

Pine Grove Mention.

Joe Meyers reports a new girl. Number 1 at his home. Ice of a superior quality and twelve inches thick is being harvested all along the line.

Peunnsvalley lodge No 276, of the I. O. O. F. will hold a festival beginning on February 11th and continuing for a week.

Mrs. Mary B. Gates has returned to her home here, after an extended visit of some months in New York State.

A caucus will be held on Saturday the 24th, at 1:30 p. m. at Centre school house to place in nomination a township ticket. A full turnout is requested.

Mrs. William Rockey has been a very sick woman for the past month. Her attending physician, Dr. Kidder, is very sanguine, though, of her ultimate recovery.

Harry Grenoble, the boss thresher, has bought the Henry Bloom farm near Pine Hall where he will devote a part of his time, at least, to growing big crops and fancy stock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Aikens most royally entertained a number of their parishioners at dinner at the parsonage on Thursday evening.

On account of the snow drifts our town has been shut off from the outside world most of the week. Not until Thursday evening was a train gotten through on the B. C. railroad and the mail was carried from the College on a sled.

Henry Meyers, of the far west, is circulating among his Centre county friends. He is combining business with pleasure as the reason of his being here is to sell his farm at Fairbrook.

The Farmer's Institute workers at and about Rock Springs are very enthusiastic over their coming meeting designed for every class. It is not a township affair and everyone is cordially invited.

The usual amount of sales and flittings are on for this spring. Stine Walker will move to the old Fortney farm now owned by Elizabeth Pecher.

WASHINGTON GRANGE.—On last Saturday afternoon John S. Dale assisted by his wife Caroline, installed the newly elected officers of Pine Hall Grange.

Monday the ice harvest began at the Oak Hall mill dam. Elmer Jackson has been housed up this last week with the grip, but is now on the mend.

The weather last Sunday reminded one of the winter we had thirty years ago. It snowed and blowed all day until the next morning, the roads were so filled with snow banks that if any one attempted to travel at all they were obliged to go through the fields.

At this writing we are passing through a very cold wave, as it snowed all day Sunday, and during the night began to get very cold and stormy.

By reports the number of cases of scarlet fever has been on the increase at Boalsburg during the week just past but we hope it has reached its worst and will not spread further.

Mrs. Jacob Bottorf is slowly recovering from the many bruises that she received from a fall down the cellar steps several weeks ago and she may feel thankful that she received only bruises.

Ed. H. Williams, the teacher of the Oak Hall grammar school, has been unable to attend to the duties of his office for a few days this week owing to a severe cold that he contracted while attending county institute.

Ed. H. Williams, of Boalsburg, and Bella K. Rankin, of Bellefonte, are both of Rush Twp. Frank McFarlane, of Boalsburg, and Clara M. Foreman, of State College.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Arthey, during the past week.

Spring Mills.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the funeral of Gen. Hastings on Tuesday last. Rev. Bearick will conduct the Y. M. C. A. service in the M. E. church on Sunday morning next at 10:30 o'clock.

Howard Rossman has resumed business in the old P. O. building which he has fitted up for that purpose, occupying the first and second floors, and has both rooms well stocked with very desirable goods.

All our merchants report a satisfactory business during last year. The volume of business was considerably greater, but the profits hardly corresponded.

The new bridge over Sinking Creek, erected by T. B. Jemison, is certainly a very substantial structure and is far in advance of the specifications.
