Smullton.

Master Harry Brungard is getting along fine.

The M. E. church of this place has received a new organ.

Miss Bess Dubbs was the guest of Mayme Wolf on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas. Smull has been very ill but at this writing is somewhat better.

John Styers is out again. We are all glad to see him so greatly improved.

Miss Annie Harry has a new sewing machine and is now ready for any work in that line.

Mrs. Yearick and Mrs. Clair Gramley spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Amos Fehl.

Miss Maggie Winters has gone to stay a while with her grandma, Mrs. Wm. Haffley, at Aaronsburg.

Miss Lottie Hackenberg and lady friend were the guests of the former's brother, W. J. Hackenberg.

Mrs. J. J. Steininger, of Hartleton, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Israel Haugh a few days.

Charles Geary has returned to assist Ammon Strayer, during the summer season, with his papering and painting.

Samuel Winters has left home for the summer during which he will work for Cornelius Musser at Centre Mills.

Mrs. Jacob Walizer has returned from an extended visit in western Pennsylvania and Ohio and she says she enjoyed it very much.

Miss Maud Winters is the happy possessor of an organ, which her parents bought for her from Mrs. J. Steininger. We hope she may make good use of it.

NOTICE:—The M. E. church, of this place, has in its possession a second hand organ which is for sale. The highest bidder the buyer. Come and see it for yourself.

Our merchant, W. J. Hackenberg, who, although he always takes with him his smiling countenance, has for the past week been wearing an extra smile, notwithstanding the severe attack of rheumatism from which he has been suffering of late. As an explanation we would just ask, how is that little daughter getting along.

Spring has brought with it the following changes for the coming year, viz: William Waite took possession of Elmer Miller's home and H. S. Smull bought the home vacated by Wm. Waite, and John Emerick bought the home of G. B. Waite. The house vacated by John Emerick has been rented by G. B. Waite. Samuel Faust will move into John Mallory's shop for a short time.

Pine Grove Mention.

J. B. Ard is confined to the house with an attack of grip.

F. C. Snyder, of Somerset, was here last week forming a combine coal company.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss has been visiting her son-in-law, Hon. J. Will Kepler, the past week.

J. J. Tressler, of Boalsburg, spent Monday at Rock Springs with his brother Ezra.

Jesse B. Piper, of Alexandria, spent several days among old and dear friends here, the beginning of the week.

Miss Sadie Fry returned from the Presbyterian hospital on Tuesday very much pleased with the treatment she was accorded.

Register Archey and Ambrose Sloteman drove up from the county capitol to enjoy the absolute quiet of the Sabbath at Mr. Archey's home here.

Our young friend John Bricker has laid aside the yard stick to accept a more lucrative position with the Grape Nut packing and canning firm.

On Monday the Reed brothers bought Mrs. Krape's farm just east of town. The dicker has been on for some time but was only concluded that day.

George Swab, who is holding down a fat job in Altoona, has obtained a month's leave of absence and will spend it visiting relatives in the Sucker state.

Miss Sue Dannley and her mother, who have been spending the winter with Mrs. McCormick at Hublersburg, are back in their cosy home on Main street.

The funeral of Raymond Bathurst, the brakeman who was killed in the Altoona yard on Tuesday evening, took place in the Greysville cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

L. W. Walker, who has been skirmishing around in the south and west, is at home trying to recuperate his shattered health. He is fully satisfied that Pennsylvania is quite good enough for him to spend the balance of his days in.

Sheriff Taylor, who passed through town last week tarried just long enough to greet a few of his many friends. We enjoy his social visits very much but, like the rest of humanity, hate to see him come in his official capacity.

