

If you are going to do any advertising for the fall trade now is the time to do it. Don't wait until it is too late. The merchant who advertises gets the trade.

Charles E. Dorworth, for a long time connected with the Pittsburgh Times, has just accepted a more responsible position on the political staff of the Philadelphia Press.

Gilland Eisenhower, of Aaronsburg, will probably lose the sight of one eye as a result of having been struck by a falling tree while working on a lumber job at Hecla park.

The supposed finding of oil on the Gummo farm in the lower end of the Bald Eagle valley has been the reason for the securing of options on many farms in the vicinity of Howard.

Mrs. A. O. Furst will receive this afternoon, from four until six o'clock, at her home on West Linn street, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William S. Furst, of Philadelphia, whose marriage took place in Williamsport a few weeks ago.

Rev. Dr. Shriner, of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place, and Rev. Theodore W. Haven, of the Penn's valley circuit, are going to exchange pulpits on Sabbath. Rev. Haven is a son of Bishop Haven and is very much liked as a preacher.

MADE HARRISBURG LIVELY—The State College boys, who accompanied their victorious foot-ball team to Carlisle last Saturday, stopped off in Harrisburg on their return and made things hum in the capitol city for a few hours. The Star-Independent tells of their celebration as follows:

The principal streets of Harrisburg were made lively on Saturday night by several hundred undergraduates of State College on the way home from Carlisle, where their team achieved a signal victory over Dickinson last Saturday. The enthusiastic students with their cadet band and banners of victory, sang college songs and cheered for their team in a way that was a revelation to this non-college town.

Howard.

B. Weber Thomas visited friends in Lock Haven on Sunday.

A box social was held at Hensly's on Thanksgiving eve.

We are sorry to say that at this writing Wm. Lucas is no better.

Oscar Lucas, who is employed at Altoona, spent Sunday with his mother.

Mrs. Dan Gross, of Lock Haven, visited on Monday at the home of James Butler.

Reuben Lucas made a trip to Williamsport on Sunday to see his brother William who is in the hospital not expected to live.

Mrs. Wm. Kluefelter and Mrs. Jane Carmel, who have been visiting friends and relations for the past two weeks, departed for their home in Williamsport on Tuesday.

Mrs. William Comerford, of Pittsburg, arrived here on Sunday on account of the serious illness of her husband Mr. William Comerford, who died Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. He will be buried to-day.

On Thursday evening at six o'clock Mr. Wm. Shay and Miss Cora Gingham were united in marriage at the home of the bride, in Howard, by Joseph L. Holter. They have the good wishes of all who know them.

Quite an excitement was created in town Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock. The fire bell was heard and everybody started through the rain to see where the fire was, but before the fire company got there it was out. It was only a few burning out at the home of Conroy Hudson's.

L. mont.

A. W. Dale, of Oak Hall who has been on the sick list of late appears to be on the mend now.

Our Houserville teacher, Edwin K. Smith, has been confined to his home the past week with heart trouble.

Miss Marie Wagner spent a few days at the Jacob Herman residence while here from Der Bellefonte home.

Butchering is in the air in these parts and it is a great pleasure, for there are some very fat hogs to butcher.

Miss Clara Yearick, of Nittany, passed a few pleasant days circulating among her Boolsburg and Oak Hall friends.

Robert D. Jackson, of Oak Hall, moved his family to Scotia, on Wednesday, at which place he has secured steady employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Houtz entertained their children and grandchildren on Sunday and all report having had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Alvin Baney, of Clearfield, and her daughter, Mrs. Ira Nearhoof, of Hannah, are making a two week's visit among their many friends in this place.

On Friday Mrs. Alice Williams was called to the bedside of her daughter Mrs. Homer Longwell, of Philadelphia, who was lying at death's door and is still in a dangerous condition.

Oscar Williams and his friend, Mr. Williams, of Altoona, were down to our burg to help his mother, Mrs. Alice Williams, butcher and to enjoy a few days hunt on old Nittany mountain.

The high winds of Saturday night or Sunday blew a dead tree across the Bell telephone at Oak Hall and snapped the wires and dragged them to the ground causing the line to be useless a greater part of Monday.

Mrs. D. E. Hepler was called home from her visit by the illness of one of the children and then she became ill herself. Another one of the children was also taken ill but at this writing they are all much better.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. David Reed are visiting friends in Philipsburg.

John Geist, one of the Sheridan troopers, came home from the strike region with two young goats.

Rob Glenn Bailey and his little brother William are having a rollicking good time at grandpa Bailey's.

Mrs. Sarah Struble Inlow is here from Philadelphia visiting her cousin Bertie Meek.

J. C. Graham, one of Philipsburg's energetic young men, is visiting his legion of relatives here and at State College this week.

Francis Archy, postmaster at Penna Furnace, is making wry faces over several cracked staves caused by a kick from his trotter.

Supervisor N. E. Hess is running the stone crusher full time this week, so as to close out the work tax before the snow flakes fly.

Douglas Campbell, one of the successful farmers and stock raisers, of Kishacoquillas valley, spent last week among friends in the Glades.

Prof. Harry W. Marris of the High school, carriage maker H. M. Krebs, and H. H. Goss, are among the jurors at the county seat this week.

J. B. Woome, with a friend from Bellefonte, enjoyed an early Sunday morning drive to our town to spend Sunday among friends.

