

The Great Coal Strike is Ended.

After Five Months the Miners and Operators Have Agreed to Abide the Decision of a Board of Arbitration.—Work in Mines to be Resumed on Monday—All Sides Happy.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—President Roosevelt to-night resumed consideration of the strike situation, taking it up in the light developed as the result of his two conferences during the day with Mr. Mitchell, president of the Mine Workers' Union. He went out for a long drive after the conference and on returning met Mr. Carroll D. Wright, commissioner of labor, and Mr. Sargent, a commissioner of immigration. The latter is a particular friend of Mr. Mitchell, and the former labor leader, himself had talked freely with the head of the miners' union. He gave the President the benefit of his views and Commissioner Wright was able to communicate some information that has come to him as to the sentiment in the mining regions. Mr. Wright having made a study of the conditions in the anthracite fields, and having sources of information there, was able to be of service to the President. Later two gentlemen, strangers to those about the temporary white house, called and were shown upstairs at once. It was said that these gentlemen were Robert S. Bacon and George W. Perkins, members of the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. The conference with the four gentlemen named lasted from 7 to 8 o'clock. About 10 o'clock President Roosevelt entered the white house, accompanied by Secretary Root, and they immediately re-embarked on consideration of the settlement of the coal strike. Later a stranger called, answering to the description of one of Mr. Morgan's partners, and was shown at once into the room where the President was by Secretary Root. At 11 o'clock the three gentlemen were still engaged in a discussion of the situation.

At 11:35 o'clock Messrs. Sargent and Wright returned to the white house and were shown into Secretary Cortelyou's office, their visit being in accordance with an understanding when they left about 8 o'clock that they should return later in the evening. The first sign of a break up of the conference was at 12:55, when Secretary Cortelyou came from the conference room and announced to the waiting newspaper men that an official statement on the strike situation would be made public in about half an hour. Shortly after 1 o'clock Secretary Root came out laughing and happy, and spread the glad tidings that a common ground of agreement between the operators and miners had been reached and that the strike was practically ended.

It was learned a few moments later that the chief feature of the agreement was the addition of a sixth member to the arbitration committee, the surmise following as a matter of course that the additional member would be more particularly a representative of labor. It was said at the same time that now an agreement had been arrived at as to the means of determining the differences that the President would insist on an immediate resumption of work at the mines and that he had reason to expect his advice would be followed very promptly. Messrs. Bacon and Perkins, partners in Mr. J. P. Morgan's banking firm, were present at the final conference as the representatives of the operators. When the gathering broke up all present were in high good humor and there was a general exchange of congratulations.

THE COMMISSION WHICH WILL HEAR THE CLAIMS OF BOTH SIDES.

WASHINGTON, October 16.—The following official statement announcing the close of the strike was issued at the white house at 2:30 a. m.: After a conference with Mr. Mitchell and some further conference with representatives of the coal operators, the President has appointed the members of the commission to inquire into, consider and pass upon all questions at issue between the operators and the miners in the anthracite coal fields.

LEMONS.

Linn Bortoff and family, of Julian, Sunday in our burg.

The farmers are about all through cutting corn and a few are husking.

Alfred Rishel and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Friday at the home of Mrs. John Lucas.

Miss Edna Clark stayed a few days in town the latter part of the week.

It is reported that Miss Roxie Lucas is suffering with scarlet rash, but is not very ill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Mitchell has called a meeting of the executive committee and the strike will be called off at once and mining resumed in two or three days. Some of the members of the commission were named by Messrs. Sargent and Mitchell at their conference with the President to-day, and in later meetings tonight Mr. Sargent officially represented the miners' leader.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Bullets in posted here this afternoon announce that the strikers will return to work about Monday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Mitchell, in a statement issued this morning, gives approval to the Roosevelt commission and announces his intention of recommending to the district officers a call for a convention to take the necessary action regarding the resuming of work.

A Cheering Bulletin. WILKESBARRE, Oct. 16.—Bullets in posted here this afternoon announce that the strikers will return to work about Monday.

