

Pine Grove Mention.

It has rained and rained until all the low lands are deluged. Little Lillian Musser is recovering from a recent sickness. Mrs. Matilda Rumberger is confined to bed with an attack of the grip. Miss Mary Bailey is visiting relatives in the Mountain City this week. Mrs. Woods, wife of Dr. Woods, visited friends in Boalsburg last week. Miss Julia Musser, one of our most elderly ladies, is visiting relatives in Boalsburg. Fred Bottorf was the guest of his brother Jacob at Lemont the beginning of the week. Oscar Martz is now practicing a lullabye. The baby is a ten pound boy and is doing nicely. Dr. Frank Bailey, of Milton, is spending a few days with his friends here combining business with pleasure. Miss Ada Koch returned home on Monday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Spring Mills and Millheim. George Harper, at Rock Springs, has another month to feed and body to clothe. It is a boy and number three. Sheriff Taylor and Col. Fortney enjoyed an early morning drive from the county capital on Tuesday to attend the J. G. Fortney sale. E. C. Musser is hobbling around with the assistance of a cane on account of a kick from a horse that struck him on the inside of the left knee. Mrs. L. W. Kimport is in Altoona attending the Methodist conference and enjoying a two weeks' rest from the busy cares of her household. Rev. Illingworth is visiting his mother in Philadelphia. He has several calls to new fields of work but it is not likely that he will ever return to Arizona. C. M. Fry, an engineer on the Pittsburgh division with headquarters at Pittsburgh, has been transferred to the Altoona division and will make his home in Altoona after this. James Homan reports a bouncing new boy at his Pine Hall home. Sidney will now have a playmate in a few years and is already keen to share his toys with his little brother. Farmers are unusually busy just now on account of the mild weather. Much plowing has been done, grass and grain are starting earlier than usual and many of the early vegetables have been started. Samuel E. Goss, of Bellefonte, was hustling around town the beginning of the week in the interest of his insurance business, which he has recently undertaken in great shape. He is a hustler and a first rate business man and we know he will make it go. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goss were called to Paintersville last week by the precarious condition of old Mrs. Goss. She is suffering with pulmonary trouble and the sudden death of her husband, the week before, so prostrated her that there seemed no hope of her recovery. P. F. Bottorf is just home from inspecting the bituminous coal fields of western Maryland. He brought with him some excellent specimens and the company he is interested in is now working two three foot and one six foot veins. From the outlook just now, it seems as though our predictions will come true, that the members of the company will all be wearing diamonds yet. WOODRING-WITMER.—Mrs. Margaret Woodring, of Lemont, and John B. Witmer, of the White Hall farm, were married at the Garman house in Bellefonte on Tuesday, by the Rev. Edgar Heckman, of State College. Mrs. Woodring is from Port Matilda but for some time she has resided at Lemont. Mr. Witmer lives on what was the old Davy Krebs farm. On April 20th, H. W. Morris will begin the spring term of the Pine Grove Academy for advanced scholars. This old institution of learning has such an excellent reputation that a word of commendation seems unnecessary. There are many young people in this community who need to be fitted for some useful sphere in life and now is the time for their parents to help by sending them to school and compelling them to study. The congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church on Monday evening was well attended. Mrs. A. P. Mitchell, the treasurer, made her yearly report and the church is in a most healthy financial condition. Mrs. Mitchell was re-elected treasurer and Ira C. Burwell was elected to succeed Dr. Woods as trustee for three years. Mr. Burwell was chosen president and William H. Fry secretary of the church council. The trustees were instructed to make the necessary repairs on the parsonage property. A BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.—A very pleasant surprise party was arranged recently by Mrs. George Behrens in honor of her husband's 45th birthday. Mr. Behrens had been decoyed from home that evening on the pretext of telephoning and upon his return he was astonished to find his cosy home filled with merry making neighbors and friends. All of the arrangements had been made so secretly that he hadn't a suspicion of the event until the party was on. Then every one had a good time. Refreshments were served most generously and Mrs. Behrens and her assistants provided a very enjoyable entertainment for the guests.

Madisonburg.

Herbert Kishel and family, of Millheim, visited his mother over Sunday at this place. Simon Haze's sale on Saturday afternoon was quite well attended. Most goods brought low prices. The Lutheran congregation of this place celebrated communion on Sunday last. Rev. Harmon, preached an excellent sermon on that occasion. Harry Hookman, who is well remembered among the people here, after spending a number of years in Chicago, is visiting his uncle Frank Hookman. Boyd Harter is now driving the milk wagon for the Coburn Creamery. He takes the place of Lloyd Miller who expects to engage in other work. The entertainment on Saturday night by the Penn Hall band was quite successful in its performance but as the weather was very bad it didn't pay financially although they had a fair crowd considering the rain.

