THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-The foot ball team of the Bellefonte High school will play the Lock Haven team on Thanksgiving day.

-J. Linn Harris is seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, on Linn street.

-James N. Leitzell, of Spring Mills, Al. Roberts and Henry Gordon, of this place, have all had their pensions increased from $8 to $12.

-Harry Thomas who was hurt internally at the Tyrone Rolling mill, was brought to Bellefonte Tuesday and taken to the hospital.

-----As there was no Union party 'convention to be raided and broken up in Philadelphia, people here are in anxiety as to the business editor Miller could have had in that city on Saturday last.

----- The usual union Thanksgiving services will be held this year, at 10:30 a.m. Thanksgiving day, in the Lutheran church. The Rev. Ambrose Schmidt, of the Reformed church, will preach the sermon.

-----The Lutherans cleared one hundred and six dollars at their oyster suppers in Petriken building last week and, in addition to that amount, they firmly established their reputation as good cooks and generous providers.

-Dr. Francis J. Pond, who has been connected with the chemical laboratory at the Pennsylvania State Collsge for some years has resigned his position as assistant professor of assaying at that institution to accept a like one at Cornell University.

-A. J. Casanova and his wife, who have been making an extended stay with her relatives in Philipsburg, left for Havana, Cuba on Friday. Mr. Casanova has recently received an appointment on the board of claims in the State department at Havana.

-Communion services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday, the 23rd. The usual quarterly collection will be taken at both the morning and evening services, and anyone desiring the join the church will be given an opportunity for doing so.

While working at a furnace at the Jenkin Iron and Tool works, at Howard, one day last week George McGinley, was struck on the eye by a piece of red-hot iron. He has not been able too see with that eve since and it is feared that the sight has been entirely destroyed.

FIRE AT UNIONVILLE .- On Tuesday night about 11 o'clock fire was discovered in the store room of E. J. Bathurst & Co. at Unionville. The fire was so well started when the alarm was given that both the building and its contents were completely destroyed before the flames were extinguished. The building was a frame structure, lined with Georgia pine, and burned so fiercely that it was only by the heroic work of a bucket brigade that the adjoining residence of Mrs. William Peters was saved from a like fate. The post-office and several of the near by buildings were well scorch-

INEXCUSABLE NEGLECT. - What is everybody's business usually proves to be nobody's, and the result is, that matters grasped the edge of a table cloth, upsetting that are not under our own special care usually go without attention. You will were a mass of flames instantly and before appreciate the truth of this observation if any one could reach him he was so terribly you walk down Water street from High street bridge to the Central railroad station. Here is a street, the property of the town, two squares of which cost the > of the rocks, and fill above water level, simply waiting for next spring's flood to he swept out of existence. Two thousand dollars, properly expended the past summer, when it could have been done, would have erected a retaining and safety wall along its entire length and preserved the street without further expenditure. The town council, that is supposed to have over-sight of this and other public interests, refused or neglected to give it any attention, and next summer in addition to erecting the wall which should have been built in July and August it will have the expense, of making a new street, put upon it. This may be considered of but little importance, but it is sufficient to show the utter indifference or incapacity of our town council, as care takers of the public there. interests. Not an individual connected with that body but would have attended property belonged to himself. Not one of them would have waited a day, after conditions were such that work could have been commenced, to re-build the washed away wall in order to protect the property that, under present conditions, will be creek. Bat Water street belongs to the public, and the public interests seem to have fallen into the hands of men who to manage in a way that is for the interests and welfare of the taxpavers. The bungling and expensive management of the borough water works, is not the ouly evidence of incompetency that the present town council has given our people.

COUNCIL MEETING .- At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the town council Monday night five members were present, Geo. L. Potter, Wm. Derstine, Dr. Kirk, M. Cunningham and Geo. C. Mallory. Mr. Potter presided owing to the absence of the president, Col. W. F. Reynolds.

After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved the Street committee reported cleaning and repairing several streets and alleys. No report was made by the Finance committee owing to the absence of the borough treasurer.

The Water committee reported every thing in good order at the water works. The boilers have been inspected and found in good condition. Both boilers can be operated with safety at a pressure of 1000 pounds to the square inch.

E. R. Chambers Esq., asked and was given permission to tap the sewer pipe in Pittsburg, was brought to the home of his parents front of his residence on east Linn street. A suit in equity has been brought against the borough by Henry Brockerhoff, trustee. Mr. Cunningham moved that solicitor Fortney; be allowed to engage additional council to assist him in the case. The motion was seconded by Mr. Mallory and carried. This is one of the water meter Cases. The following bills were approved and a severe attack of typhoid fever contracted in in this place on Saturday afternoon. His mother, who has been in Pittsburg for several weeks, an

-Whether it is as a promotion or not, but we nope it is, that Dan Nolan, who has been firing for the P. R. R. between Tyrone and Philipsburg, has transferred his field of operations to the Snow Shoe yard.