The people are beginning to feel the effects of the strike now as coal can hardly be procured and not at all excepting a little at Oak Hall and a little at Lemont and then the price is very high. We are not entirely at the mercy of the strike thus far, for the supply of wood is not as yet exhausted, although the price of that is steadily advancing for what could be purchased at 50c and $1.00 per load before the strike was advanced to $1.25 and $1.50. It is hoped that peaceful terms will soon be agreed upon, so that business can move forward again.

The latest in Howard is house cleaning. We are glad to say that Mrs. Will Weber is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. DeHass spent last week in Pittsburg.

Charles Struk in sick at his home on Grand street.

Chester A. Moore, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents in this city.

Bower Holter spent Thursday at the Epworth League convention at Snow Shoe.

The little town of Howard is well supplied with livery stables. It has three now.

Roy Leathers has been very sick the past week, but at this writing he is improving.

Will Mayes has been improving our town by building a fine stone walk.

At this writing Miss Alice Riddle is some better, her sister Evelyn is not improving.

Rob Gross moved on Monday from the Ben Holter property into John Thompson's house.

There is no need of anyone to lie idle at Howard, for wood choppers are in great demand.

The new home of Mr. Abe Weber is being completed and they expect to move into it about Christmas.

Pine Grove Mention.

Will Rishel and wife, of Oak Hall, spent Sunday at John Miller's.

Dr. Harter, of State College, transacted business in this place on Wednesday.

Frank Martin and wife, of Fowler, visited friends in this section last week.

Orie Krebs, of the Mountain city, is here trying his new Marlin on small game.

J. B. Heberling has been confined to the house for some days, threatened with fever.

Our young push ahead farmer, Milo Campbell, is laid up with eighteen of Job's comforts.

Wm. A. Tanyer, one of our old Democratic war horses, is home after a visit in Johnstown.

Squire John M. Keichline spent several days here this week looking over his landed possessions.

Squire Michael Hess, of Bellefonte, spent part of last week stirring apple butter at his old home.

Conrad Harry Yarnell has struck it nice for a long cold winter. He is anchored at Mrs. Fishburne's, near Bellefonte.

Miss Inez Krebs is in Northumberland for an extended visit at the home of her brother, Dr. J. C. Krebs.

Mrs. Alice Buckwalter, of Lancaster, with her little girl baby are here visiting her parents and other relatives.

On account of Rev. Hepler's absence at Presbytery this week there will be no services in the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Miss Rosa Williams, one of Tyrone's pleasant young ladies, is visiting Fairbrook friends. The Misses Campbell are entertaining her.

If we are to judge from the amount of firing done on old Tussey mountain on the first day of the season game must be plenty or very hard to hit.

Joseph A. Hess returned home last week from Philadelphia, where he endured a successful operation for appendicitis. He is quite well, but very weak.

Rev. S. C. Stonespyer moved into the lately improved parsonage at Boalsburg on Monday and is now ready to receive callers, especially those bent on matrimony.

The hustling grain and coal dealer of Lemont spent most of last week here shipping apples. Thus far fourteen car loads have been shipped out of the valley.

Mrs. Albert J. Musser, of Clearfield, is visiting at the home of her father-in-law, John Musser, on Main street. From here she will go to visit relatives at Spring Mills.

Amos Koch transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday. He is more firmly convinced than ever dos meragates he gavit don grafra mer uf der drain udder lauffa hame.

George Reed has quit farming his father's farm and moved to Bellefonte to work at the lime kilns. Samuel Reed and his bride have moved onto the David Reed farm, just east of town.

Miss Flossie Goss, of Armstrong county, is visiting her many relatives in and about our town. She is a most pleasant and accomplished lady and is stopping with her cousin, Dr. R. M. Krebs.

The same evening the officers of the Boalsburg lodge No. 894 I. O. O. F. were installed by D. D. G. M. Glossner, of Howard. After the installation, refreshments were served and the evening closed with an enjoyable smoker.

Prof. Morris, of the Pine Grove High school, accompanied Rev. C. T. Aikens to Getatsburg on Sunday to enjoy the drive and get better acquainted with the people here, among whom he is going to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitesides, of New Jersey and their two interesting children are spending a week at D. G. Meek's hospitable home. Mrs. Whitesides is a daughter of the late Theophilus Weaver, who was the principal of the Pine Grove academy years ago.