CHANGED THEIR LOCATION.—The following are a few of the many flittings that took place here on the 1st. L. K. Dale moved to his uncle Will Dale's farm near Pleasant Gap. Joseph Matees, of Stone Valley, moved to the Louder farm in the Glades; George Irvin will succeed his father on the old Pennsylvania Furnace farm. J. C. Struble has taken possession of the William Witmer farm, better known as the H. M. Meek farm. A. H. Hartswick moved to his mother's farm; Frank Fishburn has moved onto Dr. J. Y. Dale's farm near State College; Wm. Glenn will till the broad and fertile acres of Mayor Ross' farm and J. G. Tyson flitted onto one of the Thompson farms back of State College. Henry Kyle went onto the old Judge McWilliams farm; A. A. Walker took J. G. Fortney's place on Mrs. Pyscher's farm and Mr. Fortney is now living a retired life on Main street here. G. W. Keichline is now in possession of his down town property and he and Mr. Fortney are the class of citizens that are a benefit to any community. Frank Galloway, of Petersburg, moved to the Eckley mansion on Main street and will assist Mr. Tressler in making good flour. S. W. Wasson has moved onto Dr. Christ's farm. Geo. Potter is now in possession of Charley Snyder's farm, which is better known as the old David Krebs farm. Henry Bloom moved to Mrs. Esther Rider's and Wm. Beck is farming the John Patton farm at Centre Line. J. K. From has retired from farming and purchased a home at State College. Harry Koch moved onto Henry Campbell's back farm and John Johnson is in possession of Hezekiah Ewing's old home. Ralph Stover and his bride will occupy the old Archy home just east of town. Samuel Grove is occupying part of G. W. Weaver's home and H. M. Krebs moved into J. S. Reed's house. W. B. Ward is snugly fixed in the new Ward house and C. B. Hess has gone to Baileyville to succeed J. H. Musser in the mercantile business. County commissioner Bailey has stopped farming and is now holding forth in the Anna Musser house on Main street. Ross Grove moved into Sue Campbell Adair's home in the Glades. J. A. Musser is going to Moss creek to accept a good paying position and Frank Graham has moved across the mountain to try his hand in raising big crops and blooded stock. Joseph Johnson has quit the mines and is back home to turn his attention to farming. Robert Floray moved onto the Van Tries farm as a day laborer. John Dribblis is now at the helm of G. W. Keichline's home. Frank Black has gone to Sinking Valley and Ira Corman moved onto his farm. Jesse McCool will farm J. F. Rider's farm at Marengo and W. M. Keller will store his goods and go to Pittsburg to work at carpentering. Otis Corl is farming the old Peter Louch farm and David Louck is now occupying his new residence at State College. Jacob Nideigh moved to Tadpole and Oliver Bloom is to be A. M. Brown's right hand man on his farm. William Gardner will farm his mother's farm at the Glades and James Kimport will retire from active work to be succeeded by his nephew Arthur Kimport. Jacob McClellan will be J. M. Kepler's right hand bower and head farmer and Ed Kocher is going to work in the Altoona shops. W. C. Frank will succeed him at Tadpole and Luther Sunday now occupys the old Robert Meek farm at Fairbrook. Henry Bloom, senior, will retire from active work after a life of hard toil. H. M. Grenoble recently purchased the Bloom farm. Charley From moved to Axe Mann where he will combine farming and dairying. James McCool, tired of town life, went onto J. F. Ellenberger's farm at Marengo; J. W. Miller moved to Mrs. Knoche's farm; George Lutz to the farm owned by Harvey Bowersox as Mr. Bowersox is not going to farm any more. Tussey Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. moved from Academy hall to D. H. Weaver's hall over his store room. The boys are very happy and much pleased with their new quarters.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell, of Willowbank street, Bellefonte, wish to express their feelings of deepest gratitude to those who were so kind and helpful to them during the sad ordeal they underwent by the drowning of their little son Harry.

NEW INSURANCE AGENCY.

To the Public:—

After April 1st, 1903, I will have my office on 2nd floor of the Bush Arcade building, Bellefonte, Pa., where I will be prepared to do a General Insurance Business. I will continue the business of Mr. John C. Miller and Mr. Boyd A. Musser.

The agency represents a good line of conservative and well managed old line Fire Insurance Companies, The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, The Union Casualty and Surety Company and The New York Life Insurance Company, (the oldest and largest International Life Insurance Company in the world, supervised by 82 Governments.) I would be pleased to have a social or business call from my friends and kindly solicit a share of the patronage of your business.

Very respectfully,

S. E. GOSS.
