Watch for the big crowd that will go to the Logan benefit on Tuesday night, April 6th, and then you will have an idea of how the public regards our very efficient fire department.

The wheat crop in Centre county has never promised better than at the present time. From every section the same news comes of a promise of a most abundant harvest.

Mrs. J. E. Shope, who will be remembered by many friends in this county and who has been living at Confluence for several years, has decided to make her permanent home in Conneville.

The Tyrone Electric Railway Co. has sold out roadbed, car depot, cars and all effects, rights and privileges and a controlling interest in the Home Light Co. to the American Railway's Co.

While on his way from home to his drug store on High street, last Thursday morning, F. P. Green was knocked over by a lot of dogs that were fighting in front of W. R. Jenkins home. He was dazed for a moment or so but was soon able to resume his way with no further injury than several painful bruises.

It required seven stitches to close up a wound which Frank Neubaker, an employee of the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. received in the fleshy part of his leg on Monday morning. He was walking past a pile of glass in the ware-room and did not notice that one jagged piece protruded beyond the rest until it had slashed his leg.

The appearance of a "Woman in Black" in Bellefonte seems to be no longer permissible of doubt. As to her motives there is no reasonable explanation, but if she serves no other purpose than the frightening of children off the streets at a late hour every parent in town should welcome her coming and magnify her bug-a-boo propensities to the fullest.

President Gen. W. Atherton, of the Penna. State College, and Gen. Beaver appeared before the House appropriations committee at Harrisburg Wednesday evening in support of the State College appropriation bill, which carries $270,000. Col. W. F. Reeder and Geo. R. Meek were there the same evening to emphasize the claims of the Bellefonte hospital.

This evening at Pine Grove Mills, Rev. F. L. Bergstressor, of Tyrone, will give his illustrated lecture on the Passion Play for the benefit of the Pine Grove Light company. Rev. Bergstressor was in Oberammergau in 1900 during the Passion Play and his lecture is said to be, by competent critics, most entertaining and instructive.

On Thursday evening, March 12th, William H. Ishler, of Tusseyville, and Miss Leah Elizabeth Kaufman, of Lamar, were married at the home of Rev. H. J. Crow, pastor of the Reformed church at Hubersburg. The bride is a daughter of David Kaufman, a well known farmer, of Lamar. They will make their future home at Tusseyville.

Remember that next Thursday evening the entertainment that Mrs. Lonsberry and Mrs. Seibert are so certain will be "well worth a dollar" will be given in the Methodist church lecture room, and from what we heard of it ourselves, at a rehearsal the other evening, we'll have to go the ladies one better and say that it will be well worth two dollars but won't cost anything like that much.

A christening is rarely made the dignified and beautiful ceremony it should be and was in the christening of George Harris Shugert, infant son of John M. and Katherine Curtin Shugert, on Wednesday morning in St. John's Episcopal church. This little one is the first great grand child of the late ex-Governor Andrew Gregg Curtin to be born in Bellefonte and had the honor of his maternal great-grandmother's presence at his baptism. His sponsors were his maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. George Harris, Miss Adaline Harris and his father, John M. Shugert.

NEW ROUTES FOR RURAL MAIL DELIVERY.—On Tuesday a large delegation of indignant citizens from Patton township were in town protesting against doing away with the post office at Waddle, which would be one of the results of a free mail service through the Buffalo Run valley. Over in Penna-valley they are desperately anxious to secure the service.

The Centre Hall Reporter, of last week, says, "Valentine Shoenberger, a special route agent of the post office department, has been in town since last Monday going over the territory of the proposed mail route in the north precinct of Potter township.

The route laid out by him on Tuesday starts at Centre Hall post office, thence to John Conley, east by J. A. Keller's to Perry Breen's, thence to Krape farm and continue south to turnpike at a point near Indian Lane, thence east by pike to public road east of Daniel Keller's, thence north to road leading to Howard Darst's, thence east by the same road to public road leading from Brush valley road to Union church, thence north by said road to Brush valley road, thence west to Centre Hall on same road, thence south to Crozier's hill, thence south by way of David Keller farm and Leonard Rhone to Boalsburg road, at Boal farm, thence west to J. E. Rishel's, thence to near Richard Brook's on G. M. Boal farm, thence east to Loop road near D. L. Bartege's and south on same by Grossman to Strohm farm near Tusseyville, thence east to road at a point east of Samuel Flory farm, thence north by D. W. Bradford to Boalsburg road near John Kline, thence east on Boalsburg road to Old Fort, thence north to Centre Hall post office, making a distance of twenty-two and three-eighths miles.

