--- An advertisement appearing in this issue of the WATCHMAN should attract attention of those who are looking for quick returns in investments or for a location of a home where work will always be plenty and pay sure. There is no need of running clear off to the Klondyke for gold stock when something a good deal more certain can be had right at your own door. It might be worth your while to carefully look over the advertisement of Staver and Savage in this issue, for lots of people are making money at Oak Grove and you might as well have some of it as anybody lumber in this county for several years between Hublersburg and Jacksonville. The tract contains about 1500 acres and has about thirty thousand telephone polls, and stave timber in large quantities. It is reported that F. W. Crider, of this place, cleared $20,000 on the turn around of this property and that another dealer had made $35,000 on it some days before.

DONATION DAY FOR THE HOSPITAL .-Some time in the next two weeks the Bellefonte hospital is to be moved from its present location on Spring street into the Mc-Kee property on Willowbank street. The hospital was established last September in Dr. Haves' building and almost immediately the managers realized that if it was to be a benefit to the people of the community or a permanent institution in the town a larger building was absolutely necessary. Many properties were inspected and disbussed, but the McKee homestead on Willowbank street was by far the most desirable and suitable one in the market. Arrangements were made for the purchase of it and just as soon as the deal was closed contracts were made for the repairing. No improvements were undertaken at all except those absolutely necessary on account of the scarcity of means, but the house is ginning Thursday with "The Dangers of now in first class shape. The walls have New York" as the bill. On Friday night all been scraped and recoated; the plumbthey will present "Sheridan Keen, Deling was made as sanitary as possible; every particle of wood work inside the house was cleaned and repainted; a new heating plant was installed and the cellar was dug out and thoroughly white-washed.

The location and surroundings are ideal but there is yet a great deal of work to be done before the grounds and exterior of the building will present the well kept appearance so essential to a public institu-

By May the 1st the nurses expect to have the patients all comfortably established in the new building and Saturday, May 2nd, has been decided upon as general donation day for the institution. Groceries and eatables of all kinds will be most acceptable as well as furniture for living and bed rooms, but the following is a list of articles very necessary just at present : Ward pillows, 32x18 inches. Nurses' " 22x32

Small round pillows, for surgical cases nade of hair, cotton or cut straw. Spreads for single beds and 7-4 sheets. Sash curtains for 24 windows. Canned and dried fruits.

Jelly and grape juice. Flour, vegetables, lard and meat. Knives, forks, spoons and dishes. Table linen and kitchen utensils. Rugs for dining and nurses' rooms. Screens for the ward beds. Chairs for the house and porches.

Brooms, scrub brushes and soap. A washing machine, tubs and wringer.

Would You?-If you got up at 3 o'clock on a cold, rainy morning, ate a cold lunch, drove ten miles through the wet to a trout stream, tumbled over logs and stones in that stream until your feet were sore, your hands and face torn by brambles and your ing, April 22nd, at 7 o'clock. Miss Cham- fingers too numb to bait your hook again, then, as a crowning torment, fell into the water backwards and lost your hat so that the chilly drops of rain, that were falling all the while, landed on your hair and then dripped, dripped, dripped down the back of your neck and you tried to build a fire in a cabin without a chimney with wet vood and wet paper and wet matches and when you did get it started if the smoke got so thick that you had to lie with your head out the door in order to get enough breath to keep you alive while you were trying to keep from freezing to deathall for five little trout, would you ever go fishing again?

> Of course you would; if you have ever fished at all.

AHEAD, AS USUAL :- A walk long Bishop street a few days ago revealed Gotleib Hagg's garden blooming in such a way as to make the writer feel that the spring was well advanced, instead of being merely in its infancy.

There were onions and lettuce and tomatoes and cabbages looking so thrifty that we fear the other early gardeners of the community will be discouraged, with Gotleib so far in advance of them. He has actually had lettuce of his own growing already and onions-well he had them while the snow was on the ground yet.

We don't know what it is but his plants eem to be hardier than most other peoples and that is probably the secret of his beautiful garden. But Gotleib is not selfish with it and will sell you all the plants you want of the very same kind he has in his

A NEW IDEA.—Usually when a person has a birthday he or she expects friends to give them some substantial reminder of the event, but our old friend and patron Abel Campbell up at Austin, in Potter Co., has just reversed the order and on the 11th sent us his annual remittance because it school was the sixtieth anniversary of his birth. He has been reading the WATCHMAN for the last thirty-five or forty years and says he expects to continue reading it 'till he dies. Now if we had the power of granting perpetual life Abel would be one of the fellows we would let live.

JOLLY JAKE HERMAN HAS A NARROW ESCAPE.-Jacob S. Herman, once candidate for sheriff and now, a huxster at Lemont, had a narrow escape from drowning on Wednesday night. He was on his way home with his wagon when he missed | accepted a position with Chas. Lavan, formerly of -The McNitt Bros. & Co., of Milroy, the bridge and drove into Spring creek. who have been operating extensively in The accident occurred along the pike near Mrs. Lena Wasson's. The creek being unpast, have just secured most of the timber usually high Jake was in a desperate on what is known as "Sand Ridge" lying plight. A crowd soon gathered and rescued him and the team, but he was only kept above water by the use of a rope that was thrown to him while his team was being in the Mountain city.
