

Pine Grove Mention.

Miss Bell Lytle is recovering from her recent illness.

William G. Grove, of Altoona, is here for a few days' rest.

Oris Krebs, of Tyrone, is off duty on account of an injured shoulder.

Grandmother Mary Line, of Altoona, is at the William Bailey home near town.

H. H. Goss and wife are visiting his sister, Amelia Koch Dreese, at Adamsburg this week.

In observance of the week of prayer, union services are being held in the Lutheran church.

Squire J. H. Miller spent Tuesday at the county capital attending a meeting of the Grange Insurance Co.

Mrs. Hannah, wife of C. D. Miller, is suffering with typhoid fever at her Rock Springs home.

Howard Mitchell and William Randolph representative men from Ennisville, registered at the St. Elmo on Saturday.

David Campbell, one of Harris township's prominent grangers and well-to-do farmers, spent Saturday with his cousin M. W. Meek.

Blair Miller, George Smith and Robert Tressler departed for the Mountain city last week in quest of more lucrative employment than farming.

Miss Sadie Danley, the very efficient and obliging telephone lady of the State College exchange, spent Sunday with her mother on Main street.

In the absence of Rev. Heckman, Rev. Capp, of Scotia, very ably and eloquently preached in Meek's church in the morning, and at Pine Grove Mills in the afternoon.

The C. E. D. sociable held at the home of M. P. Corl on Saturday evening was a grand success. About eighty persons were present to partake of Mrs. Corl's refreshments which were served with a liberal hand.

William Murray Goheen, the popular sale caller of Boalsburg passed through town on Tuesday en route to Rock Springs to spend the day with his uncle John J. Goheen. Mr. Goheen is the oldest pioneer on Spruce Creek and he is so hale and hearty that he bids fair to be a centenarian.

Gideon Wieland, one of the coal barons of Somerset county and Oakland, Md., is spending the week with friends and relatives here. Many changes have taken place since he was a boy of Ebtown sixty years ago and the little hamlet itself has been obliterated from the face of the earth.

On account of the flooded condition of the basement of Bethel church, Rev. A. A. Black held services in the Presbyterian church last Sunday afternoon. He announced communion services in two weeks. Preparatory services to begin on Wednesday evening, Jan. 14th, in Bethel church here.

A jolly sledding party from town were royally entertained at the home of Amos Tyson on Thursday evening. Choice refreshments were served by Miss Lizzie Tyson who is a gracious entertainer. The party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kanar, of Greensburg, who is visiting at the Tyson homestead.

Oliver Gibbons' flitting passed through town on New Year's day en route to Boalsburg where he purchased the J. T. Stuart hotel and store property. Mr. Gibbons will conduct both the store and hotel, and as he is a pleasant jovial man and his wife has all the requisites of a first-class landlady they will surely make it go.

Gordon E. Harper is confined at his mother's home on Main street with a broken leg. While handling logs on last Thursday at Fred Meyer's log job his foot caught between some rails with his toes fast under another rail and while in that fix a log struck him on the right leg breaking it in two places below the knee. Dr. Woods adjusted the bones and he is now fast in bed under his good mother's care.

David George Meek and wife closed their comfortable big house on Thursday and took up their abode at State College. They have taken rooms at Mrs. Elizabeth Glenn's until they can secure a desirable home. It is not far from coming they will make arrangements to build during the summer. They will be missed in township and church affairs and are the class of people that any community would be glad to welcome.

Last week Lewis Thomas, son of Orlando Thomas, very unexpectedly put in his appearance at the old home after an absence of 26 years. During that time he sailed almost around the globe and the major portion of his time was spent in the gold mines of California and the guano fields of South America. At present he is suffering from an attack of asthma. We do not know how much gold dust he has accumulated, but we hope that he has sufficient to keep the wolf away from his door for the balance of his days.

A BIG FEAST.—Covers were laid for one hundred guests at the Odd Fellow's annual banquet on Friday evening in their fine new hall. The inclement weather, though, kept many away and only about seventy members were present to participate in the celebration of the fifty-fifth annual assemblage of Penns Valley Lodge, number 276. A bounteous oyster and chicken supper was provided augmented by ice cream, cake and all the good things of the season and if you could have seen Bob Goheen trying to get on the outside of them you would not have been surprised that it almost required a derrick and tackle to remove him from the table. The history of this prosperous lodge has been published in these columns previously so that now we will simply say a happy New Year and many of them.