-Mrs. John Keichline and her daughter Miss Daisy left yesterday noon for Battle Creek, Michigan. Mrs. Keichline is going to the sanitarium there to have an operation performed, and Miss Daisy accompanied her in the capacity of nurse.

-People are constantly coming and going, inent on every known business but the one that will probably count best in the end and it seems worth while to two most admired and thinking men-Rev. George I. Brown and Dr. G. G. Pond of State College, who went to Scranton on Tuesday to attend a function of the Episcopal church of that diocese.

-When we see Mr. S. A. Bell pass this office en route to the station and looking unusually gloomy while Mrs. Bell walks beside with a smiling countenance we know that she is going off to have a good time with one of her congenial friends. This is no unusual procedure for Mrs. Bell, as she is extremely hospitable herself, and has many friends to whom she gives pleasure not only as hostess but guest. While the Western man or woman is a most delightful friend, the term seems a temporary one to them for they forget easily; not so an Easterner-example Mrs. Bell, for her friends are of such long standing that we can safely prognosticate her Meccas. This time it is the home of Mrs. Shearer in Lock Haven.

-I wonder whether being a naval officer would nake us as good to look upon as is George Runkle, third officer in the school ship Saratoga. Pity our father didn't think of making us one. It would be a novel sensation to feel that the world vas looking with admiration upon us and we could wear our chevrons proudly rather than that we were stooped with the displeasure-occasioned by a to-us-innocent personal or editorial! Salt must be truly a good seasoner judging from George's appearance. He, in company with a friend from Philadelphia, is having a short vacation here. We wish he might often bring his invigorating atmosphere among us.

-On Monday Al. Herr, of Beech Creek, took a load of provisions to a hunters camp at a place called "Oak Flat," about fifteen miles distant. Shortly after his arrival, there about 5 o'clock, he became sick with a heart affection and died about 7 o'clock. He was about 35 years old and was unmarried. He was a son of John Herr, of Beech Creek, and his body was brought back to that place for interment. GRANGE MEETING AT MILESBURG .-Today, the Centre county Pomona Grange is holding its fourth quarterly meeting in the hall of Bald Eagle grange at Milesburg. The morning session is to open at 10 a.m. On the program is an address of welcome by a member of the Bald Eagle grange. To it a member of Progress grange will respond. The question then to be discussed is Should the Pomona grange hold a service of special private grange meetings during the winter to assist the local granges."

Col. James F. Weaver of Milesburg is scheduled to open the discussion. The closing feature of the morning meeting is a recitation by Mrs. John Dale, of Logan grange.

The afternoon session will convene at 1.30 o'clock. The most important features of the program are the conferring of degrees, reports of the Fire Insurance company and the various committees. During the afternoon Miss Florence Marshall, of Benner grauge, will give a recitation and the questions to be discussed during the afternoon are, "Should the National and State Agricultural Departments be controlled by farmers?" "Would it pay the farmer better to raise grass and sell hay instead of growing and selling wheat ?" James Gilliland, of Victor grange, will make the initiatory address of the discus-

---- The Evangelical church at Clintondale will be dedicated on Sunday, Nov. 23rd. The church is a one-story brick structure which has cost in the neighborhood of $2,500. It is to replace the one that was destroyed there by fire on the 23rd of April, when the whole town was almost wiped out.

-On Thursday evening Nov. 27th, a measuring party will be given under the auspices of the Y. P. C. U. of the church of the United Brethren in Christ. This is something new in the line of church entertainments and promises to be a novel as well as useful one. Songs, recitations and dialogues will be rendered after which choice refreshments will be served.

-The country home of William T. Senser, a short distance west of Philipsburg, was destroyed by an incendiary fire on Saturday evening, together with all its contents. It is the custom of Mr. and Mrs. Senser to spend Saturday and Sunday in Philipsburg, and they left their home about 6 o'clock in the evening. The fire occurred about 8:30. Neighbors discovered it and saved the live stock and the barn.

-A recital and musical will be given in the Milesburg Baptist church on Friday evening, November the 28th. Miss Elizabeth Faxon, of this place, who is not only an elocutionist of ability but a delightful entertainer as well, is on the program for several recitations. Another special feature of the entertainment will be a solo or two by a vocalist of distinction from Salt Lake City. An admission of ten and fifteen cents will be charged which is to be used for the benefit of the church.

