OFFERS EXCEPTIONAL ADVANTAGES.

TUITION IS FREE IN ALL COURSES.

TAKING EFFECT IN SEPT. 1900, the General Courses have been extensively modified, so as to furnish a much more varied range of electives, after the Freshman year, than heretofore, including History ; the English, French, German, Spanish, Latin and Greek Languages and Literatures ; Psychology; Ethics, Pedagogies, and Political Science. There courses are especially adapted to the wants of those who seek either the most thorough training for the Profession of Teaching, or a general College Education.
The courses in Chemistry, Civil, Electrical, Mechanical and Mining Engineering are among the very best in the United States. Graduates have no difficulty in securing and holding positions.

YOUNG WOMEN are admitted to all courses on the same terms as Young Men. THE WINTER SESSION onens January 12th, 1902.

For specimen examination papers or for catalogue giving full information repsecting courses of study, expenses, etc., and showing positions held by graduates, address

Democratic Watchman. Bellefonte, Pa., September 26, 1902. Shipping and Commission Merchant, How Pennypacker Was Nominated. The Story of a Political Crime as Told by Quay's Ou Disgusted Friends. Republicans Under the Lash ANTHRACITE AND BITUMINOUS The odious and disgraceful records of political bossism and corruption in Pennsylvania may be searched in vain for a parallel to the shameful story of the nomination of Samuel W. Pennypacker as the so-called Republican candidate for governor. This recent -CORN EARS, SHELLED CORN, OATS,history will not soon be forgotten. The name of the machine candidate was not mentioned until a short time before the Harrisburg convention. At -BALED HAY and STRAW-Quay's orders Durham deserted his friend, Attorney General Elkin, who BUILDERS' and PLASTERERS' SAND was making a most successful canvass for the nomination, and turned in over eighty delegates from Philadelphia the light fearlessly. Respectfully solicits the patronage of his friends and the public, at He publicly refused to be thrown aside and challenged Pennypacker to a con-

from. In a number of places the lines were thus drawn and in every instance, despite all the resources of the Quay machine, the hard work of his Apparently, the Republican voters neighbors to read: taking part in the primaries were overwhelmingly for Elkin. When the convention met Quay bull-dozed everything and everybody, taking forty-one pledged delegates from Elkin, and thus forced the unpopular nomination of the candidate of his own choice. Herein is given daily extracts from the editorial columns of desperate politicians, who seek to strangle the people, the work of fed-eral office-holders. Quay has tried to cut the throat of the best friend he ever had. He has demanded that Re-publican leaders join hands in this crime. It would be ruinous for them to do so."

The Dollar Mark of Infamy.

"Any instructed delegate who re-fuses to vote for Elkin will have the dollar mark of infamy on his brow. All sorts of debauchery is being attempted. One Schuylkill county delegate has been offered $10,000 and a good position thrown in. A commonwealth strangled or bought would invite destruction."

The Crime Consummated.

On the morning of the convention the Inquirer's Harrisburg special telegram said:

"The straits to which Quay was driven was shown by the direct steal of four delegates by the state com-mittee, acting under his orders. Two Schuylkill men were offered $8,000 each, and refused to take it, so they were thrown out. It was brutally done; but, as Senator Penrose said, the votes were needed and they had to be taken."

Forty-one Delegates Taken.

The day following the convention the Inquirer's Harrisburg correspondent reported Elkin as openly declaring to his friends that "41 delegates, pledged and elected," had been taken from him.

Quay Ring Rule in Pennsylvania.

Quayism as Seen by the Philadelphia Press Before Pennypackerism Blinded it. Let all Free Voters

There have been many queer things in Pennsylvania politics, but the backsliding of the Philadelphia Press, under the singular influence of Pennypackerism, furnishes a chapter of journalistic weakness and inconsistency that has no counterpart. Our misguided contemporary can never wipe out the commendable record of many years' vigorous hostility to Quayism and all that it stands for. It told the truth in those days, as it is now trying to hide it. It stood with the people against their enemies. It had no fellowship with an organized band of political highwaymen. It fought bravely for civic righteousness and good government. It turned on is even more apt and forcible now. We give herewith some extracts from the editorial columns of the Press during the senatorial campaign of test in the counties yet to be heard 1900, when Mr. Quay was making such a desperate fight for re-election and the re-establishment of his power for the rebuilding and strengthening of his broken political machine. Here federal office-holders and the corrupt is what the Press said, pass it along use of money, his choice was beaten. for your self-respecting Republican

