Scores of Bellefonte Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Present Contest Against Quayism

It was worth a thousand times what it cost to have representative men from all parts of this state see the Philadelphia machine in full motion. The riotous assault on the delegates to the Union Party convention was an object lesson showing the ways of the political outlaw which the average voter, in town and country, never witnesses. For many years the newspapers have printed the disgraceful story of hoodlum outrages until their readers have turned in disgust from the depressing spectacle. It has often been said that there was much exaggeration in these statements and that the accounts published were colored to suit partisan and factional purposes. But the real truth has not been realized. The drama performed before the astonished eyes of the legally chosen Union delegates showed the utter degradation and demoralization of the baffled and demoralized Quay forces. Veteran observers of exciting events in connection with politics have been amazed at the audacity and criminal recklessness of the hirings of the machine, and now all hands are engaged in a futile effort to deceive the public, the purpose being to make it appear that the whole affair was only a bit of factional contention, with no serious consequences. The foul spot cannot thus be wiped out and honest Republican papers have expressed their condemnation of the murderous methods pursued. The attempt, likewise, to give the matter some sort of legal standing is a result which the Dauphin county court will surely resent. If such wicked violence, such outrageous disregard of the rights of citizenship, such infamous resort to the bludgeon and the blackjack and every species of political vulgarity and hoodlumism, is to be tolerated, elections in Pennsylvania might as well be abandoned, and the government of the state and all its cities turned over to outlaws. It is stated that a large proportion of the rioters in Musical Fund Hall came directly from the House of Correction to do the bidding of men even worse than themselves. This incident, at the threshold of the present contest against Quayism and all that it stands for, will arouse the patriotic indignation of decent men irrespective of party. It will be worth scores of thousands of votes to the Democratic Reform ticket. The blackjack party will be crushed through the uprising of the self-respecting citizenship of our long suffering state. Push the battle from house to house with increasing vigor and determination every day. Help along the great work of house cleaning at Harrisburg. Send your contribution, large or small, to the Democratic state chairman. Every dollar received will be wisely and honestly expended.

DOING THEIR DUTY.
SCORES OF BELLEFONTE READERS ARE LEARNING THE DUTY OF THE PRESENT CONTEST AGAINST QUAYISM
To Filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys swell, backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary troubles, Diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Bellefonte People endorse our claim.
Mr. W. E. Haines of No. 1, Beaver Row, locomotive engineer says: "I was suffering from an acute lameness in my back, and a dull, lingering aching over my kidneys. I felt it in my head also and there were pains over my eyes and in the top and back of my head and in the upper part of my spine. I was afraid I would not be able to attend to my duties as I was on night work and had to get some rest in the day time, for on account of my back I could not rest well. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and obtained them from the Bush House block drug store. They proved to be just the remedy I required for they removed the whole trouble."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Lubin Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
