

Pine Grove Mention.

Joe Ard Goss returned to his counting desk at Braddock Monday. Mrs. Jacob Houser, of Houserville, is suffering with rheumatism. Mrs. Sarah A. Young, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with her aged mother. Walter Woods is home from the University, medical department, for his Easter vacation. Wm. Grove, of Altoona, fireman on Pittsburg division, is home here for a few days rest. C. H. Martz, an employee over at Burnham is home spending a few days with his family here. John W. Fry with his sister, Bella, are sight-seeing in the city of Brotherly Love this week. Insurance man Samuel Earhart Goss, of Bellefonte, spent part of last week hustling up business here. Mrs. John F. Garner, whose life was despaired of for several days last week, is slowly improving under Dr. Glenn's treatment. Jacob Reed went to Philadelphia yesterday morning to undergo an operation for cataract. He was accompanied by James Hoover. Among the treasures of Charles M. Dale is his grandfather's high silk hat in a good state of preservation. It is one hundred years old at least. Ed. Bowersox, who is one of the clerical force of the Altoona shops, and his bright little daughter Alice, spent Sunday with Fairbrook friends. Charley Strouse, one of Buffalo Run's extensive farmers, and his good wife were visitors at D. H. Krebs' at Rock Spring the first day of the week. Mrs. Will Gibson, of Pittsburg, with her interesting little daughter Elizabeth, are welcome visitors at aunt A. P. Mitchell's home on Main street. W. B. Allen, who oft times combines farming with his business at Boalsburg, and his mother visited friends here and at Pennsylvania Furnace last week. George W. Keichline is building an addition to his house and making other such improvements that when completed it will be one of the most comfortable houses in the town. George Irvin, of Pennsylvania Furnace, spent last Saturday in town and had this to say of our thriving little burg that it was the busiest and best lighted town in the State. Rosa and Estella McCormick, of Hublersburg, and their little baby brother are having a jolly good time at grandmother Dannelly's on Main street, while house cleaning is going on at home. After a week's stay at her brother's A. W. Oliver's, at Grayville, Mrs. Van Tries returned to her home in Bellefonte on Saturday. She reported little Stanley as much better but Agnes is about the same as she has been for two weeks. On Monday the Pine Grove Academy opened for the spring term. H. W. Morris is at the helm and those wishing to fit themselves for teachers as well as intermediate work would do well to avail themselves of this opportunity. A committee appointed by Presbytery and the elders of the Pine Grove, Lemont and Boalsburg churches will hold a session in the Lemont Presbyterian church this Friday afternoon to consider plans for supplying the vacant charges with pastors. The continued rain has retarded the farmers with their spring work. Only a few have gotten their oats in while plenty of others have not a furrow turned. The prospects for a big hay and grain harvest were never better at this season of the year. Farmer D. L. Miller and his wife are home from an enjoyable visit with their son James A. B. Miller, at Bellefonte. Mr. Miller had some business to transact at the county capitol and Mrs. Miller employed her time with spring shopping and visiting her grand children. Farmer George Herkheimer left his team stand for a moment while he examined his mail box when the horse became frightened and ran away. It plunged over a high embankment in front of Howard Grove's and the wagon which was loaded with potatoes and pigs escaped uninjured and the horse got away with only a few scratches. Dr. J. B. Krebs, of Northumberland, is enjoying the first days of the trout season along our streams while his good wife and little daughter visit relatives at Centre Line and Warriors-Mark. The doctor understands the habits and ways of the funny tribe but his appetite is so voracious that he has to fish long and hard to satisfy it. George Houser, son of David Houser, had a narrow escape last Friday. His riding a young horse about his father's farm when it became unmanageable and threw itself on the ground, completely rolling over the rider. The lad had his shoulder badly sprained and the ligament of his left ankle torn, but it was marvelous that he escaped as he did. Albert Corl and Miss Elizabeth Witmer were married at the bride's home at White Hall on Wednesday evening by the Rev. Black. The wedding was strictly a family affair and quite a supper was served afterward. The bride is the eldest daughter of John B. Witmer and is a very capable girl having been her father's housekeeper for several years. The groom is employed on the Bellefonte Central R. R. On last Sunday evening Rev. D. E. Hepler preached his farewell sermon in the Presbyterian church here after a pastorate of eight years. The church was well filled and irrespective of denominations everyone in the community is sorry to have him go. Rev. Aikens assisted at the services and he prayed fervently for his beloved co-worker who is a courageous exponent of the word an upright, exemplary man and a sincere, earnest christian. Rev. Hepler's sermon was based on Paul's words "Therefore brethren? I commend you," and was very much appreciated by his hearers. Mr. Hepler and his family have made many friends during their stay among us and he has been so assiduous and faithful to his duties that it will be a long time before his place can be filled. His new field of labor is at Fruit Hill charge, across the mountain, and to it he will carry with him only good wishes.