On last Saturday evening the following officers of the Penns valley lodge 267 I. O. O. F. were installed by P. G. A. G. Archey: N. G., F. W. Graham; V. G., J. Will Kepler; Sec., M. E. Heberling; Treas., S. G. Heberling; Representative to G. lodge, W. H. Goss; alternate, A. J. Tate.

Mrs. S. E. Young, of Bellefonte, is visiting her aged mother, Mrs. M. A. Fry, who is suffering with a broken nose, caused by a fall. She was carrying a bucket of water when she fell and struck her nose on the edge of the bucket, but fortunately she is recovering as nicely as possible.

We are sorry to note the illness of Walter Weaver, who is in the Altoona hospital suffering with typhoid fever. He visited his family here last week and on his return to work made several trips over the mountain in the capacity of fireman before he was taken sick.

Among the throng at the national encampment of the G. A. R. in Washington, last week, we noticed from this section were Col. W. C. Patterson, Major Cal. Sowers, Dr. Christ, Ira Lyle, Wm. Tate, Hiram Thompson, C. B. Hess, J. W. Sunday, G. B. Campbell, Geo. Jackson and Samuel Moore.

Our young friend John Sausser met with quite an accident last Saturday and that it was not more serious was purely luck. He was running the thrasher at Mr. Tate's farm when by some manner the outside of the engine got on fire. Sausser ran quickly to the yard for water to extinguish the flames and in his haste was caught in the mouth by a wire clothes line which he had not noticed. Several teeth were knocked out and his mouth so badly cut on both sides that it required several stitches by a physician to reduce it to its normal size.

Hess-Hines.—A quiet home wedding was celebrated at the Susan Campbell homestead, which is now occupied by Cland B. Hess, on Wednesday evening, when the second daughter of the family was united in marriage to John Hines. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock by the Rev. Edgar Heckman, of State College. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums and a fine supper was served after the ceremony. The bride is a splendid young woman and will be greatly missed in social circles. We have not had the pleasure of meeting the groom, but have so much confidence in the bride's good judgment that we know that he is worthy of our best wishes and congratulations.

AN OCTOBER WEDDING.—A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents in Harris Twp. on Tuesday, when Miss Nancy Bailey was united in marriage to Daniel Keller Mothersbaugh. Thirty guests were present at the ceremony which took place at noon. The officiating minister was Rev. E. D. Hepler, of the Lemont Presbyterian church. After the congratulations and inspection of the many beautiful presents a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, which consisted of all that the market afforded. Mr. and Mrs. Mothersbaugh left on the afternoon train for a visit in Pittsburg. The bride is the youngest daughter of Samuel H. Bailey, and is a most worthy young woman. The groom is the oldest son of L. Mothersbaugh and is one of Harris township's successful school teachers. He is an industrious, diligent young man and the happy couple start out with every prospect of a successful life.

A Race Meet at Huntingdon. The Fair Association have decided to give two days of racing, October 22nd and 23rd. The clean fair which the association gave in September is a guarantee of clean races in October. The purses offered are large enough to insure the attendance of good horses, and the public will doubtless show its appreciation of the management's successful effort to give the best fair ever given in Huntingdon county by a liberal patronage of its efforts to give the best race. The fair caused a great loss to the association, owing entirely to weather conditions, but they have made no complaint and are endeavoring to make up for the disappointment of the public by the attractive card at the races.

THE LESSON. M. V. THOMAS. Stern, and sad, and silent, He stood with uncovered head, And gazed into theasket, On the still, cold face of the dead.

His thoughts were dark and bitter As he looked on that marble bier— So late filled with life's passions— So calm and peaceful now.

He pondered the ways of Fate This severing the life of his friend— A life so full of promise To have this untimely end:

No more with potent hand Earth's triumphs he would reap. He rested from his labors, Wrapped in the last long sleep.

Why had his life been spared? Why must he the vigil keep? Who quaffed from the cup of life A draught, so bitter, long and deep?

As he turned from the bier His soul held a smothered cry. To be free from life's burden, Why could not the sorrowing die?

In anguish of spirit He sat with head bowed low. His little son came to him Saying, "Papa I love you so."

Drawing to him fondly His motherless little one; With glad heart he thanked his God For the priceless gift of his son.

It was then he realized That his life was incomplete, The he must raise this little child A gift, for the Master, mete.