The south side of Potter township will be served by two routes from Spring Mills, as recommended by Agent Shoenberger. The route will serve the sections about Centre Hill and Colyer and close the post offices at these points. The Pottery Mills and Tusseyville offices will be kept open.

Considering the topography of the south side and the business relations between that section and Centre Hall, one would naturally be led to think that Centre Hall would be a more advantageous point for distribution. Agent Shoenberger represents that Spring Mills was selected as the point from which distribution should be made, because of a petition largely signed by the residents of the south side of Potter township asking that Spring Mills be made the distributing point, and although natural conditions seem contrary, the will of the people should be respected.

THE SPRING CHANGES.—White house hunting seems to be the principal diversion of some of our good citizens, the changes that are going to be made this spring are not nearly so many as usual. Mrs. D. W. Woodring has bought her brother's interest in the Galbraith property on Howard street and with her family will take possession of it the 1st of the month. Conductor John D. Hall, who now occupies the same, will move into the Kline house on Spring street.

Rev. Crittenden has leased a house on Curtin street. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wilson will move from Petriken building into the Morrison house on east Bishop street now occupied by the Woodrings. Joseph Loss and his wife are going into the Curry house on east Logan street, and the house they occupy on Water street has been rented by William Royer. Orris Kline will get possession of the Royer house on east Bishop street and Joseph Beezer has purchased the Runkle property on the same street. George Bartley has bought the house now occupied by the Beezers and S. D. Gettig will move into the house vacated by the Bartleys. John Gress has purchased the Beck property on Methodist Hill and will move his family from his present home on Water street on the 1st. E. M. Huyett, the lumberman, who has made his home in one of the Zeller houses on Howard street for some months moves back to Centre Hall. Dr. and Mrs. Tate are going to housekeeping in one of the flats in Petriken building; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hindman will move into Mrs. Orblison's house on Curtin street recently vacated by E. M. Greist. Miss Ellen Woods has leased the Miles home on Bishop street and Charles A. Hazel will go to housekeeping in the house she now occupies. Mrs. W. H. Page will occupy part of Mrs. Hibler's house on Allegheny street.

SEVERAL LARGE SALES WITHIN THE WEEK.—Within the next week or ten days there will be several very large sales in Centre county. To start off with that of Mr. James G. Fortney, three miles east of Pine Grove Mills, which is advertised for Tuesday, March 24th, is going to be an exceptionally large one. Because there is such a great quantity of stock and implements to sell it will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning.

Next Thursday, the 26th, G. W. Keichline will have his sale at his home 1 mile north of Rock Springs. It will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Keichline's implements are especially worthy of this notice. Most of them are new and of the best make. He has a fine lot of stock to sell also.

MARTIN-BARNHART.—Miss Elizabeth Martin, daughter of the late John Martin who was for many years postmaster at Milesburg, and Harry Barnhart were united in marriage at the parish house on Monday evening at seven thirty o'clock. Rev. Father McArdle pronounced the ceremony and the bridal couple were attended by Miss Mary Martin as maid of honor, and Mordca Miller as best man.

The groom is one of the younger sons of the late John Barnhart and is an upright, industrious young man. He is employed as book keeper at R. B. Taylor's coal office and is perfectly capable of providing a comfortable home for his bride.

—Miss Sylvia May Gramley of Aaronsburg, and Albery Miles Army, of State College, were married on Sunday morning, the 15th, at the Lutheran parsonage in Aaronsburg by the Rev. E. R. Sheeder.

—Wednesday's Philadelphia Press devoted three columns to the exploitation of the property and proposition of the British American Dredging Co., in British Columbia. This is the property developed by Mr. Switzer, of Phillipsburg.

