THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—The "Fast Mail" comes to Garman's on Monday night, Nov. 17th.

—A baby boy came to the home of Jacob Jury, on Thomas street, on Monday evening.

—Burgess Edmund Blanchard is confined to his home on Linn street with a very painful abscess on the nose.

—A fair and festival will be given by the Aid society of the Presbyterian church in the chapel on December 11th and 12th.

—Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, president of the Pennsylvania State College, expects to start on a cruise through the Mediterranean next Saturday.

—This evening the boys of Co. B, 5th Reg. N. G. P. will banquet their captain, Hugh S. Taylor, in honor of his recent election to shrievalty distinction.

—Last Saturday State College defeated Gettysburg at foot ball by the score of 37 to 0. Tomorrow State will play the Pittsburg professionals at Pittsburg.

—Mrs. Farris is arranging to give the opera "Nell Gwynn" on New Years night. The principal characters in the cast are members of her music class.

—The "Fast Mail," which will be seen at Garman's on Monday night, Nov. 17th, is one of Carter's plays and anybody familiar with the stage at all, knows what they are.

—Phillipsburg is hopeful of securing another fire brick works. $27,500 is in sight for the enterprise and the Journal of that place thinks that all that is necessary now is a little push.

—The second term of the Bellefonte Academy will open on Monday the 17th. Never in the history of the school has it been as prosperous as it is now, or as well equipped for good work.

—Rev. F. W. Brown delivered his farewell sermon to his Reformed congregation in Millheim on Sunday evening. Monday morning he left for his new home in Manordale, Westmoreland county.

—The Academy-State College town foot ball game on Saturday resulted in a victory for the Academy; the score being 2 to 0. The Academy boys seem to be playing a game that none of the teams of their class can stop.

—This evening the bazaar of the ladies of the Lutheran church will be continued in Petriken hall. Oysters will be served for supper and special attention is directed to the display of fancy-work and the home made candies.

—Linn McGinley, who was with a crowd of local hunters to the head of Eddy Lick run last week, had the happy distinction of being the only man of the party to bring down a deer. He shot a fine four-prong buck.

—Harry McKee, eldest son of H. A. McKee formerly of this place but now of Wilkingsburg, is just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. He was so bad that several times during his illness it was thought that he could not recover.

—The dates for the inter-class debates at State have been announced for the evenings of Dec. 4th and 12th. The question is: "Resolved that a nation advanced in civilization is justified, in the interest of humanity at large, in subjugating and governing inferior peoples."

—Mrs. Mary Fox tripped on a piece of carpet at the head of the cellar stairs at her home on Bishop street, on Saturday evening, and fell, head long, to the bottom. She was unconscious for two hours, but as no bones were broken it is hoped her recovery from the shock will be speedy.

—Miss Nellie Gummo, of Buffalo Run, and Frank Thomas, of Roopsburg, were married last week at St. Mary's Episcopal rectory in Buffalo, N. Y. The bride is so young that her parents were not in favor of the marriage at all so the youthful couple took time by the forelock and had the knot tightly tied before they took anyone into their confidence.

—A gun that was not supposed to be loaded was the cause of crippling John Coble, of Lemont, a few days ago. He had been out rabbit hunting and on his return home set the gun down in the corner of the room. His younger brother picked it up and, pointing it at his foot, shot, not knowing it was loaded. John got the contents of the gun and will be lame for some time as a result of the accident.

—Frank Warfield purchased the Robert Valentine property on the north east corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets on last Thursday at the adjourned trustees sale. The price paid was $4,800 although only a few years ago the property was assessed at $27,000 and is one of the most desirable ones in the town. The house needs some very necessary repairs and just as soon as they can be made Mr. and Mrs. Warfield will make it their home.

—O. T. Switzer arrived in Phillipsburg on Saturday from Atlin, British Columbia, where his gold field is located. The British American Dredging company, the corporation organized by Mr. Switzer and W. J. Robinson last summer to develop the property, is having great success and far smoother sailing than its most sanguine promoters expected. Switzer and Robinson have been at Atlin for the past three months engineering the project and are going back in the spring.

