Cunning Counsils.

A closer scrutiny into the character of Judge PENNYPACKER reveals him in a less attractive light than he appears to the casual observer. That is to say instead of the amiable scholar, the profound student and the industrious bookworm which he was taken to be, he now appears as the cunning schemer and apologist for crimes in the disguise of a "Simple Simon." For example, in his Harrisburg speech the other night, after appearing on the stage in all the awkwardness of an over grown schoolboy, he proceeded to argue in the most sophistical way in defence of the "ripper bills" and the franchise grab and other inequities of the last Legislature.

Any man has the right to defend any proposition however bad, if he does it in an honest and frank manner. But no man has the right to shield himself behind a false reputation and attempt to deceive the public. But that is what PENNYPACKER did in his Harrisburg speech. In other words he declared that the evil of the franchise grab, if there were any evil in it, was not in the action of the Legislature but in that of the councils of Philadelphia. The Legislature, he declared, substantially, simply exercised its constitutional prerogative to enact a law authorizing municipal governments to issue franchises in such manner as would promote the interests of the public.

If QUAY himself had said that the audience would have simply laughed him off the stage. The old fox knows better, every one would say, and his proposition is simply a mental trick. But with PENNYPACKER it is different. Hundreds of men believe in his guilelessness and that fact, added to his reputation for legal learning and personal honesty, gives credence to his words to the cursory observer. But he knows and every one else who looks beneath the surface understands that the conspiracy was begun in Harrisburg through the passage in indecent haste of an extraordinary enabling act which the councils subsequently used to despoil the public of valuable property and bestow it on the favorites of the machine. PENNYPACKER stands revealed as a hypocrite.

An Obvious Usurpation.

General GOBIN is going a step beyond the limits of his authority even as a military commander if the statements attributed to him in the newspapers the other day are correctly reported. He is said to have declared that he will not allow persons arrested to be taken before a justice of the peace, but will himself commit them to a military prison or place of detention and keep them there until after the trouble is past and the danger has subsided. This is equivalent to a declaration of martial law.

If General GOBIN has made such a statement his superiors in office can't too promptly call him down from his high perch. Under the federal constitution it might be possible in case of insurrection or rebellion for a representative of the national government to take such a step, though that is doubtful. But there is no shadow of a ground for an officer of the state militia to usurp such an authority and if General GOBIN undertakes it he ought to be called to a sharp and speedy account. It is a power too dangerous to be indulged in lightly.

Every citizen of Pennsylvania has a natural and constitutional right to enter bail for his appearance before the proper tribunal unless he is accused of a capital crime and the evidence is strong or the presumption overwhelming against him. If General GOBIN or any other military popinjay undertakes to deprive him of that sacred right it ought to be made very warm for him. The trusts and their business agents have the right to deprive of many things, but their military instruments can't rob us of constitutional rights with impunity.

At present the county funds are divided among all the banks in Bellefonte, but elect FOSTER Treasurer and see where they go. The HASTINGS bank will have them all.

Democratic Meetings in the County.

County chairman BOWER has arranged to hold meetings at various places in the county during the time that will elapse between this and the election. Able speakers will be in attendance at each meeting, to discuss the questions that every Pennsylvanian should have so much at heart this fall.

If a meeting is scheduled for your locality you should not fail to attend it. Every good citizen should be anxious to uphold the honor of Pennsylvania and for that reason he should lose no opportunity to hear a fair and dispassionate discussion of the wrongs that are dragging the old State down.

The meetings are scheduled as follows:
Oct. 10—At Coburn and Livonia.

" 11—"Rebersburg and Runville.

" 14—"Jacksonville and Murray's School house in Gregg Twp.

" 15—"Colyer and Hublersburg.

Local Unions Resolved to Remain on Strike.

Unless President Mitchell's Visit to New York Bears Fruit, Prospect of Success in Case Being Mined to Satisfy Public Demand is Extremely Poor.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 8.—Unless President Mitchell's visit to New York bears fruit, the end of the Mine Workers' strike seems a long way off and prospect of sufficient coal being mined to satisfy the public demand is extremely poor. Every local union of the miners' organization throughout the length and breadth of the hard coal belt held special meetings, either last night or today, and resolved to remain on strike until the operators grant them some concession. As the reports of meetings came pouring into Wilkesbarre by telegraph, train and messenger, President Mitchell dictated a letter to the president of the United States, in which he gave his answer to the proposition that the strikers return to work and trust to have their condition improved through an investigating commission. What the answer of the miners' chief was he refused to divulge, but it is difficult to conceive that, with the replies of the local union piled around him, he could do otherwise than respectfully decline the president's proposition.

Mr. Mitchell sent his letter to Washington before he had heard from all the locals, and, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, he packed his grip and, accompanied by the three district presidents, left for New York. His mission there is also a secret, and his sudden departure caused much speculation. As New York is the headquarters of the coal operators, a rumor immediately spread that a settlement was in sight, but, as Mr. Mitchell and his colleagues would not say whom they expected to meet, all eyes for the time being are turned toward the metropolis.