-The engagement has been announced of Miss Katharine A. Conroy, formerly of this place, and Mr. John Magee, of Philadelphia. The wedding is to take place on Wednesday afternoon, November the 26th, at 4 o'clock in Epiphany church at 11th and Jackson streets in Philadelphia. The bride-to-be is a daughter of the late James Conroy, who was president of the Bellefonte Glass company at the time of his death. Mrs. Conroy, who was Miss Mary Jennings, and her family have been making their home in Philadelphia for several years, but they are very favorably remembered here and Miss Katharine has many friends who wish her happiness.

CLEAN UP .- The borough council of

Carlisle has passed an ordinance imposing a fine of fifty cents upon any one spitting on the pavement. Our Bellefonte lawmakers might profit by the example set them by Carlisle authorities, and show that they have at least a desire to see the town as clean as neighboring boroughs. While nature has given us the prettiest town in the country, and provided us; with an abundance of water as well as with natural drainage, we doubt if a more slovenly looking place can be found anywhere outside of the coal and iron towns of the State. With all kinds of truck crowding the sidewalks in places: with the pavements littered with peanut shucks, smeared with tobacco and slippery with the remains of old "sogers;" with over-flowing ash harrels ornamenting the gutters and waste paper, potato-parings and the like decorating the streets. it is not to be wondered at that strangers coming to town express their disappointment at its general appearance, and that those of our citizens who try to keep their places in decent order become disgusted with the general carelessness that is allowed to prevail. It wouldn't cost anyone much trouble to keep a barrel in their back yard and empty the garbage into it. It should not be a difficult task to empty ashes some place or other out of public sight. There wouldn't be much work for those in charge of our streets to burn the waste paper that is floating round in all quarters. It wouldn't cost the council anything to try to enforce an ordinance against blockading the pavements with wares, and rendering them filthy with banana pealings, tobacco quids and the like.

An effort in this line would not cost anybody very much, and the WATCHMAN is certain it would add to the general comfort of all our people, as well as to the cleanliness and good name of the town. Will council at its next meeting consider the propriety of making a move towards keeping the town in better order then it now is?

MARRIED.-At the Presbyterian parsonage in Milesburg at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening by Rev. Walter F. Carson, Hezekiah Walker and Mary Walter both of Boggs township.

MARRIED IN ALTOONA .- Miss Lydia Barnett and William W. Haupt, both of this place, were married in the parlors of the Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal church in Altoona on Tuesday. Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox, pastor of the church, pronounced the ceremony and the young people left that afternoon for their new home in Clearfield. The groom is one of the younger sons of Mrs. Catharine Haupt, of Thomas street, who since the death of his father, Isaac Haupt, has been managing their fruit farm on the mountain above Coleville. He is now interested in cement pavements and is working on several large contracts in Clearfield. He is industrious and worthy and has always been so good to his mother and others of his family that surely success and happiness will be his.

THEY MUST BE EXPECTING A COLD WINTER.-We all know what the familiar phenomenon called "goose flesh" is and we do know that when we are in that condition our temper is not apt to be most amicable. Perhaps it is because that feeling was such a constant one while the supply of coal was uncertain that the epidemic of having steam plants put in private houses has became so general. Dr. R. G. H. Hayes has just added a steam heating apparatus to his house and hospital. Constant temperature is indispensable in a hospital and having the heating plant on his own premises will enable him to so control the heat that there will be no irregularity in temperature.

When eggs are selling for thirty cents a dozen and not even to be had fresh for that in the city, it is not surprising that Chomas A. Shoemaker has included his poultry house in the new steam system which he has just introduced into his house. He, no doubt, has had experience with those blue banded supposed-to-befresh eggs examined by' transmitted light and decided that on Sundays at home, at least, he will have a different experience.

Mr. Frank McCoy is preparing himself for a winter of comfort in that house of his upon the hill, where the winds must have full sweep as Archie Allison has just fitted up his house with a steam plant.

-Mr. Underwood has made an addition to his mechanical profession, for he has most sucessfully established and is operating a steam plant in the office and store rooms of McCalmont & Co. which adds greatly to the comfort of these very attractively equipped rooms. Rash Irvin makes driven through the town, and in some way the window display such a feature of this store that Mr. Underwood finding no chance ave nue for the vent of his ingenuity.

