Once a fellow's got the primary business virtues cemented into his character, he's safe to build on. But when a clerk crawls into the office in the morning like a sick setter pup, and leaps from his stool at night with the spring of a tiger, I'm a little afraid that if I sent him to take charge of a branch house he wouldn't always he around when engineers were ways be around when customers were. He's the sort of a chap who could hold back the sun an hour every morning and have it gain two every afternoon if the Lord would give him the same discretion-ary powers that He gave Joshua. And I have noticed that he's the fellow who invariably takes a timekeeper as an insult. He's pretty numerous in business offices; in fact, if the glance of the human eye could affect a clockface in the same way that a man's country cousins affect their city welcome, I should have to buy a new timepiece for the office every morning .-

— Governor Pennypacker's signature, placed on the Zern anti-cigarette bill Mon-day of last week, makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $100 to $300, for any person to sell cigarettes to minors. Cigarette paper also falls under the ban. The text of the new law is short and to the point. It reads; "If any person or persons shall sell cigarettes or cigarette paper to any person or persons under the age of 21 years he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $300 or less than $100."

Origin of an Old Saying.

The saying that it takes "nine tailors to make a man" has nothing to do with knights of the needle. It originated in the practice of tolling a bell thrice three times for the death of a man. Hence nine tellers made it a man. Only six were tolled for ROBBED THE GRAVE. -- A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, gnaranteed at Green's drug store.

Come to most people and cause many troubles,—pimples, boils and other eruptions, besides loss of appetite, that tired feeling, fits of biliousness, indigestion and headache.

The sooner one gets rid of them the better, and the way to get rid of them and to build up the system that has suffered from them is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills, which form in combination the Spring Medicine par excellence, of unequalled strength in purifying the blood, as shown by unequalled, radical and permanent cures of