—The Rev. W. F. D. Noble, well known to many readers of the WATCHMAN, now pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at So. Dertown, has declined to consider a proposition to become pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Ogden, Utah, which pays a salary of $12,000. Mr. Noble's many friends about were well glad to know that he is to remain in this conference.

—To secure original stories and essays for publication in its columns, the Free Lance, the publication of the students at The Pennsylvania State College, instituted a prize competition which has resulted as follows: stories, 1st prize, $10, Benno J. Uhl, Renovo; 2nd prize, $5, Miles W. Sterrett, Erie; prize essay, $5, Miss Bertha Gilliland, New Bloomfield.

—"Francesca da Rimini," as presented at Garman's on Tuesday night by the Forter J. White Co. was superb. The costuming and scenery were such as is seldom seen in this place and the action far beyond the average talent of road companies. This notice is not written at the request of the management of either the opera house or the "Francesca" Co. but merely as a matter of interest to an exceptional lot of players who merit crowded houses everywhere.

—The Presbyterian church at Tyrone is about to lose their pastor, Rev. Mr. Wisely, who in the six year of his pastorate there has had no less than six calls from other churches. At this time he is wanted at Trenton, N. J.; Newark, O. and at Dr. McCook's church in Philadelphia, of which the aged divine is pastor emeritus. This church offers Dr. Wisely a salary of $5000 a year, but the Tyrone people have a handsome parsonage and their present salary of $1800 is to be increased to $2000.

—"The Minister's Son" is devoid of the usual traveled path of rural dramas, seeking effects by other means than the exploiting of live stock and kindred devices which have grown tiresome through familiarity. The simple way and naturalness of the characters in the play, helped along by a clever company, make this production one that will long linger pleasantly in your memory. It will appear at Garman's Monday night, March 23rd.

—Little Miss Catharine Humes Allison celebrated her eighth birthday on last Saturday by having eight of her playmates spend the afternoon with her. It is needless to say that they had a good time and lots of delicacies to eat for Catharine is a most unselfish little lassie and her home is generously equipped with all the games and toys that a child could desire. The guests were Mary Warfield, Catharine Love, Nancy Hunter, Margaret Gilmore, Sarah Hastings, Janet Potter, Mary Sobad and Helen Chambers.

—The quaint little shanty at "Alto" in which Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson have been so happy almost since their marriage, was destroyed by fire early Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson lived there so as to be near his work as superintendent of the lumber operations at that point and while the home was only temporary they had it fixed up so cozily and had so many of their handsome wedding presents there that the loss is a very heavy one. In fact they had no insurance and were able to save only their silver and some out glass. It is supposed that the fire caught from the chimney. It was beyond control when Mrs. Thompson discovered it.

—Because of an expressed opinion that college students in general and especially students of State College are sons of wealthy parents, an incomplete list of men in this college who are, wholly or in part, working their way through their course of study has been prepared. Out of a total of five hundred and seventy men enrolled in regular and special courses, eighty nine are engaged in some kind of work by which their expenses are decreased. Many others would do outside work if they could find the work to do. Besides these there are many who either earned the money for their college course by their own exertions before going there or who have borrowed the money and will have it to repay when they are through. In very few institutions is there less of the aristocratic spirit than at State.

—Considerable opposition has developed to the proposed mail route starting from Scotia mines. It is mostly based on the great delay there would be in the delivery of the mail from Bellefonte and points within the county east and north of it. As at present carried via of Tyrone, mail posted at Bellefonte, or passing through this office, for Scotia, lies over night at Tyrone and reaches its distributing point after nine o'clock the next morning, or too late for distribution by carrier the next day. Consequently a Monday's letter from this place or any point along the Bald Eagle valley, could not reach its destination until the second day after it had been mailed—unless the starting time of the carrier was fixed to suit the incoming mails of the same day. Even this would be an inconvenience to many residents of upper Buffalo Run who are now, and have for some time been served with three mails a day from this point.

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.—The last meeting of the town council on Monday evening was attended by Messrs Jenkins, Reynolds, Fenlon, Wise, Mallory, Kirk and Derstine.