THAT OTHERS MIGHT BE HELPED TOO. -Mrs. B. F, Kesty, of Bloomsburg, was in town on Tuesday visiting her patients. Mrs. Kesty is the woman who has been so eminently successful in curing cancerthat insidious disease which is increasing, so statistics say, with rapid and startling progress. She is not a practicing physician nor does she court publicity any more than her "opposed to advertising" competitors do. But she has effected a cure or more here, so wonderful that we resolved to tell Oue of our most respected and beloved citizens was pronounced incurable by physicians in this State and a widely known specialist at Rome, N. Y. Not at all discouraged by the verdict Mrs. Kesty was summoned through the instigation of a friend and now, eight weeks after her first visit, the patient is rejoicing and sanguine of a permanent cure. In that time three other sufferers were treated too, and they are all apparently well and positive of relief.

Mrs. Kesty's father was a graduate physician and from him she got her methods of treatment and knowledge of remedies. She does not claim intimate knowledge of pathology or Materia medica but she has been curing cancer for twentyfive years and has more than two hundred testimonials from reputable people.

TAKE WARNING CHILDREN !- On Saturday morning a sad accident happened in Mill Hall which ought to serve as a warning to the youngsters in this place who are constantly hanging on to moving vehicles. Charles Packer, the little boy, who was killed, was not hanging on to the wagon at the time the accident occurred, but in scrambling for apples he was pushed under the wheels and crushed to death. He and several companions were running after a wagon loaded with apples, that was being fell under the rear wheels which ran over him and broke his neck. He was eight his wife came with him.

-W. Hastings Lyman, the boss farmer and most active Democrat of Boggs township, found time to come to town and shake hands with friends on Tuesday. Mr. Lyman is one of the busiest men in the county, but he is never too busy to say a kind word to, or do a good act for those in need.

-Prof. John D. Meyer was in Alexandria last Thursday on account of the funeral of Miss Elizabeth S. Walker, librarian of the Thompson, Wol verton library of that place. Other Centre countians present were A. M. Allison, of Centre Hall, J. S. Meyer, of Penn Hall, and J. Frank Meyer, of the University of Pennsylvania. -Miss Ellen McArdle, of New York city, and her niece Miss McNalley are here to spend the winter with the former's brother, Rev. Father McArdle, 1.00 at the parochial residence on Bishop street. Miss are at the home of Mrs. Beck's parents in Bush Addition for an extended visit. They came here with the intention of making only a short stay, but soon after arriving here Mr. Beck, who is a first class machinist, was offered a position at the Lingle shops and now they will remain until after Christmas at least.

119.13 Mary Kelley, who has been keeping house for Rev. McArdle for some years left Tuesday for Lima, Ohio, for an extended visit with friends. -Mr. and Mrs. Will Beck, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

-James F. Marsteller, who is no longer superntendent of the Snow Shoe division of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, but who is obliged to come back every now and then to look after the affairs of that corporation in this county, was in town on Wednesday. Mr. Marsteller is now loca ted near Bethlehem, where he has purchased a fine country place.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Otis, of Philadelphia, were in town on Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Otis was Miss Aurora Moore before her marriage, and they were here superintending the removal of her furniture to Philadelphia, where they have apart. ments at the "Tracy." They left Saturday aftertoon to spend Sunday at Millmont where Mrs Moore is spending the winter.

-Mrs. Witmer H. Smith, of west High street and her mother-in-law Mrs. Isaac Smith, of Cen tre Hall, have returned from their stay in Ardmore and Williamsport. They were in Philadelphia on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Isaac Smith's sister, Mrs. William Wolf, who was at one time a resident of this place. She is suffering with a stroke of paralysis but was convalescing when they left her. -Ensign McEntire, who organized the Salva ion Army in this place and who was a general favorite while here, spent Sunday at the home of Col. George A. Bayard, on Spring street. She conducted the services both morning and evening at the Army headquarters and was encouraged by good sized audiences. She is now engaged n doing slum work in Buffalo and returned to her mission on Tuesday noon. -Rev. Thomas Levan Bickle and his cou eorge Webster Brown, returned to Philadelphia, last Saturday, fully convinced that there is no game-either big or little-in Centre county. Their hunt began up at Gatesburg, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Sheets, and ended down at Zion in Dr. Fisher's preserve, but outside of of the Daily News we did not hear of them shooting a squirrel.

-Mr. and Mrs. Cheston, of Lock Haven, wer guests at the Hastings home over Sunday. Mrs. Cheston was Miss Jessie Saltsman before her mar, riage and that event was celebrated so recently that their visit here was only an extension of their honeymoon. Monday they were accompa nied home by Mrs. Cheston's mother, Mrs. Ella for himself at that has sought another packer who is employed at Clearfield Junc-Hastings and who has been here for several weeks.