The party has been dishonored too much by such methods." A Combination Corrupt and Criminal. A Combination Corrupt and Criminal. Referring to the turning down of faithful Republican members of the legislature, by orders of the Quay ma-chine, the Press, July 29, said: "What do the decent citizens of Phil-adelphia say to this? Are they to per-mit those who served them to be sacri-ficed on that account? Do tney propose that a combination of all that is cor-rupt and criminal in our politics, of the black-mailers and ballot thieves, shall control the party nominations and own the representatives of a free city in the legislature? "The Republicans of Pennsylvania are today under the lash of Senator Quay. In various counties Elkin and Watres have met and fought it out, and Watres have met and fought it out, and in every instance Elkin has won by a direct vote of the people. Everything was going smoothly, when suddenly Senator Quay broke away and plunged his party into confusion. It was an outrageous thing to do. Pennsylvania Republicans are today under the lash. The sentiment of the people must be throttled. The Quay orders are out to line up for the Quay candidate. It is not what the people want, but what Quay wants, and he is going to Harris-burg himself to lay violent hands upon the convention." Quay's Method of Making Candidates.

Quay's Method of Making Candidates. "Elkin has been making his canvass

"Elkin has been making his canvass before the people. Is Quay appealing to the people? By no means. It is easy enough to give orders, but some-times the people decline to take them, and we shall see whether the people or the orders of Senator Quay are going to prevail in the convention. The In-quirer has great faith in the people; apparently Senator Quay has lost faith in them. There is a splendid oppor-tunity for the people to make them-selves heard and to win the fight for fair play." The People and the Governorship.

The People and the Governorship. "The one question before the Re-publican party of Pennsylvania to-day is whether the people themselves shall name a candidate for governor, or whether a single individual shall dic-tate one. Majority rule or one-man dictation—that is the question before the Republican voters of Pennsylvania today." today.

Quay's Political Crime.

"'I refuse to be ordered out, bartered out or forced out,' said Elkin. He will not withdraw. He has been gaining in strength since Quay committed his po-litical crime. It does not seem to be Mr. Quay's way to appeal to the peo-ple this year."

Give the People Their Way. Give the People Their Way. "Some years ago the popular choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania for governor was General Hastings. Sena-tor Quay insisted upon taking the con-vention by the throat and nominating Delamater. The result is history. The people could not be controlled. They made up their minds there had not been fair play, and Pattison was elected governor. History repeats itself some-times."

Trying to Bribe Delegates.

"The Inquirer is in possession of evidence in several cases, showing at-tempts to bribe Elkin delegates. The coming convention must be conducted in all fairness, or the result may be disastrous."

Elkin's Appeal For Fair Play.

"Elkin's Appear For Fair Flay. "Elkin is making a grand fight for fair play against the power of federal office-holders and ring rule. Here is what he says: 'Under the circum-stances, I would be lacking in a proper appreciation of the duties of citizenship if I failed in standing for a principle that is dear to avery Bonnsulvania that is dear to every Pennsylvania heart; that is to say, that each man shall have a fair chance in an open field before the people on every ques-tion in which the public has an in-terest?" terest

There Must Be a Clean Sweep.

"The outlook is most cheering to Pennsylvania reformers, but Quay has around him a gang that is worse than he. There must be a clean sweep. Not only Quay, but Quayism must be beat-en, the machine broken up and its power destroyed."

Yet Pennypacker Is Quay's Own. (August 15.)

"After four years of Stone the peo-ple of Pennsylvania will surely not be willing to endure another Quay ma-chine governor."

The Duty of True Republicans. (August 30.)

(August 30.) "Fusion is the last resort of life-long Republicans who refuse to be defraud-ed and disfranchised by a corrupt fac-tion. The Quay machine has been en-deavoring systematically to disfran-ise and read out of the party those Republicans who have refused to ac-cept as the voice of their political con-science the mandates of a few petty, discredited bosses, who are posing as the Republican organization of Penn-sylvania. But all the beating of tom-toms and cries of irregularity that ma-chine organs and machine bosses can encourage cannot drive this sclass of true Republicans from their allegiasca, or from their attempts to overthrow the corrupt and conscienceless handful of bosses who have grown rich on the spoils of office, and who seek still fur-ther to fasten themselves upon the party for personal gain."