Wm. Brown is moving his steam saw mill from Reedsville to Toe hill where he will find plenty to keep him out of mischief for a year to come.

In our last week's letter we made mention of John W. Hess as being one of the successful nimrods. It is his brother Ernest who is entitled to the honors.

Grandmother Mary Ward is suffering with a bad cold that has prostrated her. For several days her condition has been serious, but some improvement is noticeable.

Hess and Musser's threshers pulled in last week after one of the heaviest runs ever made. Their tally sheet sums up 48,303 bushels of grain threshed this season.

The revival meeting in the M. E. church, conducted by Rev. Edgar Heckman, is still in progress. Much interest is being manifested and many have come out on the Lord's side.

Mrs. John E. Lemon is down at Morgantown, Va., visiting her husband and son Clarence, who have positions in a large stock ranch, where the elder Lemon is titled Colonel.

James McCormick, who has been dividing his time visiting and hunting in Centre and Mifflin counties, left for his home in Downs, Kan., last Saturday. He had a most enjoyable time but got no venison.

John K. From, one of Centre Line's extensive farmers, transacted business here and at State College the beginning of this week. He tills the broad acres of the Patton farm, which is one of the finest of that valley.

The Modoc hunting crowd came in last week on Laurel run with three deer. Samuel Bailey shot one, Judge Riley and Calvin Riley each shot one. Report says D. W. Meyer shot one later on.

James Stewart and son John, of Indiana, Pa. are here for a two week's hunt on old Tussey's heights. The younger Stewart is in bad health which it is hoped will be improved by the outing. They have taken rooms at the St. Elmo hotel.

J. D. Nearhood has moved his saw mill to Fred Meyer's woodland at Fairbrook, where he will cut bill timber for Mr. Meyer's new house. Mr. Nearhood has bought the stumpage on the G. B. Campbell tract on Sandy Ridge, where he expects to cut 50,000 feet of lumber.

We are sorry to note the relapse W. E. Meek. His health had improved so much that he was able to be out of doors much of the time. On Saturday he stroled to the farm, the weather being damp he took a heavy cold and a chill followed so that his family are much alarmed at his condition.

Last week all of the unseated lands formerly belonging to Shorb-Stewart & Co. were sold to several parties. A. M. Brown bought the Toe hill tract of 356 acres. The Tyrone Mining and Manufacturing Co., 4,000 acres. The Roaring Springs Paper Mill Co., 4,000 acres. The last mentioned is the strip that extends east to the old Centre Furnace Co. line now owned by Wm. Thompson et al.

Among the many changes that are on for next spring are: Harry Koch will move on to the H. C. Campbell farm April 1st, 1903. Will Swabb, who has been Ezra Tressler's right hand man on the farm, packed his grip last week for his fathers home at Linden Hall, where he will recuperate for a month. Then he will take charge of Frank Black's blooded stock and shape it up for public sale in the spring.

QUIETLY MARRIED. At the home of John Powley, near Penna Furnace, on Wednesday last week. It was the marriage of his son Howard to Miss Myrtle Hastings, daughter of Wm. Hastings, of Gatesburg. Squire J. H. Lever, of Stormstown, said the words that made their two hearts beat as one. Owing to the groom's recent illness the ceremony was in the presence of only a few near relatives. Both young people are popular among their young circle of friends.

Samuel Wagner, in company with his pastoral friend Rev. J. B. Weind, came down from the Mountain city to enjoy a week's hunt with the Modocs over along Stone creek. One deer was brought down by D. W. Meyer's Marlin. The Altoona party went home Saturday with several bunnies and a number of pheasants and their full share of the venison. Mr. Weind was perfectly delighted with the outing and is already laying his plans for a two week's hunt next season.

Supt. W. C. Patterson, of State College, accompanied by Hon. John A. Woodward, who is one of the managers of the State board for Farmers institutes, was in attendance at the citizen's meeting held at Rock Springs, last Saturday afternoon to arrange for the institute to be held at that place Jan. 30th and 31st, 1903. Two sessions will be held on the 30th and three sessions on the 31st. Wm. H. Fry was chosen chairman and C. B. Hess secretary. The object of the meeting was stated by the chairman. He was followed by Col. Woodward who outlined the work before the committee. He complimented the ladies present and felt sure of a favorable report for the institute. The following committees were appointed.

Committee on hall, J. H. Miller; transportation, Wm. Van Tries; entertainment, Frank Bowersox; decorations, Ezra Tressler; advertising, Harry McCracken; program, J. B. Goheen, W. S. Ward, and Gertrude Miller. The chairman of each committee to select their own assistants. A good deal of interest was manifested and a successful institute is looked for.

Applications should reach the General Office of the Company by December 21, so that orders may be mailed December 31 to all clergymen entitled to receive them.

Books, Magazines Etc.

As crammed with good things as the fattest and longest and most over-flowing Christmas stocking could possibly be is the Christmas St. Nicholas with its store of Christmas verse and story and fun. Edwin L. Sabin, Howard Pyle, Guy Wetmore Carryl, Ruth McENERY Stuart, Louisa May Alcott, C. S. Sorensen and Alice Caldwell Hegar are among the notable artists and writers who have contributed to this beautiful store of Christmas cheer; and the result is a magazine that will please and interest the grown-ups as well as the children.