It was a busy day for the miners, especially the officials above mentioned. From early this morning until late tonight, the returns came in constantly. This evening the crops of newspaper reporters stationed here were invited to examine the reports, and not one was found that was not couched in fine language.

PRAISE ROOSEVELT.

Briefly stated, the resolutions in these reports affirm the confidence of the men in the integrity and judgment of their president, praise President Roosevelt for his efforts to end the strike, denounce the president of the coal carrying railroads for their alleged abuse of the chief executive at the conference in Washington, denounce the coal and iron police, offer to assist the authorities in maintaining peace, thank all organizations and citizens throughout the country for the financial assistance given, regret the presence of the troops, denounce Governor Stone for sending them here, and some of the resolutions say the men will remain away from the mines all winter or "until the blue birds call again."

Excepting those from Hazleton district, which were almost identical in phraseology, the resolutions adopted were different from one another. Nearly every one, however, contained a sentence to the effect that the men are not afraid to work because of the alleged lack of protection, but will remain out, "though all the troops in the United States were sent here," and until they are granted some concessions.

SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED.

Additional troops for this region have not yet arrived, and the general strike situation remains unchanged. The troops for this valley are now stationed in the lower districts, and were relieved to-day by the Philadelphia and western Pennsylvania commands. They will arrive tomorrow. The coal company officials have nothing to say, beyond the simple statement that they are awaiting developments. There is an increase in the shipment of coal, very little of which is being produced. The superintendents of the various companies in this valley are extremely reticent on the question of coal production, and will not say anything more than that they are mining coal. No violence was reported to-day and in fact very little since the troops were stationed here. Speculation as to whether the presence of all troops will increase the coal production is still being indulged in. The production since the Ninth regiment has been in this valley has not increased. And if the resolutions adopted by the local unions to-day indicate anything, it is not likely that much coal will be shipped to market for some time, notwithstanding the presence of the entire National Guard.

Faith Unshaken by Daughter's Death.

Ara, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burkholder, of McKeesport, died recently, after an illness of five weeks. The parents are Christian Scientists, and it is said they did not have medical attendance until the child was past help, dying from a complication of diseases. The parents say they have not lost their faith in Christian Science, as they claim it cured another child after the physicians had given up.

The Entire National Guard Takes the Field.

The Reasons For So Doing. Gov. Stone Directs Major General Commanding Division What to Do in the Premises. Fifth Regiment Among Them.

HARRISBURG, October 7.—Governor Stone late Monday ordered out the entire division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania on duty in the anthracite coal regions. The soldiers will be in the field Wednesday. The order calling out the guard is as follows:

"Headquarters National Guard, Adjutant General's Office, Harrisburg, Pa., October 6:
"In certain portions of the counties of Luzerne, Schuylkill, Carbon, Lackawanna, Susquehanna, Northumberland and Columbia, tumults and riots frequently occur and mob law reigns, men who desire to work have been beaten and driven away and their families threatened; railway trains have been delayed, stoned and the track torn up. The civil authorities are unable to maintain order and have called upon the Governor and commander in chief of the National Guard for troops. The situation grows more serious each day. The territory involved is so extensive that the troops now on duty is insufficient to prevent all disorder. The presence of the entire division National Guard of Pennsylvania is necessary in this case to maintain the public peace.

"The major general commanding will place the entire division on duty, distributing them in such localities as will render them most effective for preserving the public peace.

"As tumults, riots, mobs and disorder usually occur when men, attempt to work in and about the coal mines, he will see that all men who desire to work and their families have ample military protection. He will protect all trains and other property from unlawful interference, and will arrest all persons engaged in acts of violence and intimidation and hold them under guard until their release will not endanger the public peace, and all acts of violence cease at once. The public peace and good order will be preserved on all occasions and throughout the several counties, and no interference whatever will be permitted with officers and men in the discharge of their duties under this order. The dignity and authority of the state must be maintained and her power to suppress all lawlessness within its borders, be asserted.

"By order of William A. Stone, governor and commander-in-chief.

The formal order was given out at the executive mansion shortly before 11 o'clock Monday night by private Secretary Gerwig. Governor Stone called a conference of the general officers of the guard at which it was decided to place these troops in the field. Those present at the conference were Major General Miller, General Gobin, of the Third Brigade; General Schall, of the First brigade; Colonel Hallings, of the Sixteenth regiment, who represented General Wiley, of the Second brigade, who is in Kansas; Assistant Adjutant General Elliott and Assistant Quartermaster General Richardson. The canvass and other camp equipage will be shipped from the state arsenal and it is expected all the troops will be in the field within twenty four hours.

The troops now in the field are the Fourth, Eighth, Ninth, Twelfth and Thirteenth regiments, of the Third brigade and the Governor's troop, Sheridan Troop and Second Philadelphia Troop.

The troops which will be sent to reinforce those now on duty are the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth,
