A BIG TIME AT BOALSBURG .- Last Thursday evening was a red letter occasion for the Boalsburg Odd Fellows and their friends. At to Tyrone for a two week's vacation and to a previous meeting arrangements had been made for a reception and smoker to celebrate its twenty-ninth yearly meeting. In all its history these meetings have been delightful affairs and Tuesday evening was no exception. The purpose of the meetings is three-fold. 1st to bring the members of the lodge together in social intercourse, 2nd to entertain the friends of the lodge and 3rd to enlist the interest of those outside of the lodge desiring to join. Those who have never attended these social functions have no idea of the fraternal spirit that prevails or the friends. It warms the heart and carries cheer into many homes besides making the inner man rejoice.

For the banquet one hundred and forty covers were laid and every place was filled. The menu consisted of oysters, chicken, salad, celery, cake, fruit and ice cream. The tables were elaborately decorated with ferns and potted plants and the walls of the hall is the local office for the "NORTHwere arranged with festoons and the costly made them man and wife as long as they both paraphernalia.