PERSONS WHO HAVE JOINED THE MAJORITY.—Samuel Graizer, one of the oldest residents of Warriors-mark valley, died at his home in that place on Saturday afternoon, aged only nine days less than eighty years. He had been ill for two weeks with blood poisoning which resulted from necrosis of the bone in the third toe of his right foot. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and is survived by his wife and two daughters.

MRS. CATHARINE MAUREE.—Mrs. Catharine Maurer, widow of the late Nathan Maurer, died at her home in Mackeyville, on Monday morning from infirmities of old age. She was in her 81st year and was next to the last of a family of fourteen. An exemplary and beloved woman she is sincerely mourned by many friends and relatives. Surviving her are three daughters, Alma and Annie, at home, and Mrs. Laura Gardner, of Pittsburg; an only brother, Henry L. Harvey resides in Altoona. She was an aunt of Mrs. W. W. Montgomery, Mrs. Edward Garman and J. H. Lingle, of this place. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning and interment was made in the cemetery above Salona. Revs. A. R. Miller and Frick officiated. The casket was borne to the grave by six nephews of the deceased, as follows: O. A. Harvey, of Flemington; I. M. Harvey, of Lock Haven; Irvin Harvey, of State College; Frank Harvey, of Olean; Wickliffe Lingle, of Phillipsburg; and Howard Lingle, of Bellefonte.

WIFE FINDS HER HUSBAND A SUICIDE.—Thomas R. Mann, a prominent citizen of Lock Haven, committed suicide at his home in that place on last Thursday afternoon. His wife discovered him lying face down on his bed and immediately summoned help. A gaping wound in the left side of his head, told the awful story and in his hand was grasped a revolver which, after committing the terrible deed, he had partly thrust under the blankets. The coroner's inquest, which was afterwards held, resulted in a verdict of suicide while temporarily insane from the use of drugs. He had suffered severely from neuralgia in the head for some time past, and during these periods became addicted to the use of drugs to ease the pain. He was formerly interested in the Mann axe works at Mill Hall but more recently was treasurer of the Lock Haven Trust Co. and promoter of western gold mines. It is known that he lost considerable money in business enterprise in Boulder, Colorado, from which he returned last spring and that is supposed to have been the cause of his temporary insanity. He is survived by his wife and one daughter Jean.

MISS LUCY BARNHART.—Miss Lucy Barnhart, daughter of the late Philip Barnhart, and sister of James K. Barnhart, of this place, died at the old family home at Curtin's-works yesterday morning early. Miss Barnhart had been in very poor health since last March and her death was caused by dropsy of the heart. She was about sixty two years of age and was a most excellent woman. For fifty years she had been a useful and honored member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her death will be sincerely mourned by many relatives and acquaintances. Since the death of her parents she and her younger sister, Miss Amanda, have kept up the hospitality of the old home and they have been most helpful and kind in their benefactions. She is survived by three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Alice Herd, of Flemington, Miss Amanda, at home, Harry, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. J. C. Weaver and James K., of this place. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. George F. Boggs officiating. Interment will be made at Curtin's.

A SUDDEN DEATH.—Samuel W. Cowber, of Worth township, died at 11 o'clock on Monday morning, Nov. 10th, at the home of Robert Thompson, where he had gone to assist in butchering a couple of hogs. He suddenly was stricken with a severe pain in his head. Then he suffered intensely with pains between his shoulders and about his heart and died in less than an hour and a half from the time he was first stricken. He is survived by a widow, two small children, three sisters and two brothers. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of his sister Mrs. Nancy J. Gates.

Mrs. Mary Flick, wife of James Flick, of Union township, died at her home near the Plum Grove school house last week of typhoid fever. She was seventy years of age and a most estimable and neighborly woman. Her entire family were stricken with the disease and during their first illness there was no one to do for them except their neighbors. Several members of the family of her son, George are suffering with the same disease.

John Weaver, who died in Lock Haven on Sunday evening, was born in this county February 15th, 1825. For twenty-one years he taught school, afterwards following the trade of a mill-wright until failing health enforced his retirement. Deceased was the father of Mrs. Fannie Straw, of Julian. He was buried at Salona on Tuesday afternoon.

J. J. Walls, a prominent merchant of Lewisburg, fell dead in his room at the Cameron House at 6:30 Monday morning. Heart trouble superinduced by dropsy is given as the cause of death. He was 53 years old and unmarried and quite well known in Bellefonte. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the residence of Judge Bucher.

