

HANS BREITMANN'S PARTY.

Hans Breitmann gife a barty,
Dey had biano-blaying,
I felled in lufe mit a Merican frau,

A WITCH IN WARSAW.

I suppose I came into the salon very quietly; the great gold and white doors are never shut, but there are velvet portieres to be lifted, and people can, intentionally or unintentionally, slip through as silent as ghosts.

wheels, hung the strange driver backwards into his own empty carriage, and drove triumphantly on.
"Peter," screamed Pauline, who knew this driver well and employed him when, as today, she did not want to use her own carriage, "where has that unhappy man fallen?"

"A bracelet which I dropped this afternoon and which I would not let Mabel look for, lest in her British vigor she should tread upon it," Pauline replied.
"Zelie found it before we went out; I forgot to tell you."

How Indians Poison Arrows.
Double, double, toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble;
As the boil snake sleet, new eye, lizard legs, dog tongue and the like, were horrible enough.

Collins on the Stand.
Delaware Farmer Positively Denies Killing His Wife.
The State closed its case Friday in the trial of Elmer Collins, charged with the murder of his wife, Ida, on their farm near Georgetown, Del., in April of last year.

Pennell's Alleged Letter.
District Attorney Coatsworth hopes to finish the Burdick inquest on Monday, but he is not certain that another day will not be needed.
Pennell's friends hope to show by this newly found letter that Pennell was in the mood to kill Burdick months before Burdick brought the divorce suit in which he named Pennell as respondent.