popular. That they are gentlemen who have invariably held the interests of the public as above those of the individual and their duties to the community as equally if not more binding than those to themselves. The visit of three such unselfish and patriotic gentlemen is an event of unusual importance and the people should reveal their appreciation by a generous exhibition of courtesies.

Of the election of the Democratic ticket this year there is no longer any doubt. The desperation of QUAY as shown in his original attempt to capture the convention, of the Union party is the best evidence that he has lost hope of electing his candidates. But this is not the only proof on the subject. The activity of the Democratic organization, the enthusiasm of the Democratic people and finally the determination of Democratic leaders to prevent the usual frauds in the big cities combine to create hope and inspire confidence among Democrats. We sincerely hope that Centre county will not prove laggard in this important campaign.

Needs No Defense.

The untruthful and brutal attack made on sheriff BRUNGART by the Gazette last week will hurt no one. It will not injure the sheriff because he is known in every part of the county, and known as a man of the highest character who would soon to do an unjust act to anyone and whose reputation for truth is so far above that of the unprincipled sheet that assailed him, that a comparison between the two is out of the question. It won't hurt the Gazette because nothing it can do or say can lower it any in the estimation of the public. It has long since earned the reputation of being the pitiable source through which its mercenary owner attempts to levy tribute on public officials and others and failing in such efforts uses it as the medium through which he squirts his venoms at those who refuse to be bled or blackmailed by him.

Sheriff BRUNGART needs no defense from statements coming from such a source. The knowledge the people have of him, the confidence they have in his sense of duty, his manliness, his entire truthfulness, and his innate kindness of heart, places him far above the reach of the weapons used by the scurvy dog that barks and whines at him through the Gazette.

It is a waste of time to give further attention to it.

The DuBois Evening Express has come out for the state and county Democratic ticket. The Express is an independent paper, but fearlessly decides to support the right as against the wrong represented by PENNYPACKER and his followers.

There are plenty of places where twenty-five dollars would be of more use now than in a Panama hat.

Baer Will Resign if Morgan Acts.

President of Anthracite Railways Determined There Shall Be No Interference.

If J. Pierpont Morgan intervenes in the coal strike or endorses any plan involving arbitration, president Baer, of the Reading system, will resign, and presidents of the other anthracite railways, it is said, will adopt a similar course.

This statement was made by a prominent railway man Wednesday night, who, however, qualified his declaration by affirming that Mr. Morgan would not interfere.

WOULD NEGOTIATE WITH RAILROADS. He pointed out that any direct attempt on Mr. Morgan's part to settle the strike by going over the heads of the presidents of the railways would be a repudiation of their methods and would necessitate their withdrawals from the management of their several companies.

"Politics and ambition have sought to force themselves into this struggle," it was stated, "without sincerity or genuine feeling for the public, the miner or the operators. It would be folly to let the people who are seeking to make capital out of this trouble upset the plans of such men as Mr. Baer and Mr. Treadwell. These officials planned a line of battle and have adhered to it unwaveringly for four months. They could do nothing but quit if overruled in order to suit interests that seek selfish gain out of it."

A break between Mr. Morgan and his ablest lieutenants would be an unheard of proceeding and would result in widespread disorganization.

BAER GAVE ULTIMATUM.

Mr. Baer's statement of last week to Senator Quay and Penrose, it was stated, is the ultimatum of the operators in their investigation and adjustment of grievances was promised, but no arbitration amendment to that will be accepted.

Mr. Morgan favors the proposition to have the men return, and endorses the promise of an adjustment of grievances, to which he is willing to add the right to arbitrate afterward, if the miners are dissatisfied. But it is not believed by Reading interests here that he would persist if he had to face the resignations of the presidents of the anthracite roads.

Taking Steps to Restrict Emigration.

VIENNA, Sept. 10.—The Hungarian government is taking steps to adopt stringent measures to regulate and restrict emigration. The ministry of the interior has prepared a bill which will shortly be introduced in parliament, whereby all emigration on the part of men is forbidden until after the performance of military service. The bill also provides for strict control of emigration agencies and transportation companies and prescribes severe penalties for persons attempting to induce emigration by means of misleading statements or over-flourish advertisements.

Labor Looks to Pattison.

Railway Workers Lead the Way in Demanding His Election in the Interest of all the People.

At Harrisburg on Monday the State Legislative Board of Railroad Employes announced that it had endorsed Hon. Robert E. Pattison for governor. When it is known that this board represents about 65,000 railroad men, almost all of whom are voters, the significance of this action is apparent, and its importance cannot be overestimated. Byron J. Austin, of Philadelphia, offered the resolution, and it was seconded by Thomas T. Sheridan, of Conemaugh. It is as follows:

Resolutions Indorse Pattison.