LITTLE GIRL BURNED TO DEATH.—A fatal accident occurred at Scotia, on Tuesday morning, in which little Annie Sowers, the 3 year old daughter of Jared and Mary Sowers lost her life. The child had been left alone in the house and shortly after her mother's departure she ran out into the yard with her clothing a mass of flames. Her screams attracted Henry Houtz, who ran to her rescue and succeeded in tearing the burning clothing from her body, but she had been so terribly burned that she died the same evening. Interment was made at Gray's yesterday afternoon.

While trying to save the little one Mr. Houtz had his hands badly burned.

Mr. and Mrs. James McNichols, of Spring street, were sadly bereaved by the death of their seven weeks old daughter on Sunday evening. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church on Tuesday morning and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Williamport received forty cars of hard coal on Monday.

Frank McCoy, of Potter's Mills, claims the glory of having killed three deer thus far this season.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hazel, on Bishop street, Wednesday night, and grand father Wagner is nearly as proud as the parents are.

While visiting her sister, Mrs. D. K. Heckman, at Loganton, on Tuesday, Mrs. Samuel Miller, of Lewisburg, was suddenly stricken with heart disease and died within a few hours. She was 66 years old and has six sons living.

The farmers and others interested, in the vicinity of Millheim, are invited to meet in the town hall in that place this evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the farmers institute to be held there in January.

There will be an excellent opportunity to buy some good stock, shoats, implements and many things handy on a farm at the sale which Col. Jas. F. Weaver will make at his home, below Milesburg, Dec. 2nd. Col. Weaver intends to stop farming and will sell everything he has in the way of equipment.

The Penn Bridge Co. of Pittsburg, was awarded the contract for the new 60 ft iron bridge over Penn creek, 2 miles east of Coburn. It will be 14 ft wide, low truss bridge. The successful bidders will put the superstructure in place for $1030. There were five bidders.

Invitations for the marriage of Miss Mabel Bessie Yearick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yearick, and Robert H. Bennison have been sent out. The marriage is to take place at the home of the bride's parents in Walker on Thursday, Nov. 20th, at noon. The groom is a son of Captain S. H. Bennison, of Abdera.

William Mills, of Sandy Ridge, had his right foot amputated in the Cottage hospital, in Phillipsburg, on Saturday, as a result of having had it crushed by the cars. Mistaking Retort for his destination he undertook to jump from the train while it was in motion and was thrown under the wheels.

Rev. Charles Inglis, of London, Eng., will hold evangelistic meetings in Petriken Hall—beginning Sunday, Nov. 16th, at 8 p. m. Bible reading at 3:30 and daily at same hour. Mr. Inglis is a well known evangelist and was a co-laborer for thirty years, in this and other lands, with D. L. Moody, whose son writes in high terms of him. Come out to these meetings and here the message. There will be a large choir and good singing.

Arrangements are being made for a big sporting event at the fair grounds on Thanksgiving afternoon. It will include several very entertaining events, among which will be racing and clay pigeon shooting. All of the fast local horses will start in the races. W. V. Larimer, Walter Whipple, L. C. Bullock, M. B. Garman and other owners have signified a willingness to enter and Mr. Trafford has agreed to arrange a blue rock shoot. If it is a fair day a nice crowd will be present and a neat sum realized for the hospital, which is to receive all of the receipts.

The Missouri Girl, which will be presented at Garman's Thursday, Nov. 20th, is a sensational comedy-drama with a plot, well carried out if in the hands of a competent cast, and there is plenty of comedy running through the story in which the members of the company have an opportunity to display their talents. The scenic effects and climaxes will be carefully looked after each act requiring a setting of special scenery. The strength of the play, or more properly speaking, the secret of its great popularity is ascribed to the vigorous and unconventional manner in which the author has handled his material.

It always gives us a feeling of pleasure when we hear that Henry Linn has gone to New York in the interest of the china hall, as we know that it means more beautiful porcelain for us to, at least, look at even though we may not always purchase as we would like to. Ceramics is becoming a study and interest and knowledge of it is more obligatory now than ever, so that it is a privilege to have such a store as china hall where new wares are constantly being displayed. For years Mr. Wilkinson made it one of the best and most attractive china stores in this section of the State and now, under Henry Linn's management, it is sure to have a reputation more than local.