After the approval of the minutes of the last meeting, Chairman Derstine, of the Street committee reported cleaning different streets and alleys. The alley next to the residence of Mrs. Miles on Bishop street is in bad condition. Chairman Fenlon, of the Water committee reported that the pump at the water works is not working right as yet. The manufacturer has asked for two weeks more time, as he wanted to put in a new pump, and then hoped to have the wheel working up to the contract.

Chairman Kirk, of the Nuisance committee reported the bad condition of the walk in front of McCafferty block and the crossing owned by the P. R. R., on West High street. The clerk was notified to give the property owners ten days notice to repair these places and if such was not done, to repair it at their expense.

A request for the extension of the water to the corner of Ridge and Beaver streets was referred to the Water committee for investigation. On motion of Dr. Kirk seconded by Col. Reynolds, a meter was ordered to be placed on the water pipes of the Penna. railroad at the passenger station and meter rates charged after the 1st of April. The request of Geo. Gross for permission to sprinkle west High street during the summer months was granted.

Burgess Walker offered an ordinance inflicting certain penalties for drunkenness, which after some debate was adopted and ordered to be printed.

Boro Treasurer Meek asked for an order of $1,000 to pay current expenses. Dr. Kirk objected saying that the Boro had overdrawn the limit allowed by law. Boro Solicitor Fortney explained the law in regard to the matter and the order was finally drawn on the water fund for $1,000.

The water wheel and pump which the E. Keeler company of Williamsport placed in the water works and which failed to do the work required, is still stored at the water works and the clerk was instructed to notify the Company to remove the wheel and pump at once.

Messrs. Reynolds, Kirk and Fenlon were appointed a committee of three to revise the ordinances and have them printed in book form.

The following bills were approved and ordered paid: Street pay roll..... 74 61 Police pay roll..... 62 25 Water pay roll..... 62 25 A. Allison, plumbing..... 40 58 Bellefonte Gas Co. heat for public building, 61 30 Bellefonte Gas Co..... 1,900 00 Geo. R. Meek, order..... 9 84 J. L. Runkle, plumbing..... 12 80 J. L. Runkle, material..... 20 00 J. H. Harris, uniform..... 13 95 $1395 66

THE DAILY NEWS VERSION OF WHY THE BANQUET OF BELLEFONTE CASTLE K. G. E. WAS SO SUCCESSFUL!—We, as a month-piece for our brainy Democratic party desire to thank the Daily News, that paper-not-offen-given-to-bestowing-even deserved-praise-upon-Democrats, for its tribute to our orators at the banquet given Tuesday night in their castle by the Bellefonte K. G. E. And indeed literary Bellefontes might be proud of our party, as for once even the skill of the caterer is made secondary as, "eloquence ran riot, each succeeding orator endeavoring to contribute the richest gems of thought," the News even regretting that the speeches could not be reproduced in type so that everyone might know there is more than one Chauncey Dewey. This peroration of the News was induced by the brilliant speeches of James Schofield, C. M. Bower, J. K. Johnston, N. B. Spangler, S. D. Gettig, all Democrats. It is not surprising that, "the whole evening was one of enjoyment and everyone had a pleasant time!" We Democrats do not have to economize for four years to have enough eloquence to make a few campaign speeches but have always enough to make any occasion memorable.

The only ungrateful and discordant element seems to have been the Eagle which "grouned at the good things they contained." Only a Republican Eagle would groan at anyone's else having anything but it might have been generous as the News and screamed in appreciation of the Democratic Dewey!

A SHOW WORTH SEEING.—That all the successful amateur performances have been presented by the young people of Bellefonte is soon to be a disputed fact, for the matrons of the Methodist church will, no doubt, share the laurels after their appearance in comedy next Thursday night. That this assertion may easily be true appears when it is remembered what hits some of these ladies made in the Village School several years ago. It takes years and experience to mature a real sense of humor as next Friday night's spontaneous mirth will prove.

To give proper dignity (?) to the levity of the ladies' performance, the infant class will have a doll drill and the boys of the intermediate class will move the audience to tears by the melodious (?) strains of their German band. The tout ensemble of an entertainment including such a range of years and talents should surely attract a large audience!