Mrs. WILLIAM GRAHAM.—Mrs. Sallie Eckel, wife of William Graham died at the home of her step-son, George Graham, at State College on Sunday evening. Two weeks previous she was stricken with paralysis after which she was neither able to move or speak. She was the youngest daughter of Daniel Eckel and was born at the Eckel home one mile east of Pine Grove sixty-six years ago. She is the last of that once well-known family. Twenty years ago she was married to William Graham and after that resided at Philipsburg until last fall. Then on account of Mr. Graham's failing health they came to State College to spend the winter with his son George. For over fifty years she had been a faithful member of the Lutheran church and her death will be sincerely mourned by her husband, her three step-sons and many friends. Interment was made in the new cemetery here on Tuesday at 2 o'clock with Rev. C. T. Aikens officiating.

Howard.

Fred Leathers made a flying trip to Williamsport on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Johnson of this place spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Joseph Weirick has accepted a position as school teacher at Runville.

Balsor Weber returned to Mercersburg to-day where he is attending college.

T. E. Thomas returned to Curtin on Saturday after a week's vacation here.

Miss Ella Pletcher, who has been sick for the past week, is able to be out again.

Wm. Hensyl returned to Philadelphia Sunday. He attends the Jefferson Medical college.

The college students who spent their vacation with their parents have all returned.

George Wister, who has been spending his vacation at home, departed for Washington on last Thursday.

Melvin and James Smith have returned to Pittsburg where they are employed in the Westinghouse works.

Miss Anna Muffly, who spent her vacation at home, returned to Lock Haven on Monday. She is a student at the Normal.

Miss Bertha Knoll, who has been visiting her mother returned to Philadelphia on Friday where she is employed as a trained nurse.

We are glad to say that Claude Moore, who has been housed up with the rheumatism for the last ten days, is able to be around again.

Cook Leathers, Eugene Pletcher, Clair Tipton, Sherman Holter and Jessie Leathers returned to Williamsport on Monday. They are all students there.

January 4th, 1903 at the home of J. N. Bair, Mr. Raymond Allison and Miss Mary B. Loder, both of this place, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

A birthday party was held on last Friday at the home of Miss Covilla Thomas in honor of her aged mother who was 81 years old that day. There were present forty of her old friends of Howard, and all enjoyed the day very much. They presented her with a very handsome rocking chair. After the day was spent they all departed to their separate homes wishing Mrs. Thomas many more happy birthdays.

In Memoriam.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst and order our beloved brother James M. Lucas and Nathaniel Bieri—(the latter lecturer at the time of his death) to the ransomed host above, we the surviving members of Bald Eagle Grange No. 151 P. of H., in humble submission to His Sovereign Will and sincerely sympathize with the bereft families and friends of our deceased brothers. Therefore as a mark of respect be it resolved.

First, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Second, That a copy of this minute be sent to the families of our deceased brothers, placed upon the records of this meeting and a copy forwarded to county papers for publication.

Hall of Bald Eagle Grange, No. 151, Milesburg, Jan. 3rd, 1903.

Mrs. Holt's Pet Chicken.

The following mournful poem was sent to this office with request to publish and inasmuch as it comes from State College, the literary center of the community, we accept it as an effusion worthy the pen of the Bard of Kinneog-wisconsin William T. Speer.

Poor Peter Holt is dead and gone
We never shall see him more
We know he met the dreadful fate
Other chicks have met before.

They caught poor Pete and shut him up
A day or two before
To see if "Ma" would miss the bird
A comin' to the door.

We know not when they caught poor Pete,
But think it was near a brook,
They say he was so easy caught
They didn't need a hook.

"Ma" said she never missed her pet,
Until it was too late,
For he had then gone 'cross the hill
To meet his sad, sad fate.

Altho poor Pete was crippled bad,
And was more dead than alive,
That didn't seem to matter much
So he'd make a meal for five.

Now girls won't you take warning, please,
When you want to treat your boss,
Don't steal a widow's chicken pet,
That you know has frozen teaz.
