HARRISBURG, Oct. 27 .- My intention is to vote for Robert E. Pattison for Governor of Pennsylvania, not because I am a Democrat, but because I am a Republican who, in the present condition of Pennsylvania politics, believes that he can better serve the party of his life-long association, the party of his love and devotion, by voting this year for Pattison and Guthrie, rather than by voting for Judge Pennypacker and ex-Senator Brown.

This statement was made by the Rev. Dr cent. of their normal output. George Edward Reed, president of Dickinson college, Carlisle, today, in explaining which he was appointed by Governor Stone nearly four years ago.

ABHORRENT CONVENTION METHODS.

Dr. Reed also said that while his retirement from the State Library has long been in contemplation because of the great pressure of other duties, official and personal, the immediate step had been taken because of his conviction that as a Republican he could not conscientiously support the candidacy of men, however worthy personally, whose nominations were secured by means abhorrent, in his estimation, to the principles of genuine Republicanism. He con-

"The time has come when political power "The time has come when political power in Pennsylvania should be returned to the hands of the people. In a Republican Commonwealth the will of the people must be regarded. "Government of the people, by the people and for the people" should again become the aim and purpose of all political or contentiates.

Only by doing what one can to defeat at Only by doing what one can to deteat at the polls the tyrannous oligarchy at present dominant in the leadership of the Republi-can party can Pennsylvania hope to remove the "ills" under which she undoubtedly suffers from, high authorities to the contrary notwithstanding. Party regularity is right and of value only when party leadership is regular and right.

ANGERED BY TURNDOWN OF ELKIN. No party leaders are justified in claiming fealty when the men placed in nomination do not represent the desires of the majority do not represent the desires of the majority of the members of the party. In my humble judgment at the Republican state convention held in Harrishurg last June the nomination of John P. Elkin would have represented the majority sentiment of the adherents of the party throughout the State.

That the gentleman was pleased to say in the convention, after he had seen the prize of his ambition rudely snatched from his hands. "I propose to support the nominee of this convention," as, indeed, he is doing, cannot change the fact that at the dictation of a few leaders, practically at the dictation of one, the will of the majority of the Republicans of Pennsylvania was thwarted and trampled in the dust.

For myself, I desire to say that no lash of party regularity shall compel me, in this contest, or in any other, to support candidates in the determination of whose nominations I, as a citizen, can have no part, and this for the reason that subserviency to po-litical bossism has come to be the recognized sign of party regularity.

As a Republican, while proposing to support Pattison and Guthrie, I shall still vote and labor for the nominees of the party to which I belong for Congressional and

MAY SPEAK IN ACADEMY.

Dr. Reed has been invited by Democratic State Chairman Creasy to take the stump for Pattison, and if he should accept he will be billed to speak at Philadelphia on Friday night and Pittsburg on Saturday night. He was at the State Library today getting his affairs in shape, but did not see Stone nor any of the other high machine State officials.

Dr. Reed to-day appointed Professor A. Coleman Sheets, formerly of the Harrisburg High school faculty, as the successor to Norman D. Gray, who has been appointed to take the place of first assistant librarian, made vacant by the resignation of Howard

B. Haitswick, of Clearfield.
William K. A. Swartz, of Duncannon, has resigned to accept a position in New York city, and Dr. Reed has promoted Joseph Revie, formerly watchman, to take his place as messenger and clerk. Colonel Theodore Burchfield, of Altoona, has been appointed watchman and assumed the duties of his position today.

A SCORE APPLY FOR THE JOB. Governor Stone is expected to appoint Reed's successor before election, although he professes to have no one in sight for the

As soon as ex-Auditor General McCaulev, of West Chester, learned of the vacancy he took the first train for Harrisburg to ask for the appointment of his nephew, First Assistant Librarian Norman D. Gray. Stone gave McCauley no satisfaction, and the chances are Gray will not get the place. The Governor is expected to give it to a personal friend who is not actively identified with the Quay machine.