Whereas, The present political regime in this state has proven that no good can be expected from it, judging from the actions of the last legislature, in that various "ripper" bills have been enacted and executed, together with the grabbing of valuable franchises given to corporations, without restrictions, and the legislature as a whole going on record as being the most corrupt body ever known to exist in the state of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Legislation in the cause of labor has not been given proper recognition, in that bills presented for the improvement of the condition of the wage worker of this state have failed to pass; and

Whereas, The only method by which the corrupt and domineering government, with selfish intentions, and entrenched by many years of machine rule, can be reformed is to cast the ballot for the opposing candidates; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the State Legislative Board of Railroad Employes, do hereby indorse the candidacy and advocate the election of Robert E. Pattison for governor, believing that thereby the commonwealth may once more be restored to the party of the immortal Lincoln—the party "of the people, by the people and for the people."

Notification Committee Named.

The resolution had no opposition, and it seemed, as one present said, as if there was a general desire to stamp the seal of condemnation on the legislative grafters and at the same time express their preference for a gubernatorial candidate who would check the rule of graft and plunder. The committee then decided that a committee of notification should be appointed to notify Candidate Pattison. A resolution was also adopted indorsing the labor candidates, wherever nominated in the state.

In one of his 1900 speeches Quay contemptuously referred to the Independent Republican voters as "mules." The compliment is being returned this fall by the tallest and hardest "kicking" ever known. Keep it up until the odious machine is smashed beyond repair.

Pennypacker's silence these days is something wonderful. A double guard has been put upon the eulogist of Quayism, lest he furnish more scotch shot for the "enemy." There is enough on hand to riddle the machine fort, and it will all be effectively used.

Are You More Prosperous?

From the Lansford Record.
The best way to arrive at whether the average man is better off to-day than he was in 1897, is to figure the cost of living to-day as compared with that time, together with wage earning capacity at that time as compared now.

A bill of goods consisting of salt, sugar, spool cotton, sole leather, bleached sheetings, dress goods, kerosene oils, axes, and other things which cost at wholesale in 1897 $43.04, cost $55.35. If we add to these wholesale prices 33% for retailers profit (and this is an exceedingly small addition for such profits) we find that the retail price of this bill of goods in 1897 was $57.39, and that the identical articles in 1901 cost $73.79. This would require about ten days extra work to pay for the bill over 1897. If on the other hand it was a farmer who bought the bill it required seventy-two bushels of wheat to pay for it in 1897, while in 1901 it required one hundred and two bushels to pay for the same bill.

The masked euche which Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder gave at her home on the hill Tuesday evening was a most delightful success. There were about seventy-five guests present, nearly all of them being disguised so perfectly as to make their appearance quite mystifying. Ten games were played, the prize winners having been Miss Ellen Roder, of Baltimore, Mrs. D. G. Bush, John Curtin and Henry Linn. Elaborate refreshments were served after the euche. The party was certainly the most unique and charming home entertainment that has been given in town for years.

Miss Hamilton's dancing school will be re-opened for the season in the Arcade on Saturday evening.

The Centre county Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of the Patrons of Husbandry made a 3 per cent assessment on the 5th.

The fifteenth annual convention of the Centre county W. C. T. U. will be held in Petriken hall, in this place, on September 17th and 18th. Rev. Anna Shaw will be the attraction for the first evening of the meeting.

Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, of Philadelphia, has located here for the practice of dentistry; having opened rooms on the fourth floor of Temple Court. Dr. Kilpatrick is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has had two years valuable experience with Dr. Swing, one of the most eminent dentists of that city.

The Bellefonte Athletic club held its third annual banquet at the Bush house last evening. Quite an elaborate menu was served the boys and they cleaned it up about as effectually as they do their rivals on the athletic field. When the smoke was curling ceiling-ward the toasts were responded to as follows: "Benefits of Club Life to Young Men," Frank Curtin; "Bellefonte," Hugh Crider; "Each Member's Future," Austin Eadon; "Princeton," James Furst; "Our Club," Randolph Hoy; "Athletics," Maurice Jackson; "The Centre Co. Fair," (past and present), Harold Lingle; "The Goat," Lee Walker; "The Newspaper Men of the Community," Ward Fleming.

A NOTED WOMAN.—Rev. Anna H. Shaw, who is advertised to speak in Petriken hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, is a woman of world wide reputation. Though born in England she was reared in Michigan, and in the pioneer days. The country was wild, and she breathed in the spirit of freedom, and is to-day as crisp as the frosts of those northern forests in which she wandered in her childhood. Her wit is as keen as the wind of the northland, and as delightful and rich as the balsamic odors borne thereon.

She was educated for the ministry—educated herself. She is a selfmade woman. If any other body made her what she is, that other body might well be proud of the work. Young girls with their own destiny to hew out should go to hear the Rev. Anna H. Shaw and take courage. She studied medicine, prepared herself to doctor the body and soul, was ordained, and preached for one parish seven years; and then she exchanged the small parish for a larger one—that is, the world for her parish, and the enfranchisement of women her gospel.