ANOTHER BIG LIME OPERATION.—For some time there have been rumors of a big lime and stone industry being opened in this vicinity, independent of the trust, but not until Wednesday did it assume definite proportions. On that day a deed was entered for record in the Recorder's office by which George G. Hastings transferred 63.83 acres of his farm to W. H. Walker, of Philadelphia, the consideration being $8,000.

Mr. Walker had left for the city before he could be seen, but from other sources it was learned that he intends opening quarries on the property at once. In fact the work of grading a siding from the Bellefonte Central track was begun last week and is about completed. The property is along the Buffalo-run, immediately west of the Keystone operations of the American Lime & Stone Co. and has an opening into the same vein of stone that has made the Bellefonte lime celebrated all over the country.

Ten stone kilns will be erected at once, a crusher for stone and a mill to grind lime. While the operating plans are not at all complete probably one hundred men will be employed. Mr. Walker's offices will be located in this place and he will spend as much of his time as possible here, though not to the detriment of his commission business in Philadelphia. He is a brother of John S. Walker, of McAlmont & Co., and has spent several summers recreating about Bellefonte.

VILLAGE IMPROVEMENTS.—Bellefonte has long prided itself on the appearance it presents to strangers, but it will not do to take too much pride in what once existed and make no effort to insure its continuance. Our people have been fortunate in possessing shelds sufficient to enable them to expend them in ways not heretofore possible to the majority of country towns but a time has come when we can easily be out-clasped by more prosperous neighbors where business booms constantly and where the people are alert to progress in village improvements. We must not rest too much on past laurels, for our village presents far from the spick and span appearance to be desired. Leaving out of the question our spoliation of natural beauties—a thing greatly to our discredit—there is yet much that could be done by every individual and property holder. The streets are dirty and the sidewalks very dilapidated and even dangerous in many places. It does not require wealth to keep a sidewalk in repair and clean and it would add greatly to the attractiveness of our town. This is but preliminary to stating that new flag stone pavements have been laid in front of the residences of Mrs. John Wagner and Mrs. James Mitchell on Spring street and their example is one that we wish would be emulated in many parts of town. If women owned more property and had more influence in municipal affairs our town would be a model.

We are glad to know that good things are coming to our friends, even though our roosters couldn't crow last week. Years ago "Jack" McLellan was one of our most popular and best known business men when he came here from Chambersburg in conjunction with Wm. T. Speer to run the car shops, which proved one of those unfortunate business fiascos for which our town seems to be responsible, as both the men have gone on to success—Mr. Speer to become one of our most valuable citizens, Mr. McLellan leaving us, much to our regret, to find recognition with the growth of that great corporation, the Pennsylvania railroad. He was in Altoona for some time, then promoted to Allegheny and has now been made superintendent of all the shops, roundhouses and yards of the P. R. R. in Philadelphia. We claim more than a business interest in Mr. McLellan as he married, while here, Miss Emma Wagner, sister of Mrs. J. L. Spangler.

It is not always that one sees the fruits of untiring labor multiplied more than a score of times, as has happened in the case of Dr. Geo. W. Atherton, of State College, for an old student who was at the college when Dr. Atherton came there (told us there were then just twenty-five students there. Now there are over six hundred. It could scarcely have been otherwise though, for Dr. Atherton has put in to it unstinted physical and mental vigor, leaving no avenue—political, financial, intellectual—untried which could contribute anything of success to our State College. In this age of statistical expression it may more adequately convey his success to say the number of students has multiplied a score of times but statistics would not be necessary to one familiar with the steady growth of the college in buildings, apparatus, instructors and reputation. Dr. Atherton is soon to take a much earned rest, as he has been granted leave of absence to cruise through the Mediterranean and revisit a number of interesting Old World places.

At the Rush house on Saturday evening at nine o'clock the young men of the "Brotherhood of St. Andrew" are going to give a supper for the men of St. John's Episcopal church. Mr. John W. Wood, of New York city, who is the corresponding secretary of the board of missions of the Episcopal church is to be present and it is in his honor that the supper is given. On Sunday evening he will officiate at a special service of the "Brotherhood," at which four or five men will be admitted to full membership, and address the congregation on "missions." The committee who have charge of the supper are John M. Bullock, Maurice A. Jackson, Edward M. Fleming and Col. W. F. Reynolds.