There are already a score of applicants, and the Governor is anxious to make the appointment as soon as possible.

Raise Gives Large Profits to Operators.

WILKESBARRE, October 27 .- The increase of 50 cents a ton in the price of coal to-day brings home to residents of the anthracite region the fact that they, after suffering so long under the burden of the strike, will now have to aid in defraying the cost of it. Even the mine workers must pay the additional cost without getting any orease in the rate of wages.

This fact, local leaders believe, will be excellent ammunition for President Mitchell when he presents the miners' side to the Commission

The rate now paid here for the ordinary domestic sizes is $9 a ton. There are sold on the general market each week about 1,000,000 tons, so that 50 cents a ton increase means an added profit to the operators of $500 000 a week, $2 000,000 a month, a large enough amount to give the mine workers a large increase in salary. INCREASE OF COAL MINED.

More coal was mined and more men were employed in mining it to-day than any day since the mines in the anthracite region resumed work. The only districts that lag behind in the output are Lehigh and Maha-nov. The individual operators and their employes in those districts are still at log-

In the Wyoming and Lackawanna regions all the collieries are in operation with the exception of a few which are still under water. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, the Delaware and Hudson, the Lehigh Valley, the Temple Coal and Iron Company, the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre, the Erie and Ontario and Western all had large outputs to-day, and heavy trains of coal were moved rapidly to seaboard points.

ONLY THIRTEEN NOW IDLE.

Of the 108 collieries operated by the five in companies having headquarters at the collieries operated by the five of the borough of Bellefonte, deceased. big companies having headquarters at Scrauton only 13 are still idle. The Erie 47-44-3t

7 working and 1 idle.

Even the Butler colliery of the Erie company, which was allowed to flood, is being worked in the levels not reached by the water. The individual operators are rapidly getting into line, and before many more days all of them, except a very few will be in operation.

EIGHTY PER CENT. AT WORK

About 80 per cent, of the old employes of the collieries in the Lackawanna region are back at work. By Wednesday the companies expect to be getting out 70 per

In order to accommodate the rush nearly all trains Eastward bound are compelled to carry extra coaches.

> Young to be Chief. A Corbin Scheme. Adjutant General Purposely Announces Senior Major General as Miles' Successor. Aid to the Staff Bill.

> WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 .- Adjutant General Corbin announced today that Major General Young will succeed General Miles as the commanding general of the army when the latter retires next August.

General young is the senior major general of the line, and the statement made by Corbin today was apparently for the purpose of setting at rest any misappre-hension which might have been occasioned by the fact that in the latest army list be has his own name placed at the head of the major general's column as the senior officer of that rank.

General Corbin ostensibly wished it understood that he has no aspirations above his present position, and that General Young has not been removed from his place as the rightful successor, under the present system, to General Miles.

MASK FOR GENERAL STAFF BILL. But the announcement is intended to serve a very different purpose. The effort is to be renewed by the Secretary of War and his advisers in the War Department, of whom Corbin is the chief, to secure the passing of the general staff bill at the next session of Congress. The staff bill places command of the army in the staff, and empowers the Secretary of War to select as chief of staff any officer he may desire. It was an open secret in the last session of Congress that if the staff bill passed Corbin would be chief, and the friends of Miles opposed it because they did not like the scheming and ambitious adjutant general. To offset this opposition, a clause was inserted in the bill providing that it should not interfere with the authority of General

CORBIN STILL HAS HOPE.

The present announcement is also intended to divert attention from Corbin and to improve the chances of the staff measure. But the bill contains no provisions that Miles' successor shall not be affected by its enactment and it is safe to assume although the War Department is ready now to anneunce that Young will be in command after next August, that in reality neither Secretary Root nor Adjutant General Corbin wishes to see him in the position. Instead, it is their hope the staff bill will pass, and in that case General Young probably will not be selected as the chief.