An admission of 10 and 15c will be charged with refreshments extra.

—The Howe Moving Pictures show comes to Garman's on Tuesday night, April 7th for the benefit of the Logan's. It will be a high class entertainment that everyone can conscientiously patronize.

—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Jno. W. Conley, of Centre Hall, who has been struggling with pneumonia since last Monday morning. Mr. Conley was stricken with it while sowing clover seed and so sudden and severe was the attack that it was only through the greatest effort that he succeeded in getting from the field where he was at work, to the house. A physician was immediately called and while Mr. Conley is still in a very serious condition, it is generally believed that the disease has been checked, and that he stands a good chance of recovery.

—An attempt was made on Monday night to fire the building occupied by Schofield's harness manufactory, and Hill's sewing machine office. Fortunately it was discovered by Russell Blair, before it had made much headway, and was extinguished before any damage was done. That it was the work of an incendiary, was shown by the preparations that had been made, and gives warning to the police, and our citizens generally to be on the look-out for the miscreant who to gratify an insane desire to destroy, would jeopardize life itself.

—Our farmer friend Aaron Lutz was in town on Monday but he was in such a hurry that we could not find out anything about the way things are moving up at Linden Hall. So far as Aaron himself is concerned they must be prosperous for he was looking heartier than usual.

—Levi Walker was down from Ferguson township Tuesday calling on some of his friends and while here ordered the WATCHMAN sent to an acquaintance down in Virginia; a visitor who will appreciate it very much since it will carry to her, weekly, so much news of her old home.

—Boyd A. Musser, who for many years has been a resident of Bellefonte has entered the service of the York Bridge Co., and after April 1st, will become a citizen of York, Pa., having charge of the offices of that large and prosperous manufacturing concern. He has disposed of his insurance business to Samuel Goss who will continue on in the same office.

—Miss Annie V. Williams, of Phillipsburg, was in town on Wednesday. Whether she was here after the mercantile appraisal or a few hours recreation with her relatives we are not sure to state, but we do know her beguiling little bouquets, in the Phillipsburg Ledger, to the people over there have made some of them so cheery and starchy that they faint would flock in a country by themselves.

—Mrs. John M. Keichline, her daughter Miss Daise, and Dr. John Keichline arrived home yesterday from a four month's stay at Battle Creek, Michigan. Mrs. Keichline and her family spent last summer at the sanitarium at Battle Creek and were so pleased with its management and surroundings that later when Mrs. Ke's health became impaired she determined to return there for an operation and treatment. Miss Daise went with her and Dr. Keichline has been doing graduate work preparatory to practicing his profession.

THE BOSTONIA SEXTETTE CLUB.—On Tuesday evening, March 24th, the closing entertainment of the Star course will be given in Petriken hall. There is no doubt but that this will be the finest concert of the course as every member of the club is an artist of ability.

"The club, at the present time, needs no introduction to the musical public of America, as it has for several years past been known as the leading organization of its class. The Club has appeared with the greatest success in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario in Canada; and also in Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York and the New England States.

As a soloist he is today without a rival, and is the only clarinetist devoting his time to solo playing in high class concerts."

Reserved seats will be sold at Sheffer's on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday for the additional sum of 15c.

THE COMING OF EASTER.—Easter is late this year. Ash Wednesday came on February 25th and Easter will occur on April 12th, almost as late as it can possibly come. Easter may come as early as March 22nd, and as late as April 25th. It depends, as everyone knows, on the phase of the moon. Easter Sunday is always the Sunday that follows full moon immediately following the spring equinox (March). In 1894 it fell on so early a date as the 21st. If the moon is full on Sunday Easter is the Sunday next following. In 1883 the day fell on March 25th, and in this and two following centuries it will occur only seven times on the same date, 1951, 2035, 2124, 2125, and 2195.

In "The Minister's Son" will be found a beautiful, simple portrayal of everyday life, showing a son's loyalty to his parents, and while all the village think him a worthless idle and laugh at his invention, he goes to the city and soon interests capitalists in his scheme, sells out his patents, and returns home in time to save his old father and mother from being turned out of their home. At Garman's Monday night, March 23rd.