Carter's "Fast Mail" will be the attraction at Garman's next Monday night.

News Purely Personal.

Mrs. Julia Walsh is visiting relations in Jersey Shore.

Miss Sarah Mallin is visiting friends in Williamsport.

J. P. Sebring, of Loveville, was in town on business on Friday.

John Miller, of DuBois, spent last week with friends at his former home in Centre Hall.

Sheriff Brungart, with his daughters Misses Sara and Cora, spent Saturday in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Mary Laurie Gray went to Philadelphia, Monday morning, for an extended visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mallory are home from a week's stay with Mrs. Mallory's parents in Philadelphia.

John Kniesly attended a meeting of the glass workers at Columbus, Ohio, during the fore part of the week.

Col. and Mrs. Jas. P. Coburn are entertaining Mrs. F. D. Sower, of Norristown, at their home on North Allegheny street.

Gen. and Mrs. Jas. A. Beaver are in Philadelphia for a stay of several weeks; the Superior court being in session in that city.

George Bayard, formerly connected with Parrish's drug store in this place, has resigned his position at North Bend and gone to Arcadia, Pa.

Miss Mary Ceadar is in Philadelphia for a two weeks visit. She went Thursday and before coming home will spend several days in New York.

Mrs. Chaucer F. York, with Mr. York's aged mother, came down from Warriors-mark, on Saturday, and spent Sunday with Mrs. York's parents in this place.

Miss Blanche Cook went to Philadelphia the latter part of last week for a three weeks visit with her sister, Miss Margaret Cook, who is a student at the University.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hiller, who have been enjoying a part of their honeymoon at the home of Mrs. M. H. Wilson on High street, left for Philadelphia on Tuesday morning.

J. Fearon Mann, superintendent of factory, No. 2 of the A. and T. Axe Co. of Lewisport, arrived in town Friday night on his way to Mill Hall to attend the funeral of Thomas R. Mann.

The Hon. J. William Kepler, of Pine Grove, was in town for the first time since election on Wednesday. He bore his laurels gracefully, but explained that he had been too busy husking corn to get down to town sooner.

Mrs. Philip King, of Philadelphia arrived in town last week on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Margaret Daley. Mrs. Daley is in a very precarious condition and her friends have not much hope of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal, of Denver, Colorado, and who have been spending the summer at their chateau in France, arrived at their country place at Boalsburg on Saturday evening. They are beautifying the old family homestead there and enlarging it for their country home.

Miss Lauretta Brown, who has been a guest at the home of her cousin Mrs. Mary Powers, on Spring street, for the past five months has returned to her home in New York city. Mrs. Powers accompanied her home and will visit her and other relatives in New York until next April.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sheffer and their two children went to Pittsburg on Friday afternoon to take possession of their new home out at East Liberty. Herbert has been with the Federal State Co. ever since he left Bellefonte and finally decided that his family would have to move to Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shields and Miss Nell Potts returned to their home in Williamsport on Monday noon after spending Sunday at the home of Mrs. William Harper on Thomas street. Mrs. Shields has been a guest at the Harper home for several weeks and her husband and Miss Potts came up on Saturday to meet some of her girlhood friends.

Miss Lydia Thomas, daughter of Isaac Thomas, returned to Philadelphia on Tuesday morning to re-enter the hospital. She has not enjoyed good health for several years, and it was thought she was suffering with an incurable disease; but she improved so much last winter under Dr. Weber's care in Philadelphia that she has gone back to continue the treatment.

Dr. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, Sumner Mussler, of Aaronsburg, H. S. Brauchet, of Spring Mills, W. U. Irwin, of Unionville, O. W. McEntire, of Howard, G. W. Woods, of Pine Grove Mills, and S. M. Huff, of Milesburg, were in town Tuesday morning attending the regular monthly meeting of the Center County Medical Society of which Dr. Edith H. Schad is president.

Herbert Robb, who has been so genteel and efficient in the Recorder's office since his brother Nelson retired to assume a managerial position with the United Telephone Co., has joined the force of researchers for the Potter Abstract Co., of Pittsburg, and left for Huntingdon Monday morning to begin the new work. We hope he will be a success, because he is so meritorious.