Smulton.

John Mallory made a flying trip to Bellefonte last week. Mrs. G. H. Small spent several days in the city among her many friends. Mrs. Kate Byrd and Miss Marion Emerick were to Millheim on Saturday. Ezra Breen left for Auburn, N. Y., where he intends to remain during the summer. Sydney Denty was very pleasantly entertained by his sister, Mrs. Lynch and son of Cambria Co. Fred Miller, formerly of this place, has been the guest of friends and relatives. Fred says he likes Kenova. G. H. Small after spending some time in visiting some of the western cities has returned, having had a very pleasant trip. H. H. Stover is now ready for any work in the line of weaving carpets and rugs; he occupies the shop owned by Jacob Walizer. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. Irael Haugh and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Small were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brungard on Sunday.

Hublersburg.

Cora Whitman spent Sunday with her friends at Hecla. Margaret Welch, of Lamar, was a guest of the Hoy sisters Sunday. Regina Hubler visited friends in Lock Haven Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. George Snyder, of Ohio, is visiting at the home of Wm. Laush. Irvin Bierly, of Beech Creek, visited his sister, Mrs. E. L. Markle, recently. Charles Miller has been confined to the house for a week with an attack of grip. E. L. Bergstresser has improved the appearance of his home by a new roof on the house. Margaret McCormick is again sufficiently recovered from a siege of sickness to be out of doors for a time each day. Among the visitors in town Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Womelsdorf and Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of Loganton. The spring term of school opened Monday with a total attendance of twenty-four under the instruction of Prof. Weaver.

Lemont.

Aana Fogleman is some better at this writing. Miss Mabel Thompson is visiting in Pittsburg this week. Dr. W. H. Fry was seen on our streets on Tuesday. J. N. and Wm. B. Bishel are baling hay this week at Oak Hall. Miss Nannie Herman is preparing herself to become a dressmaker. David Jackson was seen on our streets this week and is improving in health. William Collins returned to Pittsburg to work after having a few weeks rest. Miss Kinkaid had a pleasant week at the hospitable home of Dr. J. Y. Dale. Geo. R. Roan has been housed in with the grip this week, but is on the mend. This week has been cold, with frost every night and several nights cold enough to freeze. Mrs. John Etters is spending a few days visiting relatives in the eastern part of the State. Tuesday morning Frank Boal was taken to a Philadelphia hospital for treatment again. Mrs. L. F. Roan and family, of Kippie, Blair county, are visiting at the home of G. R. Roan. Sunday evening Rev. D. E. Hepler will preach his last sermon for the Presbyterians of this place. Daniel Grove loaded a car of wheat Monday and Tuesday of this week for which he paid 75 cents per bushel. Linn Bottorf, of Curwensville, and Mrs. John S. Waite, of Lock Haven, Sundayed at the home of Jacob Bottorf. Supervisor Nathan Grove is making good use of his time working on the roads repairing damage done during the winter. Mrs. John R. Williams, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is some better at this writing but she still suffers quite a good deal. R. F. Frey's horse, that was just recovering from lung fever, had the misfortune to get into a wire fence and get a severe cut on one of its hind legs. Mrs. Flinn, after spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Frank McFarlane, and visiting her many friends in these parts, returned to her home on Saturday. Monday about mid-night it was discovered that Geo. B. Thompson's saw mill was on fire but as luck would have it the fire was put out and all property saved. Orin Grove finished his school Friday of last week, the last one for College township, and on Monday morning he returned to the United Evangelical school at Meyerstown, where he intends spending the summer. Saturday evening the following officers of Lemont lodge No. 717, I. O. O. F. were duly installed by D. D. G. M., D. W. Glossner; P. G., G. W. R. Williams; N. G., W. H. Hontz; V. G., L. F. Shoes.

THE NEW SPRING FOOTWEAR. The collection of Women's and Children's Shoes the Oxfords for spring and summer wear, which you are invited to come to see, is the best and broadest we have ever had to show. The splendid assortment is, however, not the most important attraction of the gathering. The chief interest centers in the fact that in all the various lines a noticeable improvement has been made in the quality, style and general excellence of the shoes so that we are able to offer you this season even more true worth for your money than you have ever had from us before. Those who are familiar with the fine values for which our stores are noted will realize what this statement means. This season's styles are lighter and daintier than those of the past year. The soles are lighter and have closer edges. The heels are higher. The artistic possibilities of shoe making are expressed in every line. Prettier shoes and Oxfords were never seen. The principal leathers are Ideal Kid, Patent Coltskin, Patent Calf, Vici Kid and Velour Calf. YEAGER & DAVIS, Shoe Money Savers Bellefonte and Phillipsburg, Pa. 47-47