Smilton.

Wm. Haffley was the guest of his daughter Mrs. G. B. Winters. The rainy weather is welcome to the many fishermen of our vicinity. Moving time is at hand and there will be a great many changes made this year. Mrs. Luther Miller and Miss Verma are spending a short time in Millheim. Mrs. C. L. Gramley and daughter Alma, of Rebersburg, visited friends here last Thursday. Miss Maud Winters spent a few days with her brother E. C. Winters, of Millheim, who brought her home on Sunday. Mrs. Emma Shaffer, Ill., and her niece Miss Vera Morris were the pleasant guests of Mr. John Emerick's on Sunday. G. B. Winters has torn away his old board-walk and remodeled his fence. We hope he will replace the old walk by a new one as mud ruts are too common to be up-to-date. Master Harry Brungard had the misfortune to break two bones of his forearm by a fall during play at school last Friday noon. He is getting along nicely and has our best wishes. Mrs. Susan Gollatz, of Ind., accompanied by Mrs. Snyder Miller and Mrs. James Frank, spent last Thursday evening among friends in our town. It is thirteen years since her last visit here.

Lemont.

Jesse Kingers, is having a new roof put on his barn. Mrs. Beaver went to Lewisburg this week for a visit. Clifford Clope is home for a few days' visit and to help Ira Corman move. Mrs. Bush, of Bellefonte, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Theodore Boal. John Witmer and Mrs. Margaret Woodring were married on Wednesday. The birthday party in honor of Andrew J. Hassinger was attended by about fifty. Mrs. Jas. McKee, of Pittsburg, is visiting at the home of her mother Mrs. Moore. Miss Gertrude Homan spent Saturday in Lemont taking in the sights and examinations. William Mulberger has engaged to host for John I. Thompson. He began on Monday. Mrs. Leah Osman is enjoying a few weeks' visit at the home of her son Robert, at Brimbin. G. W. Loubarger's family and household goods started on Tuesday for their West Virginia home. Mrs. Henry Homan and her daughter Cora, of Oak Hall, spent Thursday in Bellefonte shopping. The Oak Hall primary, Dale and Lemont grammar schools closed this week. The former on Wednesday and the other two on Thursday of this week. The Ladies Missionary society of the Evangelical church will hold an entertainment in the church tomorrow evening and all are invited to come and have a pleasant time. The members of the Jackson family who have been suffering with typhoid fever are much better at this writing, but a little daughter of Elmer's has contracted the disease. Alvin Shuey has purchased Rev. D. E. Hepler's property in town for $2,000. From the number of persons who were desirous of obtaining the place Mr. Shuey has evidently obtained a prize. Rev. May Whitehead came Thursday last week, to continue the protracted meeting which is being held in the Houserville U. B. church. It is the wish of all that she may be the means of pointing many to the Good Shepherd.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Following is the list of marriage licenses granted by the orphan's court clerk, A. G. Archey, during the past week. G. M. Van De Wait, of Clearfield, and Edith Wood, of Phillipsburg. Chas. S. Books, Magazines Etc.

The April COSMOPOLITAN is a carefully balanced magazine. It appeals to the individual tastes of the many, and the many tastes of the individual. There are seventeen stories and articles—101 pictures. Chief place is given to a striking article on "The Americanization of the Canadian Northwest. A personal sketch of Bjornstjerne Bjornson, the prophet of Norway, is most entertainingly written. "To Love or To Live?" is a philosophical essay, by Lavina Hart, in the course of which she shows that to love means increase of physical beauty. Bernard MacFadden has an article entitled "Health Made and Preserved by Daily Exercise." Dr. Geo. F. Shears writes on "Medicine," as part of the series, "Making a Choice of a Profession." "Famous Cures and Humbugs of Europe," by the late Julian Ralph. "Romances of the World's Great Mimes" (Calumet and Hecla) by S. E. Moffett. There are also sketches—one on the great financier, Jacob H. Schiff, and the other on the sugar king, H. O. Havemeyer. Field Marshall Viscount Wolseley, K. P.; H. G. Wells, Henry Seton Merriman, Seumas MacManus, and several other well known writers contribute to this number of THE COSMOPOLITAN, which is particularly remarkable for the variety of its fiction.