Robert Laves, of Osceola, was in town on Saturday and while here settled the tax duplicate of Rush township for 1901. Mr. Laves was appointed to the office two years ago, after the regularly elected officer declined to serve, and has been demonstrating that the tax collector in Rush hasn't such a difficult task as he was supposed to have. But then a great deal of his success is due to his pleasant disposition and tact with the people.

Lewis H. McQuistion is down in Sunbury enjoying a few days recreation and a visit at the home of his cousin, Lew needs a vacation and is deserving of more than a few days off, but just let me tell you that, although he kept the carriage shops running full blast and cooked and catered for himself while his father and sister were away, that was not what tired him out. It was the surprise of killing that wild turkey and having to carry it home from above Unionville.

Mrs. William P. Elliott, of Knoxville, Tenn., who has been a guest all summer at the home of her brother, John P. Harris, on Linn street, left Wednesday morning for Washington, D.C. There she will spend a day or two with friends and then go on to Radford, Va., to visit her niece Mrs. Galloway, before returning home. Although not to the manner born Mrs. Elliott is atypical southerner. She is clever, intelligent and jovial and as for politics—she is far more loyal to the Democratic party and better informed on the merits than the majority of its supporters who inherited their party as a birth right.

Mrs. Daniel Delaney, of Lock Haven, visited her aunt, who is ill on south Spring street, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker, of Rebersburg, were in town doing some shopping on Tuesday.

Frank Nagney is in Philadelphia and New York looking over the exhibits of the big furniture makers.

William Grauer, of Altoona, is in town visiting her mother and sisters, Mrs. Newman and her daughters.

Rev. J. Ellis Bell, presiding elder of the Altoona district of the Central Pennsylvania conference, was in town Monday between trains on his way home from holding services at Fairbrook.

Ed. J. Frynsinger, one of the most successful newspaper promoters in the State and who gave up his position on the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Press to go on the road for the Morgenthau Linotype machine, was in town Wednesday visiting Mr. Thos. Faxon, his brother-in-law.

William Ulrich, of Pittsburg, who had been the guest of his sister, Mrs. L. C. Gettig, of Thomas street, for several days, departed on Wednesday. While here Lew had him out gunning several times, but they didn't seem to be very full-handed when they returned.

SWALLOWED A TURKEY CALLER.—Raymond Van Valin, of Unionville, met with an accident extraordinary, so far as mishaps to hunters are concerned, a few days ago. He had gone to the mountains in search of turkeys and was in the act of calling them, with a device he had cut out of tin into the shape of a horse-shoe, when it accidentally slipped down his throat. Lodging in the larynx it almost choked the boy to death and it was with difficulty that he made his way to Dr. W. U. Irvin, who dislodged it.

Mrs. Frank Fry, of Ferguson township, husked 600 bushels of corn in fourteen days. Here is an exhibition of industry that should put any lazy man to shame. She had some pigs that she needed corn for during the winter and asked a farmer near her home, if she could work for him on the shares. Never dreaming that the little creature was so much in earnest he said: "Certainly" and she went to work, with the above result. To accomplish this record she did not neglect her household duties and took care of her two little children, as well.

While hunting pheasants, near Green's Gap, in Sugar valley, Jerry Barber came in contact with a black bear. Not having time to change shells, he waited until brim came quite near, when, taking aim for the head, he discharged the contents of both barrels at once. The shot were only No. 7, but they proved fatal, the bear dying almost instantly.

The Weaver hunting club of Romola, Geo. Weaver as captain and Irvin Wagner 1st lieutenant, on a two days' hunt on Big Run killed the following lot of game: Four deer, one bear, twelve pheasants, five rabbits, one wild cat, two large raccoons and one grey squirrel.

Joseph Ceadar has again taken up his quarters at his old stand on south Allegheny St. Since the fire there the place has been completely remodeled, another story added to its height and the store room and ice cream saloon converted into a very inviting looking place.

Isaac Shawver, proprietor of the Old Fort hotel, was brought in from a hunting camp in the Seven mountains, a few days ago, suffering with pneumonia. His party captured three deer.
