

Clearfield is going to organize a Board of Trade. If such is really the case the boom period in that town is at an end.

Howard.

We notice people in town beginning to move.

Miss Grace Valmont is spending the week with her friend, Miss Mabel Pletcher.

Lon Henderson went to Renovo last Saturday to spend a few days in that place.

Miss Mary Clark, of Beech Creek, was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Henderson over Sunday.

Mr. C. C. Lucas departed on Tuesday for Philadelphia to buy his spring stock of goods.

Mr. Charles Holter departed on Tuesday for Poughkeepsie to enter a business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller, of Lock Haven, took tea with Mrs. John Weber on Monday.

Rev. I. N. Bair departed on Tuesday for Baltimore, where he will attend conference.

Miss Loven Henderson departed for Farnersville on Saturday, where she spent a few days with her aunt.

Mr. J. D. Thompson was called to Snow Shoe on Monday on account of the serious illness of his son, J. A. Thompson.

A new little girl arrived at the home of Mr. Christ Pletcher on Saturday night and they say that she has come to stay.

Mrs. Kate Weber and Mrs. Alice Holter attended the funeral of Mrs. Calvin Yearick at Jacksonville on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Confer and son, who had been visiting friends and relatives here for the past week, departed for their home in DuBois on Monday.

Oak Hall.

E. K. Smith made a business trip to Altoona last week.

Wesley Tate spent a few days at Saulsburg last week.

Mrs. Wesley Tate is numbered on the sick list, caused by fright.

Mrs. E. B. Peters spent Tuesday with friends at Shiloh.

The sale at Ira Korman's was largely attended last Friday.

Mrs. Charlie Whitehall, of Lemont, spent Monday at the home of Wesley Tate.

Oliver Shuey, of Shiloh, was an early visitor on our streets Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tate, of Shiloh, spent last Friday with their daughter, Mrs. E. K. Smith.

Mr. Shutt has opened up his shoe-makers shop at this place. If you need your shoes repaired give him a call.

George Ishler, of Boalsburg, spent a few minutes in town Tuesday evening transacting business with E. K. Smith.

All the talk now is movings. Ira Korman will move to the Frank Black farm at Pine Grove Mills; Wm. Bressler, of Centre Hall, will move into the house vacated by Mr. Korman; Mr. Loneberger will move his family to Virginia; and the house he vacates will be occupied by Mr. Shutt, from the Barrens; Jacob Klingler will move to Lemont and the house that he vacates will be occupied by Mr. Benner, from Buffalo Run; Wesley Tate will move to the Dreese farm at Peru station and the Baker farm that he vacates will be occupied by Mr. Houtz, of the Barrens.

Hublersburg.

A box social will be held at the home of J. D. Miller, March 14th.

Miss Cora Whitman left on Monday to visit friends at Lock Haven and Renovo.

Mrs. William Chambers, of Bellefonte, visited her sister, Mrs. T. L. Kessinger Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoy attended the funeral of Mr. Yearick at Jacksonville, Sunday.

Mr. J. W. Lee and two sons, Charles and Clyde, are spending a week sight seeing in Philadelphia.

Joel Stover and Charles Shaffer, of Zion, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of W. H. Markle.

The young people of Lamar will present a play entitled "A Yankee Detective" in the old Presbyterian church, March 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Taylor and Boyd Musser and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the hospitable home of J. D. Miller.

Mrs. E. L. Bergstresser returned home last week after spending two months with her daughter, Mrs. Rouse, at New Bloomfield.

Miss Grace Miller, of Lock Haven, and Miss Fanny Stone and Fairy Shaffer, of Zion, were visitors at the home of George Hoy, Sunday.

Local institute at this place was not well attended on account of the inclement weather. The sessions were interesting and although the speakers as arranged on the program were not all present the time was taken up by others. Eighteen teachers were present also Supt. Gramley, ex-Supt. Etters and John Cessna, of Bedford.

Lemont.

W. W. Schreck and wife Sundayed with Jno. Weibley, of Linden Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Tressler Sundayed at Oak Hall renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. John Getz slipped on the ice at their pump, falling and breaking her left arm at the wrist on Friday.

Spring will soon be with us, for the robins have put in an appearance already with his good-cheer to all.

Mrs. Harvey Kerus had the ill luck to get a hard fall and receive some bruises, but was not hurt seriously.

J. N. Rishel, of Oak Hall, spent a few days this week at Rock Springs, visiting his brother-in-law, Jas. Peters.

An infant child of S. B. Weaver's is at present ill with catarrhal fever, but by last report was not dangerous.

Golla Osman and wife enjoyed the sights of this burg last week. They also visited at the home of Jas. Osman.

Miss Bessie McCafferty, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Kate Irvin, of Snow Shoe, were pleasant visitors at the home of Antony Knoff.

The Methodist protracted meeting is attracting much attention at present, as there is much good being done for the people of this neighborhood.

Jas. Osman and wife were called to Sunbury to attend the funeral of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elsie Osman, who passed away Monday of last week because of typhoid fever.

Jno. M. Coble, one of our townsmen, had the bad luck to fall down the steps leading from his cow loft last Thursday receiving many bruises, which caused him to walk with a cane for a few days. He is much better now.

Rain began falling on Friday evening and Saturday morning revealed Spring creek rampant, but as it stopped raining shortly after daybreak by noon the waters began to abate, without doing much damage more than taking all the sleighing.

A few weeks ago in these items we reported Elmer Jackson confined to his home with typhoid fever and now we must report two new cases in the same home. One, the wife of the above and the other his brother David. We trust that the disease will spread no further.

Mrs. OLIVER LOVE.—Mrs. Elizabeth Love passed quietly away on Tuesday morning of last week. She was very patient during her long illness, with the full assurance that the suffering of the christian ends when the last spark of life goes out. Deceased was in her 59th year. Interment was made in the Tusseyville cemetery on Friday, Rev. Shultz, of the United Evangelical church, officiating.

J. N. Dinges and J. R. Williams were to see the Reitz coal mine on Thursday and from reports believe that the strike will prove valuable. Experts have been to the opening since they began digging and they say when they get deep enough a good quality of coal will be found, but thus far it hardly looks like coal to persons not posted in mining. We trust it will prove the real stuff then the people in these parts will not have to depend on the large coal fields in other parts of the State for a supply of fuel.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by orphan's court clerk, A. G. Arohey, during the past week.

George W. Schreffler and Gertrude B. McMullen, both of Bellefonte.

Harry W. Irvin, of Bellefonte, and Janette Furey, of Pleasant Gap.

Harry Shugerts and Harriet R. Felty, both of State College.

John D. Lucas and Blanche Heckman, both of Pottery Mills.