Miss Shaw has repeatedly spoken before congressional and legislative committees. Whenever women have a "case in court," that is, a bill before a legislative body, they send for Miss Shaw to speak. She is a born orator; has a magnificent voice which she never spares, but which endures without impairment most severe usage. Few women and few men are so well equipped for public speaking as the Rev. Anna H. Shaw.

CENTENNIAL OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Presbyterians of this place have been showing unusual interest in their church and its records this week in commemoration of its establishment one hundred years ago. On Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Laurie took the history of the church as the subject of his discourse and made of it a most interesting and excellent sermon from which the following facts were taken.

The church at this place was instituted in 1802, Rev. Henry Wilson being the first pastor, who was installed in 1803, and served as pastor for seven years. He was succeeded by Rev. James Linn. The salary received by Mr. Wilson was $400 per year. When Mr. Linn was called the salary was increased to $500, and besides preaching in Bellefonte his field was extended from Julian to Jacksonville, or a distance of about 26 miles.

He continued serving the several churches until 1839, when Bellefonte secured his entire time and service. He remained as the minister in charge until 1868, when he closed his earthly career, after a pastorate of 58 years, at the time of his death being 85 years.

Owing to the infirmities incident to age the congregation in 1860 relieved him of a portion of his labor by calling as co-pastor, Rev. Joseph H. Barnard, who remained for six years, resigning to accept another call. He was succeeded by Rev. Alfred Yeomans who occupied the position of co-pastor at the time of Dr. Linn's death. He remained for a short time as minister in charge, when he also accepted a call from a church in New Jersey.

In 1869 a call was made to Rev. W. P. Wiley D. D., who remained until 1876, when Rev. William Laurie, the present pastor, succeeded him. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon Dr. Laurie in 1826 and that of Doctor of Laws in 1893.

The first church building was erected upon the same site as the present commodious structure in 1819, at a cost of $2000. In 1840 this building was torn down and a new one erected at a cost of $8000; this building proving inadequate to accommodate the increased number of members was also torn down, and the present church home was built in 1868 at a cost of $35,000. The chapel building, adjoining the church, was built in 1883 at a cost of $17,000. The congregation also own a handsome parsonage, which cost between $7000 and $8000 and not one dollar of debt is owed to anyone.

Since the organization of this church it has been the parent of five Presbyterian churches viz.: Meshannon, Bald Eagle, Milesburg, Buffalo Run, and Winburne.

The membership of the church today is four hundred.

The amount of money contributed during the first fifty years for the several Boards, Congregational and Miscellaneous expenses, as far as could be ascertained amounted to $13,000. During the next twenty-five years the amount contributed was $121,612, and in the last twenty-five years the contributions reached the sum of $181,875.

THE SOLDIERS REUNION.—There was a much larger crowd than was expected at the annual picnic and reunion of the Centre County Veterans Association at Hecla park on Saturday. The crowd numbered about one thousand, there was good music by the State College band and an ideal fall day to add to the exhilaration of this annual meeting of the old boys in blue.

At the business meeting of the Association, in the afternoon, it was decided to hold the next annual reunion at Pine Grove Mills, at a time to be selected by the executive committee. Officers for the year were chosen as follows: President—James A. Beaver; vice presidents—Capt. W. H. Fry and W. C. Patterson; treasurer—Capt. Geo. M. Boal; secretary—W. H. Musser; assistant secretary—Samuel B. Miller.

During the day the State College and Howard base ball teams played on the athletic field and the State College boys went down before the invincible Howard aggregation by the score of 10 to 2.

Esquire Reifsnyder Has a Word to Say.

Millheim, Pa., Sept. 3rd, 1902.

To the WATCHMAN.—I noticed an article in last week's WATCHMAN in reference to the libel suit which emanates from the same "citizen," who wrote the notorious Journal fabrication, alleging that I pronounced the Winters case not small-pox, which might be true. I did not say so. This citizen also claimed that Winters was isolated, when the facts are that he was penned up with another family in the same house for seventy days, which was very insignificant to this citizen, but utterly repudiated by the sober citizens and taxpayers of this place. I don't think a person would be competent to give expert testimony, who says he never saw a case of small-pox.

The grand jury came to the conclusion that an editor who inserted an article in his paper and refused to give the name of the author, libeled himself more than any one else and is of such small calibre that he was not responsible for any damages.

Quite a crowd of people was gathered on the grounds, the most of them being from State College. Of course they were all rooters for State. Howard had a few rooters. But State being champions of Centre county this summer thought they would have a dead cinch to beat Howard. But with all their rooters and the best playing the State boys could do, they were not in it with Howard. When the game was over and the score was read it was 10 to 2 in our favor. You had better go away back and sit down, for when you get ahead of Howard you'll have to set your alarm clock and get up in the morning.
